State of California

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, CA 95814

January 10, 1990

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California:

In compliance with Article IV, Section 12 of the California Constitution, I am pleased to submit to you the 1990-91 Governor's Budget.

This budget reflects the common sense philosophy that has proved so successful for the economic health of our state. As we enter a new decade, we will use the fiscal experience of the past seven years to guide us. Our budget will be balanced, contain a prudent reserve and no tax increases.

This is the last budget I will submit as Governor. It continues my commitment to K-12 and higher education and includes additional funds to help fight our war against drugs. It also provides necessary funds for the programs which serve the sick, elderly and homeless.

In addition, I am proposing several new initiatives to increase the availability of affordable housing and health insurance, ensure earthquake preparedness and sustain economic development and job creation.

One major improvement that can be made by the voters to this budget is the addition of our landmark transportation plan that will relieve traffic congestion, improve our highways and expand mass transit systems. In June, the voters of our state will be asked to approve the funding mechanism for this $18.5 billion plan.

While I have increased funding for many important state programs, I have also pointed out that spending on certain other programs has expanded beyond our anticipated income. It is projected that automatic spending increases built into many programs would cause total state spending to significantly outpace growth in revenues.

In response to this situation, this budget contains a number of reasonable legislative changes in some programs so that state government can continue to operate within its resources. Just as cooperation between the Legislature and our Administration has resulted in important accomplishments during the past year, I hope that members of the Senate and Assembly will join with me to implement these needed fiscal reforms.

Over the past seven years, the priorities we have pursued have improved the quality of life for all Californians and ensured the future prosperity of our state. I look forward to working with the members of the Legislature in guaranteeing that California remains the leadership state of the 1990's.

Most cordially,

George Deukmejian
George Deukmejian

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

January 10, 1990

The Honorable George Deukmejian
Governor, State of California
State Capitol
Sacramento, California 95814

Dear Governor Deukmejian:

It is my pleasure to submit to you the Governor's Budget for 1990-91--the final budget of your Administration.

Seven years ago, the State of California was in fiscal disarray, we had 11 percent unemployment, no overseas trade effort and no tourism promotion. We had no integrated strategy to clean up toxic waste or reduce non-hazardous waste. The workers' compensation program was in need of overhaul as was the income tax system.

Since that time, this Administration has made important gains in priority areas such as education, public safety, drug education programs, solid waste and job development. In addition, overall funding for State health and welfare programs has increased 97 percent from 1982-83. All of this has been accomplished without increasing the tax burden on Californians which now ranks slightly below the national average. Given the balance between government spending and funding essential programs, you have created a California whose economy will continue to outpace the nation to the benefit of all Californians.

The proposed 1990-91 Budget is very different from past budgets, however, because it contains two distinct parts--one for appropriations guaranteed by Proposition 98 and one for all other appropriations. The consequences of that division and its impact are felt throughout the budget, particularly in budget areas accustomed to rapid growth.

This budget was not an easy budget to construct given the budgeting gridlock we had this year. So I want to thank the entire staff of the Department of Finance and their families for their time, expertise, professionalism, and most of all their dedication to the prudent administration of California's fiscal affairs. My job would be much more difficult without the professional commitment of this outstanding group of people.

Governor, I also want to publicly thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as your Director of Finance for this Administration. Your leadership has been exemplary and I believe California's citizens are confident that California is a better state today than it was when you assumed office. Good health to you and your family in the future.

We look forward to providing assistance to you in implementing the fiscal policies incorporated in this budget.

Very truly yours,

0150 CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE LEGISLATORS' RETIREMENT FUND

Established in 1947, the Legislators' Retirement System provides retirement and death benefits for legislators, constitutional officers and legislative statutory officers. Chapter 937, Statutes of 1977, established the State's contribution rate at 18.81 percent of payroll. The system also is financed through member contributions of 4 percent for members enrolled prior to March 4, 1972, and 8 percent for members enrolled thereafter and through investment earnings. Administration of the system is provided by the Public Employees' Retirement System.

Retirement benefits paid are based upon age, years of service and compensation. For members of the Legislature and constitutional officers, benefits are modified according to the actual calendar years that the service was performed. Survivors, death and disability benefits also are provided under specific conditions.

0155 AUDITOR GENERAL

The objective of the Auditor General's Office is to provide independent audits of the programs and fiscal operations of State government. By performing financial, performance, and investigative audits, and by performing other special studies, the Auditor General provides the Legislature, Governor, and citizens of the State with objective information about the State's financial condition and the performance of the State's many agencies and programs. The Auditor General is in the legislative branch to meet the audit independence requirements of the Federal government and of professional auditing standards.

Chapter 1594, Statutes of 1984, as amended by Chapter 833, Statutes of 1985, established the Auditor General Fund and provided that the costs of audits made by the Auditor General would be supported from the fund. The Auditor General had previously been supported from the Contingent Funds of the Assembly and Senate.

0160 LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL BUREAU

The Legislative Counsel Bureau provides legal assistance to the two houses of the Legislature and their Members and Committees in resolving a large volume of complex legal problems arising in connection with the legislative process, all of which must be resolved within a critical time span. The legal services furnished include rendering opinions, drafting bills, counseling, attendance as Counsel at meetings of legislative committees, and representing the Legislature in litigation. The attorney-client relationship is maintained, and all work is confidential.

In addition, the Bureau prepares and provides necessary indices and appropriate tables necessary to identify legislative measures, and compiles and indexes statutes and codes.

The Bureau operates a data center which is used for the legislative information system, the processing of legislative measures, and payroll, personnel, and accounting systems for both houses of the Legislature.

0250 JUDICIAL<sup>1</sup>

Article VI of the Constitution creates the Supreme Court of California and the Courts of Appeal to exercise the judicial power of the state at the appellate level, creates the Judicial Council of California to administer the state's judicial system, and creates the Commission on Judicial Performance to consider complaints against judges.

For the support of the state judiciary, a budget of $143 million is proposed for 1990-91. This amount represents an increase of $17.4 million (or, 10.8%) over base levels of funding. The requested budget enhancements fall into four broad categories: legislation, caseload, one-time allocations, and workload and administrative.

To implement enacted legislation, $2 million and twenty-five personnel-years are requested. This component comprises 14% of the total augmentation proposed.

Chapter 723, Statutes of 1988, requires the Judicial Council to establish guidelines to encourage the development of local Court-appointed Special Advocate (CASA) programs to assist abused and neglected children who are the subject of judicial proceedings. Senate Bill 218, Chapter 1220, Statutes of 1989, requires the Attorney General and the Judicial Council to evaluate and implement the recommendations of the California Child Victim Witness Judicial Advisory Committee through several pilot projects of three-year duration. To implement these provisions, $580,000 and two personnel-years are requested.

Senate Bill 1350, Chapter 1389, Statutes of 1989 provides for the centralized payment of assigned judges; to process the increased level of transactions resulting from centralized payment, $167,000 and four personnel-years are requested.

Also being implemented is legislation (Chapter 1131, Statutes of 1989, AB 796) which directs the Judicial Council to develop a scientifically valid plan to preserve a sample of superior court records for historical and other research interests; $201,000 and two personnel-years are requested.

Related to the electronic recording of court proceedings, Assembly Bill 1854 (Chapter 678, Statutes of 1989) charges the council with the establishment of a demonstration project to assess the cost and benefits of audio and video recording.

To address growing caseload in the state's court system, $7.1 million and sixteen personnel-years are requested. This amount represents 40.8% of the total augmentation proposed for 1990-91.

Of the amount attributable to caseload, $6.1 million and three and one-half personnel-years are for the Courts of Appeal court appointed counsel program. The share of caseload borne by the judiciary's program continues to increase. 7,901 appointments are projected for 1990-91; this represents an increase of 18.7% over current funding. Included is a proposal for a mid-year rate increase for the Courts of Appeal contract administrators; the rate increase accounts for $779,000 of the total amount requested. Three and one-half accounting and data entry positions are proposed for permanent status. Other caseload-driven increases are: (1) Court of Appeal Clerks' Office staffing, $350,000 and eight and one-half personnel-years; (2) legal staffing in the Courts of Appeal, $344,000 and four personnel-years; and (3) funding to cover the cost of additional coordinated civil proceedings ($375,000).

A one-time allocation of $2.9 million is requested. This amount represents 16.6% of the total augmentation proposed for 1990-91.

Requested is funding to cover the cost of: (1) a mainframe computer ($1 million) to increase capacity and serve as a central link for the judiciary's computer network; (2) larger mini-computers for the Second and Fourth Districts ($927,000); (3) an optical imaging system ($239,000); and (4) miscellaneous equipment, software, and hardware upgrades for existing systems ($246,000). Also requested is one (1.0) Assistant System Administrator position for the AOC. In addition, funding is requested ($453,000) to purchase modular furniture for the Clerk's Office and shelving for the law library in the new state office building in Los Angeles.

Requests which fall under the workload and administrative category are those which: (1) improve the efficiency of court operations; (2) provide adequate funding for facilities for court and related judicial agencies; and (3) adjust staffing levels for support functions related to the administration of the state court system. Requests in this category total $5.2 million and 50.5 personnel-years; this amount represents 29.9% of the total augmentation proposed for 1990-91.

In 1988, the Supreme Court requested funding for 14 permanent attorney positions (and support staff) for the court's new civil central staff. Eight positions were authorized on a limited-term basis and the judiciary was directed to report to the Legislature on their effectiveness. This report confirms the utility of the eight staff positions and resubmits the court's request for an additional seven attorney positions; proposed is $1,033,000 and fifteen personnel-years. Also requested is permanent status for seven attorney positions allocated to the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal for the Issue Tracking System. These positions are currently authorized on a limited-term basis. The Legislature in authorizing the positions stipulated that a report be issued detailing their effectiveness; this report supports a continuance of the system. Other appellate court increases include receptionists for Second, Fourth and Fifth Districts, $97,000 and three personnel-years; and $36,000 for one library assistant for the Fourth District.

For facility operations, $2.3 million is requested to fund the judiciary's projected facility costs for the upcoming fiscal year. Roughly ninety percent of this increase is needed to address changes in the judiciary's facility requirements for the Supreme Court, First District and Judicial Council in San Francisco and the Second District in Los Angeles.

Staff increases are requested for the AOC to address general workload increases and to keep pace with continuing growth in program activities in the Judicial Branch. These increases affect the following administrative support areas: one personnel-year for the budget office; three personnel-years for the personnel office; one personnel-year for the conference coordination unit; one personnel-year for the accounting office; four personnel-years for the student assistant program; three personnel-years for the audit unit; and two personnel-years for the research and statistics unit. The cost of these workload-driven increases totals $733,000. To support the trial courts' automation efforts, $285,000 and five personnel-years are requested.

The Center for Judicial Education and Research requests $155,000 and 4.5 personnel-years to support the following programs: (1) Managing Trials Seminars; (2) Second Criminal Law and Procedure Institute; (3) conversion of temporary office assistance to permanent.

0250 JUDICIAL—Continued

The Judicial Council Advisory Committee on Gender Bias has recommended that a racial and ethnic bias committee be appointed. The general purpose of the Advisory Committee on Racial and Ethnic Bias will be to examine racial and ethnic bias in the California courts and to make recommendations to the council. Also proposed is funding ($90,000) for a study on Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) procedures (Arbitration, Private Judging, Case Settlement) and their application to California's courts.

<sup>1</sup> This budget reflects proposals submitted by the Judicial Branch and does not necessarily reflect the Governor's position on these issues.

0390 CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE JUDGES' RETIREMENT FUND

The Judges' Retirement Fund receives contributions from the State in the amount of eight percent of the salaries for the established judgeships of the justices of the Supreme Court, District Courts of Appeal and the Judges of the Superior and Municipal Courts. In addition, filing fees of $2 and $3 from specific civil cases, investment income and Budget Act appropriations are used to maintain the solvency of the retirement fund and to pay disbursements. Eight percent also is deducted from the salaries of active justices and judges and deposited in the fund.

Retirement benefits are based on age, years of service, compensation at time of retirement, and eligibility as determined by specific sections of the Judges' Retirement Law. Survivor, death, and disability benefits also are provided under specific conditions.

The budget provides contributions for the following numbers of judges by type of court:

0420 SALARIES OF SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES

Program Objectives and Description

Article VI of the State Constitution vests the judicial power of the State in the Supreme Court, the courts of appeal, the superior courts, the municipal courts and the justice courts. The superior courts have original jurisdiction over all civil matters where the amount of controversy exceeds $25,000 and over all criminal matters, both misdemeanor and felony, except those matters given by statute to other trial courts. The Constitution provides that there shall be a superior court of one or more judges in each county, with the exact number of judges established by the Legislature. This budget provides for payment of the State's share of the salaries, health, dental and vision benefits of the 789 authorized superior court judgeships. Government Code Section 68206 provides that the salary of a superior court judge, which increased from $89,851 to $94,344 on January 1, 1990, shall be paid in part by the county and in part by the State. The amount of the county's share is based on its population as illustrated in the table below.

<sup>1</sup> Chapter 944/88 (AB 1197) added Item 0420-102-001 to the Budget Act of 1988 to provide a block grant supplement for salaries of municipal court judges in counties which participate in the Trial Court Funding Program. Commencing with the 1989-90 fiscal year, funding for these judges (and justice court judges) is included in Item 0450-101-001.

0440 STATE BLOCK GRANTS FOR SUPERIOR COURT JUDGESHIPS

Program Objective Statement

It had been State policy to assist local government in financing superior court judgeships by providing an annual block grant for each new judgeship established since January 1, 1973. Traditionally, the amount of the annual block grant was $60,000 and was provided in addition to State contributions toward salaries, retirement, and health, dental, and vision benefits of superior court judges.

Chapter 945, Statutes of 1988, and associated funding contained in Chapter 944, Statutes of 1988, implemented the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act on January 1, 1989. Chapter 945 provided for a block grant for each trial court judicial position in the Superior, Municipal and Justice Courts upon the voluntary participation of a county in that funding program in 1988-89. Among the provisions of the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act is the requirement that any grant received under that Act is to be in lieu of the grants traditionally available under this budget item.

All counties will continue to participate in the program established by the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act, so no appropriation is proposed for Organization Code 0440 in 1990-91.

0450 STATE BLOCK GRANTS FOR TRIAL COURT FUNDING

On September 16, 1988 the Governor signed SB 612 into law. That measure, which became Chapter 945, Statutes of 1988, enacted the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act and replaced the Trial Court Funding Act of 1985 (AB 19, Chapter 1607, Statutes of 1985) as amended by SB 709 (Chapter 1211, Statutes of 1987). A companion measure, AB 1197, was enacted as Chapter 944, Statutes of 1988, appropriating funds set aside from the 1988 Budget Act to make the Trial Court Funding Program operative in the second half of the 1988-89 fiscal year.

The Trial Court Funding Act of 1985, which never became operative, had provided for the payment of an annual block grant of between $455,000 and $480,000 to the participant county for specified superior, municipal or justice court judgeships and for each commissioner or referee position. That Act also required the State to assume responsibility for the payment of municipal court judges' salaries in the same manner as superior court judges are paid. In return, the participant county would have remitted to the State all fine, fee and forfeiture revenue, waived the traditional $60,000 block grant provided to counties for specified superior court judgeships (Budget Item 0440), and waived reimbursement for all court-related State mandates along with those mandate claims not already approved by the Board of Control, Commission on State Mandates or the courts (Budget Item 8885).

During legislative deliberations concerning both appropriation of the set-aside monies for 1988-89 and a wide range of amendments to Chapter 1211/87, it was determined that an Administration proposal to allocate the equivalent amount of General Fund money to counties, but without State capture of county court revenues, would result in a more efficient program administratively and one that would reward counties for court revenue collection.

Under this revised program, participating counties receive an annual block grant equivalent to $53,000 per fiscal quarter (and cost-of-living-adjusted) for each superior, municipal and justice court judgeship, commissioner and referee position. In addition, each participating county receives a supplement to the block grant in an amount equal to the annual salary of each municipal and (commencing July 1, 1989) each justice court judge in the county, less a specified county match per judge. The county retains all fine, fee and forfeiture revenue in consideration of the lower grant amount. Special provisions were included to provide additional assistance to counties which receive more than 10 judgeships pursuant to Chapter 1211/87 and for counties in which new judgeships are authorized by statutes effective on or after January 1, 1990. County mandate claim waiver requirements also were relaxed.

The basic trial court block grant will be $58,989 per fiscal quarter, or $235,956 per annum, for 1990-91. The 1990-91 grant adjustment percentage is equivalent to the State employee COLA percentage for the 1989-90 fiscal year.

The proposed budget is based upon the participation of all counties in this program. Counties have until November 15, 1990 to notify the State of intent to participate during 1991-92. The budget year amount also is based upon the assumption that all judgeships authorized pursuant to Chapter 1211/87 will receive full funding effective July 1, 1990. Further, the budget year proposal is based upon the number of judicial positions recently reported by the Judicial Council. Should county resolutions regarding participation in this program or resolutions for appointment of new judges authorized by Chapter 1211 not be forthcoming, or should the Judicial Council amend its report of judicial positions, the funding level for this program could be affected in both the current and budget years.

0460 NATIONAL CENTER FOR STATE COURTS

The National Center for State Courts was established in 1971 to improve the administration of justice; to promote judicial reform; to serve as a catalyst for setting standards for fair and expeditious judicial administration; and to find and disseminate answers to the problems of State judicial systems. The National Center consists of a headquarters office which is located in Williamsburg, Virginia and six regional offices, one of which is located in San Francisco.

Each member state receives basic services provided by the National Center including: access to copies of current publications of its research and study teams; short-term consultative services; responses to requests for information hard to get elsewhere; judicial salary reports; and various states' views on federal legislation and other national programs affecting the judicial system.

The budgeted amount represents full payment of the State's membership assessment.

0510 SECRETARY FOR STATE AND CONSUMER SERVICES

The State and Consumer Services Agency brings together a diverse array of State departments which include: the California Museum of Science and Industry, the California Afro-American Museum, the Department of Consumer Affairs, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, the Fair Employment and Housing Commission, the Office of the State Fire Marshal, the Franchise Tax Board, the Department of General Services, the State Personnel Board, the Public Employees' Retirement System, the State Teachers' Retirement System and the Department of Veterans Affairs. Consistent with statutory intent and the goals and policies of the Administration, the mission of the Office of the Secretary for the State and Consumer Services Agency is to assist, direct and motivate member state organizations in the delivery of essential services to other state organizations, professions and individuals in an efficient and effective manner while maintaining fiscal integrity. In order to accomplish this mission, the State and Consumer Services Agency has adopted the following four goals:

- To establish and maintain an effective management environment for decision-making and the implementation of change.
- To ensure that necessary resources are authorized, properly qualified, and efficiently utilized to meet the highest priorities of the people of California.
- To develop and administer legislation and a regulatory process that effectively serves the people of California.
- To enhance the effectiveness of all programs administered by organizations within the Agency.

The resources proposed for 1990-91 are sufficient to ensure that the Agency can effectively pursue these goals provided it does so in an efficient manner.

Governor's Office

0530 SECRETARY FOR HEALTH AND WELFARE

The Health and Welfare Agency is responsible for administering the State's health, welfare, rehabilitation and employment programs. The Secretary of Health and Welfare, a member of the Governor's Cabinet, advises the Governor on major policy and program matters, and oversees the operation of the Agency departments.

These departments provide services under the State's health, welfare, rehabilitation and employment programs; employ over 43 thousand positions; and manage total combined budgets of over $28 billion in State and federal funds. They are the Departments of Aging, Alcohol and Drug Programs, Developmental Services, Health Services, Mental Health, Rehabilitation, Social Services, the Emergency Medical Services Authority, the Employment Development Department, the Health and Welfare Agency Data Center and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

The Governor designated the Health and Welfare Agency to take the lead role in implementing Proposition 65 (Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986). The purposes of Proposition 65 are to protect drinking water supplies from contamination by prohibiting discharges of chemicals known to the State to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity in humans and to ensure that the public is clearly warned of exposures to human carcinogens and reproductive toxicants. The Agency's responsibilities include supporting the Scientific Advisory Panel in its work of reviewing candidate chemicals and adding chemicals to the list of human carcinogens and reproductive toxicants; managing and revising the State's strategy for appropriately implementing the Proposition; and reviewing and assigning industry requests for policy guidance and Safe Use Determinations to the appropriate departments for evaluation in a timely manner. The 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes to transfer these activities to the Department of Health Services (DHS) to centralize the workload and administration of the program in DHS.

The Health and Welfare Agency is the lead agency for formulating California's strategy for effectively implementing the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (IRCA), and for developing the State Application and Expenditure Plan for federal legalization assistance funding. IRCA implementation activities require the Agency to identify policy and procedural issues hampering effective implementation of immigration reform, to seek advice of affected constituency groups on how to resolve problem situations and to advocate with federal agencies, primarily the Immigration and Naturalization Service and the Department of Health and Human Services, for appropriate resolution of California's major concerns. IRCA implementation directly impacts several state and local programs for public health assistance, public assistance and education services to newly legalized persons.

0580 OFFICE OF CALIFORNIA-MEXICO AFFAIRS*Program Objectives Statement

Chapter 1197, Statutes of 1982, established the Office of California-Mexico Affairs in order to continue the operations of the Commission of the Californias and the California Office of the Southwest Border Regional Conference within one office. The office ensures that California participates in the four-state Southwest Border Regional Conference where the State is represented by the Governor or his designee. The Commission of the Californias consists of the chairperson and eighteen commissioners: seven public citizens appointed by the Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor, five Senators appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and five Assemblymembers appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. The Governor serves as chairperson with the Lieutenant Governor as vice-chairperson.

The basic functions of the Office of California-Mexico Affairs are:

- a) to develop and further favorable economic, educational and cultural relations with the State of Baja California, the State of Baja California Sur, other Mexican states bordering on the United States, and other states and territories of the Republic of Mexico;
- b) to cooperate with similar organizations situated within the United States or Mexico; and,
- c) to carry out the ongoing responsibilities of the Commission of the Californias and the Southwest Border Regional Conference, and to report to the Governor and the Legislature annually on plans and programs.

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

20 EXPORT FINANCE OFFICE—LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM*Program Objectives Statement

This program was established by Chapter 1693, Statutes of 1984, to promote small and medium size business exports by providing export finance insurance, co-insurance and loan guarantees, and by providing technical assistance and information on the financial components of an export transaction. The program is administered by a seven member Export Finance Board, under the general direction of the California State World Trade Commission. The program includes $6.3 million for loan guarantees.

BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

The 1990-91 budget proposes:

- An increase of $145,000 and 2.9 personnel years for workload increases in the loan guarantee program.
- An increase of 2.9 personnel years funded from existing support services for the loan guarantee program.
- A $1,000,000 transfer from the Unitary Fund to the California Export Finance Fund for export loan guarantees.

11.20 Office of Local Government Affairs

Program Element Statement

The director of the Office of Local Government Affairs serves as the Governor's chief advisor on local government issues. The office was established as part of an effort to implement a "new partnership" between State and local government in California. This partnership is marked by less intrusion by the State into local affairs, greater local fiscal independence from the State, mutual cooperation in efforts to improve local planning and development practices, and a coordinated liaison role between the Governor and local government in legislation and all other endeavors involving the State and cities and counties. The office will continue to carry out statutory responsibilities relating to general plan review and local planning assistance, maintain its liaison role, and assist local government in resolving its problems and concerns.

Program Element Statement

The Office of Permit Assistance carries out statutory responsibilities associated with providing permit assistance to applicants for major State development permits and operating the State Clearinghouse. Most permit assistance responsibilities are defined in the Permit Streamlining Act. State Clearinghouse responsibilities are established pursuant to State environmental review law and Presidential Executive Order 12372. The office also provides staff support for administration policy formulation with regard to outercontinental shelf energy development and coastal planning issues. In addition to regular permit assistance, the office implements special hazardous waste site permit assistance responsibilities associated with Chapter 1504, Statutes of 1986, as amended by Chapter 1389, Statutes of 1988, and compiles and distributes information from a new consolidated statewide toxic site data base mandated by Chapter 1048, Statutes of 1986.

Governor's Office
0690 OFFICE OF EMERGENCY SERVICES

The principal objective of the Office of Emergency Services (OES) is the coordination of emergency activities to save lives and reduce property losses during disasters and to expedite recovery from the effects of disasters.

On a day-to-day basis, OES provides leadership, assistance and support to state and local agencies in planning and preparing for the most effective use of federal, state, local and private sector resources in emergencies. This emergency planning is based upon a system of mutual aid in which a jurisdiction relies first on its own resources, then calls for assistance from its neighbors. OES' plans and programs are coordinated with those of the federal government, other states, and the state agencies and political subdivisions of California.

During an emergency, OES functions as the Governor's immediate staff to coordinate the State's responsibilities under the Emergency Services Act and applicable federal statutes, and it acts as the conduit for federal assistance through natural disaster grants and federal agency support.

15 MUTUAL AID RESPONSE*Program Objectives Statement

This program provides emergency mutual aid services, including the effective use of federal, state, and local resources by and for the benefit of jurisdictions whose resources and services are overextended in a disaster situation. Central to this effort is maintaining operational readiness at all levels of government.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Increase of $1,047,000 for replacement of emergency equipment and purchase of heavy rescue vehicles.
- Increase of 1.7 personnel years and $290,000 for urban search and rescue teams.
- Increase of $4,527,000 for purchase of additional emergency communications equipment.
- Decrease of $49,000 is reflected for an adjustment of administrative support.

15.10 Fire and Rescue*Program Element Statement

The Fire and Rescue Division manages the statewide Fire and Rescue Emergency Mutual Aid Program. Through the development and maintenance of plans, policies, and procedures the personnel and equipment resources of federal, state, and local government are mobilized for response to major fire and rescue emergencies. Additional program segments include administration of the Firescope project which is an integrated system of fire-related technologies, procedures and organizations; and development of the statewide Orthophoto Mapping Program to provide a uniform mapping system and products for emergency agencies statewide. The Fire Apparatus and Equipment Program includes fire engines, fire communications vehicles, portable radio communications equipment, portable aluminum water pipe and support equipment positioned in key areas of the state for use in the Mutual Aid System; and CALFIRMS (California Fire Information and Resource Management System)—which is an extension of Firescope—developed systems and technologies.

15.20 Law Enforcement

Program Element Statement

The Law Enforcement program provides on-the-scene staffing and equipment in support of local law enforcement in the event of human-caused or natural disasters, search and rescue operations, and/or civil disorders. OES coordinates the deployment of state manpower and resources in order to disseminate critical information to the Governor and other state, federal, and local officials. Other objectives include search and rescue training programs to better prepare local agencies for emergency response and to administer the State's Consular Corps program.

15.30 Development and Utilization of Emergency Communications Systems

Program Element Statement

OES Headquarters Warning Center is the primary point in the state for the Federal National Alerting and Warning System (NAWAS). It extends to 58 key points throughout the state. Included are the Fire Services Radio Network and the California Law Enforcement Radio System (CLERS), which serves as a backup for NAWAS and the Department of Justice California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). OES operates a data communications system connecting emergency operations centers of its six regional offices. Interstate emergency communications are also provided through the Federal Emergency Management Agency's national radio communications equipment.

35 PLANS AND PREPAREDNESS

Program Objectives Statement

This element's objective is to develop and implement emergency plans to ensure consistency in planning at all levels of government. Training is also included in this program and covers emergency management courses in preparedness, mitigation and technical training for radiological response and recovery.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, an increase of $184,000 in reimbursements is reflected for additional specialized training.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Increase of 22.8 personnel years and $2,347,000 for continuation and expansion of BAREPP and SCEPP earthquake projects.
- Increase of $168,000 for an adjustment of administrative support.
- Increase of $125,000 in the Hazardous Waste Control Account and decrease of $125,000 in reimbursements for Hazardous Materials Training.
- Increase of 3.8 personnel years and $636,000 for additional specialized training and exercises.
- Increase of 1.9 personnel years and $103,000 for workload growth (Dam Safety Program).
- Increase of $221,000 for increased rent and purchase of phone system for interim Southern California Operations Center.
- Increase of 4.7 personnel years and $414,000 for implementation of risk management prevention for chemical disasters.
- Increase of 0.9 personnel year and $209,000 for additional State Operations Center training and exercises.
- Increase of 0.9 personnel year and $53,000 for state agency recovery planning.
- Increase of 0.9 personnel year and $274,000 for urban search and rescue team training.
- Increase of $1,500,000 for seismic surveys of State-owned structures.

Program Element Statement

Plans and Preparedness is responsible for the development of emergency response plans and other emergency preparedness activities at the state and local level. The California Emergency Plan contains a basic section that establishes the emergency organization and peacetime plan. This plan assigns responsibilities during emergencies and integrates current laws and regulations related to disaster preparedness and response. The Emergency Plan is supported by other departmental emergency plans which OES assists in developing and maintaining. Other documents maintained by OES include the Operations Manual, Peacetime Operating Procedures, and Checklist and After Action Reports which are prepared following every disaster.

Program Element Statement

The Southern California Earthquake Preparedness Project and the Bay Area Regional Earthquake Preparedness Project, which were reauthorized by Chapter 1056/89 (AB 725), are joint efforts between the State of California and the Federal Emergency Management Agency. The objectives of this program are to promote comprehensive earthquake preparedness actions by local jurisdictions, volunteer agencies and businesses, to provide planning assistance and coordination in development of improved regional response for major earthquakes, as well as establishing a local incentive program.

The Earthquake Studies Project focuses on potential catastrophic earthquake effects on Southern San Andreas. The Earthquake Task Force was formed by the Governor in conjunction with this project.

The United States-Mexico Earthquake Preparedness Project covers binational development of improved response capabilities for major earthquakes affecting the border areas of California.

35.30 Training

Program Element Statement

The California Specialized Training Institute provides training for state agencies, cities and counties, special districts, industry and volunteer agencies, covering emergency management courses in preparedness, mitigation, response and recovery. Courses address the management of earthquakes, hazardous material incidents, major events, terrorist incidents, and technical skills programs related to public safety and exercises. The institute also manages federal training programs and contracts with other organizations to provide training in the emergency services area. Sponsoring agencies share costs through tuitions and fees or contract reimbursements.

35.40 Hazardous Materials and Radiological Planning

Program Element Statement

Hazardous materials planning includes development and maintenance of a state plan, coordination of state agency planning and response activities, development of a statewide notification and reporting system, and review and evaluation of local hazardous materials response plans.

Radiological and Nuclear Power Plant Planning (NPPP) prepares and responds to radiological emergencies throughout the state. This also includes development and review of state and local plans, delivery of technical training, and participation in drills and exercises. The Radiological program has established the only National Bureau of Standards-affiliated Regional Calibration Laboratory in California which will provide calibration for regulatory instruments. Additional responsibilities include the administration of nuclear power plant planning local assistance funds to local jurisdictions in conjunction with Chapter 722, Statutes of 1986, which expires January 1, 1993.

Program Element Statement

California is divided into six mutual aid regions. The regional jurisdictions' objective is to implement the California Emergency Services Act. The regions assist local government in the development of plans and procedures in order to minimize the effect of natural or human-caused disasters; to ensure that appropriate resources are provided to impacted jurisdictions in response to any disaster; and to assist state and local governments and individuals in recovery from emergency situations.

45 DISASTER ASSISTANCE

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of this program is to provide aid to local agencies for repair and restoration of public real property in stricken areas in time of disaster and to provide assurance that all public facilities will be restored in order to provide necessary services to the citizens of the affected areas.

The Natural Disaster Assistance Act was established by Chapter 290, Statutes of 1974. This law charges the Director of the Office of Emergency Services with the administration of the program. A local agency is eligible to participate in the program if it declares a local emergency which is found acceptable to the Director of OES.

Through the Federal Disaster Relief Act (PL 93-288), local government and other public entities are provided financial and other assistance to recover from the effects of floods, earthquakes, and other natural disasters. In a presidential declaration of a "major disaster" or "major emergency", assistance may be provided to the public sector for repair and restoration of public facilities, roads, buildings, utilities, flood control systems, etc. and/or the private sector by coordinating state agency response in providing assistance to individuals impacted by the disaster.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Decrease of $14,000 is reflected for an adjustment of administrative support.
- Increase of 5.6 personnel years and $866,000 for disaster administrative workload.
- Increase of $4,750,000 in local assistance for previous disaster-related costs.

55 ADMINISTRATION AND EXECUTIVE*Program Objectives Statement

The Administration and Executive program of OES maintains overall direction and administration of the diverse programs and projects of the department. Executive is principally responsible for adoption of departmental policy, direction of ongoing programs and public information. Administration provides support in personnel, budgets, accounting, and business and office services for the department.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, an increase of 3.7 personnel years and $123,000 is proposed for additional administrative workload.

<sup>1</sup> The fund contains tax proceeds subject to the State Appropriations Limit, Article XIII B of the Constitution. In addition to the amounts reflected as expenditures in this statement, appropriations subject to the limit are adjusted for increases or decreases in the fund's Reserve for Economic Uncertainties and do not include any amounts expended for debt service, subventions to local government, compliance with federal or court mandates and from appropriations made in previous years (carryovers). Additional information on the State Appropriations Limit is provided in the Governor's Budget Summary.

0695 NATURAL DISASTER ASSISTANCE

This budget array has been created to display the costs of major natural disasters in California. Amounts displayed in parentheses are included in the specified budgets, and are shown here for informational purposes only.

The Loma Prieta Earthquake struck the Greater San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area on October 17, 1989, causing several billion dollars worth of damage to private and public property and disrupting the lives of hundreds of thousands of Californians. Congress and the President responded quickly by providing a federal relief package of about $3.45 billion. In addition, the Governor called a special session of the Legislature on November 2, 1989 to provide funding and aid for victims and to restore public property. This exhibit displays a preliminary estimate of state expenditures for the disaster as well as federal reimbursements offsetting a major portion of those expenditures. More precise information will be available at a later date.

DISASTER RELIEF -- FUNDING MECHANISM

STATE MANDATES CLAIMS FUND
Ch 2 (SB 1X) and Ch 1 (AB 42X) provide that if these bills have a mandated cost, reimbursement shall be made to local agencies and schools. If such reimbursement doesn't exceed $1 million, this fund shall make the reimbursement.
Ch 17 (AB 38X) and Ch 18 (SB 36X) provide that if these bills have a mandated cost, reimbursement shall be made if cost does not exceed $1 million from this fund.

RURAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND
Ch 6 (SB 4X) and Ch 5 (AB 44X) provide for grants from this fund to local agencies for the purpose of financing public improvements necessary to serve emergency or temporary housing units.

FARMWORKER HOUSING GRANT FUND
Ch 4 (SB 3X) and Ch 3 (AB 41X--$ vetoed) appropriated $1.5 million from SFEU to this fund for purposes of H&S Code 50517.7.

CALIFORNIA DISASTER HOUSING REHABILITATION FUND
Ch 4 (SB 3X) and Ch 3 (AB 41X) created fund and H&S Code 50661.5 which provides continuous approp. for housing rehabilitation loans and authority for Director of Finance to transfer funds from SFEU after 30-day notification to JLBC. Ch 6 (SB 4X) and Ch 5 (AB 44X) also did the same thing.
Ch 4 (SB 3X) and Ch 3 (AB 41X--$ vetoed) appropriated $32 million from SFEU to this fund for relief for rental housing.
Ch 6 (SB 4X) and Ch 5 (AB 44X--$ vetoed) appropriated $32 million from SFEU to this fund for relief of owner-occupied single family homes.

SECTION 12.30, BUDGET ACT OF 1989
As amended by Ch 20 (SB 40X) and Ch 19 (AB 43X), increases the amount that may be allocated by Director of Finance for emergency or disaster response costs of state or local agencies from $20 million to $40 million.

SAN FRANCISCO-OAKLAND BAY BRIDGE I-880 CYPRESS STRUCTURE DISASTER FUND
Created by Ch 21 (SB 45X--$ vetoed) and Ch 22 (AB 45X) which transferred $30 million from SFEU to this fund. Gov. Code 997.5 added continuous approp. to Director of Finance for payment of awards for personal property, personal injury and death claims.

TAX RELIEF-PROPERTY TAX AND INCOME TAX
Gov. Code 16418(c) added by Ch 1507/88 provided continuous approp. from SFEU to Director of Finance for Property Tax Deferral Program (Sec 194 et. seq. of Revenue & Tax Code) subject to 30-day notification to JLBC. Ch 16X (SB 34X) and Ch 15X (AB 36X), for the Oct. 1989 earthquake, provide:
1. Specific provisions to reimburse counties for property tax losses under the Property Tax Deferral Program. Made continuous approp. per Gov. Code 16418(c) applicable to these provisions.
2. Allow for 5-year loss carry forward of personal and business losses on income taxes.

CALIFORNIA INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY SUPPLEMENTAL GRANT FUND
W&I Code 13600 provides continuous appropriation to DSS for supplemental individual and family grant assistance.
Ch 9 (SB 11X--$ vetoed) and Ch 10 (AB 37X) appropriate $19.4 million from General Fund to DSS:
Admin costs 4.4
State share of Fed grants 10.0
State Supp. Grants 5.0

0730 REQUIREMENTS OF GOVERNOR-ELECT AND THE OUTGOING GOVERNOR

This Budget is proposed to provide assistance to the Governor-elect and the outgoing Governor, during the transition period following the election, in carrying out the duties described under the provisions of Government Code Sections 12015 and 12015.5.

The law provides that State agencies furnish to the Governor-elect any information or assistance necessary in the preparation of the annual State Budget and for the orderly transfer of the executive power. This gives the Governor-elect approximately two months to formulate his policies and to incorporate them in the various programs included in the Budget which he will transmit to the Legislature.

Chapter 1241, Statutes of 1974, added provision for the outgoing Governor to appoint persons to assist in concluding matters arising out of his official duties during his last term of office.

0820 DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

The constitutional office of the Attorney General, as chief law officer of the State, has the responsibility to see that the laws of California are uniformly and adequately enforced. This responsibility is fulfilled through the diverse programs of the Department of Justice.

The Department of Justice is responsible for providing skillful and efficient legal services on behalf of the people of California. The Attorney General represents the people in all matters before the Appellate and Supreme Courts of California and the United States; serves as legal counsel to state officers, boards, commissions and departments; represents the people in actions to protect the environment and to enforce consumer, antitrust and civil rights laws; and assists district attorneys in the administration of justice. The Department also coordinates efforts to address the statewide narcotic enforcement problem; assists local law enforcement in the investigation and analysis of crimes; provides person and property identification and information services to criminal justice agencies; supports the telecommunications and data processing needs of the California criminal justice community; and pursues projects designed to protect the people of California from fraudulent, unfair and illegal activities such as special efforts to prosecute organized criminal activity conducted in California.

11 EXECUTIVE AND ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

The Executive and Administration program of the Department of Justice consists of the Attorney General's Executive Office, which maintains overall direction and administration of the diverse programs and projects of the department, the Affirmative Action Office and the Opinion Unit. The Opinion Unit performs the Attorney General's duty under Government Code Section 12519 to provide written opinions to designated public officers on questions of law relating to their respective offices. This unit drafts all formal opinions issued by the Attorney General, most of which are published. Also within the program is the Administrative Services Division which provides technical support activities for the entire department.

Budget Adjustments

For Fiscal Year 1989-90, the budget includes 1 position (0.9 personnel year) for support of the Assault Weapons Registration program pursuant to Chapters 18 and 19, Statutes of 1989.

For Fiscal Year 1990-91, the budget proposes:

- An increase of 12 positions (11.4 personnel years) and $271,000 for Accounting Office workload.
- An increase of 28.9 positions (27.5 personnel years) to provide legal support for the Civil Law and Criminal Law Divisions.
- An increase of 1 position (0.9 personnel year) (limited to 12-30-90) to provide continued support to the Assault Weapon Registration program in the Law Enforcement Division.
- An increase of 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) for general workload in the Fiscal Information Services Section.

30.10 Licensing

Program Element Statement

The Licensing element represents the 40 licensing agencies within the Department of Consumer Affairs in their efforts to protect the consuming public from unprofessional or deceptive conduct by various licensed professionals and businesses. Also, the element represents the Department of Health Services when certain licensees abuse the Medi-Cal program.

This representation includes providing informal advice to clients and prosecution of administrative hearings to deny, revoke, or suspend a professional or business license. The work includes legal representation of the client in the federal and State trial courts and appellate courts. This element also seeks injunctions in court to prevent unlicensed activity or repeated illegal acts by a licensee.

30.20 State Government

Program Element Statement

The State Government element represents six State constitutional officers, the two State control agencies, the two State retirement agencies, the two State police agencies, and in excess of 30 other State agencies. Among its clients are the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Controller, Treasurer, Secretary of State, Department of Finance, Department of General Services, State Personnel Board, the Public Employees and State Teachers Retirement Systems, California Highway Patrol, Department of Motor Vehicles, Department of Corrections, California Youth Authority, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and California Horse Racing Board. Representation by this element involves client advice and consultation, and appearances before State and federal administrative and judicial tribunals. Some client agencies have separate legal staffs and, in such cases, representation is limited to litigation.

The State Government element is also responsible for advising all state agencies, except those that are in the Health and Welfare Agency, on personnel matters. This includes representation of those agencies before the State Personnel Board and the Department of Personnel Administration.

In addition, the State Government element carries out the statutory responsibilities of the Office of Attorney General with respect to the preparation of titles and summaries for initiative and ballot measures.

30.30 Business and Tax

Program Element Statement

The Business and Tax element provides legal advice for, and represents in litigation, those State departments administering laws designed to protect the public in their business transactions, safekeeping of their funds and investments. The element advises and represents the California Transportation Commission which has among its responsibilities the programming and authorization of expenditures for highway and mass transit. This element also represents those agencies enforcing laws prescribing order or minimum wages and working conditions.

This element protects State revenues by representing State taxing agencies in collection actions as well as in refund matters in which the validity or application of a tax statute is challenged. This element is also involved in the property tax field in advising the State Board of Equalization as well as in advising county legal representatives.

30.70 Tort and Condemnation

Program Element Statement

The Tort and Condemnation element assures that the State and its employees receive proper defense including the ascertainment of damages and also assures that the State recovers costs and damages for torts committed against it. In that regard, the element represents all agencies and departments of the State and their employees except for the Department of Transportation and the University of California and their employees. This element also provides legal defense to the State relating to the acquisition of property and the defense of the State against claims for the taking or damaging of property; this assures that the State pays only just compensation for the taking or damaging of property.

Although most litigation is jury trial work, appellate work also is required. The element also supervises investigations, renders advice to the State Board of Control, and makes appearances before that Board in connection with claims filed against the State.

40 CRIMINAL LAW

Program Objectives Statement

The Criminal Law Program represents the State in all criminal matters before the appellate and supreme courts and defends the State and its officers in actions filed by State prisoners under the Federal Civil Rights Act. This program also fulfills the Attorney General's responsibilities with regard to assisting the district attorneys in cases for which they are disqualified, assisting the Commission on Judicial Performance, enforcing the Political Reform Act, advising the Governor on extradition matters, prosecuting criminal actions involving Medi-Cal provider fraud and patient abuse, conducting criminal investigations and prosecutions of those engaged in illegal activities of organized crime groups and major fraud activities where local resources are inadequate to perform these functions.

Budget Adjustments

For fiscal Year 1990-91, the budget proposes:

- An increase of 26 attorney positions and a decrease of 4 legal analyst positions (20.9 personnel years), totalling $2,549,000, to handle additional workload projected for the Appeals, Writs and Trials Section.
- An increase of $87,000 for full funding of child support workload positions established in 1989-90.

Authority

The legal authority for this program is found in Article V, Section 13 of the California Constitution, in Government Code Sections 995, 996, 12511, 12512, 12550, 83116, 91001(a), and 91003, and in Penal Code Sections 1256 and 1548.3.

40.10 Appeals, Writs, and Trials

Program Element Statement

The Appeals, Writs and Trials element of Criminal Law represents the people on all appeals filed by criminal defendants in the California Courts of Appeal and Supreme Court. This element also represents the State and its officers in actions in both state and federal trial and appellate courts in which writs of habeas corpus, mandate, prohibition and coram nobis are sought by prisoners or defendants in criminal cases. When the United States Supreme Court grants review in any of these cases, division attorneys represent the people and officers of California in the high court. The state attorneys in this element act for district attorneys in cases in which the district attorneys are disqualified or unable to perform their official duties.

This element investigates misconduct by judges at the request of the Commission on Judicial Performance and presents evidence of such misconduct to special masters, the Commission and the California Supreme Court. (A special master is a judge appointed by the Commission to hear allegations and to make findings of fact.) Appeals, Writs and Trials attorneys enforce the criminal provisions of the Political Reform Act of 1974 and also review all extradition requests before action is taken by the Governor.

40.20 Correctional Law

Program Element Statement

During the 1985-86 Fiscal Year, the Attorney General created within the Criminal Law Division a Correctional Law Section to provide increased coordination and expertise in an area that has grown exponentially in the last ten years. The Section consolidates the various phases of prison litigation, defends the State and its officers in actions filed by State prisoners under the Federal Civil Rights Act.

This section handles actions, other than traditional torts, which involve the conditions of actual or constructive custody arising from the operations of the Department of Corrections, the Board of Prison Terms, the Youth Authority, etc. In these actions the staff of the Section will represent the interests of the public, the agencies involved and individual employees.

40.40 Major Fraud

Program Element Statement

The Major Fraud Unit is charged with the responsibility of conducting criminal investigations and prosecutions of those engaged in major fraud activities in California. The Unit works in conjunction with local prosecutors, law enforcement officials, and state regulatory agencies in the investigation and prosecution of those matters which involve a substantial monetary loss and victimization in multiple jurisdictions and which present enforcement and prosecutive problems beyond the resources and expertise of local authorities.

40.60 Special Prosecutions

Program Element Statement

An increasing element of criminal activity has an organized, multijurisdictional nature. The statewide responsibility and perspective of the Attorney General make him and the Department of Justice uniquely qualified to bring special investigation and prosecution efforts to bear on these crime problems. Special Prosecutions was established during 1979-80 to fulfill the Attorney General's statutory responsibility (Government Code Section 15025) to prosecute individuals and groups involved in organized criminal activity.

Any criminal activity of an organized, multijurisdictional nature is a potential target for investigation and prosecution by Special Prosecutions. However, the specific objective of Special Prosecutions is to investigate and prosecute criminal acts carried out by recognized, organized crime groups, such as syndicated crime organizations, prison gangs, outlaw motorcycle gangs, and major theft rings. In addition, Special Prosecutions personnel provide advice and assistance to statewide law enforcement in the areas of asset forfeiture and electronic surveillance.

40.90 Medi-Cal Fraud and Patient Abuse

Program Element Statement

The Medi-Cal Fraud and Patient Abuse component, operating with 75 percent federal funding assistance, has a staff of attorneys, investigators and auditors who investigate and prosecute cases of fraud and patient abuse committed by the providers of Medi-Cal services and supplies and cases of illicit diversion of pharmaceuticals by Medi-Cal providers. Attorneys of this unit also follow up cases with administrative agencies and civil attorneys to insure continued rigorous attention to a case involving a convicted Medi-Cal provider.

45 PUBLIC RIGHTS

Program Objectives Statement

The Public Rights Program is needed to protect and preserve the public interests by providing skilled legal services to all State agencies and Constitutional Officers. The Public Rights Program provides specialized services in the following areas: Civil Rights and Charitable Trust (including Charitable Trust Registration), Natural Resources, Environmental Law, Antitrust, Land Law, and Consumer Law.

Authority

The legal authority for this program is found in Article V, Section 13 of the California Constitution, as well as various sections of the Government Code including Sections 11042, 11043, 11157, 11522, 12511, 12512, and 12519.

45.10 Charitable Trust/Civil Rights Enforcement

Program Element Statement

The Charitable Trusts component carries out the Attorney General's statutory and common law duties to correct misuse and diversion of charitable assets, and recovers diverted assets for the benefit of charitable public beneficiaries. The Attorney General operates the Registry of Charitable Trusts which registers and maintains current financial reports for over 70,000 charities operating in California that hold assets exceeding $40 billion. The Attorney General also represents the public interest in escheat matters.

The Civil Rights Enforcement component represents four State agencies whose resources are devoted to the protection and enforcement of civil rights of all persons, including the disadvantaged, minorities and women: Department of Fair Employment and Housing; Commission on Fair Employment and Housing; Commission on the Status of Women; and Native American Heritage Commission. Representation of these client agencies includes client advice and consultation, appearances at commission meetings, and litigation. The element also represents the Attorney General in carrying out his independent constitutional, common law and statutory duties to protect civil rights; investigations, litigation, legislative work and public information projects are carried out on behalf of the Attorney General for the public interest.

45.20 Natural Resources

Program Element Statement

The Natural Resources Law element provides legal services to and assures uniform and adequate enforcement of laws administered by the departments and agencies which it represents. These departments and agencies are responsible for enforcing and administering laws and programs for the protection of the state's environment and public resources. These resources include agricultural products, fish, wildlife, water and water quality, air, timberland and lands owned and used by the public for recreation and wildlife protection purposes. The field of agricultural products includes the administration and enforcement of marketing regulations and protection of these products to assure their wholesomeness and availability to the consuming public. The Natural Resources Law element also represents the Department of Housing and Community Development and the Office of Planning and Research. This element is also responsible for water rights litigation on behalf of all agencies of the state.

45.30 Environment

Program Element Statement

The Environment element is responsible for three environmental programs. First, the Section implements the Attorney General's independent program for the protection of the environment. The Section relies on the Attorney General's constitutional, statutory and common law authority to represent the People of the State in environmental issues, including areas such as air and water pollution, oil and gas development, hazardous substances, preservation of wilderness lands and other natural resources, mining and land use issues.

Second, the Section handles toxics enforcement litigation on behalf of the Department of Health Services. Millions of dollars can be at stake in these cases, which arise under the State and federal Superfund laws, and the Hazardous Waste Control Act.

Finally, the Section enforces Proposition 65, the Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986. This legislation creates new requirements for chemical discharges to sources of drinking water and for warnings to members of the public exposed to chemicals identified as carcinogens or as substances which cause reproductive toxicity.

45.40 Land Law

Program Element Statement

The Land Law element handles all litigation and other legal services arising from the administration of State-owned lands by the State Lands Commission; from the regulatory activities of the Division of Oil and Gas, the Geothermal Resources Board, the California Coastal Commission, the San Francisco Bay Conservation Commission and from the programs of the California Coastal Conservancy, the Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy, Tahoe Area Land Acquisition Commission (TALAC) and California Tahoe Conservancy.

These lands consist of 4,000,000 acres (about 6,400 square miles) of tide and submerged lands and lands underlying navigable rivers and lakes and 600,000 acres (over 900 square miles) of lands in the public domain granted to the State. The value of these lands, including minerals and timber therein, is estimated at $12 billion. Annual revenues therefrom, including the Long Beach Tidelands, aggregate in excess of $369,000,000 annually, and constitute the State's largest source of nontax revenue.

This element additionally handles matters relating to any public rights in lands arising by implied dedication. Especially affected by this doctrine are littoral lands, including 3,400 miles of frontage on tidal waters and 1,400 miles on navigable, nontidal waters. By statutory mandate, the component establishes the criteria for the Department of General Services to determine whether such public rights exist in lands proposed for State acquisition. Over $180,000,000 in appropriations are affected by these criteria and investigations and review by this element.

45.50 Consumer Law

Program Element Statement

Consumer Law files lawsuits against businesses engaged in unlawful, unfair or deceptive practices which adversely affect consumers. In these lawsuits, consumer law attorneys seek injunctive relief, civil penalties, restitution and any other relief appropriate to the particular problem involved.

Consumer Law attorneys actively investigate and obtain prosecutions and injunctions against persons who engage in unlawful and fraudulent practices in the home mortgage and lien foreclosure areas, in multilevel sales, in energy-related deception, and in false advertising. The attorneys draft consumer legislation, give advice on pending consumer legislation, and coordinate with other local, state and federal prosecutorial agencies to help solve consumer problems in the marketplace.

45.60 Antitrust

Program Element Statement

The Antitrust element enforces the State's antitrust laws in order to foster and protect our free enterprise system. This element is authorized to bring both criminal prosecutions and civil actions before the courts. Antitrust attorneys bring actions to recover treble damages suffered by state, public agencies and the public as a result of price fixing and other anti-competitive activities. In addition to recovery of treble damages, identifiable costs involved in the investigation and prosecution are also obtained. Antitrust attorneys also bring actions on behalf of the people of the State to recover civil penalties for violations of the antitrust laws.

50 LAW ENFORCEMENT

Program Objectives Statement

Law Enforcement provides statewide services in the following fields: identification of persons and property, criminalistic services, technical and special investigative training, statistical and communication services and selected investigation. The program also suppresses the traffic in narcotics and dangerous drugs and identifies and prevents infiltration of organized crime.

Law Enforcement is organized into the following elements: Investigation and Enforcement, Criminal Identification and Information and the Law Enforcement Data Center. Investigations and Enforcement supports other law enforcement agencies through investigative assistance, liaison and training, special investigations, specialized criminalistics and other technical services, and dissemination of information about organized crime. Criminal Identification and Information helps identify individuals and property and provides information, and statistics relative to crime and delinquency. The Law Enforcement Data Center provides data processing services to the program.

50.10.020 Narcotic Enforcement

Element Component Statement

Narcotic Enforcement is responsible for bringing statewide interjurisdictional capabilities and expertise to bear upon the complex problems of multijurisdictional narcotic dealers, clandestine drug manufacturers, and licensee violators in the medical and pharmaceutical professions. This is accomplished through the coordination and management of multijurisdictional narcotic enforcement groups; coordination and management of multiagency investigations; investigations of major conspiracies and intrastate multijurisdictional traffickers; investigation of clandestine laboratories; permitting and monitoring of precursor chemical manufacturers and vendors; monitoring and investigation of professionals licensed to dispense drugs; provision of narcotic enforcement training; consultation on specific narcotic enforcement cases; short-term undercover agent support; and the analysis and dissemination of information and intelligence. Narcotic Enforcement is also responsible for the administration of the triplicate prescription system which prevents the diversion of licit supplies of narcotics into illicit channels.

50.10.030 Forensic Services

Element Component Statement

The Forensic Services component provides criminalistics and related forensic science services including the examination and analysis of physical evidence to district attorney, State and local law enforcement departments, and the courts of California. Regional laboratories operate in Redding, Chico, Santa Rosa, Sacramento, Modesto, Stockton, Fresno, Salinas, Santa Barbara, Riverside and Eureka. These facilities provide examination and analysis of a wide variety of physical evidence, interpret the significance of the scientific findings to law enforcement agencies, and provide expert testimony in the courts.

Specialized forensic services, in addition to criminalistics, are provided in the fields of toxicology, questioned document analysis, latent fingerprint examination, photographic and audio-visual services.

The California Criminalistic Institute (CCI) provides training, method development, information services, quality assurance and case referee and referral services to the 11 Bureau of Forensic Services laboratories and the other 23 local government forensic laboratories in California.

In FY 89/90, the Bureau received authority to establish a DNA laboratory in Berkeley. The laboratory will have two functions; the first will be to analyze forensic services casework, and the second to analyze blood samples from convicted sex offenders authorized for collection under the authority of 290.2 of the Penal Code. The samples will be used as the basis for computerized data base of known offenders.

50.10.040 Organized Crime and Criminal Intelligence

Element Component Statement

The Organized Crime and Criminal Intelligence component provides the state level support, leadership and coordination required to develop an effective criminal intelligence system based on mutual cooperation of state, regional, local and out-of-state law enforcement agencies. This component carries on a continuing program to determine and analyze the nature, characteristics, magnitude, and trends of organized crime in California. In addition, this component offers activities to upgrade the knowledge and capabilities of law enforcement for effectively combatting organized crime and maintains a pool of specialized investigative equipment for loan to local agencies.

50.20.020 Criminal Identification

Element Component Statement

The Bureau of Criminal Identification is organized into four major entities: Bureau Administration, Criminal Identification Program, Criminal Offender Record Program, and the Cal-ID/RAN Program.

The Criminal Identification Program classifies, searches, and verifies fingerprints submitted by law enforcement, licensing, and regulatory agencies; directs the operation of the Automated Fingerprint Identification System, the Automated Latent Print System and the record folder file; makes inquiries against the Master Name Index; and disseminates criminal history records to authorized agencies.

The Criminal Offender Record Program is responsible for the management and maintenance of the automated and manual criminal history systems and the Master Name Index. It enters, modifies, purges, and disseminates criminal offender and applicant information.

Cal-ID/RAN Program provides technical advice, policy manuals, and users agreements for agencies participating in the Cal-ID Remote Access Network (RAN); facilitates distribution of state funds to local agencies in support of RAN; provides benchmarking requirements to vendors; provides technical advice to the Attorney General's Cal-ID Advisory Committee; and coordinates with law enforcement entities interfacing or considering interface with Cal-ID.

50.30 Law Enforcement Data Center

Program Element Statement

Chapter 787, Statutes of 1972, established the Law Enforcement Data Center (LEDC) to enhance the ability of criminal justice agencies to combat crime; to reduce the duplication of effort expended to maintain like criminal justice information in many agency files at all levels of government; and to develop a systematic method of providing complete, accurate criminal record information to the user in time to be useful for the critical decisions relating to arrests, prosecution, court proceedings, and detention. The LEDC element is responsible for all departmental automatic data processing and telecommunications activities related to the statewide CLETS/CJIS systems and internal departmental data processing activities.

0840 STATE CONTROLLER

The State Controller is an elected State fiscal officer. As such the primary objectives of his office are: to provide sound fiscal control over receipt and disbursement of public funds; to report the financial operations and conditions of the State and local government; to assure that money due the State is collected and to provide equitable, effective and economical tax administration; to provide fiscal assistance and guidance to local government; to administer the State's unclaimed property laws; and to serve as a member of fiscally oriented State boards and commissions.

The powers, duties and functions of the State Controller embrace (1) those expressed in the Constitution (Article XVI, Section 7), (2) those inherent in the nature of his office, though not so expressed, (3) those unquestionably essential to the efficient operation of his office, and (4) such additional powers, duties, or functions as the Legislature may confer or impose upon him.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

Among the major adjustments proposed for 1990-91 is an augmentation of $467,000 and nine two-year limited-term positions funded from the Assessment Fund to audit fines, penalties, and assessments due the State from the courts. It is estimated that an additional $2 million in 1990-91 and $4.5 million in 1991-92 in General Fund revenue will be recovered as a result of these audits. The budget also proposes $342,000 and seven positions to develop and implement a leave accounting system. This system is one of the last components of the long-planned personnel and payroll system overhaul. Funding for these positions will be reimbursed by departments which opt to participate in the system. The budget augments the Unclaimed Property Division by $348,000 and seven two-year limited-term auditor positions to audit two specified companies, with an anticipated increase in General Fund revenue of $4 million in 1990-91 and $2 million in 1991-92.

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

10 FISCAL CONTROL

Program Objective Statement

The primary objectives are: to maintain an effective system of internal control over the State's financial transactions through effective auditing and disbursing techniques; to report promptly and accurately the State's financial condition and operations to assure the fiscal integrity of State government; and to provide timely financial information to the Legislature and public.

The major activities of the Divisions of Accounting, Audits, Disbursements, Personnel Payroll Services and Local Government Fiscal Affairs are integrated into a system of internal control over the receipt and use of State, federal and other public moneys in the State Treasury. The major activity of the Division of Unclaimed Property is to restore unclaimed property to its true owners or their heirs.

Authority

Constitution, Article XVI, Section 7 and Government Code Sections 12400 et seq.

30.50 Refunds of Taxes, Licenses and Other Fees

This element had responsibility for refunding licenses, taxes and other fees erroneously collected and paid into the General Fund for which no other specific provision of law existed. Chapter 861, Statutes of 1988, authorizes refunds to be made by the state agency collecting the fee or payment before deposit in the State Treasury from any unremitted balance of receipts of the same nature in the state agency's checking account. Therefore, effective with the 1989-90 fiscal year, no appropriation is made to this element.

0850 CALIFORNIA STATE LOTTERY COMMISSION

Proposition 37, approved by California voters on November 6, 1984, amended the California Constitution to authorize the establishment of a statewide lottery, and enacted an initiative statute, the California State Lottery Act of 1984, which created the California State Lottery Commission and gave it broad powers to oversee the operations of a statewide lottery. The primary purpose of the Act is to provide additional monies to benefit public education without the imposition of additional or increased taxes.

The Lottery is administered by a five-person Commission appointed by the Governor with the concurrence of the State Senate. One of the Commissioners must have a background in law enforcement, one must be a Certified Public Accountant, and not more than three (3) of the five (5) members can be members of the same political party. In all decisions, the Commission is directed to "take into account the particularly sensitive nature of the California State Lottery and shall act to promote and ensure integrity, security, honesty and fairness in the operation and administration of the Lottery." The Commission is responsible for determining the types of lotteries to be held, the frequency of lottery drawings, the price of lottery tickets, the number and value of lottery prizes, and the locations where lottery tickets can be sold.

The initiative requires that 50 percent of the proceeds from lottery ticket sales are to be paid out as lottery prizes and that no more than 16 percent of the proceeds are to be used for administrative costs. The remainder of the proceeds (at least 34 percent of the total) are to be placed in a special fund, known as the California State Lottery Education Fund, which is appropriated for the benefit of public education. Revenues to this fund are to be made available for public education and allocated on a per capita basis to the following four (4) categories: K-12 education, Community Colleges, the California State University and the University of California. These funds are to be used to augment, rather than replace, funds already allocated for public education and are to be spent for instructional purposes.

Of the 16 percent allowed for administrative costs, approximately five (5) percent is provided as commissions to sellers of lottery tickets. The remainder is available to finance advertising, promotion, operations and administration of the lottery, including start-up costs, procurement of supplies and facilities, hiring necessary staff and acquisition and distribution of game materials. In addition, the Commission is required to make periodic reports on the performance of the Lottery, and independent studies on the effectiveness of Lottery communications, demographic analysis of Lottery players and the efficiency of Lottery operations. The State Controller is required to conduct quarterly and annual "post-audits" of all accounts and transactions of the Commission and other special "post-audits" as the Controller deems necessary.

California State Lottery ticket sales began on October 3, 1985 with the sale of scratcher tickets. On October 14, 1986, the weekly Lotto game began, launching the world's largest on-line network with an initial 5,000 terminals. Numerous marketing and sales innovations, along with additional on-line game terminals, have helped to achieve increased sales.

The California Lottery's fourth fiscal year, which ended June 30, 1989, produced record sales of $2.6 billion, up 24 percent from 1987-88. The Lottery achieved those sales with two products, Scratchers and Lotto. Scratchers, the foundation product, were responsible for about 30 percent of total sales or $768 million. Lotto sales were $1.86 billion, making up the remaining 70 percent.

Those sales made possible a record contribution to public education of $1.035 billion. That is approximately $178 for each student in California public schools, from kindergarten through the University of California. It is also equal to 39 percent of sales, which is $141 million more than the 34 percent required by law. This marked the fourth consecutive year that the Lottery's education contribution exceeded statutory requirements.

The Lottery's fifth year will be a transition year, marking the passage from a young organization to a maturing one with more products and a larger retailer network with over 22,000 scratcher retailers and 9,000 also selling Lotto. The two foundation games have reached maturity and will be freshened with new features to sustain sales levels. A new draw feature will be added to Lotto, offering an additional $25,000 prize. At the same time, the Lottery is planning to expand the Lotto field size from 49 to 53 numbers to bring more excitement by increasing the likelihood of large jackpots. Another innovation will be the first "overlay" scratcher game, which is sold concurrently with another scratcher. In addition, new on-line game, Decco, will be introduced in the latter part of fiscal year 1989-90, offering smaller prizes, better odds and daily draws. These added and new features will help the Lottery to fulfill its mission of providing steady annual income to education.

Because of a number of variables, revenue estimates for 1989–90 and 1990–91 cannot be made with any certainty. It is quite common for Lottery sales to fluctuate depending on the nature of the game, the prize structure and changing market conditions. As the months progress, more accurate projections will be available.

0860 STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

The State Board of Equalization administers fifteen tax programs for support of State and local government activities, more tax programs than any other State department. They are: Sales and Use Taxes (State, Local, and Transit District); Motor Vehicle Fuel License (Gasoline) Tax; Use Fuel Tax; Alcoholic Beverage Tax; Cigarette Tax; Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax; Insurance Tax; Energy Resources Surcharge; Emergency Telephone Users Surcharge; Hazardous Waste Tax; Hazardous Substance Tax; Solid Waste Disposal Site Fee; Underground Storage Tank Fee; Private Railroad Car Tax; and Timber Yield Tax. The Board also assesses utility property for local property tax purposes, and guides local government in the administration of the property tax.

The five-member Board was created and named by the Constitution of 1879. Four members are elected to represent equalization districts, and a fifth, the State Controller, an ex officio member, is elected at large.

The Board has more than 60 offices throughout California as well as offices in New York, Chicago, and Houston. The Board administers programs generating taxes exceeding $24 billion: $18.2 billion for the State Treasury, more than $5.1 billion in local sales and use taxes, plus some $780 million in local funds derived from local property taxes on utility rolls prepared by the Board.

The Board adopts rules and regulations for the administration of the business taxes programs and for the guidance and direction of the Board's property taxes staff, county assessors, boards of supervisors, and local assessment appeals boards in valuing property.

As an appellate body, the Board hears appeals from taxpayers on business taxes audit findings; from county officials on intracounty and intercounty property tax assessments; from public utilities on Board assessments of utility properties; and from assesses on privately owned railroad cars. The Board is also the appellate body for contested Franchise Tax Board decisions under the personal income tax laws, bank and corporation tax laws, senior citizens property tax relief laws, and for appeals from rulings of the Insurance Commissioner.

An Executive Director, appointed by the Board, implements the policies and directions of the Board. The Executive Director is aided by deputy directors for administration, property taxes, and business taxes.

15 COUNTY ASSESSMENT STANDARDS PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of this program is to carry out the Board's constitutional and statutory responsibility of ensuring that taxable properties are enrolled and that all properties are assessed in full conformity with the law and uniformly by the 58 county assessors, thereby assuring an equitable tax base and a more proper sharing of costs with the state's General Fund. The Board is also charged with providing county assessors, their staff, and others involved with the assessing function with consultation and services to aid them in distributing property tax assessments legally and equitably among property owners. The County Assessment Standards Program establishes standards, provides training, and evaluates the effectiveness of the administration of the assessment function by each county assessor and the degree to which the practices conform to existing law and policies.

15.10 County Surveys

Program Element Statement

California taxpayers will pay about $16.1 billion in property taxes during 1990–91 to support various local governmental agencies. Approximately ninety-four percent of these taxes will result from valuations based on ad valorem assessments made by the 58 county assessors. Sixty-four percent of these revenues go to local agencies other than schools, comprising their largest single source of revenue. Schools receive thirty-six percent of the property tax revenues making up twenty-five percent of the funds within their mandated level of spending. Because of the importance of this revenue source to the State, the schools and local government and to assure equitable treatment of all property taxpayers, both within and between counties, it is necessary that a central agency provide direction, supervision, and review of local assessment practices (administrative oversight).

To accomplish these objectives, "assessment practices" surveys and "special topics" surveys are conducted to ascertain the specific assessment practices of the 58 county assessors. The assessment practices surveys consist of: the random selection of a representative sampling of the local assessment roll; the appraisal by staff appraisers of the sampled assessments; and an in-depth analysis of the differences between the staff appraisals and the enrolled assessments together with a comprehensive review of the assessment system emphasizing the principal causes for the differences with recommendations for improving the systems and resulting assessments. The special topics surveys provide in-depth evaluations of the handling of, and the problems associated with, current assessment issues having statewide impact.

15.20 Technical Advisory Services

Program Element Statement

This program is needed to carry out the Board's constitutional and legislative duties to advise and otherwise assist the 58 county assessors in compiling and standardizing (statewide) the assessment rolls of all taxable properties within their counties. The Board relies on five primary functions to fulfill this responsibility: (1) provides technical advice on real, personal and specialty property appraisal problems; (2) publishes "letters to assessors" and prepares and revises "assessors' handbooks"; (3) annually prescribes the format of most forms used by the assessors, including all those requiring taxpayer entries; (4) formulates rules that are binding on assessors and have the full force and effect of law; and (5) certifies appraisers and provides training.

15.30 Technical Services

Program Element Statement

The Board has four primary areas of responsibility in providing assistance to counties in administering the property taxes: (1) The Board and the counties jointly administer the welfare exemption which removes millions of dollars from the tax base of local government, including schools. The assessor receives the original claim, reviews the factors, inspects the property and forwards to the Board the claim together with a recommendation on the applicability of the exemption. The Board reviews the case and recommends approval or disapproval with disapprovals subject to an appeals process. The matter is returned to the county where the assessor can act only on applications found qualifying by the Board. (2) The Board offers, by contract, audit services to counties who require audit of taxpayers with books and records maintained out-of-state. (3) Current law prescribes that "change in control" of legal entities (i.e., corporations and partnerships) are equivalent to "changes in ownership" requiring a reappraisal of all real property. Such changes are difficult to find on a county-by-county basis; whereas, "changes in ownership" are relatively easy to locate due to the recording of ownership documents. The Board, by researching financial publications and inserting questions on the state corporate and partnership tax returns, can detect most of these transactions and advise all counties where affected real property is located. (4) Numerous exclusions from the change in ownership reappraisals have been adopted by the voters for property replacing properties taken by governmental agencies, senior citizens selling residence and purchasing replacement residence, and transfers among family members. Each of these exclusions must be tracked to avoid duplicate applications and conformity with the law. The Board provides a "clearinghouse" for all such claims, assuring no duplication.

20 STATE-ASSESSED PROPERTY PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The California State Constitution mandates the Board to annually value and assess intercounty pipelines and properties owned or used by railroads, certain public utilities, and private railroad car companies. Once market values are derived for these state assessees, the amount must be allocated among the agencies of local government, on a county-by-county basis, in which the properties are located, so that taxes may be levied and collected for use by the local agencies.

Budget Adjustments

• In 1990-91, a shift of $6.7 million, which includes state-assessed property audits, is proposed from the General Fund to the Cigarette Tax Fund since local governments are the recipients of the revenue from these audits.

Authority

Constitution—Article 13, Section 19; Revenue and Taxation Code—Division 1, Part 2; Division 2, Part 6.

20.10 Assessment of Public Utilities

Program Element Statement

State assessees annually file with the Board property statements listing all properties by situs, together with associated costs, and provide fiscal and financial information on their operations. These data and other economic data are employed by the staff in developing “indicators of value” and by the Board in determining the annual market value of the operating unit for each state assessee. Staff audits property statements filed annually by state assessees on a four-year cycle.

All property contained on the assessment rolls must be identified as to the combination of taxing jurisdiction serving that property. These districts are overlapping and their boundaries are not coterminous with one another. Clusters of properties all served by the same taxing jurisdictions and having the same distribution of property tax revenues constitute a unique “tax rate area.” The Board is charged with maintaining statewide maps delineating each taxing jurisdiction. The resulting 50,000 tax rate areas are used by the county assessors in preparing the local assessment roll and state assessees in reporting their nonunitary property holdings.

Budget Adjustment

• In 1990-91, an increase of 10.6 personnel years and $700,000 is proposed to conduct state assessee audits (financial and fixed-asset).

20.20 Private Railroad Car Tax

Program Element Statement

The value of cars is determined by the Board from information required of private railroad car owners and operators on property statements and from other sources. Utilizing the number of cars and the value per car derived for each assessee, assessments are prepared, petitions for reassessment are received, tax bills are issued, and the revenue collected goes to the state’s General Fund.

25 TIMBER TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The Timber Tax Division administers the Timber Yield Tax by collecting revenue for the Timber Tax Fund; establishing timber value areas and the immediate harvest values for species of timber within those areas used to determine tax liability; developing a standard method of timber measurement and conversion factors where the standard cannot be used; controlling and auditing the reporting and self-assessment of the yield tax liability; and providing the data base for allocating the Timber Tax Fund to the county of harvest.

25.10 Timber Valuation

Program Element Statement

Forest property appraisers evaluate data from sales of private timber and timber on public lands and harvests on operator-owned land for purposes of establishing a data base to be used in developing immediate harvest value schedules and evaluating future harvest report filings of taxpayers. Value schedules adopted by the Board are used by taxpayers to determine their tax liability. Field inspections provide data to evaluate both the harvest reports and tax returns at the time of an audit.

Program Element Statement

When a taxpayer files either a harvest plan with the Division of Forestry or acquires the right to harvest timber on government land, the taxpayer is required to register with the Board unless already registered. Once identified the taxpayer is provided with instructions on how to file tax returns and harvest reports, and delinquency controls are established on anticipated tax returns. Tax returns and harvest reports are filed along with the tax due permitting the identification of delinquent accounts and establishing a data base for future audits where necessary.

25.30 Auditing

Program Element Statement

Taxpayers are required to report and self-declare tax liability by species, old v. young growth, size, logging system, and by location. Misreporting of the volume harvested or misclassification by species or old v. young growth significantly alters the tax liability. Further, some harvests are not reported but disclosed by a reconciliation of log sales at the mills. The auditors, in conjunction with the forest property appraisers, evaluate the accuracy of the self-reporting and investigate any differences.

30 SALES AND USE TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The program objective is to ensure that all sales and use tax revenues are collected in an equitable and effective manner by effecting timely reporting of tax liability, detecting and correcting errors in self-assessments, and promptly collecting amounts determined to be due and economically recoverable.

The State Board of Equalization administers the state's 4.75 percent Sales and Use Tax Law, the 1.25 percent Bradley-Burns Uniform Local Sales transactions (sales) and use tax ordinances for the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District, the Santa Clara County Transit District, the Santa Cruz Metropolitan Transit District, the Los Angeles County Transportation Commission, the San Mateo County Transit District, the Santa Clara County Traffic Authority, the Alameda County Transportation Authority, the Fresno County Transportation Authority, the San Diego Regional Transportation Commission, the County of Inyo, the San Benito County Council of Governments, the San Diego Regional Justice Facilities Financing Agency, the San Mateo County Transportation Authority, the Sacramento Transportation Authority, the Contra Costa Transportation Authority, and the Riverside County Transportation Commission.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1990-91, an increase of 2.8 personnel years (one-year limited term) and $101,000 is proposed to assist in the planning for consolidation of the Board's Headquarters operations at a single location.

30.10 Registration of Taxpayers

Program Element Statement

Registration of sellers and users enables the Board to furnish them with proper tax forms and instructions for purposes of reporting and allocation of these taxes.

Budget Adjustment

- In 1990-91, an increase of 11.9 personnel years and $432,000 is proposed to process increased workloads associated with mandatory registration of new accounts (taxpayers).

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

30.20 Processing Tax Returns

Program Element Statement

After the taxpayer files a return, it is processed through the mail processing, cashier, and information management units for deposit of revenue receipts and fiscal accounting purposes. This accounting includes the proper distribution of local and transit district taxes. A delinquency record is established for taxpayers failing to file returns, and notices are sent to them. Taxpayers whose accounts remain uncleared after a reasonable period are cited to appear at the local Board office to show cause why their permits should not be revoked for failure to file returns.

Returns are reviewed for mathematical accuracy, proper preparation, and application of the law. Billings or refunds are prepared to notify the taxpayer of errors in self-declared tax and applicable penalty and interest. When questionable deductions are observed, the taxpayer is contacted and asked to explain the deduction.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989-90, 12.0 personnel years and $1,248,000 and in 1990-91, 27.1 personnel years and $931,000, is proposed to administer the temporary one-quarter cent increase in the state sales and use tax rate to fund earthquake relief operations.
- In 1989-90, 0.7 personnel years and $65,000 and in 1990-91, 16.6 personnel years and $870,000, is proposed to process increased workloads in the transaction (sales) and use tax ordinances for five new special taxing jurisdictions approved on the November 1989 ballot.
- In 1990-91, an increase of 20.9 personnel years and $788,000 is proposed to implement two new use tax collection programs.

30.30 Auditing Accounts

Program Element Statement

This activity is statistically designed to cover the tax base in a manner which will result in audits of accounts most likely to make substantial errors in reporting. A major objective of the audit selection system, which is based on the principle of marginal analysis, is to audit accounts which will produce tax deficiency in excess of the cost of auditing. Tax deficiency is the difference between self-assessed taxes and the final determination of taxes due after auditing.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989-90, 5.2 personnel years and $333,000 and in 1990-91, 13.3 personnel years and $565,000, is proposed to administer the temporary one-quarter cent increase in the state sales and use tax rate to fund earthquake relief operations.

30.40 Collecting Taxes Receivable

Program Element Statement

Field offices are primarily responsible for the collection of delinquent amounts. The effort expended on each account is consistent with the amount due. Although efforts are made to accomplish collection through use of the telephone or by correspondence, field calls and the utilization of statutory remedies may be necessary to collect larger amounts when other efforts have not been productive.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989-90, a $456,000 deficiency and 8.3 personnel years was authorized to process 5,000 delinquent account receivable items that will generate $13.2 million in revenue in the 1989-90 fiscal year.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 23.7 personnel years and $1,136,000 to implement two new use tax collection programs.
- An increase of 1.4 personnel years and $425,000 to establish a more efficient accounts receivable system.
- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $57,000 to process increased workloads associated with interagency offsets.
- An increase of 19.0 personnel years and $704,000 to process 12,000 delinquent account receivable items that will generate $31.4 million in revenue in the Budget year.

35 HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

This program is needed to provide revenues for the Hazardous Waste Control Account and the Hazardous Substances Account in the General Fund. The revenue is derived by collecting fees from generators of hazardous wastes and from certain hazardous waste facilities and corporations as well as collecting an annual "Superfund" tax from generators of hazardous wastes who dispose the waste to land. The objectives of the program are to ensure that appropriate returns and reports are filed, prescribed fees are paid, and taxes are assessed and collected in an equitable and effective manner.

Administration of this program includes registering hazardous waste generators, facilities, certain corporations and underground tank owners; processing tax returns and reports, collecting fees and taxes due, auditing accounts, resolving petitions for redetermination and claims for refund, and advising taxpayers regarding the law.

35.10 Processing Hazardous Waste Control Account Fees

Program Element Statement

Hazardous waste "generators" and "facilities" are subject to three separate fees. The rate for each fee is set by law. These fees are due: (1) quarterly, or semi-annually as determined by the Board, from persons generating and disposing of hazardous wastes; (2) annually in two semi-annual payments from operators of certain hazardous waste facilities; and (3) annually in one payment from persons generating more than five tons of hazardous waste during the state's current fiscal year. In addition to these fees, certain corporations may owe an environmental fee based upon the number of employees and type of business. Deficiency notices are prepared and mailed to each person failing to file returns and reports or failing to pay amounts due. Field audits and investigations are made to assure proper reporting and proper classification of generators and facilities. Monthly classification updates of generators and facilities are received from the Department of Health Services and acted upon by the State Board of Equalization's staff.

Budget Adjustment

• In 1989-90, 18.3 personnel years and $1,095,000, and in 1990-91, 20.3 personnel years (two-year limited-term) and $938,000, is proposed to process Hazardous Waste Fee workload under the provisions of SB 475 (Chapter 269/89) and AB 41 (Chapter 1032/89).

35.20 Processing Hazardous Substances Account Assessments

Program Element Statement

Persons generating hazardous wastes and who deliver them to a facility for disposal or dispose of them on-site are subject to an annual tax. These persons are required to file an annual return and pay the tax to the Board by March 1 of each year setting forth the quantity of hazardous wastes, in each of six categories, disposed of during the prior calendar year. In addition, fees are collected by the Board from persons receiving environmental services from the Department of Health Services. Tax deficiency notices are prepared and mailed to persons failing to file reports or properly pay assessments. Field audits and investigations are made to assure proper reporting and deter tax evasion.

40 ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The program objective is to ensure that all Alcoholic Beverage Tax revenues are collected equitably and effectively by effecting timely reporting of tax liability, detecting and correcting errors in reporting, and promptly collecting amounts determined to be due and economically recoverable. Self-assessed state excise taxes imposed on the manufacture, importation, or sale of alcoholic beverages in this state are administered by the Board.

40.10 Registration of Taxpayers

Program Element Statement

Persons subject to the Alcoholic Beverage Taxes are identified through licenses issued by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. The Board registers them as taxpayers and furnishes tax returns for the reporting of tax. Accounts are regularly reviewed to determine security requirements. Nontaxpaying common carriers, customs brokers, and out-of-state beer vendors are also registered and supplied with the necessary information reports.

40.20 Processing Tax Returns and Reports

Program Element Statement

Alcoholic Beverage Tax returns are filed directly with the Board's headquarters office. The returns are processed through the mail processing, cashier, and information management units for deposit of funds and fiscal accounting purposes. The Excise Tax Unit then verifies reported tax computations, notifies taxpayers of apparent discrepancies on returns, and reviews them for proper preparation and application of the law.

40.30 Auditing Accounts

Program Element Statement

Informational reports are received from out-of-state beer vendors, common carriers, customs brokers, and other states. Through a matching process, the Excise Tax Unit is able to effectively select for field auditing those accounts which appear to have understated the tax. These audits deter tax evasion and promote accurate reporting of self-declared tax.

45 CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO PRODUCTS TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The program objective is to ensure that all Cigarette and Tobacco Products Tax revenues are collected equitably and effectively by effecting timely reporting and payment of tax liability, detecting and correcting errors in reporting, and promptly collecting amounts determined to be due and economically recoverable.

The Cigarette Tax is imposed upon distributors of cigarettes at the rate of one and three-quarters cents per cigarette (35 cents per standard package of 20) and upon consumers who acquire untaxed cigarettes which are not otherwise exempt from tax. For the most part, the tax is paid by distributors through the purchase of stamps from commercial banks which contract with the state for the issuance of stamps. The Tobacco Products Tax is imposed upon distributors of tobacco products at a rate equivalent to the combined rate of tax imposed on cigarettes. The rate is determined annually by the Board.

Program Element Statement

Every person desiring to engage in the sale of cigarettes or tobacco products as a distributor or as a cigarette wholesaler must obtain a license for each location at which he engages in such business. This enables the Board to furnish proper forms for the reporting, processing, allocation, and administration of the tax. Necessary security to assure payment of the tax is obtained from licensed distributors.

Program Element Statement

Forms and instructions are mailed to licensed distributors and wholesalers to enable them to file monthly reports to account for their purchases and distributions of tobacco products, cigarettes and stamps; to enable cigarette manufacturers (who are all licensed distributors) to report tax on sample cigarettes distributed in California; and to enable tobacco products distributors to report tax on their distribution of tobacco products. Reports relating to the acquisition and sale of stamps are received from banks. Information reports are received from manufacturers and common carriers. These reports are processed to account for tax payments, verify mathematical accuracy, and assure conformity with the law, and select accounts for audit. When a timely report is not filed, the taxpayer is notified. If the delinquency is not cleared, revocation proceedings are instituted.

45.30 Auditing Accounts

Program Element Statement

Field auditing is essential to assure uniform application of the law, deter tax evasion and carelessness in self-reporting, and identify and correct errors in self-reporting. Reconciliations are made in headquarters using data reported by manufacturers, distributors, wholesalers, banks, and others. In most cases, immediate corrective action is taken when underreported tax is indicated. Field audit activities are designed to resolve more difficult discrepancies and to identify tobacco products and cigarettes received from illegal sources. These audits deter tax evasion and promote accurate reporting of self-declared tax.

45.40 Enforcement Activities

Program Element Statement

Enforcement activities are designed to prevent loss of revenue through tax indicia counterfeiting, bootlegging, tax under reporting, smuggling and illegal sales of cigarettes and tobacco products.

Field inspections are made of distributors' stamping machines to see that indicia is properly affixed, clear, and legible. Inspections also are made of cigarette stocks in retail stores and in vending machines to assure that all packages are properly stamped. Additionally, spot inspection of transit vehicles, vessels and aircraft are made to help deter illegal transportation of untaxed cigarettes and tobacco products for sale in the state.

50 MOTOR VEHICLE FUEL LICENSE TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives and Statement

This program is needed to provide revenue for the Transportation Tax Fund, Aeronautics Fund, Harbor and Watercraft Revolving Fund, Off-Highway Vehicle Fund, and Department of Agriculture Fund. The objective is to ensure that the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax is administered equitably and effectively by effecting timely reporting of tax liability, and detecting and correcting errors in taxpayers' self-assessments.

The nine cent per gallon gasoline tax is imposed upon distributors and brokers on their taxable distributions of motor vehicle fuel. A two cent per gallon tax is imposed on sales of aircraft jet fuel by dealers to certain users. The State Controller shares responsibility with the State Board of Equalization for the administration of this tax by collecting delinquent tax and making refunds to consumers who use gasoline in an exempt manner.

50.30 Auditing Accounts

Program Element Statement

Accounts to be audited are selected through a process which assures optimum use of field audit time to detect misplaced tax, and deter tax evasion. Selection of accounts for audit places emphasis on those accounts which are expected to produce a deficiency tax change greater than the cost of auditing. These audits protect the tax base and result in a sustained high level of self-declared tax.

55 USE FUEL TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

This program is needed to provide revenue for the Transportation Tax Fund. The objective is to ensure that all Use Fuel Tax revenues are collected in an equitable and effective manner by effecting timely reporting of tax liability, detecting and correcting errors in taxpayer self-assessment and promptly collecting amounts determined to be due and economically recoverable.

The Use Fuel Tax is imposed on users of diesel fuel at nine cents per gallon, liquefied petroleum gas and liquid natural gas at six cents per gallon, and compressed natural gas at seven cents per 100 cubic feet (measured at standard pressure and temperature). The tax applies on use of these fuels in motor vehicles on California highways. An annual flat rate amount may be paid for vehicles using liquefied petroleum gas, liquid natural gas or compressed natural gas. All users must hold permits, file returns, and pay applicable tax. The tax is collected by vendors on fuel sold and delivered into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles. These vendors hold permits, file returns, and report the tax.

55.40 Collecting Taxes Receivable*Program Element Statement

Field offices are primarily responsible for collection action including the use of mail, telephone, and personal contacts. Necessary investigations are made by the field staff to locate assets subject to lien or execution proceedings. Motor vehicles may be seized and thereafter sold when necessary to effect collection of the tax.

In addition to field collection activities, liens are automatically recorded by headquarters seven weeks after the finality date where the amount owed is $100 or more. If the delinquent amount is owed on an active account, a "notice of hearing" preparatory to revocation action is issued simultaneously with the recording of the lien.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1990-91, an increase of $12,000 is proposed to establish a more efficient accounts receivable system.

57 SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL SITE FEE PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

This program is needed to provide revenue for the Solid Waste Disposal Site and Maintenance Account and the Integrated Waste Maintenance Account in the Solid Waste Management Fund. The objective is to administer the collection of two fees on all solid waste disposed at each solid waste landfill required to have a solid waste facility permit. The fees provide funding to respond to potential health and environmental problems at onsite and offsite solid waste landfills. In addition, it will be used to support state and local landfill permit enforcement programs and to provide grants to local agencies to initiate and implement waste separation programs.

Administration includes registering facility operators required to pay the fees; processing annual and quarterly reports; computing the fee liability of each operator; mailing assessment notices; collecting amounts due; auditing accounts; providing statistical analysis of reported amounts; resolving claims for refunds; and advising interested persons regarding the law.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1990–91, 2.9 personnel years and $138,000 is proposed to process the quarterly disposal site fee workload associated with the Board administering the provisions of the California Integrated Waste Management Act of 1989 established by AB 939 (Chapter 1095/89).

58 UNDERGROUND STORAGE TANK FEE PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

This program is needed to provide revenue for the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account in the General Fund. The objective is to collect a fee on all underground petroleum tanks. The fee provides funding in order to monitor and regulate underground storage tanks containing petroleum to protect human health or the environment. The fee, established by statute, is collected yearly from owners and operators of underground storage tanks containing petroleum.

Administration includes issuing billings based upon information received from the Water Resources Board, collecting amounts due, resolving petitions and claims for refund, providing statistical analysis, and advising interested persons regarding the law.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989–90, 3.7 personnel years and $250,000, and in 1990–91, 6.8 personnel years (two year limited-term) and $241,000 is proposed to process workloads associated with the new Underground Storage Tank Maintenance Fee Law established by SB 299 (Chapter 1442/89).

70 INSURANCE TAX PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The program objective is to assess taxes on insurance premiums and on the ocean marine profits of underwriters and to levy retaliatory assessments against "foreign" insurers.

The program is administered jointly by the Board, the Controller and the Insurance Commissioner. The Board is responsible for assessing the tax and adjudicating petitions for redetermination and claims for refund.

The Board renders an annual assessment against each insurance company based on the net premiums on California business other than ocean marine insurance, and the average annual underwriting profit on ocean marine business. It also imposes a retaliatory tax on any out-of-state company doing business in California whenever that company's home state subjects a California company doing business in that state to a greater burden than California imposes on insurers domiciled in that state. The Board also hears taxpayer appeals and makes decisions to grant or deny petitions for redetermination and claims for refund.

80 APPEALS FROM OTHER GOVERNMENTAL PROGRAMS

Program Objectives Statement

An independent administrative review is necessary when a taxpayer disagrees with actions taken by the Franchise Tax Board. Upon the filing of a taxpayer's written request the Board of Equalization provides such a review of assessments of franchise and income taxes and eligibility determinations made in administering the senior citizens property tax assistance program.

There is also a need for an impartial tribunal to settle disputes between entities of local government concerning property tax assessments of county, city and county, or municipally owned property. The review is initiated when the local public entity owning taxable property outside its jurisdiction files an application for review, equalization, and adjustment of the disputed assessment with the Board.

80.10 Franchise and Income Tax Appeals

Program Element Statement

Action is initiated after a taxpayer files a written appeal with the Board of Equalization. The Board's legal staff frames the issues of law and fact by means of memoranda from and stipulations by the parties. After an oral hearing before the Board, the case is referred to the legal staff for review, analysis, and preparation of a written opinion and decision reflecting the views of the Board of Equalization.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1990-91, an increase of $89,000 is proposed to purchase a personal computer network to increase attorney productivity by 25 percent, thus providing for the faster disposition of pending appeals that will generate $15 million in revenue in the Budget year.

05 Corporate Filing

Program Objectives Statement

This program examines, files and/or rejects articles of incorporation, foreign qualifications and related documents to ensure that corporations are properly formed, merged, amended and dissolved in compliance with California law. The program provides proprietary control over the proposed corporate name, the formation and changes in the structure of the corporation, the cancellation and suspension of delinquent corporate entities, thus allowing for the protection of the public interest in corporate business matters. The program also administers the filings of statements of officers, directors and agents for all corporations of record, which enables the public to have access to current information for business contracts, service of process and substituted service of process made through the Secretary of State's Office. Unincorporated Associations, Foreign Partnerships, Foreign Lending Institutions, Foreign Name Registrations and Foreign Associations are also part of this program and are filed and/or rejected in compliance with California statutes, and are available to the public.

07 LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS

Program Objectives Statement

Limited Partnership was authorized by Chapter 807, Statutes of 1981, amended by Chapter 997, Statutes of 1982 as well as by Chapter 1223, Statutes of 1983. The Secretary of State's staff examines and files certificates of newly formed limited partnerships to ensure that pertinent information concerning partnerships is recorded and filed. Related amendments and documents concerning the dissolution and cancellation of partnerships are also filed.

Limited partnerships previously filed similar documents with County Recorders. The legal and business communities, as well as the general public were not able to readily obtain information concerning limited partnerships because the records were spread over 58 counties. This program centralized the filing of limited partnership documents allowing information to be obtained from one source.

Statutory Certification, Bonds and Filings (SCBF) examines, certifies, authenticates and files over 90 different types of filings, most of which are exempt by Statute from a filing fee. These include individual name changes, seller-assisted marketing plans, various bonds and city annexations, incorporations and charters. In addition, authentications and apostilles required in foreign counties are issued on a variety of documents.

Responsibility for trademarks, service marks and unincorporated associations was assumed January 1, 1987 by the Limited Partnership Division. Documents are filed and/or rejected in compliance with provisions of the California Business and Professions Code.

10 ELECTIONS

Program Objectives Statement

The Secretary of State, as California's chief elections officer, ensures that the State's election laws are complied with in a uniform manner. Technical information and legal opinions are issued for the public, Legislative and local election officers regarding election laws and procedures. The continuing complexity of the State's election system requires increased vigilance by the Secretary of State, as well as the promulgation of appropriate rules and regulations to ensure that the State's election laws are uniformly and adequately enforced. In addition, the Secretary of State certifies to the nomination and election of state candidates, and the office is the central repository for voter registration data and official election results.

15 POLITICAL REFORM

Program Objectives Statement

The Secretary of State shares the responsibility for administering California campaign and lobbying disclosure laws enacted as the Political Reform Act of 1974. Under this law, the Secretary of State registers all campaign recipient committees and assures compliance with statutory reporting requirements through the review of campaign receipts and expenditure statements filed. The Secretary of State also registers lobbying firms and employers, reviews the periodic reports filed by lobbying entities, and prepares and publishes a Directory of Lobbyists, Lobbying Firms and Lobbyist Employers.

20 UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

Program Objectives Statement

This program provides for the filing of financing statements and related documents so that a secured creditor may perfect a security interest in personal property covered by a security agreement as against other creditors. Not only does this program afford a secured creditor some protection against debtor bankruptcy, insolvency or default, but it also provides a prospective lender or seller the means to determine if there are any previously perfected security interests involving certain personal property. The division further files notices of federal tax liens against partnerships and corporations, state tax liens and attachment liens against personal property, livestock and judgment liens. The Secretary of State's staff examines all documents presented for filing for statutory compliance. The documents are then filed and open to public inspection. Certificates of filing and copies of filed records are available upon request.

0890 SECRETARY OF STATE—Continued

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989–90, a $1,016,000 deficiency and 17 personnel years were authorized to return to manual processing due to the inability of the recently installed optical disk system to provide sufficient production capacity. Funds are included in this amount to study other technology options to achieve the improved filing timeliness and system responsiveness which were the intended benefits of the optical disk system.
- In 1990–91, $848,000 and 15.9 personnel years are proposed for the continued manual processing.

25 NOTARY PUBLIC

Program Objectives Statement

The business community and general public is served through the appointment of notaries public who perform certain official acts and give official recognition and authenticity to acts and documents executed in their presence. Many documents to be legally or officially acceptable must be notarized. Notary public services generally are related to oaths, affirmations, affidavits, depositions and acknowledgements. Applications for a notary public commission are reviewed to determine that applicants meet the requirements for appointment. Appointments are for four-year terms and under such an appointment a notary may render notarial services throughout the State. The Secretary of State further investigates improper conduct on the part of the notaries public and takes appropriate disciplinary measures if warranted.

30 ARCHIVES

Program Objectives Statement

The California State Archives acquires, catalogs, indexes, preserves and provides reference access to historic and irreplaceable record material from a wide range of origins within the state, supplemented by an oral history program to fill gaps in the documentary materials. The Archives serves the general public directly and assists state agencies and other institutions by providing an organized and select body of California history from all three branches of government. Without this program for assembling historic information, many essential original materials would be lost or destroyed—leaving the state with a reference vacuum that would jeopardize vital state interests. The State Archives, located at 1020 “O” Street in Sacramento, maintains an exhibit hall which is open to the public. Support for the California Heritage Preservation Commission is included in the budget for the State Archives.

35 MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Program Objectives Statement

Management and staff support are provided to executive and line program managers through personnel, fiscal, data processing, general administrative services, management analysis and legislative coordination. Management Services provides the office with a continuing evaluation of programs to assist program managers in greater responsiveness to program requirements. Through analytical studies, development of personnel, fiscal, legislative coordination and other administrative options developed by Management Services staff, the executive staff to the Secretary of State is able to adopt policy, plan and direct the various programs administered by the Department. Fiscal, personnel, electronic data processing, system analysis, computer programming and management analysis provide administrative and policy assistance in the executive direction of the office.

0950 STATE TREASURER

The State Treasurer provides banking services for State government with a minimum interest and service cost and a maximum yield on investments. The Treasurer is charged with the responsibility for the custody of all money and securities belonging to or held in trust by the State; investment of temporarily idle State monies; administration of the sale of State bonds, their redemption and interest payments; and payment of warrants drawn by the State Controller and other State agencies. The Treasurer also is responsible for reviewing the financial soundness of certain local district construction financing proposals.

10 INVESTMENT SERVICES

The State Treasurer has the responsibility for investment of State moneys from the day of receipt until the day that warrants issued to expend these receipts are presented to the State Treasurer's office for redemption. During the 1988-89 fiscal year, this office handled 6,696 security investment transactions totaling $136.7 billion. The Pooled Money Investment Board program accounted for 4,304 of these transactions totaling $131.7 billion; time deposits accounted for 253 transactions totaling $3.9 billion. The remaining $1.1 billion was distributed among other investment programs such as California Housing Finance Fund and Central Valley Water Project Construction Fund. Implementation of this program includes a comprehensive cash forecasting system which permits the purchase of longer term securities, thus maximizing the return from these funds.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, an increase in reimbursement authority of $106,000 is proposed to support the addition of 1.0 position (0.9 personnel year) to respond to increased participation in the Local Agency Investment Fund, which provides investment services to local government entities; and 1.0 position (0.9 personnel year) to perform credit evaluations of corporations, financial institutions, minority investments and other administrative duties.

20 CASH MANAGEMENT

The State Treasurer provides banking services for all State agencies. Included in this element are the deposit of State moneys in the State Treasury and centralized banking system and the redemption of all State warrants. This division is responsible for the processing and security systems related to the vault area.

30 TRUST SERVICES

The State Treasurer is responsible for the safekeeping of all securities and other personal property owned by or pledged to the State. These securities are held in the Treasurer's vault or in approved depositories such as the Federal Reserve Banks in San Francisco and Los Angeles. As of June 30, 1989, the Treasurer was responsible for over $30.8 billion in securities. During the past year, 24,429 security receipts and releases were prepared and processed. In addition 398,850 coupons, representing the interest increment on bearer bonds held, were clipped and processed for collection during Fiscal Year 1988-89.

In order to comply with and mitigate the effects of the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986, the division also carries out programs and strategies. These include establishing and monitoring systems within each department that administers bond funds and operating a program to loan money from the Pooled Money Investment Account to State bond funds, as authorized by Chapter 6, Statutes of 1987. Once loan funds are expended, they are repaid from a later bond sale thereby avoiding tracking and rebating arbitrage profits to the federal government.

This division also performs the selling, issuing, servicing and redeeming of all State of California General Obligation bonds, revenue anticipation notes and many revenue bonds. Interest costs are minimized through a planned bond marketing program. This includes the offering of complete bond services to present bond holders, including flexible bond registration and maintenance of paying agents in New York and Chicago.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91 a total increase of $379,000 in reimbursement authority and 6.0 positions (5.6 personnel years) is proposed to implement the following Budget Change Proposals:

- an increase of $92,000 and one position (0.9 personnel year) to support expanded workload and responsibility of the Division;
- an increase of $121,000 and two positions (1.9 personnel years) to support increased workload in the State's bond programs;
- an increase of $81,000 and two positions (1.9 personnel years) to support increased workload in monthly Debt-Service Reconciliation, bond sales review and other bond services;
- an increase of $60,000 and one position (0.9 personnel year) to support increased workload in the Bond Loan and Cash Monitoring program;
- an increase of $25,000 to convert six temporary help positions to 6.0 permanent positions.

40 DISTRICTS SECURITIES DIVISION

The Districts Securities Division is charged with the supervision of certain fiscal proposals and physical operations of irrigation districts, water districts, water storage districts and certain other types of districts and local entities of the State of California.

The Districts Securities Commission was established in 1931 as a result of a special investigation by the California Irrigation and Reclamation Financing and Refinancing Commission following the default of many irrigation and other districts in payment of principal and interest due on outstanding bonds. The Districts Securities Commission succeeded the Bond Certification Commission which had been created in 1911. Since the creation of this Commission, there has not been a default in payment of principal or interest due on bonds approved by the Commission.

The Districts Securities Commission became a division in the State Treasurer's Office effective November 10, 1969, in accordance with the Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 1.

45 CENTRALIZED BANKING SERVICES

The Centralized Banking Program is responsible for the processing of all state warrants and agency checks; providing the State Controller with computer data for each of the separate state agency accounts for withdrawals; and processing stop payments and forgery items. Other responsibilities include the processing of all deposits of state agencies within the Centralized Treasury System; providing the State Controller with computer data for each of the separate state agency accounts for deposits; reconciling the seven member banks recognized within the Centralized Treasury System; and providing forecasting information to Cash Management Division for cash flow/investment purposes.

Budget Adjustment

The 1990-91 budget reflects the establishment of 1.0 personnel year to be funded through redirection of temporary help funds to provide permanent accounting support to address increased workload requirements in the area of commercial bank reconciliation.

0953 LOCAL AGENCY INDEBTEDNESS FUND LOAN PROGRAM

Pursuant to Chapter 292, Statutes of 1978 and Chapter 512, Statutes of 1980, the Pooled Money Investment Board authorized loans to local agencies from the Local Agency Indebtedness Fund. These loans were to provide relief from temporary difficulties brought about by the approval of Proposition 13 in the June 1978 election and were for the purpose of making payments due on certain non-voter approved bonds. These loans have a maximum repayment period of 20 years. Funding for new loans has been withdrawn.

The expenditures displayed below are for the costs of administering the loans made under this program.

0956 CALIFORNIA DEBT ADVISORY COMMISSION

The California Debt Advisory Commission was created by enactment of Chapter 1088, Statutes of 1981. The purposes of the Commission are to (1) assist the Housing Bond Credit Committee; (2) assist, upon request, issuers in planning, preparing, marketing, and selling new debt issues; (3) collect and provide information on debt authorizations; (4) serve as a statistical center for all State and local debt issues; (5) undertake studies on the methods to reduce costs and improve the credit ratings of State and local issues; (6) collect and summarize specific information concerning the use of proceeds of local housing revenue bonds; (7) collect information on local refunding bonds sold at negotiated or private sale; and (8) provide verification to the State Treasurer in his certification of housing bonds.

The Commission consists of nine members including the State Treasurer, who is chairperson; the Governor or, upon his designation, the Director of Finance; the State Controller; and two local government finance officers appointed by the State Treasurer. Two members of the Assembly and two members of the Senate serve as members of a joint interim Committee and as advising members of the Commission.

The issuer of any proposed new debt issue of State or local government within California is required to give written notice of the sale to the Commission 30 days prior to the sale. Nonprofit student loan corporations, organized for the purpose of acquiring student loans, must also report proposed debt issues to the Commission. The Commission is authorized to charge fees not to exceed one-fortieth of one percent of the principal amount of the issue, not to exceed $5,000 for any one issue. The Commission's activities are funded from the California Debt Advisory Commission Fund and involve no General Fund revenues or expenditures.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENT

- The 1990-91 budget reflects an increase of $47,000 and the establishment of 1 position (1.0 personnel years) to address increased workload for the Commission.

0959 CALIFORNIA DEBT LIMIT ALLOCATION COMMITTEE

The California Debt Limit Allocation Committee was created through a proclamation signed by the Governor on July 19, 1984, in response to the enactment of the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1984. A new proclamation in response to the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 was signed by the Governor on September 30, 1986. Chapter 943, Statutes of 1987, now has superseded the prior proclamations as the continuing authority for the Committee's operation. The Tax Reform Acts of 1984 and 1986 limit the dollar volume of federally tax-exempt "private activity" bonds which may be sold in any one state during a calendar year. The term "private activity," as applied to tax-exempt bonds, generally includes industrial development bonds, housing bonds and student loan bonds. The Tax Reform Act of 1986, in addition to further limiting the purposes for which federally tax-exempt "private activity" bonds may be issued, reduces the dollar volume limit of such bonds to approximately $1.4 billion ($50 per capita) for California after 1987.

The Committee oversees the State's allocation system for the issuance of "private activity" bonds under the provisions of Chapter 943 of 1987. It is comprised of the State Treasurer, as chairperson; the Governor or, upon his designation, the Director of Finance; and the State Controller.

The Committee is funded on a fee-supported basis pursuant to authority contained in Chapter 943, Statutes of 1987.

0962 CALIFORNIA PASSENGER RAIL FINANCING COMMISSION

The California Passenger Rail Financing Commission was created by the provisions of the California Passenger Rail Financing Commission Act (Chapter 1553, Statutes of 1982). The legislation was enacted to encourage the creation of rapid rail transit projects (systems capable of peak speeds exceeding 120 miles per hour) within California in order to reduce auto congestion and air pollution by making alternative financing mechanisms available to sponsors of such projects. The legislation became effective January 1, 1983. The Commission consists of four members. The State Treasurer serves as chairperson with the other three members being appointed; one selected by the Governor, one by the Senate Rules Committee and one by the Speaker of the Assembly.

All activities of the Commission are financed by fees charged to applicants. The Commission is not authorized to commit the State to any general indebtedness. Upon making the determinations required by the Act, the Commission may issue revenue bonds to finance all or part of the acquisition, construction and development of rapid rail transit facilities. The Commission is limited to an aggregate amount of bonds outstanding of $1,250,000,000, but as of June 30, 1989, no projects had been brought before the Commission for review.

The Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 disallows the issuance of federally tax-exempt bonds for private mass commuting facilities, a restriction which could apply to projects to be financed by the Commission. Although the issuance of bonds for privately owned or operated passenger rail projects would no longer be exempt from federal taxation, the Commission could issue bonds which would be exempt from State taxes.

0965 CALIFORNIA INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT
FINANCING ADVISORY COMMISSION

The California Industrial Development Financing Advisory Commission was created by the provisions of the California Industrial Development Financing Act (Chapter 1358, Statutes of 1980). The State Treasurer serves as chairperson of the Commission. The other members are the Director of Finance, the State Controller, the Director of the Department of Commerce and the Commissioner of Corporations.

The Act allows cities and counties to establish industrial development authorities which are empowered to issue industrial development revenue bonds under terms and conditions specified in the Act. Bonds issued under this program are not a debt, liability or a pledge of the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California. Bonds issued for this purpose are subject to the State's "private activity" bond ceiling, as specified in the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986, and allocated by the California Debt Limit Allocation Committee.

The program is intended to benefit economically distressed areas within the State. The proceeds of the bonds provide industry with an alternative method of financing capital outlay required to acquire, construct or rehabilitate facilities which will increase employment or otherwise contribute to economic development.

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

FINANCING ADVISORY COMMISSION—Continued

Administration expenses of Industrial Development Authorities are funded by fees collected from applicants for financing under the Act. Direct expenses of the Commission and those of the office of State Treasurer also are funded by fees collected from applicants and from bond proceeds. Chapter 1605, Statutes of 1982, as amended by Chapter 1109, Statutes of 1987, provides that the aggregate amount of bonds issued shall not exceed $350,000,000 per calendar year for federally tax-exempt issues and a like amount for federally taxable issues.

Pursuant to Chapter 1264, Statutes of 1989, the Commission was extended from January 1, 1990 to January 1, 1992.

0968 CALIFORNIA MORTGAGE BOND AND TAX CREDIT ALLOCATION COMMITTEE

Program Objectives Statement

Chapter 1097, Statutes of 1981, established the California Mortgage Bond Allocation Committee for the purpose of approving mortgage revenue bond allocations for qualified cities, counties and State agencies. The Committee also has the responsibility to certify specific census tracts as areas of chronic economic distress. The Committee was renamed the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee by Chapter 658, Statutes of 1987.

The Federal Mortgage Subsidy Bond Tax Act of 1980 and Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986, with certain exceptions, limit the amount of public bonds, interest upon which is exempt from federal income taxation, that may be issued annually in any state to finance loans for owner-occupied residences, as specified. For Calendar Year 1986, the U.S. Treasury Department established a ceiling for California of $730 million for facility bonds. Approximately $412 million was allocated to State agencies using revenue bonds for low income housing, and $318 million was allocated to 32 qualified cities and counties. The program authorizing the use of tax-exempt mortgage revenue bonds was due to sunset on January 1, 1988; however, the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 extended the sunset provisions to December 31, 1989. The provisions of the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 further stipulate that, generally, single-family and multi-family housing projects financed by tax-exempt bond issuances require an allocation from the State's "private activity" bond limit, allocated by the California Debt Limit Allocation Committee.

The Tax Reform Act provided for low-income housing tax credits of $1.25 per capita for 1987 through 1989, inclusive, or about $33 million per year for California. A Governor's Proclamation signed February 27, 1987, designated the Mortgage Bond Allocation Committee as the agency to allocate the credits. Chapter 658, Statutes of 1987, superseded that proclamation and appropriated $100,000 from the renamed Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Fee Account to supplement the Committee's support. That legislation also authorized a fee to be charged for tax credit allocation activities.

The Committee consists of seven members including the Treasurer, who is designated as the chairman, the Governor or Director of Finance, the State Controller, the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development, the Executive Director of the California Housing Finance Agency and two local government representatives.

Major Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 pursuant to Provision 1 of Item 0968-001-457 of Chapter 93, Statutes of 1989, an increase of $129,000 and the administrative establishment of 5 positions (2.5 personnel years) are reflected to properly budget and fund the support staff utilized by the California Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee to assist them in the performance of their statutorily mandated workload requirements. In 1990-91, the budget proposes $519,000 and 7 positions to permanently establish the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee support staff.

0971 CALIFORNIA ALTERNATIVE ENERGY SOURCE FINANCING AUTHORITY

The California Alternative Energy Source Financing Authority was established by Chapter 908, Statutes of 1980, for the purpose of providing industry within the State an alternative method of financing the construction and installation of facilities using alternative methods and sources of energy. Such construction can help meet the energy needs of the State in a manner which minimizes degradation of the environment and conserves scarce energy resources.

The Authority consists of five members: the State Treasurer, as the chairperson; the State Controller; the Director of Finance; the chairperson of the Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission; and the President of the Public Utilities Commission.

The Authority is empowered to: establish criteria for projects selected for financing; issue revenue bonds; enter into loan agreements for the sale, construction, installation, or acquisition of projects; and assist small business entities in locating a funding source for projects not approved by the Authority.

With the exception of the projects specified in the transition rules of the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986, projects over $10 million generally are no longer eligible for financing with federally tax-exempt bonds; however, such projects could be financed with federally taxable but State tax-exempt bonds. Other federally tax-exempt bonds of the Authority, in general, are subject to the State's "private activity" bond ceiling as specified in the Tax Reform Act and allocated by the California Debt Limit Allocation Committee.

The Authority is authorized to issue up to $200 million in revenue bonds to finance alternative energy projects. As of June 30, 1989, $126.6 million in bonds had been sold.

0974 CALIFORNIA POLLUTION CONTROL FINANCING AUTHORITY

Program Objectives and Description

The California Pollution Control Financing Authority (CPCFA) was established by Chapter 1257, Statutes of 1972, for the purpose of providing California businesses with a reasonable method of financing pollution control facilities needed in the State and to foster compliance with government imposed environmental standards and requirements. The Authority consists of the State Treasurer (Chairman), the State Controller, and the Director of Finance.

The program enables industrial firms and agricultural producers to use funds received from the sale of Authority revenue bonds for the acquisition, construction, or installation of pollution control facilities to meet environmental requirements mandated by public agencies. Companies that have received assistance through the program include food processors, cooperatives, manufacturers, recreational facilities, waste disposal and resource recovery firms, metal platers, public utilities, refiners and marketers. The Authority consults with lenders and investors to arrange financing programs for specific needs. As of June 30, 1989, bonds totaling $5,149,857,000 had been sold by the Authority. Projects ranging from $75,000 to approximately $500 million have been financed.

Chapter 342, Statutes of 1985, was enacted to give CPCFA the legal authority to establish a Small Business Assistance Fund. The Fund is used for small businesses seeking access to tax-exempt financing by providing a mechanism (the financing of credit enhancements) to obtain a bond rating of "A" from a national bond rating service, and an effective interest rate equal to the rate available for large businesses with an "A" rating. The first bonds under this program were issued in the fall of 1989.

In recent years, Federal tax legislation has constrained the ability of CPCFA to issue tax-exempt bonds for private uses (i.e. air and water pollution control projects). Therefore, the Authority's recent bond sales have been principally for resource recovery projects. In addition, the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 imposed a ceiling on the total amount of tax exempt bonds which can be sold in each state. Thus, this Authority's projects must now compete with those from other California Authorities and financing agencies for debt allocation. This limitation has resulted in some of the Authority's projects being only partially funded by tax exempt bond sales.

0977 CALIFORNIA HEALTH FACILITIES FINANCING AUTHORITY

The California Health Facilities Financing Authority (CHFFA) was established by Chapter 1033, Statutes of 1979. The CHFFA consists of nine members: the State Treasurer, the Director of Finance, the State Controller, two public members appointed by the Senate, two public members appointed by the Assembly, and two public members appointed by the Governor.

The Authority was established to issue revenue bonds to assist qualified private nonprofit corporations or associations, counties and hospital districts in financing or refinancing the construction, equipping or acquisition of health facilities. The funding or refinancing is accomplished by making secured or unsecured loans to health institutions; by the direct purchase and leaseback of the health facility by the Authority; or by a health institution acting as an agent for the Authority. The Authority can determine the location and character of any proposed project and can solicit mortgage insurance (State or federal) for any funded project. The eligibility criterion for funding under the Act is that the project be a health facility, as defined in the Act, operated by a private nonprofit corporation or association, city, county or hospital district. Chapters 1228 and 1242, Statutes of 1983, Chapter 39, Statutes of 1986, and Chapter 1426, Statutes of 1987, made certain administrative changes to and broadened the types of facilities that may be financed by the Authority.

Chapter 663, Statutes of 1980, Chapter 1569 of 1982, Chapter 372 of 1984, Chapter 349 of 1985, Chapter 842 of 1986, and Chapter 1125 of 1989 authorize the Authority to issue up to $5.124 billion in revenue bonds for these purposes. As of November 30, 1989, $6,112,187,121 in bonds had been issued for financing health facilities; $1,420,430,000 had been defeased, and $747,666,299 had been retired, leaving $3,944,090,822 in bonds outstanding, of which $566,630,000 in bonds were outstanding for public hospitals, multi-level care facilities, and adult day health care facilities. Bonds issued for public hospitals, multi-level care facilities, and adult day health care facilities are not deemed outstanding by Chapter 1346 of 1985, and Chapter 1228 of 1983 in determining the amount of outstanding bonds. The balance of unissued bonds was therefore $1,746,539,178 as of November 30, 1989.

The Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 generally limits the issuance of federally tax-exempt bonds for health facilities to no more than $150 million outstanding for non-hospital purposes per private non-profit organization. The Tax Reform Act does not restrict health facility bonds in terms of the State's "private activity" bond limit. State law specifically provides that bonds issued shall not be a debt or liability or a pledge of faith and credit of the taxing power of the State or any of its political subdivisions. The full faith and credit of the participating institutions are pledged to the payment of bonds. This is a trust activity, and all operating expenses must be paid from revenues and other moneys available to the Authority.

Chapter 1556, Statutes of 1984, created the County Health Facilities Sinking Fund within the California Health Facilities Financing Authority (Government Code Section 15463) for local health facilities capital improvements. Chapter 1449, Statutes of 1985, renamed the fund the County Health Facilities Financing Assistance Fund. The fund consisted of $10 million from the Special Account for Capital Outlay; $10.2 million in savings from the Medically Indigent Adult and County Health Services programs; $10 million from funds received by the State from the federal government during FY 1985-86, pursuant to Chapter 1440, Statutes of 1985, and Chapter 1449, Statutes of 1985, as amended by Chapter 419, Statutes of 1986; and earned interest of approximately $3,758,143 through June 30, 1989. Transfer of $20.9 million from the County Health Facilities Financing Assistance Fund to the General Fund was authorized by the Budget Act of 1987. As of June 30, 1990, it is anticipated that all remaining monies in the County Health Facilities Financing Assistance Fund, including principal and interest earnings, will be encumbered and disbursed to participating counties. While the program itself will remain as part of the California Health Facilities Financing Authority's Act, without the appropriation of additional funds, no further assistance will be provided from the Fund in FY 1990-91 or beyond.

0983 CALIFORNIA URBAN WATERFRONT AREA RESTORATION
FINANCING AUTHORITY

The California Urban Waterfront Area Restoration Financing Authority (CUWARFA) was created by Chapter 1264, Statutes of 1983. It consists of five members: the State Treasurer, who is designated as chairperson; the Director of Finance; the State Controller; the Secretary for Resources and the Executive Officer of the State Coastal Conservancy.

The Authority was established to issue up to $650 million in revenue bonds to make loans or acquire title to property and to underwrite or undertake directly a variety of urban waterfront development projects within the coastal zone, the Sacramento-Yolo Port District, the Stockton Port District and those metropolitan statistical areas meeting specified conditions. Financing is available for both publicly and privately sponsored projects that provide visitor-serving facilities, waterfront-dependent industries, public recreation and erosion control facilities. The legislation also requires that the State Coastal Conservancy approve both the specific project and a master plan for urban waterfront restoration before any project can obtain CUWARFA approval for revenue bond financing.

The Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 continues the requirement that bonds authorized by CUWARFA generally must be within an allocation from the State's "private activity" bond limit in order for the bonds to be federally tax-exempt. No bonds have been issued by the Authority since it was created, primarily due to changes in the Federal tax laws in 1986.

Chapter 1438, Statutes of 1985, as amended by Chapter 598, Statutes of 1987, established the California School Finance Authority and authorized the Authority to issue $400,000,000 in revenue bonds or other debt instruments. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds are made available to provide loans to school and community college districts to assist in obtaining equipment and new school sites, constructing new facilities, reconstructing existing facilities and acquiring portable/relocatable buildings. The proceeds of loan repayments are to provide necessary resources for bond debt service. All expenditures of the Authority for debt service and other expenses must be paid from the revenues available to the Authority.

As of June 30, 1989, there was a $49,300,000 issue outstanding, of which $1,530,000 has been drawn down by various school districts in the state.

0986 CALIFORNIA STUDENT LOAN AUTHORITY

The California Student Loan Authority was created by Chapter 1357, Statutes of 1980. The Authority is a public instrumentality of the State composed of three voting members (the State Treasurer, the Director of Finance and the State Controller) and two ex officio non-voting members (the Directors of the California Postsecondary Education Commission and the Student Aid Commission).

The Authority was established for the purpose of issuing revenue bonds to purchase federally reinsured student loan notes from eligible lending institutions, thereby assisting in the expansion of student access to these low-cost federally reinsured educational loans. For this purpose, the Authority was authorized to issue tax-exempt revenue bonds in an initial amount of $150,000,000. Chapter 1303, Statutes of 1983, subsequently increased the Authority's debt limit to $300,000,000. Bonds issued for this purpose are subject to the State's "private activity" bond ceiling, as specified in the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 and allocated by the California Debt Limit Allocation Committee.

The law specifically provides that bonds issued shall not be a debt, or liability, or a pledge of the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State or any of its political subdivisions. This is a trust activity and involves no State revenues or expenditures. All expenses must be paid from revenues and other moneys available to the Authority.

0989 CALIFORNIA EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES AUTHORITY

The California Educational Facilities Authority is a public instrumentality of the State comprised of five members: the Director of Finance, the State Controller, the State Treasurer and two public members appointed by the Governor to serve for terms of four years.

The Authority was created for the purpose of issuing revenue bonds to assist private educational institutions of higher learning in the expansion and construction of nonsectarian educational facilities. Facilities used for sectarian instruction or as a place of religious worship are not eligible. Through its ability to issue tax-exempt bonds, the Authority provides lower cost financing to these institutions than they would be able to secure on the open market. The law specifically provides that bonds issued by the Authority shall not be a debt or liability or a pledge of the faith and credit of the taxing power of the State or any of its political subdivisions. The full faith and credit of the participating institutions are pledged to the payment of bonds issued by the Authority. Bonds issued for this purpose are not subject to the State's "private activity" bond ceiling as specified in the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986. The bond financings are issued for institutions on a stand-alone basis and also on a pooled or combined basis. Generally, however, individual institutions requesting the authority to issue tax-exempt bonds for this purpose are limited by the Tax Reform Act to having no more than $150 million in tax-exempt bonds outstanding.

A total of $150,000,000 of bonds initially was authorized by the California Educational Facilities Authority Act contained in Sections 94100 through 94213 of the Education Code. Chapter 537, Statutes of 1979, increased this initial bond authorization to $300,000,000. Chapter 874, Statutes of 1982, increased the authorization to $500,000,000. Chapter 408, Statutes of 1984, further raised the authorization to $750,000,000. Most recently, Chapter 829, Statutes of 1986, raised the authorization to $1,250,000,000.

As of June 30, 1989, bonds and notes in the amount of $1,107,698,566 have been sold (including defeased bonds and notes) as follows: Harvey Mudd College $7,650,000; California Lutheran College $10,920,000; Loyola Marymount University $48,955,000; Pepperdine University $70,885,000; San Francisco Conservatory of Music $1,200,000; Santa Clara University $6,190,000; Southwestern University $3,000,000; Stanford University $391,535,000; University of the Pacific $47,870,000; University of San Diego $39,825,000; Pomona College $33,920,000; Westmont College $11,148,566; the University of Southern California $239,675,000; Los Angeles College of Chiropractic $27,130,000; California Institute of Technology $20,000,000; Occidental College $16,000,000; the University of Redlands $20,090,000; Mount Saint Mary's College $3,625,000; Mills College $4,865,000; Chapman College $2,555,000; Saint Mary's College of California $6,760,000; University of San Francisco $30,300,000; Menlo College $1,180,000; National University $8,220,000; Claremont University Center $12,475,000; Scripps College $350,000; California School of Professional Psychology $535,000; Dominican College of San Rafael $120,000; American Film Institute $6,700,000; Point Loma Nazarene College $18,455,000; Pitzer College $4,155,000; College of Notre Dame $705,000; California College of Arts and Crafts $2,095,000; Claremont McKenna College $2,850,000; and Heald Colleges $5,760,000.

0992 HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE CLEANUP FINANCING AUTHORITY

The Hazardous Substance Cleanup Financing Authority was established by Chapter 1460, Statutes of 1984. The Authority consists of the State Treasurer, who is the chairperson, the Director of Finance and the State Controller.

The Authority is authorized to issue up to $100,000,000 in revenue bonds, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness, for the purpose of financing removal of, and remedial actions to, releases of hazardous substances. The proceeds of the sale of bonds create the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Financing Fund which is continuously appropriated to carry out the provisions of the Authority. The Authority also may fix fees and charges for projects and may receive and use grants or loans from the federal government, any public agency or from any other source. All expenses incurred by the Authority in carrying out the provisions of Chapter 1460 are payable solely from the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Financing Fund. No obligation or liability is imposed upon the State by issue of the revenue bonds or other instruments. As of July 1, 1989, no bond sale had been authorized.

Bonds issued for this purpose generally are subject to the State's "private activity" bond ceiling as specified in the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986, and allocated by the California Debt Limit Allocation Committee; the Act specifies additional restrictions limiting the ability to issue bonds for these purposes.

0994 CALIFORNIA TASK FORCE TO PROMOTE SELF-ESTEEM, AND PERSONAL AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Program Objectives Statement

The California Task Force to Promote Self-Esteem, and Personal and Social Responsibility was created by Chapter 1065, Statutes of 1986 (AB 3659, Vasconcellos). The 25 member task force is mandated to study and make findings concerning the relationships between healthy self-esteem, personal responsibility and social problems. The task force is also required to recommend ways in which study findings can be incorporated into public policy and programs, non-governmental institutions and personal awareness. The task force is scheduled to become inoperative on July 1, 1990.

1100 MUSEUM OF SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY

The Museum of Science and Industry is an educational, scientific and technological center administered by a nine-member board of directors appointed by the Governor. It is located in Exposition Park, a 104-acre tract just south of the central part of Los Angeles, which is owned by the State in the name of the museum.

In a number of State-owned buildings, it presents a series of exhibits and conducts associated programs centering on the scientific and industrial development of the State. In addition, it has responsibility for maintenance of the park, the museum and parking facilities for visitors to the park and museum.

10 EDUCATION

The program performed by the Museum of Science and Industry exhibits our scientific and industrial capabilities and accomplishments. The Executive Director and staff, in cooperation with the nine-member board of directors, administer the museum operation. They also have responsibility for the security and operation of the museum's buildings and Exposition Park.

The primary purpose of this educational program is to create and stimulate the interest of Californians in the fields of science, industry, and economics. It is particularly oriented to reach the largest possible number of the State's young people, with the anticipation that some will pursue scientific, industrial, and economic careers and thereby provide California with needed resources in these fields. The program, in addition to permanent, temporary and traveling exhibits, consists of lectures, seminars, films, science workshops and teaching institutes led by eminent scientists from all over the country. A major portion of these latter activities is financed by the California Museum Foundation Fund which is supported by private contributions. Admission to the museum's exhibits is free.

The Museum of Aerospace Science serves as a national educational model filling a gap between the public's growing use of the benefits of space exploration and research, and its limited understanding of the basic use of these achievements in their daily lives. This building houses exhibits provided by private sources and classrooms, an auditorium, offices and workrooms. In addition, an IMAX theater built and funded by the California Museum Foundation is only the sixth such theater among the museums in the United States.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, $135,000 is proposed for special repairs to be funded from Exposition Park Improvement funds.

30 CALIFORNIA AFRO-AMERICAN MUSEUM

The program presented by the California Afro-American Museum preserves and displays the contributions of Afro-Americans to the arts, science, religion, education, literature, entertainment, politics, sports, and to the history and culture of California and all countries and peoples. The director and staff, in cooperation with the seven-member Board of Directors administer the museum operation.

The purpose of this educational program is to promote awareness and understanding of the accomplishments and contributions of Afro-American culture and heritage. The program consists of permanent, temporary and traveling exhibits, lectures, seminars, films and cultural presentations to young people and adults in the surrounding community, California, and visitors from all over the world. It is anticipated that the Afro-American Museum Foundation will support some of these activities.

03 BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY

A greatly increased percentage of the public and the business structures serving that public are now requiring the services of certified public accountants and public accountants because of the dramatically increased complexity in laws affecting business operations and taxation. This greater degree of sophistication in the practice of accounting makes it mandatory that certified public accountants and public accountants are qualified to render services fully meeting the public's needs and that they maintain such qualification by updating their technical knowledge through required continuing education.

Program Objectives Statement

The Board objectives are to (1) establish and maintain appropriate requirements for education, examination and licensure which are uniformly applied, job related, competency based and administered in a manner which encourages fair competition and broad consumer choice; (2) ensure licensee's continuing competency by advocating and implementing educational and rehabilitative policies; (3) protect the consumer by establishing and maintaining enforcement policies and procedures which ensure enforcement timeliness and relevancy, provide for alternative complaint resolution techniques, recognize the value of "victim" oriented sanctions and rehabilitative measures while also recognizing the need to permit consumer choice.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of $450,000 to retain outside legal counsel to assist the Attorney General's Office in representing the Board when prosecuting cases against major accounting firms.
- An increase of $36,000 for examination site rental costs.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $450,000 to retain outside legal counsel to assist Attorney General's Office in representing the Board when prosecuting cases against major accounting firms.
- A one-time increase of $103,000 for Board and committee members travel and per diem costs pending completion of the enforcement program study.
- An increase of $104,000 for examination site rental costs.
- A reduction of 0.4 personnel years and $4,000 for increased efficiencies resulting from Phase I of the Department's EDP project.

06 BOARD OF ARCHITECTURAL EXAMINERS

The consuming public is subject to serious injury or death should a structure such as a school, store, office building, or dwelling collapse. To reduce the possibility of such an occurrence resulting from faulty design, those who hold themselves out to the public as skilled in the design of such structures must be required to meet the minimum standards established by law. It is also necessary that those who have not proved by education, experience and examination that they meet these minimum standards be prevented from deceiving the public as to their qualifications in the field of architecture.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of $515,000 to convert to the NCARB (national) exam.
- An increase of $143,000 to develop a California Supplemental examination.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $550,000 to conduct a second 2-day graphics examination and for NCARB (national) exam costs.
- An increase of 7.6 personnel years and $304,000 for increased workload in the examination and support sections.
- A one-time increase of $306,000 to complete the development of a California supplemental examination.

Program Objectives Statement

The Board's objectives are: 1) To ensure that only those persons possessing the necessary minimum qualifications are licensed as architects, 2) To enforce the provisions of the Architectural Act and subsequent regulations, and 3) To ensure the ongoing competence of licensees.

09 ATHLETIC COMMISSION

Contestants in boxing and full-contact karate matches are subject to serious injury and death through mismatches and lack of proper medical examinations. The public and State government suffer monetary losses due to fraudulent promotional practices and improper collection and verification of attendance and revenue. The Commission sets standards and enforces them through examinations, regulatory inspections and attendance by Commission representative at all matches, exhibitions and closed circuit events.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is included:

- An increase of $146,000 for increased neurological examination workload.

In 1990-91 the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of $176,000 for increased neurological examination workload.

12 BUREAU OF AUTOMOTIVE REPAIR

California citizens are dependent upon the automobile. When their automobiles break down they are literally immobilized. They are also, for the most part, dependent upon the service industry for repair and maintenance of their vehicles. The fundamental need is for these service transactions to occur in a market place characterized by full disclosure and fair dealing between buyer and seller. This is not always the case. The primary mission of the Bureau of Automotive Repair is to protect the public through enforcement and administration of the provisions of the Business and Professions Code related to automotive repair and maintenance. In addition, the Bureau is also mandated to administer the "Smog Check" program in an effort to reduce harmful vehicular emissions which cause damage to agriculture and to public health.

Program Objective Statement

The Bureau's objective is to reduce the incidence and impact of fraudulent, negligent, and deceptive trade practices by California's auto repair industry against the consuming public and to maximize reductions in vehicular air pollution in California.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of 20.6 personnel years and $2,922,000 to implement the provisions of Chapter 1554, Statutes of 1988 (SB 1997), the Smog Check Program.
- An increase of 1.4 personnel years and $85,000 for administrative support to implement the Smog Check Program.
- An increase of 0.4 personnel year and a savings of $13,000 for a joint venture with the California Youth Authority for wards to provide parts exemption verification services for the BAR.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 47.3 personnel years and $5,712,000 to expand the Smog Check Program to new program areas (6.4 Program Representative I personnel years are Limited Term to 6-30-92).
- An increase of 2.8 personnel years and $138,000 to provide administrative support in the new program areas.
- An increase of 0.9 personnel year on a two-year limited term basis and a savings of $65,000 to allow California Youth Authority wards an opportunity to provide parts exemption verification services.
- A base augmentation of $6,130,000 to provide full year funding to implement Chapter 1554, Statutes of 1988 (SB 1997).

18 BOARD OF BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE EXAMINERS

The confidential and sensitive nature of services performed by marriage, family, and child counselors, licensed clinical social workers, and educational psychologists necessitates the development and enforcement of performance standards and competence consistent with the public welfare. The Board of Behavioral Science Examiners assures that minimum competency standards are met by establishing educational and experience requirements, conducting written and oral examinations, investigating violations of professional ethics and law and disciplining licensees when appropriate.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:
- An increase of 0.3 personnel year and $24,000 for enforcement program workload.
  - An increase of $54,000 for consultant costs to provide clinical expertise for the Board's oral examinations.
  - An increase of 1.4 personnel years and $54,000 for support staff workload (one position limited term to 6-30-92).
  - An increase of 0.3 personnel year and $52,000 to implement Chapter 772, Statutes of 1989 (SB 649).
- In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:
- An increase of 0.5 personnel year and $32,000 for enforcement program workload.
  - An increase of $55,000 for consultant costs to provide clinical expertise for Board's oral examinations.
  - An increase of 2.8 personnel years and $103,000 for support staff workload (one position limited term to 6-30-92).
  - An increase of 0.5 personnel year and $75,000 to implement Chapter 772, Statutes of 1989 (SB 649).

Authority

Business and Professions Code Section 9000

Program Objective Statement

The Board's objective is to make certain that, without exception and in accordance with the law, all persons practicing in the professions regulated by the Board are properly licensed.

24.10 Collection Agencies

Debtors and clients of collection agency services require that collection agencies and their employees be fair and conscientious in the handling of collected moneys, and accountable for actions as required by law. This element consists of two components: The regulatory activities of the bureau and administrative services provided to the private investigators element. These administrative services are funded by a distribution of costs to the private investigators element.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is included:

- $89,000 and 0.9 personnel year for enforcement workload.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is included:

- $134,000 and 1.9 personnel years on a two-year limited term basis for enforcement workload.

The public must have the assurance that those persons who offer services as private investigators, repossessioners, uniformed security guards, private patrol operators, alarm company operators, alarm agents, locksmiths, protection dog operators, and firearm and baton training facilities are fair and competent as required by law. The Bureau ensures that only those persons who can meet the prescribed qualifications be licensed, and enforces standards of ethical conduct established for such licensees.

Budget Adjustment

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is included:

- $215,000 and 3.8 personnel years for enforcement workload.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $408,000 and 7.6 personnel years on a two-year limited-term basis for enforcement workload.
- A baseline reduction of $4,000 and 0.2 personnel years due to efficiencies resulting from Phase I of the Department's EDP project.

30 CONTRACTORS STATE LICENSE BOARD

The Contractors State License Board's mission is to promote the health and general welfare of the public in matters relating to building construction by: (1) ensuring that all construction is performed in a safe, competent and professional manner; (2) providing resolution to disputes which arise from building construction activities; and, (3) providing information so that the public can make informed choices.

Program Objectives Statement

1. To ensure maximum automation of all Board operations.
2. To ensure greater consumer education.
3. To ensure prompt issuance of licenses.
4. To ensure prompt processing of licensee transactions to maintain a license.
5. To ensure prompt responses to telephone inquiries for licensing information.
6. To ensure prompt resolution of complaints.
7. To ensure maximum use of all resources, including industry and private sector to resolve complaints and target specified illegal activity (unlicensed contracting).

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- A one-time increase of $181,000 to complete a pilot project required by Chapter 1495, Statutes of 1988 (AB 4310).
- An increase of 0.8 personnel years and $64,000 to implement Chapter 366, Statutes of 1989 (AB 636).
- An increase of 1.4 personnel years and $101,000 to implement Chapter 368, Statutes of 1989 (AB 841).
- An increase of 0.7 personnel years and $33,000 to implement Chapter 1134, Statutes of 1989 (SB 1038).
- An increase of 0.5 personnel years on a limited term basis through June 30, 1991 to implement Chapter 1132, Statutes of 1989 (AB 967). Funding for this position will be redirected from the Board's base budget.
- As part of the overall General Fund budget strategy, a transfer of $20 million is proposed from the Contractors License Fund to the General Fund. This fund has sufficient reserves to accommodate this transfer and still end the current fiscal year with approximately a five month reserve and the budget year with approximately a three month reserve. The projected budget year level of reserve is considered a prudent amount for an agency of this size.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $843,000 to fund Teale Data Center costs for new computer systems mandated by Chapter 1264, Statutes of 1987 (AB 1280).
- An increase of 0.9 personnel years and $52,000 for increased workload resulting from Chapter 1391, Statutes of 1988 (AB 2993) and Chapter 1177, Statutes of 1989 (AB 762).
- An increase of $36,000 to print the 'Asbestos Brochures'.
- A one-time increase of $40,000 to conduct an examination workload study.
- An increase of 1.4 personnel years and $85,000 to implement Chapter 366, Statutes of 1989 (AB 636).

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

1110 DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS—Continued

- An increase of 2.8 personnel years and $155,000 to implement Chapter 368, Statutes of 1989 (AB 841).
- An increase of 1.3 personnel years and $57,000 to implement Chapter 1134, Statutes of 1989 (SB 1038).
- An increase of 0.9 personnel years on a limited term basis through June 30, 1991 to implement Chapter 1132, Statutes of 1989 (AB 967). Funding for this position will be redirected from the Board's base budget.
- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $154,000 for data processing workload needs.
- An increase of 5.7 personnel years and $830,000 to support the Automated Phone System.
- An augmentation of $25,000 for plastic pocket license cards.
- An increase of $134,000 and 1.2 personnel years limited term through 12-31-90 to complete the pilot project mandated by Chapter 1495, Statutes of 1988 (AB 4310).
- An augmentation of $1,202,000 for rent and relocation of the central and various field office facilities.
- An augmentation of $356,000 to implement recommendations in the Arthur Young Study of the Board's field offices.
- A technical adjustment of 5.7 personnel years and $250,000 full year funding for the Computer Assisted Testing (CAT) Project.
- An increase of 0.9 personnel years and $37,000 for increased personnel workload.
- An increase of 4.8 personnel years and $321,000 for increased workload in the licensing, renewal and bond units due to the amnesty program.

33 BOARD OF COSMETOLOGY

Program Objective Statement

The Board's mission is to protect the consumers of cosmetology services by:

1. Ensuring quality training through the setting of course curriculum and standards and the licensing of schools of cosmetology and electrology.
2. Timely examination and licensing of qualified professionals in the fields of cosmetology, electrology, manicuring, and facials.
3. Promoting the delivery of quality cosmetology services to the consuming public in a healthy and safe environment by licensing and inspecting salons and schools, mediating complaints, and disciplining licensees for wrongdoing.
4. Fostering positive communication with the industry and the public.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of 2.3 personnel years and $89,000 (one-time cost of $59,000 for the purchase of a multi-line automated telephone system) for increased workload related to the public information telephone line.

36 BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS

Dental treatment and care must be performed in a competent and professional manner. To ensure this, the Board of Dental Examiners establishes qualifications for licensure as a dentist, hygienist, assistant, expanded function auxiliary, or professional corporation; administers examinations; approves dental schools and training programs; sets requirements for continuing education; receives complaints and investigates possible violations of the Dental Practices Act; and, enforce policies against unlicensed practice.

Program Objective Statement

The Board's objective is to ensure that the consumer receives dental treatment which meets or exceeds the standards for dental care established by this agency.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 and in 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $199,000 in 1989-90, and 3.8 personnel years and $281,000 in 1990-91, to address a backlog and increased workload in enforcement activities.
- An increase of 0. rsonnel years and $40,000 in 1989-90 and 2.3 personnel years and $92,000 in 1990-91 to implement the Conscious Sedation Program required by Chapter 520, Statutes of 1989 (AB 1417).

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 0.9 personnel years and $36,000 on a two year limited term basis to implement the General Anesthesia Permit Program.
- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $74,000 for verification, reception and continuing education workload.
- An augmentation of $67,000 for increased examination site rental costs.
- An increase of 0.9 personnel years and $180,000 on a two-year limited term basis for exam development costs.

39 BUREAU OF ELECTRONIC AND APPLIANCE REPAIR

With the continuing increase in complexity of electronic technology and the rapid changes in the repair industry (both home electronic entertainment equipment and major appliances), the consuming public is subjected to fraud, deceit, incompetence, and negligence in repair transactions. The objectives of the Bureau are to register and regulate all persons engaged in major home appliance and electronic equipment repair by imposing specific obligations of ethical conduct, honesty, and full and fair disclosure; providing certain safeguards to California consumers when they need repair services; and ridding the repair industry of unscrupulous repair dealers.

48 BOARD OF FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS

Proper handling of human remains is necessary in the interest of public health. The public is also subject to financial loss through fraud or mismanagement of preneed trust accounts. In order to correct potentially hazardous conditions or unlawful practices, the Board licenses only those who demonstrate the necessary skills and knowledge. The Board also polices unlicensed activity, inspects premises and accounts, audits trust funds, approves schools, investigates complaints, and imposes sanctions on those violating code provisions and Board regulations.

Program Objective Statement

The Board's objectives are: (1) to ensure that licensees under the jurisdiction of the Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers are qualified and competent to practice safely and effectively with accountability to the public; and (2) to reduce the incidence and impact of fraudulent, negligent, incompetent and deceptive trade practices by the California funeral industry upon the consuming public.

51 BOARD OF REGISTRATION FOR GEOLOGISTS AND GEOPHYSICISTS

Geological and geophysical investigations relating to: (1) landslides, active faults, earthquakes and land subsidence; (2) ground water and mineral exploration; and (3) planning, design, construction and maintenance of civil engineering projects require degrees of skill and proficiency to avoid death, injury and destruction of property.

Program Objective Statement

1. License qualified geologists and geophysicists.
2. Develop policies, rules, regulations and standards for practice, education and administration of the act.
3. Act on complaints and violations of the law by licensees and nonlicensees.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- A one-time augmentation of $10,000 to contract for a consultant to eliminate the backlog in the enforcement area.
- An augmentation of $78,000 to contract for the review and validation of the Board's exams.

57 BUREAU OF HOME FURNISHINGS AND THERMAL INSULATION

The sale of upholstered furniture, bedding, insulations or waterbeds made with defective, substandard or highly flammable materials poses an unacceptable hazard to consumers. Consumers are also subject to fraud from misrepresentation, misleading product claims or false advertising in the merchandising of goods. The Bureau's objectives are to ensure that fair and reasonable standards are developed, and that those standards are enforced through on-site inspections and investigations and through laboratory testing. Board of Dry Cleaning and Fabric Care and transferred the registration of dry cleaning plants to the Bureau.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91 the following adjustment is proposed:

- An augmentation of 0.9 personnel years and $62,000 on a limited term basis through December 31, 1991 to improve overall efficiencies.

63.10 Medical Board of California

The Board assures the initial and continued competence of the health professions and occupations under its jurisdiction through licensure, investigation of complaints against its licensees, and discipline of those found guilty of violations of the law or regulations.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of $139,000 and 2.3 personnel years for data processing activities.
- A redirection of $12,000 and reduction of 0.6 personnel years to reflect savings resulting from Phase I of the Department's EDP project.
- A redirection of $16,000 and reduction of 0.7 personnel years related to allied health licensing program services.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $314,000 and 4.7 personnel years on a two-year limited term basis for statistical and data processing workload.
- An increase of $147,000 and 4.3 personnel years for license verification workload. (1.4 personnel years are two-year limited term.)
- An increase of $26,000 and 0.5 personnel years on a two-year limited term basis for workload related to the Federal Health Care Quality Improvement Act of 1986.
- An increase of $79,000 and 0.9 personnel years for a Public Information Officer.
- An increase of $99,000 and 1.9 personnel years for the Board's Diversion Program. (0.9 personnel year is two-year limited term.)
- A redirection of $12,000 and reduction of 0.6 personnel years to reflect savings resulting from Phase I of the Department's EDP project.
- A redirection of $33,000 and reduction of 1.4 personnel years related to allied health licensing program services.

Program Objectives Statement

1. To assure that each person licensed by the board and its components meets all requirements of law and regulation for licensure.
2. To promptly respond to complaints against the licensees of the board, and to investigate those which are within the board's jurisdiction, and which represent possible violations.
3. To discipline those licensees who are found guilty of violations of the Medical Practice Act or other laws.
4. To provide a program of diversion and rehabilitation for physicians whose ability to practice medicine with safety is impaired by abuse of alcohol or other drugs, or by mental illness.

This element includes the regulatory activities of the board with respect to physicians, and administrative services provided to the allied health boards and committees under its jurisdiction, which are funded from distributions from their budgets.

63.20 Acupuncture Committee

Acupuncture is a theory and method for treatment of illness and disability and for strengthening and invigorating the body. As it affects the public health, safety and welfare, it is necessary that individuals practicing acupuncture be subject to regulation and control. The Acupuncture Examining Committee accomplishes this through the administration of the provisions of Acupuncture Certification Act.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 and 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 0.1 personnel year and redirection of $2,000 from MBC shared services in 1989-90 and ongoing to adjust an EDP Phase I reduction.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

- An augmentation of $505,000 in 1990-91 to restore the committee's full year funding and to provide for an external exam contractor.
- An increase of $3,000 in 1990-91 to augment staff benefits.

63.30 Hearing Aid Dispensers Examining Committee

It is estimated that one out of every five California citizens has some degree of hearing loss. For those who must wear hearing aid devices, there are dangers from unlicensed or un reputable hearing aid dispensers.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 and 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $4,000 in 1989-90 and $8,000 in 1990-91 for facilities operations costs.
- An increase of 0.1 personnel years and $2,000 redirected from MBC shared services in 1989-90, and 0.2 personnel years and $5,000 redirected from MBC shared services in 1990-91 to implement a recommendation from the Arthur Young shared services study.
- An increase of $8,000 in 1990-91 for additional exam commissioners.
- An increase of $2,000 in 1990-91 to augment staff benefits.

Program Objectives Statement

1. To protect consumers by investigating and examining applicants for hearing aid dispensers licenses and ensuring compliance with all occupational licensing requirements.
2. Discipline those licensed who fail in their public trust.

63.40 Physical Therapy Examining Committee

Physical therapists in independent practice treat patients who have disabilities resulting from accidents, congenital defects or illnesses. In order to ensure proper patient evaluation and treatment, those persons skilled in the profession of physical therapy must meet the minimum standards established according to law. This is accomplished by licensing those who possess the necessary qualifications and enforcing standards of ethical conduct established for such licensees and policing against unlicensed practice.

Budget Adjustment

In 1989-90 and 1990-91 the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- A one-time augmentation of $10,000 in 1989-90 to prepare a manual on the Committee's enforcement procedures.
- An augmentation of $9,000 in 1989-90 and $15,000 in 1990-91 for increased examination costs.
- An augmentation of $11,000 in 1989-90 and in 1990-91 for office rent.
- An increase of 0.1 personnel year and redirection of $2,000 from MBC shared services in 1989-90 and on-going to adjust an EDP Phase I reduction.
- An increase of 0.2 personnel years and redirection of $5,000 from MBC shared services in 1989-90 and 0.4 personnel years and redirection of $9,000 from MBC shared services in 1990-91 to implement a recommendation from the Arthur Young shared services study.

63.50 Physician's Assistant Examining Committee

Concern over the growing shortage and geographic maldistribution of health care services in California has been expressed in both the private and public sector. The physician's assistant is one category of health care manpower that is providing a means by which California can combat this shortage. The effective use of physician's assistants enables the physician to delegate health care tasks where such delegation is consistent with the patient's health and welfare, thereby freeing the physician to concentrate his or her skills on more complex health care services.

The Physician's Assistant Examining Committee facilitates the utilization of physician's assistants by assuring the public that the Committee's licensees and approved programs have met certain minimum requirements. Such minimum licensing requirements attempt to protect the public from inadequately trained, unethical or incompetent practitioners.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 and 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of 0.2 personnel years and $5,000 redirected from MBC shared services in 1989-90, and 0.4 personnel years and $9,000 redirected from MBC shared services in 1990-91 to implement a recommendation from the Arthur Young Shared Services Study.
- An increase of 0.2 personnel year and redirection of $4,000 from MBC shared services 1989-90 and ongoing to adjust an EDP Phase I reduction.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is included:

- An increase of $3,000 for staff benefits.

63.80 Speech Pathology and Audiology Examining Committee

Many thousands of California citizens are afflicted with serious hearing and disabilities occasioned by congenital disorders, occupational injuries and diction-related disfunctions. Recognizing the dimensions of their need for professional services, the State instituted licensure requirements and established this Committee to ensure that only those possessing the necessary qualifications are licensed.

Budget Adjustments

66 BOARD OF EXAMINERS OF NURSING HOME ADMINISTRATORS

The Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators assures that the health, safety, security and individual rights of long-term care patients are safeguarded.

In licensing nursing home administrators the board prescribes standards for licensing of administrators, provides and monitors and administrator-in-training program for prospective licensees, examines applicants, issues licenses, and administers an enforcement program which is responsible for taking disciplinary actions against administrators who violate provisions of the Business and Professions Code.

Program Objectives Statement

The principal objectives of the Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators are as follows:

1. Through a program of examination and licensure, to identify to the consuming public those persons who have demonstrated that they are qualified to function as Nursing Home Administrators.
2. To insure, through the setting of standards and through disciplinary actions, that Nursing Home Administrators provide quality services to their patients, in accordance with the laws and the rules governing nursing homes.
3. To assure that complaints against Nursing Home Administrators are investigated completely and thoroughly, and appropriate disciplinary action is taken as indicated.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 and 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- In 1989-90, an increase of 0.4 personnel years and $25,000 and in 1990-91, an increase of 0.9 personnel years and $53,000 on a limited term basis through 6-30-91 for workload related to Chapter 816, Statutes of 1987 (AB 1834).

69 BOARD OF OPTOMETRY

The administration of the Optometry Practice Act includes administering a licensing examination and issuance of licenses for the practice of optometry, licensing branch offices, registration of optometric corporations, issuing fictitious name permits, issuing statements of licensure, accrediting schools and colleges of optometry, and enforcement of the regulatory features of the Act, for the protection of the consumer patient.

Program Objective Statement

The Board's objectives are to insure that only those who possess the optometric expertise and knowledge can acquire and hold a license to practice as a licensed optometrist within the provisions of the Optometry Practice Act. The incompetent practitioner could cause serious eye injury to the consumer patient. In order to reduce the possibility of such occurrence, the Board is required to enforce the optometry legal statutes and to discipline the malfeasant practitioner.

72 BOARD OF PHARMACY

The distribution and dispensing of prescription drugs and controlled substances must be regulated to prevent illegal distribution or improper use of these potentially dangerous substances. Also the patient must be properly consulted regarding the possible harmful effects if the drug is misused. To accomplish this, the Board of Pharmacy sets minimum requirements for licensure of pharmacists and health and safety standards for the licensure of pharmacies, drug wholesalers and medical device retailers. The Board oversees a continuing education program, receives complaints and investigates possible violations, investigates unlicensed practices and inspects pharmacies and drug wholesalers regularly for compliance with Board rules and regulations.

Program Objective Statement

(1) To ensure that licensees are qualified and competent to practice their profession safely and effectively with accountability to the public, (2) to promote and protect public health and safety through enforcement of statutes, and (3) to support full utilization of the pharmacist's knowledge and expertise in drug therapy to effect better patient care.

Budget Adjustments

- An increase of $50,000 is included in 1989-90 for pro-rata charges to the Board.

74 POLYGRAPH EXAMINERS BOARD

The Polygraph Examiners' licensure program was established by the Legislature in 1983 to protect consumers from errant examiners and provide law enforcement and business with an effective tool for investigating criminal matters and reducing employee theft.

Budget Adjustments

The Polygraph Examiners Board will sunset January 1, 1990 Therefore, this budget reflects only six months expenditures.

Program Objective Statement

The program objectives have been to protect the public from incompetent, unlicensed polygraph examiners and to ensure that all polygraph instruments used to determine the truthfulness of statements record visually and permanently the cardiovascular, respiratory and galvanic skin resistance patterns of each individual tested. These objectives were addressed by enforcing disciplinary procedures, investigating complaints, approving instruments, and examining applicants.

75 BOARD OF REGISTRATION FOR PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS AND LAND SURVEYORS

The design of buildings, roads and communications systems and the determination of property lines and preparation of official maps require both adequate education and technical expertise. The board ensures that engineers and land surveyors meet professional standards. It examines, licenses and registers these individuals, enforces the Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors Acts, and provides additional enforcement services to local government agencies.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of $611,000 for test development and validation.
- An increase of $128,000 for Enforcement Program costs.

In 1990-91 the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $440,000 to provide contract funding for the Examination Unit.
- An increase of $130,000 for Enforcement Program costs.
- An increase of 0.5 personnel years and $60,000 to establish a two-year limited term position in the Enforcement Unit for analytical workload.
- An increase of 0.7 personnel years and $80,000 and a redirection of $20,000 from the Temporary Help blanket to establish two positions for administrative support.
- An increase of $108,000 to fund microfilming of license files.
- A base reduction of 0.2 personnel years and $4,000 to reflect increased efficiencies resulting from Phase I-EDP Project.

78 BOARD OF REGISTERED NURSING

The registered nurse has the responsibility directly and indirectly for administration of safe, effective nursing care to the consumer, including directing and coordinating the activities of ancillary health team members. Failure of the registered nurse to perform in a competent, responsible manner can result in deleterious effects on the health, safety and welfare of the consumer public. It is essential that all registered nurses be well-prepared through basic and on-going education and training to provide quality health care to the consumer public. The Board of Registered Nursing ensures that RN's are competent and safe to practice through 1.) sound licensing standards, 2.) a continued competency program, 3.) an effective enforcement program to prosecute violations of the Nursing Practice Act, 4.) a diversion program to intervene with chemically dependent or mentally ill nurses, and 5.) public information efforts.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of $224,000 and 2.2 personnel years for licensing workload.
- An increase of $132,000 and 0.9 personnel years for the Diversion Program.
- An increase of $63,000 and 0.9 personnel years for continuing education audits.
- An increase of $17,000 and 0.3 personnel years for the Probation Monitoring Program.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $422,000 and 4.3 personnel years on a two-year limited term basis for licensing workload.
- An increase of $205,000 and 1.9 personnel years on a two-year limited term basis for the Diversion Program.
- An increase of $109,000 and 1.9 personnel years for continuing education audits.
- An increase of $24,000 and 0.5 personnel year on a two-year limited term basis for the Probation Monitoring Program.
- A baseline reduction of $18,000 and 1 personnel year as a result of savings related to Phase I of the Department's EDP project.

84 STRUCTURAL PEST CONTROL BOARD

Scientific and professional standards are necessary to assure the public that persons obtain and maintain the skills and knowledge to inspect the structural condition of buildings for pest problems, identify pests, apply pest control chemicals, and recommend and implement other means to control structural pests. The Board's objective is to license those persons that possess the necessary qualifications to professionally perform structural pest control work.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of $90,000 to implement Chapter 641, Statutes of 1989 (AB 908).
- A one-time increase of $60,000 to implement Chapter 1682, Statutes of 1989 (AB 1682).

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $105,000 to implement Chapter 641, Statutes of 1989 (AB 908).
- An increase of $3,000 for ongoing costs to implement Chapter 1682, Statutes of 1989 (AB 1682).
- A reduction of 0.1 personnel years and $2,000 to reflect increased efficiencies resulting from Phase I of the Department's EDP project.

87 TAX PREPARERS PROGRAM

In order to protect the public from potential abuses found in the commercial tax preparation industry, the Tax Preparers Program, through registration, regulates the business practices and advertising of commercial tax preparers.

Program Objectives Statement

Investigate preparers suspected of fraud, dishonest dealing or negligence. Coordinate the efforts of local district attorneys and the Attorney General to prosecute those preparers guilty of injuring customers. Inform consumers of their rights and remedies under the law through the print and electronic media.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following adjustment is proposed:

- A reduction of 0.1 personnel year and $2,000 to reflect increased efficiencies resulting from Phase I of the Department's EDP Project.

90.10 Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine

Veterinarians protect the health and welfare of animals and the public through prevention, control and eradication of animal diseases. Examination assures minimum competency through licensure. Enforcement of minimum standards of practice are carried out through unannounced inspections of veterinary hospitals and mobile facilities. The Board further responds to complaints, investigates alleged violations and has the authority to administer fines and suspend or revoke licenses.

This element includes two components: the regulatory activities of the Board and administrative services provided to the Animal Health Technicians Examining Committee. These services are funded by a distribution of costs to the committee.

91 BOARD OF VOCATIONAL NURSE AND PSYCHIATRIC TECHNICIAN EXAMINERS

Inadequately trained personnel may render patients poor quality health care services. Through licensure of vocational nurses and psychiatric technicians, the Board requires persons to demonstrate minimum competence. The board establishes and enforces standards of conduct necessary to protect the public. Educational and training program approval by the Board is required. Nursing education consultants assist schools in meeting and maintaining standards.

93 DIVISION OF CONSUMER SERVICES

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Division seeks to promote the general interests of California consumers and provides complaint resolution for problems not within the jurisdiction of other Federal, State and local agencies. The Division's objectives are:

1. Represent consumer interests at local, state and federal levels in administrative, legislative, and judicial proceedings.
2. Institute consumer protection services at local and state levels.
3. Service consumer complaints and reduce complaints at the state level.
4. Educate consumers to protect themselves.
5. Research, analyze, and develop systematic solutions to consumer problems.
6. Prevent fraudulent and misleading advertising.
7. Disseminate information to the public regarding departmental activities.
8. Cooperate with consumer groups.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- $125,000 and 2.8 personnel years for the division's workload needs.

94.01 Administrative Services

This element includes four components: the Division of Administration, the Division of Investigation, the Division of Technology, and Building Maintenance and Operation.

94.01.010 Division of Administration

Decentralization of administrative specialties to the constituent agencies is not economically feasible. Therefore, a management and administrative program has been developed which is an integral feature of the total program activity and is designed to meet the overall goals of the Department.

The costs of administration are distributed to all of the Department's constituent agencies by a pro rata formula based on a ratio of each agency's personnel years to the total in the department.

The Division is actively pursuing the following courses:

1. Evaluating the examination processes of the licensing agencies as they relate to prohibitive qualification requirements and restrictive entry.
2. Interviewing prospective board and committee members to ensure better public and industry representation.
3. Examining the constituent agencies to ensure that they are serving a useful purpose and are responsive to public need.
4. Reviewing and monitoring disciplinary processes employed to ensure that they meet the due process requirements of the 14th Amendment.
5. Coordinating and overseeing the Division of Consumer Services operation to effectively implement the mandates of the Consumer Affairs Act.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of 5.6 personnel years and $366,000 to reflect the redirection of the Central Cashiering function from Division of Technology to Accounting.
- An increase of $39,000 and 0.9 personnel years to plan the Department's relocation.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 2.8 personnel years and $88,000 to provide administrative support services to the various Boards and Bureaus.
- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $75,000 for workload backlogs and ongoing workload needs in the Accounting Section.
- An increase of 2.8 personnel years and $134,000 for increased workload in the Business Services Office.
- An increase of 8.5 personnel years and $352,000 to complete the reorganization of the Central Cashiering Unit in the Accounting Section.
- An increase of 0.9 personnel years, (one-year limited term) and $54,000, for workload in the Internal Audits Office.
- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $96,000 (two-year limited term) for workload in the Labor Relations Office.
- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $77,000 to provide planning and support services in implementing the Department's relocation.
- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $93,000 to provide policy review of regulation proposals and sunrise reports.

94.01.020 Division of Investigation

The Division of Investigation provides centralized investigative services for 23 licensing agencies within the Department of Consumer Affairs. The Division's mission is to protect public health and safety by providing objective, timely and cost-effective investigations regarding allegations of misconduct by licensees of client agencies, and to develop information for filing criminal, administrative and civil actions by or on behalf of these agencies. The Division is compensated by a pro-rata formula based on the hours of service provided to each client agency.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following adjustment is proposed:

- An augmentation of $85,000 for staff benefits.

Authority

Business and Professions Code Section 159.5.

94.01.030 Building Maintenance and Operation

The occupants of the department-owned Consumer Affairs Building are subject to serious injury should the 47-year-old structure be allowed to deteriorate. The purpose of the maintenance and operational program element is to ensure the safety and welfare of the building's occupants and the visiting public.

The building is currently occupied by the executive and administrative offices of the Department, 18 of the Department's constituent agencies, and by the State Board of Equalization. The costs of the component are offset by rents collected from the occupants.

94.01.040 Division of Technology

The Division of Technology provides the technical expertise to develop, implement and operate efficient and effective automated information systems. These systems support various constituent agencies in the production of licenses, renewal applications, renewal licenses, statistical reports and examination data. The Division also provides oversight and sets policy for all information technology projects within the Department including those agencies which have their own data processing staff. The costs of this division are distributed to the department's constituent agencies by a formula based upon usage.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are included:

- An increase of 9.8 personnel years and $1,729,000 to develop and implement the enforcement and applicant tracking component (Phase II) of the departmentwide EDP project.
- A reduction of 3.8 personnel years and $82,000 to reflect the redirection of the Centralized Cashiering function to Accounting.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 29.0 personnel years, 8 of which are limited term, and $4,163,000 to develop and implement the enforcement and applicant tracking component (Phase II) of the departmentwide EDP project. Of this amount, $849,000 is to be redirected to the Boards, bureaus and commissions for Teale Data Center costs.
- A reduction of 3.8 personnel years and $120,000 to reflect the transfer of the Centralized Cashiering function to Accounting.
- A reduction of $413,000 to reflect the redirection of Teale Data Center costs to the individual Boards and Bureaus consistent with Phase I implementation of the Department's EDP project.

1705 FAIR EMPLOYMENT AND HOUSING COMMISSION

The Fair Employment and Housing Commission is a quasi-judicial body responsible for the enforcement of State civil rights laws against discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations. The seven members of the Commission are appointed by the Governor. The Commission issues decisions on accusations prosecuted before it by the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, interprets civil rights statutes through regulations and provides a forum for civil rights concerns.

The objective of the Commission is to ameliorate social tensions and guarantee equal opportunity in employment, housing and public accommodations by preventing and eliminating discrimination based on race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, physical handicap, medical condition and age over 40.

10 PUBLIC FIRE SAFETY

Program Objectives Statement

The primary responsibility of the State Fire Marshal is the protection of life and property from fire. This responsibility is met through the development, maintenance and enforcement of fire safety standards for all educational and institutional occupancies, public assembly facilities, organized camps, buildings over 75 feet in height and in all State-owned/occupied structures. Provisions relative to the control of portable fire extinguishers, engineered (fixed) fire extinguishing systems, explosives and special effects, fireworks, decorative materials and fabrics, building materials and other fire safety products, and wearing apparel are also developed, maintained and enforced on a statewide basis.

The State Fire Marshal also conducts investigations to approve and list products found to be in compliance with the adopted standards; conducts arson investigations; and assembles, tabulates and analyzes reports of all fires occurring in the State. The State Fire Marshal inspects various local jails and holding facilities, should they not be inspected by a local agency. Training in fire prevention and fire suppression is provided to fire departments in California with special emphasis on training those departments that are volunteer and partly-paid. Training in arson and bomb investigation is provided to fire departments and law enforcement agencies throughout the State. The State Fire Marshal is the liaison to the California film industry for special effects fire and safety procedures.

Although most life and property losses attributable to fire involve singular or minor incidents, the potential of a catastrophic occurrence is always present. It is the lack of these major occurrences which principally marks the effectiveness of the efforts expended.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are proposed:
- An increase of 1.6 personnel years and $80,000 to accommodate increased administrative support workload in the Personnel Unit and the Legislation, Regulation and Research Unit. This adjustment is funded through departmental overhead charges and related to workload increases requested by client agencies.
  - An increase of 4.5 personnel years and $338,000 to address increased plan checking and fire and life safety inspection workload for local detention facilities and health care facilities. These costs are fully reimbursed by client agencies.
  - A salary savings adjustment of 1.1 personnel years and $68,000 to assure that sufficient resources are available to meet contractual agreements with client agencies.
  - A reduction of 1.8 personnel years and redirection of $79,000 from personnel services to operating expenses consistent with an interagency agreement with the Department of General Services for contract fiscal services.
- In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:
- An increase of 0.9 personnel year and $86,000 on a two-year limited term basis to address increased pipeline inspection workload related to new jurisdictional areas as required by Chapter 1195, Statutes of 1988 (AB 4641).
  - An increase of 0.9 personnel year and $86,000 to train fire service personnel to handle pipeline emergencies and to act as liaison with the fire service on pipeline issues.
  - An increase of 11.0 personnel years and $860,000 to address increased plan checking and fire and life safety inspection activities at prisons, local detention facilities, and health care facilities. These reimbursable costs are fully funded by client agencies.
  - An increase of 2.8 personnel years and $186,000 to inspect and approve laboratories that test fire safe building materials and equipment as required by Chapter 616, Statutes of 1989 (AB 2350).
  - An increase of 0.9 personnel year and $84,000 in reimbursements to perform pre-inspections of new community care facilities as required by Chapter 993, Statutes of 1989 (SB 1098). It is intended that this program be fully self supporting and legislation to raise fee levels to defray full costs will be pursued.
  - An increase of 0.9 personnel year and $101,000 on a one-year limited term basis to continue to monitor pipeline construction activities.
  - A one-time equipment increase of $112,000 to purchase X-ray machines and bomb suits for bomb technicians in the Arson and Bomb Division.
  - A salary savings adjustment of 2.2 personnel years and $136,000 to assure sufficient resources are available to meet contractual agreements with client agencies.

- An adjustment of $73,000 to properly align and budget increased workers' compensation costs.
- An increase of 3.3 personnel years and $168,000 to accommodate increased administrative support workload in the Personnel Unit and the Legislation, Regulation and Research Unit. This adjustment is funded through departmental overhead charges related to workload increases requested by client agencies.
- A reduction of 1.8 personnel years and redirection of $85,000 from personnel services to operating expenses to contract with the Department of General Services for fiscal services.

1730 FRANCHISE TAX BOARD

The Board consists of the State Controller, the Chairman of the State Board of Equalization and the Director of Finance. An Executive Officer, appointed by the Board, implements the policies and performs such duties as are delegated by the Board.

The objective of the Franchise Tax Board is to fairly, effectively and efficiently administer those programs and functions delegated to the Board by the Administration and mandated by law, including self-assessed income tax programs, programs to distribute benefits to the public and functions that contribute to the State's operational effectiveness.

1730 FRANCHISE TAX BOARD—Continued

The Franchise Tax Board administers the Personal Income Tax and Bank and Corporation Tax Laws through the Tax program which includes self-assessment, audit, collection and filing enforcement activities. In 1990-91, the Tax program will contribute a significant portion of the General Fund revenue.

As part of the Homeowners and Renters Assistance program, the Board will authorize about $27 million in disbursements to Assistance claimants in 1990-91 (see 9100 Tax Relief). The Board also provides processing services through contracts with other governmental entities and performs audits and field investigations of campaign statements and lobbyist reports authorized by the Political Reform Act of 1974.

To enhance the effectiveness of its programs, the Franchise Tax Board provides a statewide toll free telephone system through which taxpayers and claimants can request forms, obtain answers to filing and/or related tax questions or resolve account problems. In 1988-89, 3.5 million calls were attempted. The department staff answered 2.0 million of these calls, which is estimated to be 57.8%. For 1989-90, the department estimates that 3.7 million calls will be attempted and 2.3 million (61.5%) calls will be answered. For 1990-91, the department estimates that 3.9 million calls will be attempted and 2.7 million calls will be answered. This represents 61.5 percent of taxpayer assistance calls and 85 percent of collections and filing enforcement calls.

10 TAX PROGRAMS

Program Objectives Statement

The program objective is to provide a sound revenue base for the General Fund. This objective is attained through the development and maintenance of an effective and equitable tax system that encourages individuals and corporations to comply with filing, reporting, and payment requirements and to accurately determine their tax assessments.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, 2 personnel years and $101,000 deficiency was authorized to conduct additional audit activities.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 158.4 personnel years and $5,399,000 for workload increases associated with processing tax returns, estimates, claims, and related documents, and maintaining public assistance activities at current service levels.
- 58.9 personnel years and $2,704,000 to conduct additional audit activities.
- 27.8 personnel years and $952,000 to conduct additional filing enforcement and collection activities.
- 22.8 personnel years and redirection of $754,000 in savings from refinancing the headquarters facility for support of the Taxpayer Information Project.
- $372,000 to increase efficiencies in the Information Center and expand the level of telephone service for collections and filing enforcement calls.

This will result in a net reduction of 5.4 personnel years and an accelerated earlier collection of revenues.

10.10 Personal Income Tax

The Personal Income Tax provides the largest source of General Fund revenue. The use of withholding-at-source method of collection provides receipts to the state, evenly distributed throughout the tax year, as well as maximum interest earnings. In 1990-91, approximately 15 million individuals, partnerships, trusts, and estates will be assessed net taxes representing about 44 percent of General Fund revenues.

10.20 Bank and Corporation Tax

Program Objectives Statement

The Bank and Corporation Tax Law provides the third largest source of General Fund revenue to the State. The Bank and Corporation tax contributes approximately 15 percent of General Fund revenue. In 1990-91, an estimated 599,000 banks and corporations will be subject to franchise or income taxes on business conducted in California.

20 HOMEOWNERS AND RENTERS ASSISTANCE

Program Objectives and Description Statements

The program objective is to authorize partial repayment of property taxes or rent paid by eligible senior citizens, disabled, or blind individuals as authorized under the Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Law on a timely basis. The principal program activities include: design and distribution of claim forms and instructions; providing advisory services to claimants; and processing claims.

The law requires the submission of assistance claims after May 15 and before August 31 of each year, while payment of those claims shall be made after June 30 and before October 31 of each year.

30 POLITICAL REFORM AUDIT

Program Objectives Statement

The program objective is to determine the accuracy and completeness of statements and reports as required under the Political Reform Act of 1974. This is accomplished by conducting audits and field investigations in an objective manner and reporting the results, in detail, to the Fair Political Practices Commission.

The Political Reform Act of 1974 requires the staff to make audits and field investigations of randomly selected campaign statements and lobbyist reports filed with the Secretary of State except for campaign statements filed by candidates for federal or local offices, the State Controller, and the Board of Equalization. The department must also audit statements filed by: committees supporting or opposing the above candidates; committees supporting or opposing statewide measures; and any state or county central committee or independent committee which spends $10,000 or more.

70 CONTRACT WORK

Program Objectives and Description Statement

The program objective is to provide effective and efficient services to other governmental entities through performance of contracted activities. The availability of sophisticated data processing equipment and skilled personnel enables other departments to obtain high quality processing services. All costs relating to these services are reimbursed to the department. The program allows fixed departmental costs to be allocated to a wider base of program activities thereby reducing the costs charged to each of the department's other programs.

80 ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

The program objectives are to assure that the Personal Income Tax Law, the Bank and Corporation Tax Law, the Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Law and the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Chapter 10) are administered in accordance with the policies and directives of the Franchise Tax Board.

Administration provides overall leadership, planning and support to the programs through the Executive Officer, management, fiscal and personnel administration, statistical research and reporting, program planning, and supply and maintenance services.

10 PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Program Objectives Statement

With a multimillion dollar investment in facilities for state offices and employees, centralized responsibilities for planning, acquisition, design, construction, maintenance and operation are needed to avoid duplication of effort and uncontrolled investment in office space. This is achieved in the following ways: (a) Providing adequate space for state operations at a cost below that which each agency could provide for itself; (b) Assuring protection of lives and property in public buildings and hospitals through design and construction supervision; (c) Insuring that facilities constructed with state funds are accessible to the physically handicapped; (d) Establishing uniform public health and safety regulations for building construction; (e) Providing impartial hearings for the general public and construction industry in their interactions with state agencies; (f) Acquiring, managing and disposing of real property (except leases) for state agencies, and providing public service facilities with economy of operations and uniform practices for protecting the public's interests and insuring equitable treatment of private property owners; (g) Preserving the state's capital investments in buildings, grounds, and equipment through an efficient and effective centralized maintenance and operations program; (h) administering the State's School Building Aid law, which provides financial assistance to school districts for the development of school sites, construction, and reconstruction of school buildings and purchase of furniture and equipment.

10.10 Architectural Consulting and Construction Services

Program Element Statement

Architectural Consulting and Construction Services is comprised of three components: Architectural and engineering services, structural safety plan checking and physically handicapped plan checking. The architectural and engineering services component consists of the design, construction, and inspection of major State office buildings, other new facilities and alterations of existing facilities. Some design work is contracted out to private architectural and engineering firms, as warranted by the workload. The structural safety plan checking component consists of reviewing public school and hospital plans and the supervision of the construction of these facilities to ensure the protection of life and property from seismic occurrences. The physically handicapped plan checking component consists of reviewing plans and specifications for any public funded building to ensure compliance with physically handicapped accessibility requirements.

10.20 Buildings and Grounds

Program Element Statement

The Office of Buildings and Grounds maintains and operates State office buildings, grounds and surplus property. The division also coordinates and inspects building alterations, utilizing private contractors.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of $262,000 to fund increased utility costs.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $70,000 to provide painting services to the Franchise Tax Board and groundskeepings services to the Department of Transportation.
- A decrease of $11,000 as a result of savings attributable to four energy bond funded service contracts.
- An increase of $744,000 to fund increased utility costs.
- An increase of 40.9 personnel years and $2,314,000 to fund the maintenance and operation of the Ronald Reagan State Office Building.
- A one-time increase of $5,197,000 to fund special repair costs.

10.30 Project Development and Management

Program Element Statement

The Office of Project Development and Management formulates and maintains the development of office and parking facilities in both major (over 250,000 population) and minor metropolitan areas within the State. In so doing it is necessary for this office to develop data and information which enables it to forecast future agency space and parking requirements in these same areas. In response to these plans this office then initiates through the Department of General Services the first steps which lead to the construction, financing and/or purchasing of a facility. This is accomplished through the capital outlay and legislative processes.

The Project Control Unit and Project Support Unit are responsible for overseeing the administration of the State's capital outlay building program which involves budget estimating, project scheduling, consultant contract coordination, and overall project management.

An increasingly important function of this office is to perform environmental studies on behalf of the Department. The office also performs site feasibility and location studies, economic analyses and energy related studies.

The Office of Project Development and Management also is responsible for the review of space requests to ensure their compliance with long range plans in effect in a given area. Other responsibilities include the performance of parking studies and development of the five-year Capital Outlay Program. In addition, many special projects and studies on related subjects are undertaken for other departments and the legislative and executive branches of government. This office provides environmental review services to all departments and performs environmental studies and reports as required by the California Environmental Quality Act.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 and 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 4.7 personnel years and $611,000 in the current year and 8.2 personnel years and $622,000 in the budget year to manage increased workload related to the State's Major Capital Outlay and Child Care programs.

10.40 Local Assistance

Program Element Statement

The Office of Local Assistance administers four major programs including the State School Building Lease-Purchase, Portable Classroom, Deferred Maintenance, and the Asbestos Abatement programs. These programs provide funding to K-12 school districts for the acquisition and development of school sites, construction or reconstruction of school buildings, maintenance of existing facilities, the placement of portable classrooms, and the removal of hazardous asbestos in school facilities. This assistance is provided to districts experiencing significant growth, as well as those having buildings which do not meet earthquake safety requirements.

Other activities include: (1) investigation of unused school sites to determine whether a district will make payments to the state for nonuse, (2) administration of other programs of financial assistance to local agencies as assigned, and (3) monitoring the disposition of school surplus properties.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $70,000 pursuant to Chapter 877, Statutes of 1989, to contract with the Office of the State Architect to conduct a study of the feasibility of including specified computer technology support systems in new school construction standards.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 1.9 personnel years and $109,000 to perform additional close-out audits of Lease-Purchase program projects.
- The continuation of 1.9 personnel years and $58,000 to administer the Year-Round Schools Air Conditioning/Insulation Program.
- An increase of 0.9 personnel years and $63,000 to administer the Lease-Purchase Asbestos Abatement Program. The budget also proposes the redirection of 2.8 personnel years and $160,000 from the State Asbestos Abatement Program.
- An increase of 0.9 personnel years and $53,000 to perform audits of the Local Match Program.
- The continuation of 1.9 personnel years and $97,000 to register contractors performing asbestos-related work, consistent with Chapter 160, Statutes of 1988 (AB 3753).

10.50 Real Estate and Design Services

Program Element Statement

The Office of Real Estate and Design Services is comprised of three components: real estate services, property acquisition act, and space management services. Real Estate Services includes acquisition, property management and sales. The acquisition function consists of site selection, appraisal, appraisal review, negotiation and relocation services. Site selection involves providing real estate expertise to agencies in helping select the best site available. Appraisal involves collecting and analyzing data required to estimate market value. Appraisal reviews are made to ensure that the State pays, and the property owner receives, fair market value. Negotiations are conducted with property owners on the basis of the approved appraised value. Relocation services are provided to owners and tenants to ensure they receive the advice and/or funds to relocate as provided under law. Property management involves the management of State-owned properties acquired but not yet occupied by the purchasing agency, and evaluating the leasing of State-owned property not under the jurisdiction of the Department of General Services. Real estate sales is responsible for the disposal or transfer of State property no longer needed for state use.

The Property Acquisition Act provides the Department of General Services the authority to acquire and hold property until it is needed for its intended purpose. Income derived from such property holdings during this period are deposited in a special account in the General Fund for use in offsetting costs of property management and maintenance.

Space Management Services is responsible for providing well planned, functional and economical quarters to accommodate the non-institutional office and warehouse needs of agencies in State-owned and leased facilities, including modular and relocatable buildings and trailers. Major areas of responsibility include the allocation of space in State-owned or leased buildings, programming space requirements for proposed new buildings, space planning, leasing and lease management operations. When authorized specifically by budget language, the Office of Real Estate and Design Services is responsible for the development of alternative financial plans for proposed state buildings by means of long term lease purchase agreements or by leases with options to purchase.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of 3.3 personnel years and $1,244,000 to provide the resources necessary for the Proactive Assets Management Program to be conducted under the oversight of the Office of Planning and Research.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of $253,000 to reimburse the Office of Buildings and Grounds for increased utility costs.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $2,314,000 to reimburse the Office of Buildings and Grounds for maintenance and operation costs of the new Ronald Reagan State Office Building.
- A shift in funding source for maintenance of the Capitol building and rent for Legislative offices from the General Fund to the Service Revolving Fund of $3,002,000. These costs will be recovered from increased building rental rates for existing General Services tenants.
- An increase of $5,071,000 to reimburse the Office of Buildings and Grounds for special repair costs.
- An increase of $718,000 to reimburse the Office of Buildings and Grounds for increased utility costs.
- An increase of $98,000 to reimburse the Office of the State Architect-Structural Safety Section for costs associated with the implementation of SB 920.

20 STATEWIDE SUPPORT SERVICES

Program Objectives Statement

To fulfill their program responsibilities, State agencies require support services for business transactions and activities which are basic to their organizational functions. These operational requirements include procurement of materials, data processing services, communication, transportation, printing, security, and related business and office services.

Other State agency support requirements, on a periodic basis, include consulting services for legal contracts and insurance management. Additionally, licensing agencies require services of hearing officers for alleged violations by license holders.

These diverse services are more effectively and economically provided under a consolidated program which centralizes resources, capabilities, talents, and facilities for efficient response to support requirements of client State agencies.

20.55 State Police

Program Element Statement

The Office of California State Police is assigned the responsibility to protect employees and members of the public while on State property and to safeguard State facilities and grounds. Maximum demands for police services arise during that period of the day when State government is providing services to the public. The greatest need for security services occurs at those times when occupancy of buildings or facilities is at a minimum. Protective services for constitutional officers and members of the Legislature is based on need but is usually provided on a continuous basis. A full range of police service is provided including criminal and background investigations; crowd control; air, motor, bicycle, and foot patrol; electronic countermeasures detection; and explosive ordinance disposal. The Office provides security surveys, facility inspection, protection of state and personal property, employee protection, technical planning assistance, and first aid, including CPR training through the Employee Protection and Crime Prevention Programs. Where special needs have been demonstrated, regular police or security is augmented by contractual service.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of $95,000 to fund training and uniform allowance costs.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- A shift in funding source for protection of Constitutional officers and the State Capitol and surrounding areas from the General Fund to the Service Revolving Fund of $6,591,000. These costs will be recovered from increased charges for patrol services.
- An increase of 0.9 personnel year and $45,000 to provide contract police officer services to the Public Utilities Commission.

<sup>2</sup> At the time of this printing, final revenue and expenditure estimates were under review. Although this fund reflects a deficit in 1989-90 and 1990-91, it is anticipated that updated revenues and expenditures will provide a positive fund balance. These updated figures will be forwarded to the Legislature through the May Revision process.

<sup>3</sup> As part of the overall General Fund budget strategy, a transfer of $12 million is proposed from the surplus in the Service Revolving Fund (SRF) to the General Fund on June 30, 1990. Based on current expenditure and revenue estimates, the SRF will have sufficient money assets to permit this transfer, however to accommodate the fund's short term cash flow needs, a $12 million line of credit from the Architectural Revolving Fund is also proposed.

<sup>4</sup> Effective January 1, 1989, the Surplus Personal Property Revolving Fund was abolished pursuant to Chapter 207, Statutes of 1988 and all balances and liabilities were transferred to the Service Revolving Fund.

50 CAPITAL OUTLAY

The San Francisco earthquake damaged several General Services owned State Office Buildings. Employees at the Oakland State Building at 1111 Jackson Street, the San Francisco State Building at 350 McAllister Street, and the San Francisco State Building at 525 Golden Gate Ave. have been relocated to leased facilities pending damage evaluation. Initial evaluations have been completed for these three buildings as well as all other buildings in the earthquake area. The Oakland State Building suffered some structural damage which appears to necessitate urgent repairs. The 525 Golden Gate Avenue Building does not appear to have suffered measurable structural damage, although some structural reinforcement appears advisable. The Department is currently developing a plan, initial cost estimates, and a financing proposal to address the immediate repair needs and to address the continuation of previously identified capital improvements proposed for these structures. Superficial damage was noted at the San Francisco State Building at 350 McAllister, however, this will have no effect on the intended scope of the retrofit project currently underway. Several other buildings also had superficial damage which the Department anticipates addressing in the current year.

1880 STATE PERSONNEL BOARD

The State Personnel Board is responsible for serving the personnel needs of State agencies and the improvement of personnel practices and procedures. The Board's authority to manage and oversee the civil service system for State Government derives from Article VII of the State Constitution and from provisions of the Government Code.

The State Personnel Board, within the framework of a merit system, oversees all aspects of the merit employment system, develops examining techniques to select and rank qualified applicants, receives and resolves appeals on medical issues, discrimination complaints and adverse actions; and provides leadership in personnel management practices and procedures. The Personnel Board also has the responsibility for coordination and evaluation of affirmative action/equal employment opportunity efforts within State departments as required by State law and policy.

In addition, the State Personnel Board administers the Career Opportunities Development Program for disabled clients of the Department of Rehabilitation. The Board also provides technical assistance to other departments in the utilization of the Career Opportunity Development process so they may provide public service jobs for welfare recipients.

10 MERIT SYSTEM ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

This program provides the full range of personnel services necessary to administer the merit system for State Government. These services include merit system oversight, examination of applicants for State employment to ensure that all potential employees are qualified, development and adoption of personnel management policy, administration of the State's affirmative action program, information services and development of employment opportunities under the Welfare Reform Act of 1971. Also included in the program as of 1988-89 are the Appeals and Hearing Office functions.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the budget reflects the following increases:

- The establishment of 2.8 personnel years and $160,000 in reimbursements for criterion validation and test construction services.
- The establishment of 0.9 personnel year and $151,000 in reimbursements for psychological screening services.
- The establishment of 0.9 personnel year and $62,000 in reimbursements for technical training services.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- The continuation of 2.8 personnel years and $164,000 in reimbursements on a permanent basis for criterion validation and test construction services.
- Continuation of 0.9 personnel year and $184,000 in reimbursements for psychological screening services.
- Continuation of 0.9 personnel year and $67,000 in reimbursements for technical training services.
- In response to the unallocated reduction included in the 1989 Budget Act; this budget reflects a prioritization of workload by the State Personnel Board and a substitution of reimbursements from client Departments for some services previously funded by the General Fund.

10.20 List Establishment

Program Element Statement

List establishment includes all activities directly connected with placing persons on eligible lists for regular civil service positions. This begins with an agreement between the requesting department and the State Personnel Board staff that there is a need for an examination, and continues through the certification process. This element provides for the planning and processing of individual selection efforts to meet departmental needs and involves the application of validation techniques and research development to specific examining situations. Major activities of this element are test planning and management, recruitment and publicity, test construction, test administration, conducting qualifications appraisal panels and certification. Focused affirmative action recruitment projects are carried out in order to increase minority, female and disabled representation in State Government. Examination processing may be coordinated with line departments operating delegated or decentralized selection programs.

10.40 Affirmative Action

Program Element Statement

A comprehensive affirmative action program was established by the State Personnel Board in order to achieve a fully balanced work force by ethnic, sex and disabled representation. Information developed by this program enables the staff to concentrate on removing the underlying causes of low representation of minorities, women and the disabled in State and local work forces. The staff consults with departments in the preparation of affirmative action plans and policies, and reviews and approves those plans and policies. Program staff also monitor statewide progress toward affirmative action goals and prepare an annual report on each State agency's progress toward achieving a balanced work force.

While continuing affirmative action efforts to achieve a fully representative work force, specific focus is given to increasing the representation of Hispanic persons, implementing affirmative action hiring programs for the disabled, achieving distributional representation of women, and providing career opportunities for all underutilized employees through upward mobility programs. Enforcement actions are taken against departments which do not show affirmative action progress.

10.50 Career Opportunities Development

Program Element Statement

The Career Opportunities Development (COD) element, authorized by the Welfare Reform Act of 1971, provides subsidized jobs, ultimately leading to unsubsidized jobs for disabled persons thus reducing welfare costs. This is accomplished by providing training opportunities for these individuals with existing local, state and private nonprofit agencies.

10.60 Merit Oversight

Program Element Statement

The goal of the oversight program is to ensure that appointments and promotions in the civil service are based on merit determined by competitive examination. Specific objectives are to ensure that departments operate a high quality merit system that is fair, objective, valid, cost effective and nondiscriminatory, and that yields a work force representative of California's diverse labor force. These objectives are carried out in two ways: through guidance and selective preapproval of selection program activities and through ongoing interaction with departments including post audits.

40 LOCAL GOVERNMENT SERVICES

Program Objectives Statement

The Local Government Services program develops reliable, job-related selection processes, tests and services which minimize or eliminate adverse effect, provides them on a timely basis and administers or insures that local agencies administer them in accordance with SPB policy direction.

Merit Systems Service provides direction and assistance to grant-aided agencies to attain, at all occupational levels, a work force which reflects the proportion of ethnic groups and women in the appropriate labor market; and provides direction and assistance to grant-aided agencies to improve the representation of disabled persons in their work force. This function also ensures a pool of qualified non-English language interpreters for use in California courts and administrative hearings.

40.20 Merit System Services

Program Element Statement

The Merit System Services reviews and approves for compliance merit systems and personnel standards (including affirmative action and equal employment opportunity) established by local agencies for their welfare, health and emergency services departments. Audits are conducted to ensure continuing compliance with Federal and State requirements. Consultation on a variety of personnel management subjects is available to assist local agencies to meet the established standards. For local agencies which do not have their own personnel merit system, this element provides selection, classification, certification activities, and directly administers the program. The activities of this program are provided through a contract with a joint powers authority.

50 ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Program Objectives Statement

A Constitutional Board of five members is appointed by the Governor to ten-year terms. The Board provides direction to the State civil service system through its authority to adopt rules and promulgate policy in the area of Personnel Management. Public hearings are held by the Board for the purpose of maintaining an effective and responsive merit system which satisfies the need of State Government and serves the interests of the public. Ongoing program management is provided through the Executive Officer who is appointed by the Board. Legal advice and strategy are developed by the Chief Counsel.

A variety of services are centralized in this Division to enable the Personnel Board to use its personnel and resources in the most cost-effective manner possible. Administrative Services monitors divisional operations and expenditures to assure that the Board properly discharges its duties and responsibilities and promotes an organizational climate whereby staff expertise is developed, communication channels are open, program objectives, policies, and procedures are understood, and deficiencies are identified and corrected on a timely basis. Civil service examination support is provided to State departments by the Data Processing Section through the "on-line certification and examination" system.

Support is provided in the following areas: Fiscal, Resource Allocation, Planning, Organization Review and Staff Selection and Affirmative Action, Training and Staff Development, Personnel Services and Transactions, Employer-Employee Relations, Internal Communications, Facilities Management, Business Services, Data Processing, Management Information Coordination, Mail and Duplicating Services, General Files, Word Processing, Forms Management and Paperwork Management.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1989-90, the establishment of 1.9 personnel years and $97,000 in reimbursements to provide development and ongoing services related to the on-line automated selection system.
- In 1990-91, the continuation of 1.9 personnel years and $122,000 in reimbursements for ongoing services and the development of the on-line automated selection system.

1900 PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM

The Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) administers a group of separate, but related, benefits for more than 1,000,000 past and present public employees in California. This grouping consists of retirement, disability and death benefits; administration of Social Security coverage for State employees; and the development, negotiation and administration of contracts with a number of health maintenance organizations, group hospital and medical insurance plans. PERS is managed by a Board of Administration whose thirteen members consist of six individuals elected by specified membership groups, two individuals appointed by the Governor, one individual appointed jointly by the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee, the Director of the Department of Personnel Administration, the State Treasurer, the State Controller and one individual designated by the State Personnel Board.

Participants in the system's programs include constitutional officers of the State, members of the Legislature, judges, State employees, classified school employees, volunteer firefighters and any other public employees whose employer has contracted for benefits administered by PERS.

10 RETIREMENT

Program Objectives Statement

This program provides a retirement, disability and death benefit program for California public employers and their employees which will provide for the orderly and systematic retirement of employees and encourage career employment in the public service.

Beginning in 1932, the State provided a series of retirement and death benefits for its employees, other than teachers. In 1939, coverage was extended to employees of those political subdivisions of the State who wished to contract with the State retirement system. Today the system offers benefits based on service or disability to all covered employees; death benefits for employees and annuitants; survivors' benefits to members not covered by social security; and, to members in certain occupations, special benefits based on death or disability incurred in the line of duty.

Retirement benefits are based upon age, years of service and the employee's final compensation. Benefits are modified by the selection of one of several options and/or by the employee's membership category, such as miscellaneous, safety, or state industrial. Survivor, death and disability benefits also are provided for under specific conditions.

The unfunded actuarial liability of the State's portion of the system as of June 30, 1988, was $4,403,159,750. There is also a surplus account of $197,423,614. If the State contribution rates remain in effect, the unfunded actuarial liability for State miscellaneous members would be eliminated by June 30, 2016, by June 30, 2011, for Peace Officer/Firefighters, and by June 30, 2000, for other membership categories, based on current actuarial assumptions. The unfunded liabilities for public agencies are funded in accordance with the terms of each agency's contract. The Legislators' and Judges' Retirement and Volunteer Firefighters' Systems also are administered by the Public Employees' Retirement System.

Budget Adjustments

The 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes to add 0.7 personnel years and $177,000 to cover the increased costs of obtaining independent medical examinations for disability retirement applications and to carry out the provisions of Chapter 276, Statutes of 1989 (AB 1708). The 1990-91 Governor's Budget also proposes to redirect funds from within the Retirement Program to establish a second office in the Bay Area. In addition, the 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes to add: (1) $50,000 to carry out the provisions of Chapter 752, Statutes of 1989 and (2) $620,000 to reduce budgeted salary savings for the Retirement Program.

20 SOCIAL SECURITY

Program Objectives Statement

PERS administers the Master Federal-State agreement to provide employees of California public agencies with coverage under Old-Age, Survivors, Disability and Health Insurance provisions of the Federal Social Security Act. The Federal Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986, relieved the State of responsibility for collecting Social Security "contributions" from its political subdivisions. State and local employers must now submit Social Security taxes directly to the Internal Revenue Service.

The State's responsibility and liability for Social Security reports and payments for those years prior to 1987 continue until April 15, 1991. The State also continues its responsibility for new coverage agreements, modifications and determinations regarding coverage issues.

Budget Adjustments

The 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes to add $11,000 to the Social Security Program to reduce budgeted salary savings.

30 HEALTH BENEFITS

Program Objectives Statement

This program provides medical and hospital insurance plans with private carriers and health maintenance organizations for State and other public agency employees, annuitants and their families. Primary activities are to negotiate contracts and to provide standards for health maintenance, basic, and supplemental to Medicare health plans; to establish and maintain health benefit coverage for eligible employees and annuitants; to conduct open enrollment periods, providing information to employees and annuitants; and to mediate service and claim disputes.

Budget Adjustments

The 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes to add $100,000 to carry out the provisions of Chapter 331, Statutes of 1988. In addition the 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes to add 12.2 personnel years and $667,000 as follows: (1) 1.9 two year limited term personnel years and $75,000 to carry out the provision of Chapter 548, Statutes of 1989; (2) 1.8 personnel years and $70,000 to accommodate increased workload in the Public Agency Unit; (3) 2.8 personnel years and $113,000 to accommodate increased workload in the State Enrollment Section; (4) .9 personnel years and $39,000 to accommodate increased workload in the Member Services Unit; (5) 4.8 personnel years and $288,000 to carry out the provisions of Chapter 1006, Statutes of 1989; and (b) $82,000 to reduce the budgeted salary savings for the Health Benefits Program.

40 PERS SYSTEM REDESIGN PROJECT

Program Objectives Statement

The PERS System Redesign project was undertaken as a long-term solution to address the growing inadequacies of the Department's EDP System. It was required in order to respond to legislative changes, court decisions, system growth and advances in computer and software technologies.

All major Redesign System components have been completed and implemented except for the Benefits System, which is currently in progress. Phases I, II and III of the Benefits System have been completed. The fourth and final phase is under development and is scheduled for completion in early 1992.

Budget Adjustments

The 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes to add $17,000 to reduce budgeted salary savings for the System Redesign Program.

1920 STATE TEACHERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM

The Teachers' Retirement Board was formed in 1963 and has exclusive control over the investment and administration of the Teachers' Retirement Fund, makes rules, sets policies and has the power and authority to hear and determine all facts pertaining to application for benefits under the retirement system. Ex-officio members of the Board are the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Treasurer, the State Controller and the Director of Finance. The Governor-appointed members of the board include four members of the system, one retirant of the system and three from the public. The staff and the Teachers' Retirement Board manage the largest teachers' retirement system in the United States, having 334,123 members as of June 30, 1989, and 119,373 persons receiving benefits for a total of 453,496.

The State Teachers' Retirement System has successfully completed the development of its ON-LINE computerized information system. This system manages the full STRS life cycle of a member from initial enrollment, throughout a working career, and into one or more benefit programs. In addition to automated management of member accounts, ON-LINE provides a much greater ability to immediately provide account specific information to inquiring members.

In addition, staff has been provided in the current year to implement Chapter 1184, Statutes of 1989 (AB 123), which would allow school districts to offer classroom teachers the option of receiving retirement benefits based on one year's final compensation.

The State Teachers' Retirement System will provide purchasing power protection to retired teachers to maintain their ability to purchase goods and services at 68.2 percent of their original purchasing power.

10 SERVICE TO MEMBERS AND EMPLOYERS

Program Objectives Statement

The objectives of the Teachers' Retirement Program are as follows:

1. To strengthen system accountability.
2. To provide an efficient operational system for administration of STRS.
3. To enhance external and internal communication processes.
4. To plan for an adequate funding of benefits while minimizing taxpayer costs.

Income to the Teachers' Retirement Fund is derived from member contributions, employing school district contributions, appropriations from the General Fund and investment earnings (see 6300-Contributions to Teachers' Retirement Fund for state contributions for benefits and 8885-Commission on State Mandates for other contributions). The cost of administration is paid from the Teachers' Retirement Fund as provided in Section 22003 of the Education Code. The fund is reimbursed for administrative costs associated with the Tax Sheltered Annuity program and for processing refunds to former members.

The system is responsible for the determination, computation and payment of benefits to members, retirants, and beneficiaries, and for the distribution of information to all members, employers and other interested groups. Generally, payment of an estimated service retirement allowance is made 45 days after date of retirement or receipt of application, whichever is later. Refunds are paid within 45 days after receipt of the application. Family and death benefits are paid within 45 days after receipt of documentation required to substantiate death of the member and establish survivor eligibility. Disability benefits are paid approximately 45 days after proof of disability is established. The basic retirement allowance is calculated upon a member's age, years of service, and final compensation. The member may modify the basic allowance by selecting a joint and survivor annuity option to provide for a beneficiary. The system also provides for survivor, disability and death benefits under specific conditions.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91 the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $367,000 and six positions to address workload in the Disability/Rehabilitation Unit.
- $263,000 and 1.5 positions for maintenance, monitoring, and re-examination of disability cases.
- $143,000 and 3 positions to implement and maintain workload and performance measures.
- $97,000 and 3 positions to address claims processing, collection of overpayments and review of outstanding warrants.
- $50,000 and one position to augment the Investment Accounting Unit.
- $2,800,000 for ongoing data center costs.
- $162,000 for a new data processing system in the accounting unit.
- $60,000 augmentation to the regional counseling program.
- $42,000 for the acquisition of 9 micro computers and one data processing P.C.

30 PURCHASING POWER PROTECTION

Purchasing Power Protection is a benefit for retired teachers to ensure that their original purchasing power does not fall below a specific level.

In 1989, the Administration sponsored legislation to provide purchasing power protection through a permanent funding mechanism, and to require the State to provide an increase in employer contributions by up to one-half percent for 1990-91, and similar increases in subsequent years, paid directly through a statutory transfer.

Budget Adjustments

- The 1990-91 Budget proposes $175 million through a statutory funding mechanism to ensure that all retired teachers receive no less than 68.2 percent of their original purchasing power.

1950 DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

The Department of Veterans Affairs has a threefold overall objective: (1) provide comprehensive assistance to veterans and dependents of veterans in obtaining benefits and rights to which they may be entitled under State and federal laws; (2) afford California veterans the opportunity of becoming homeowners through the medium of long-term low-interest loans available to them under the Cal-Vet farm and home loan program; and (3) provide support for the Veterans Home of California where eligible veterans may live in a retirement community and where complete nursing care and hospitalization are provided.

10 Farm and Home Loans to Veterans

Program Objectives Statement

Since 1921, the Cal-Vet loan program has successfully served the needs of approximately 395,000 World War I, World War II, Korean, and Vietnam veterans for long-term housing and farm loans at low interest rates. General Obligation Veterans Bonds and Revenue Veterans Bonds have been sold at intervals to provide funding for the program.

California veterans, except those who are purchasing property in a targeted area, or qualify as first-time homebuyers, have 30 years following their release from active military service to qualify and apply for loan benefits. Lending is directed primarily to the Vietnam veterans. Maximum loans are: homes $125,000, homes with solar equipment, $130,000, mobile homes in parks $70,000, and farms $200,000.

Veterans purchasers are charged interest on their loans at the lowest rate which will cover all costs of the program. The interest rates charged have provided for redemption of the bonds, debt service, and all program administrative charges, without any cost to the California taxpayer.

In the past several years the State has experienced fluctuations in the amount of bond funds available for home or farm loans.

10.10 Property Acquisition

Program Element Statement

This element encompasses the collection and evaluation of data regarding the applicant and his property selection. Loan decisions must protect the interest of both the veteran and the Cal-Vet loan program.

The military service documents of veterans, the records of veterans' widows, wives of prisoners of war, or persons missing in action, are inspected to determine the applicant's qualifications for a loan under the statute. This examination is integrated into the application process.

10.20 Loan Service

Program Element Statement

Four interrelated task efforts combine to assure fulfillment of the obligations of the contracting parties: mortgage loan accounting, insurance and property damage claims adjustment and services, loan contract alterations, and contract performance services.

Mortgage loan accounting consists of routine billing, cashing, account computation, and recording of each borrower's payments.

Insurance services consist of determination and application of minimum coverages required for fire and hazard insurance and adjustment of disaster indemnity claims. When damage occurs, rapid repair and restoration of the contract property is arranged to assure satisfaction of the borrower and to protect the Department's interest.

The contract enumerates certain contract alterations to which the Department may consent. Among these are assignment of contract interest, rental, permission for secondary financing, change in legal description of property, and installment changes.

Contract performance services are those functions which logically occur in the course of the contract. Loans are paid in full by installments or are prepaid in advance. On fulfillment of the contract, the property is deeded and the account record is closed. During the life of the contract certain breaches of terms or conditions may occur. There is an element of risk in any loan and not all borrowers perform as agreed. Should a borrower become unwilling or unable to comply with the contract terms, it may be necessary to cancel the contract and either force a sale of the property or repossess it. Repossessed properties are rehabilitated and sold.

10.30 Loan Funding

Program Element Statement

Funds for Cal-Vet loans are derived from the sale of both general obligation and revenue bonds. Activities related to loan funding include sale, payment of interest, and redemption of Veterans Bonds. They are performed by the Veterans Finance Committee and the State Treasurer's Office in accordance with statutory provisions. All costs of such services are paid by the program. Proceeds from bond sales accrue to the Farm and Home Building Fund. These funds, together with prepayment of outstanding loans, are invested until required for authorized purposes. The differential between the interest earned on outstanding Cal-Vet loans and the average net interest cost on all outstanding bonds provides the total operating costs of the program. Work involved is in projecting the program's financial status at points in time to enable economic fund management to meet four annual bond redemption payments and to schedule bond sales annually at the most favorable interest rates to meet program needs.

20 VETERANS CLAIMS AND RIGHTS

Program Objectives Statement

California has the largest veteran population at 3.1 million or 11 percent of the nationwide veteran population of over 28 million. Federal and State laws relative to the health and financial care of veterans and dependents are varied and complex. The primary objective of this program is to provide technical support to County Veteran Service Offices and represent veterans and dependents through power of attorney when claiming entitlements from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and other federal agencies.

Entitlements from the VA include outpatient, extended and ambulatory care, compensation, pension, insurance, vocational rehabilitation, education, and burial allowance. A total of $1.2 billion in VA compensation and pension was paid to veterans and dependents in the state during FY 1987-88. Of this amount, the Department and the County Veteran Service Offices are responsible for representing veterans receiving over $40 million in new benefits, and over $880 million in VA benefits. This does not include an estimated $316 million in Vocational Rehabilitation insurance, burial fees, headstones, loan guarantees or hospitalization at non-VA facilities.

20.10 Claims Representation

Program Element Statement

Veterans and their dependents seeking benefits from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) file claims with the VA regional office in San Francisco, Los Angeles or San Diego. Division representatives, through Power-of-Attorney, represent claimants before the Veterans Administration rating board to insure that maximum benefits are awarded. Division representatives file notice of disagreement on claims adjudicated by the rating board, which affect the establishing or changing of ratings of service-connected compensation, disabilities pension, burial expenses and other VA benefits.

Nationally, the number of enlisted personnel returning to civilian life has declined by one-tenth of one percent while the number of WWI and WWII veterans and dependents requiring assistance in obtaining medical, burial, pension, and other VA benefits has increased. In addition, a number of state programs which are designed to benefit Vietnam-era veterans have created increased demands on personnel in this program to assist these veterans in claiming benefits.

20.30 County Subvention

Program Element Statement

Fifty-five counties have established Veteran Service Offices to assist veterans and dependents at the county level, to provide information on veterans benefits, and, through Power-of-Attorney, to file for VA and federal entitlements for the veteran and dependents. These entitlements include outpatient, extended, and ambulatory care; compensation; pension; insurance; education; vocational rehabilitation and burial allowance. Many veterans who are County Welfare recipients are not aware of federal benefits to which they may be entitled. Through a referral system developed with the Department of Social Services, welfare applicants or recipients identified as veterans or dependents are directed to the County Veteran Service Office for determination of VA benefit eligibility. This system is designed to maximize federal benefits for veterans and dependents in lieu of State welfare benefits or county general assistance. In return for service performed, these offices receive partial reimbursement for their operating expenses.

The Department of Veterans Affairs staff provide technical assistance, claims representation at the VA Regional Office, and monitor and review audit reports submitted by these local offices to insure compliance with VA Regulations.

20.40 Educational Assistance

Program Element Statement

The stipend program is offered to spouses and children of veterans who died while in military service, incurred a minimum service connected disability rating of 30 percent, or were declared to be Prisoners-Of-War or Missing-In-Action. This benefit is restricted to dependents not qualified to receive federal VA educational benefits under Chapter 35, Title 38, U.S. Code. Effective January 1, 1987, Chapter 44, Statutes of 1986 provides that full time high school students' regular monthly maintenance payments will increase from $20 to $50, and college students' monthly stipend will increase from $50 to $100. In addition under the Education Code Fee Waiver Program, college students that meet the mandated income requirements may qualify for waiver of tuition and certain fees while attending a California state-owned college, university, or community college.

30 CARE OF SICK AND DISABLED VETERANS

Program Objectives Statement

As of January, 1991, the Veterans Home will maintain a 689-bed medical and nursing facility (including 40 acute and intensive care beds, 360 skilled nursing beds, and 289 intermediate care nursing beds) and domiciliary facilities with a bed capacity of 917. In addition, 121 skilled nursing beds, and 72 intermediate care nursing beds are currently closed for renovation. It is one of the largest geriatric facilities in the country and has full support facilities, including consultation services of medical experts and services of a number of Veterans Administration and private hospitals in northern California.

The purpose of the Veterans Home has been defined as, "... to provide a community of services for disabled California veterans that will improve overall health, reduce the incidence and severity of disabilities, and increase social interaction in an environment which promotes self-reliance and self-worth. . . ." The hospital and nursing units are licensed by the State Department of Health Services under Title 22, California Administrative Code, and are accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. Federal funds to partially offset the cost of providing care are received from the Veterans Administration, Medicare, and Medi-Cal.

The programs and services for residents of the Veterans Home are developed in cooperation with the Veterans Administration, other state agencies, local government, private organizations, and educational facilities.

40 FARM AND HOME LOANS TO NATIONAL GUARD MEMBERS

Program Objectives Statement

The California National Guard Members Farm and Home Purchase Act of 1978 became effective January 1, 1979, and authorized the Military Department to sell revenue bonds to provide low interest loans to National Guard members for the purchase of farms and homes. The loan provisions of this new program are similar to those of the Cal-Vet Loan Program.

Pursuant to the enabling legislation, the Military Department assigned the responsibility of administering the new loan program to the Department of Veterans Affairs. The responsibility for determining National Guard member eligibility and for selling bonds was retained by the Military Department.

Proceeds of $25 million were received in 1980 and 1981 from the sale of revenue bonds. An additional $15 million sale of revenue bonds was held in December of 1983. Section 481 of the Military and Veterans Code limits the sale of revenue bonds for home loans to $25 million in any 12-month period. No more bond sales are authorized for funding new loans. Therefore, current workload involves only maintenance and servicing of the existing loan portfolio which is gradually declining due to refinancing and retiring existing loans.

1980 VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL COMMISSION

Chapter 1042, Statutes of 1983, extended by Chapter 731, Statutes of 1987, established and authorized the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Commission to establish a schedule for the design, construction, and dedication of a memorial to California's Vietnam Veterans on the grounds of the State Capitol. Funds received by the commission from private contributions for the memorial are required to be deposited in the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Account in the General Fund and are appropriated to the commission without regard to fiscal year.

2100 DEPARTMENT OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTROL

The principal objective of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) is to administer the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, which vests in the Department the exclusive right and power to license and regulate the manufacture, sale, purchase, possession and transportation of alcoholic beverages within the State and, subject to certain laws of the United States, to regulate the importation and exportation of alcoholic beverages into and from the State.

10 ADMINISTRATION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTROL ACT

Program Objectives Statement

This program conducts the three major activities of the Department. These include licensing activities, which ensure that only qualified persons and legitimate businesses are licensed to sell, manufacture, or otherwise deal in alcoholic beverages; compliance activities, which ensure adherence to the alcoholic beverage control laws and regulations by all persons operating within the alcoholic beverage industry; and administration activities, which provide staff support and conduct administrative appeal hearings.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91, the following adjustments are proposed:

- 5 temporary help personnel years and $300,000 in reimbursements from the Office of Criminal Justice Planning are deleted to reflect the termination of the pilot Drug Enforcement Narcotics Team (DENT) grant. However, $71,000 that was redirected from the base budget to fund OE&E costs of the pilot project will continue to be used for the purpose of DENT (see below).
- 5 personnel years and $325,000 General Fund are proposed to provide on-going resources for the continuation of the Drug Enforcement Narcotics Team (DENT). The OE&E costs for DENT will continue to be funded from the base budget.

10.10 Licensing

Program Element Statement

There are three objectives within the licensing function: (1) to license only qualified persons who apply to sell, produce or distribute alcoholic beverages; (2) to issue licenses at appropriate locations; and (3) to allow legitimate community protests (by public agencies and private parties) against the issuance of a license to be heard by an administrative law judge who will rule based upon the evidence presented.

California law limits the number of general licenses (the authority to sell all types of alcoholic beverages approved for sale) based upon the population of each county. One on-sale general license is allowed for each 2,000 inhabitants of a county, and one off-sale general license is allowed for each 2,500 inhabitants. As population increases allow more licenses in a county, an annual drawing is held to distribute the available licenses to qualified applicants.

Annual license fees vary with the type of license, and range from $28 a year for an off-sale beer and wine license to $684 a year for an on-sale general license. There are also original fees for new licenses, transfer fees for moving from one location to another or for transferring from one entity to another and various other fees enacted by the Legislature.

10.20 Compliance

Program Element Statement

The compliance element focuses its attention on those violations which have an adverse effect on the community, such as those premises which serve obviously intoxicated patrons or minors, or which are suspected of being conducive to drug trafficking, prostitution, gambling, etc. Following original issuance or transfer of a license, other investigations are necessary to make certain that unqualified persons do not obtain control of the business through unreported changes in the ownership of licensed businesses.

Departmental investigations also involve violations such as commercial bribery, illegal importation, tied-house restrictions, advertising limitations and prohibitions against the giving of free goods in connection with sales of alcoholic beverages. Additional fees are assessed off-sale general retail licensees and some wholesale and manufacturing licensees for support of these investigations by the Department.

10.30 Administration

Program Element Statement

This element includes general administration and legal services. For administrative purposes, the State is organized into two divisions with assistant directors in charge. The State is further subdivided into twenty-two districts with two districts maintaining branch offices. A district administrator or a supervising special investigator directs the work of the Department in each district.

The administrative staff at headquarters is responsible for the final review of license transactions, issuance and annual renewal of licenses, maintaining the official files of the Department and for performing the major part of financial management, personnel, training, support services and business practices activities for the Department.

Decisions of the Department concerning licensing or compliance matters may be appealed by means of a procedure that begins with an administrative hearing and which may be carried to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (a constitutionally separate body) and on through the appellate court system.

2120 ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTROL APPEALS BOARD

The objective of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, which consists of three members appointed by the Governor, is to provide a remedy of appeal to people who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control ordering any penalty or issuing, denying, transferring, suspending or revoking any alcoholic beverage license. Following the filing of an appeal, receipt of the record on appeal and submission of written briefs, the Board hears oral arguments on the appropriateness of the Department's decision. Thereafter, the Board prepares, publishes and distributes a formal written opinion. A party seeking review of an Appeals Board order must file a Petition for Writ of Review with the Court of Appeal.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund is supported by a surcharge on license fees of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

10 ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

Program Objectives Statement

The purpose of this program is to provide an appeals process and to issue orders on appeals filed with the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board. In fiscal year 1988-89, 148 appeals were filed with the Board, and 130 orders were issued by the Board.

During 1988-89, judicial review of Board orders was requested of the Court of Appeal or State Supreme Court on 22 occasions. The courts denied the petitions in 21 cases and granted a writ of review in one case, in which both the Board's decision and that of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control were reversed by the Court of Appeal.

The appeals to the Board are from decisions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, which was a party to 821 administrative hearings during fiscal year 1988-89. Most of these hearings involved license applications or alleged violations of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91 the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase in staff support of 0.9 personnel years and $54,000 to increase the Chief Counsel from 0.6 personnel year to full-time and increase a senior legal typist from half-time to full-time.
- An increase in operating expenses for appeals transcript costs of $30,000.

2140 STATE BANKING DEPARTMENT

The State Banking Department was established to protect the public from economic loss resulting from the failure of any of the financial entities it regulates. The Department licenses and regulates: (1) State chartered banks and trust companies including offices of foreign (other states and other nations) banking corporations; (2) issuers of payment instruments, including companies licensed either to sell money orders or travelers checks or licensed to engage in the business of transmitting money abroad; and (3) business and industrial development corporations. In addition to encouraging observance of sound banking practices, the Department certifies securities for the State of California and municipalities and other government agencies within the State of California as legal investments. The Superintendent of Banks is the administrator of local agency security. The programs of the Department are supported by an annual assessment of licensees, license and application fees, and charges for specific services.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

The 1990-91 Budget proposes an additional $1,325,000 and 13.1 personnel years to allow the department to strengthen its regulatory programs and to more effectively accomplish its program objectives.

10 LICENSING AND SUPERVISION OF BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objectives of this program are: (1) to protect the public from economic losses that often result from bank and trust company failures without depriving the public of reasonably priced, convenient banking and trust services and (2) to guard against the damaging ripple effect on smaller financial institutions often associated with the failure of a bank or trust company.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $330,000 to purchase lap top computers for field examiners.
- $323,000 and 7.1 personnel years to address increased workload from the conversions of savings and loans to banks as a result of the Financial Institution Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act.
- $240,000 to reduce salary savings to more accurately reflect the department's historical rate of salary savings. The mandatory salary savings rate is reduced to 3.6 percent from 4.7 percent.
- $32,000 in additional travel funds, reflected in the Administration program, to allow the executive staff to participate in out-of-state activities related to the department's regulatory function.
- Prorated share of facilities expense ($107,000) referenced in administration adjustments.

10.10 Investigation of Applications for New Facilities

Program Element Statement

The main purpose of this element is to review and investigate applications for the establishment of new banks, new trust companies, branches of existing banks, branches of foreign banks, trust departments of existing banks and title companies and other new facilities. In each case, the application requesting the approval is investigated to determine whether statutory and administrative requirements are satisfied. These actions are taken to reduce the potential risk of loss for the organization involved and, therefore, the public. Prior approval of the Superintendent of Banks is required before the establishment of any new bank or facility.

10.20 Continuing Supervision of Existing Banking Facilities

Program Element Statement

This element conducts periodic examinations of all banking institutions to protect depositors and assure a sound banking system. Each bank under State jurisdiction is required by statute to be examined at least once every two years. Problem institutions are subject to more frequent examination. The Department's administrative staff utilizes examination results as well as additional data derived from ongoing monitoring of the banks to achieve early solutions to problems that might escalate if left unattended.

An important part of the supervisory function is the investigation of complaints received from the general public and cooperation with law enforcement agencies in connection with crimes affecting banks.

10.30 Continuing Supervision of Trust Facilities

Program Element Statement

This element conducts annual examinations of trust companies and trust departments of banks and title insurance companies. Annual examinations form the basis of supervision of trust facilities. Trust examining is highly specialized and includes the verification of trust assets, the reconciliation of accounts, a review of the legal aspects of transactions, a study of the administration of trust accounts and an evaluation of the ability and capacity of the senior trust officers. Reports are rendered to the trust company or trust department with recommendations for corrective action.

20 PAYMENT INSTRUMENTS

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objective of this program is to protect the public from economic loss resulting from the failure of a company licensed either to sell payment instruments (money orders) or travelers checks, or licensed to engage in the business of transmitting money abroad. The program ensures that business is being conducted in a financially sound manner by conducting periodic examinations of these facilities and by requiring and analyzing specific reports. In addition, licenses are issued to persons engaged in the business of receiving money for the purpose of transmitting the same or its equivalent to foreign countries, engaged in the business of issuing travelers checks, or engaged in the business of selling money orders. In order to protect the public, a thorough investigation of each applicant is conducted before the license is issued.

Budget Adjustments

For 1989-90, the budget reflects $141,000 and 2.8 personnel years for implementation of Chapter 1196, Statutes of 1989.

For 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $281,000 and 6 personnel years for supervision of transmitters of money abroad, as required by Chapter 1196, Statutes of 1989.
- Prorated share of facilities expenses ($12,000) referenced in Administration adjustments.

40 ADMINISTRATION OF LOCAL AGENCY SECURITY

Program Objectives Statement

The Superintendent of Banks is the administrator of local agency security who, utilizing a pool concept, acts as an agent for approximately 1,500 local treasurers in verifying the amount and quality of collateral pledged to secure deposits of public funds made by local agencies. The Superintendent also has the responsibility of administering local agency security for savings and loans and credit unions.

50 SUPERVISION OF CALIFORNIA BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objective of this program is to license and regulate nonfiduciary business and industrial development corporations. The program ensures that business is being conducted in a financially sound manner by conducting periodic examinations of these corporations and by requiring and analyzing specific reports. In addition, licenses are issued to corporations operating as business and industrial development corporations. Certain Federal programs, most notably the Small Business Administration's Section 7A Loan Guarantee Program, require a lender to be a "licensed and regulated financial institution" to qualify for guarantees. By licensing and regulating business and industrial development corporations, this program ensures that these corporations qualify for loan guarantees.

60 ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

The principal responsibilities of the Administration Program are to provide services essential for the administration of the Department and its programs. Services provided include executive and administrative services, legal and legislative services and policy and information services.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $119,000 to pay increased rent costs associated with the renewal of leases for 3 offices and relocation of the Los Angeles office.
- $32,000 in additional travel funds to allow the executive staff to participate in out-of-state activities related to the department's regulatory function.

2180 DEPARTMENT OF CORPORATIONS

The principal objectives of the Department of Corporations are to regulate the offer and sale of securities; provide for the licensing and regulation of investment brokers and agents; and regulate securities advertising. In addition, the Department is charged with regulating franchises, various types of financial institutions and health care service plans. Department activities include: (1) providing appropriate controls over the solicitation, marketing and sale of securities and franchises to California residents; (2) providing deterrents and safeguards against unfair or unscrupulous promotional schemes; (3) providing regulatory surveillance over companies engaged in lending money or receiving funds from the public in a fiduciary capacity and companies engaged in the business of providing health care to its enrollees; and (4) instituting appropriate enforcement action when violations of law occur.

10 INVESTMENT PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The primary purpose of the Investment Program is to administer the Corporate Securities Law. The program ensures that the sale of billions of dollars of securities sold to California residents annually is not unfair, unjust or inequitable. Pursuant to the Franchise Investment Law, the program protects would-be purchasers by requiring the franchisor to give full disclosure of relevant financial and legal information.

Also, the program is responsible for receiving and investigating grievances submitted by the public. Grievances are filed when a member of the public feels that an improper sale and issuance of securities has occurred. Over 30,000 broker-dealers, agents, and investment advisors are authorized to recommend securities transactions to, and deal in securities with, the general public.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $26,000 from reimbursements and 0.9 personnel year to reestablish a clerical position, which had been abolished, in order to address increased workload.
- An increase of $230,000 for increased rent costs and relocation costs resulting from a fire at the department's Los Angeles office.
- An increase of $20,000 for out-of-state travel for costs associated with examiner training conducted out-of-state.

10.10 Qualifications

Program Element Statement

This element monitors the sale and issuance of nonexempt securities in the State of California which must qualify, pursuant to the Corporate Securities Law, through filing an application, current financial statements and other relevant exhibits.

Specific conditions may be imposed on the qualification if it is found that the sale of securities could be unfair, unjust and inequitable. Qualification can be by coordination, notification or permit.

Program Element Statement

The principal objective of this element is to conduct franchise registration activities. No franchise may be offered or sold in the State of California unless the offeror has been registered or exempted from registration. To register, an application must be filed disclosing certain relevant information. Under certain circumstances defined in the Franchise Investment Law, the Commissioner may summarily issue a stop order denying the effectiveness of or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of any registration.

10.30 Regulation and Enforcement—Corporate Securities Law

Program Element Statement

The main objective of this element is to conduct the application process. Prospective broker-dealers and investment advisers must file applications for certificates to operate in California. An evaluation of the applicant's background, business experience, and financial condition is made before a certificate is issued or denied.

Complaints filed by the general public, as well as possible infractions of the Corporate Securities Law noted by the staff or members of other regulatory agencies, are thoroughly investigated. As a result of the Department's findings, one of the following steps is taken: no further action may be deemed necessary; punitive action including suspension or revocation of a certificate, license, or permit may be taken; and/or criminal proceedings may be instituted by other enforcement agencies.

20 LENDER-FIDUCIARY PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The primary purpose of the Lender-Fiduciary Program is to administer and enforce the provisions of the various laws in the program. These responsibilities include: review applications to determine the appropriateness of financial data and personnel requirements; monitor financial condition and operating procedures for statutory compliance through reporting and field examinations; respond to public inquiries for information and assistance.

Over 8,500 financial organizations are regulated under the Lender-Fiduciary Program.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 1.9 personnel years and $90,000 are proposed in 1990-91 to address increased enforcement workload.
- Sixteen and four-tenths personnel years and $625,000 are proposed to provide additional staff to conduct annual examinations of escrow companies.
- $195,000 for the prorated share of increased rent expense.

20.40 Industrial Loan Law

Program Element Statement

This element is responsible for ensuring that the operation of each industrial loan company is consistent with the requirements of the law. Financial reports are reviewed and financial examinations are conducted to ensure each licensee's financial stability and to protect the public's investment.

The Department's budget includes a fund condition statement for the Industrial Loan Special Fund to reflect a partial payment on a private loan guaranteed by the State. The private loan was secured in 1985–86 to pay the account holders of an industrial loan company closed by the Department due to substantial loan losses. Chapters 140 and 142, Statutes of 1985, provided $63 million as a State guarantee of the private loan.

50 SMALL BUSINESS

Program Objectives Statement

The primary responsibility of this program is to aid in the economic development of small businesses by making available capital, management assistance and other resources, including loan services, personnel and business education to small business entrepreneurs. Major activities include: (1) administration of the State Loan Guarantee Program which permits banks and other financial institutions to make loans to businesses which are unable to obtain loans through traditional channels; (2) administration of direct loan programs including farm loans, hazardous waste reduction equipment loans and energy conservation equipment loans; and (3) information, management and technical assistance for small businesses through: (a) the Small Business Development Center Program, (b) providing information about regulations, licenses and procedures to start a small business, (c) publishing and distributing guidebooks, manuals, newsletters, brochures or other materials which relate to small business issues, (d) providing general assistance to small businesses that are experiencing problems with State agencies, and (e) producing and co-sponsoring small business conferences in California.

Budget Adjustments

For 1989-90, the following adjustments are included:

- 1.2 PYs and $60,000 in reimbursements from the California Pollution Control Financing Authority (CPCFA) were added to reflect administrative adjustments to the Hazardous Waste and Pollution Control loan programs.
- $5 million from the General Fund for providing guarantees for short-term, low-interest rate loans to small business which incurred earthquake damages (authorized by Chapters 11 and 12, Statutes of 1989, First Extraordinary Session).
- $650 thousand from the Disaster Relief Fund, which represents the prorated share of the $1 million appropriation for the California Earthquake Emergency Grant Aid Program.

For 1990-91, the following adjustments are proposed:

- $3,195,000 in reimbursements from the CPCFA and 1.4 PYs to establish a pollution control loan program for small businesses.
- $210,000 from the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account and 1.9 PYS to operate a small business loan program for the replacement of underground petroleum storage tanks.
- 1.9 PYs are proposed for the Hazardous Waste Reduction Loan Program by converting limited-term positions to permanent status.

Program Objectives Statement

The principal responsibilities of Administration are: (1) to provide executive leadership in designing and implementing economic development programs; (2) to monitor and implement all legislation affecting the Department; and (3) to provide administrative support to the Department's program activities.

Budget Adjustments

For 1989-90, 0.5 PYs and $24,000 in reimbursements from CPCFA are added for administrative support to the Underground Storage Tank Replacement Loan Program (0.2 PYs) and Pollution Control Loan programs (0.3 PYs).

For 1990-91, the following adjustments are proposed:

- 1.4 PYs and $97,000 for administrative support to the Pollution Control Loan Program.
- 0.9 PYs $52,000 for administrative support to the Underground Storage Tank Replacement Loan Program.
- 0.5 PYs are proposed for the Hazardous Waste Reduction Loan Program by converting a limited term position to permanent status.

2222 STATE ASSISTANCE FUND FOR ENTERPRISE, BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Program Objectives Statement

The State Assistance Fund for Energy, California Business and Industrial Development Corporation (Organizational Code 3300) was renamed the State Assistance Fund for Enterprise, Business and Industrial Development Corporation (SAFE-BIDCO) by Chapter 1040, Statutes of 1989. The Corporation provides financial assistance to small businesses. In addition, this chapter requires the SAFE-BIDCO to comply with the provisions of the Small Business Development Law (Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of the Corporations Code). This law requires that SAFE-BIDCO submit an annual report of its activities to the Small Business Development Board in the Department of Commerce.

The board of directors of the Corporation consists of seven members: the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency or designee; a member of the Energy Commission; the chairperson of the Small Business Development Board or the designee; and four public members. The Board is responsible for setting financial and administrative policy.

The fundamental objective of SAFE-BIDCO is to stimulate the creation of jobs and new economic activity through assistance to small businesses. In pursuing this objective, the Corporation receives loan applications, primarily from small businesses throughout the north coast area of the State, and makes loans only to those who cannot obtain financing from private sources. Though its clientele is limited, the Corporation is nevertheless obliged to do business only with those companies which are credit worthy and capable of repaying their loans. The Corporation is licensed and regulated by the Department of Banking and is authorized to make loans under the Small Business Administration 7-a Loan Guarantee program. The enabling legislation permits the Corporation to supplement its lending capital through the sale of loans to private investors. Such sales are facilitated by the use of U.S. Small Business Administration and other government loan guarantees.

Beginning in the 1984-85 fiscal year, the Corporation converted the loan repayment schedule to the State Energy Loan Fund (renamed the State Enterprise Loan Fund by Chapter 1040, Statutes of 1989) from a quarterly to an annual basis. Annual repayments are made on June 30 of each year. Therefore, revenue in the form of loan repayments is not available in the year of receipt but becomes available only in the following fiscal year. The appropriation allows SAFE-BIDCO to reborrow its payment to use for new loans.

<sup>1</sup> This fund contains tax proceeds subject to the State Appropriations Limit, Article XIIB of the Constitution. In addition to the amounts reflected as expenditures in this statement, appropriations subject to the limit are adjusted for increases or decreases in the fund's Reserve for Economic Uncertainties and do not include any amounts expended for debt service, subventions to local government, compliance with federal or court mandates and from appropriations made in previous years (carryovers). Additional information on the State Appropriations Limit is provided in the Governor's Budget Summary.

2225 UNITARY FUND PROGRAMS

The Unitary Fund was established by Chapter 660, Statutes of 1986, to address some of the state's infrastructure and economic development needs. The Fund's revenue is derived from annual payments by banks and corporations that elect the "water's edge" method of taxation. Two-thirds of the annual payments are deposited in the Fund's Future Infrastructure State Targeted Account (FISTA) and one-third in the Fund's Local Project Account for Non-Transient Spending (LPANS).

Eighty percent of the funds deposited in the FISTA are reserved for use of the California Development Review Panel (CDRP), and twenty percent is to be used for support of various export programs and the California Small Business Bond Insurance Corporation, created by Chapter 660.

The CDRP, composed of the Secretary for the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, the Secretary for the Resources Agency, the Secretary for Environmental Affairs, a member of the Senate and a member of the Assembly, is responsible for establishing the selection criteria for projects to be supported by the FISTA, selecting the projects to be funded and allocating funds appropriated by the Legislature. Thirty percent of the funds appropriated for this purpose must be set aside for rural projects, and no more than fifty percent may be used for direct grants; at least fifty percent of the allocations must be in the form of loans.

The use of LPANS funds was not specified in Chapter 660; however, as with FISTA funds, the expenditure of LPANS funds is contingent on an appropriation by the Legislature.

Consistent with Chapter 1558, Statutes of 1988, $2,000,000 of Unitary Fund revenue will be transferred to the Supercomputer Center Account in 1989-90 and 1990-91 for expenditure on a graphics facility at the San Diego Supercomputer Center.

The Administration stipulates that if pending litigation results in a finding that collection of the unitary fee is inappropriate, then it will support legislation to appropriate such amounts as are necessary from the General Fund or other available funds to repay all election fees deposited in the Unitary Fund for which a court has ordered refunds.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

For 1989-90, the Governor's Budget reflects the following:

- The transfer of $13.5 million of Unitary Fund revenue to the General Fund, Reserves for Economic Uncertainties.
- The disbursement of $25,000 to the Department of Commerce for the supercomputer center study per Chapter 1558, Statutes of 1988.

For 1990-91, the Governor's Budget proposes the following:

- $10,108,000 for the Competitive Technology Program, Department of Commerce.
- $8,000,000 for the Rural Economic Development Program, Department of Commerce.
- $3,517,000 for the Business Development Program, Department of Commerce.
- $1,900,000 for Tourism Program expansion, Department of Commerce.
- $5,000,000 for the Olympic Training Facility (Chapter 1182, Statutes of 1989), Department of Commerce.
- $1,000,000 for expansion of the Export Finance Office—Loan Guarantee Program, California State World Trade Commission.
- $1,000,000 for expansion of the Agricultural Export Program, Department of Food and Agriculture.

2240 DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Department's objectives are to guide, support and, where appropriate, direct the public and private sectors in the provision of a decent home and living environment for every Californian. To accomplish these objectives, the Department engages in two major activities: (1) the analysis and implementation of building codes and the enforcement of standards for the construction of manufactured homes, and (2) the administration of various housing development and rehabilitation programs, with particular attention paid to meeting the needs of low-income and other disadvantaged groups.

The Department provides both technical assistance in housing development through its staff, and direct grants or loans to local government and nonprofit housing agencies.

In June 1988, the California electorate approved the passage of Proposition 77, known as the California Earthquake Safety and Rehabilitation Bond Act of 1988. The Act authorizes the sale of $150 million of general obligation bonds to rehabilitate housing for low-income persons. The Act specifies that $80 million will be targeted for loans to reinforce masonry for multi-family residential structures and the remaining $70 million will be used to rehabilitate single and multi-family residences owned or occupied by low-income households.

In November 1988, a second bond measure, entitled the Housing and Homeless Bond Act of 1988 (Proposition 84), was approved by the electorate. This measure authorizes the issuance of $300 million of general obligation bonds, $200 million of which will be used for the Rental Housing Construction Program to construct affordable housing for low-income households. The remaining $100 million will be used for the Special User Housing Rehabilitation Loan Program ($25 million), the Emergency Shelter Program ($25 million), the Migrant Housing Program ($10 million), the Home Purchase Assistance Program ($25 million) and Family Housing Demonstration Program ($15 million).

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

10 CODES AND STANDARDS PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The objectives of the Codes and Standards Program are to: (1) protect the public's health, safety, and general welfare related to residential construction and (2) enhance the effectiveness of statewide standards and regulatory programs. This program has broad responsibility for the development and administration of regulations designed to provide safe and sanitary housing for the California public and for residents of employee housing.

Budget Adjustments

For fiscal year 1990-91, the Department proposes the following changes:

- $121,000 and 1.9 personnel years to administer the Earthquake Bracing System Program.
- $31,000 and .9 personnel years to provide confidentiality for the addresses of owners of mobilehomes as required by Chapter 1213, Statutes of 1989 (AB 1779).
- $186,000 to administer the Mobilehome Ombudsman Program.

10.11 Housing Standards

Program Element Statement

The Housing Standards element includes responsibility for the: (1) State Housing Law; (2) Employee Housing Law; (3) and Mobilehome Parks Act. The element is also charged with reviewing and establishing building code requirements to minimize housing costs and conserve existing housing stock while protecting the public's welfare. The program establishes minimum standards for the design, construction, maintenance, use, and occupancy of buildings used for human habitation. The program is responsible for ensuring that safe and sanitary housing is provided for occupants of farmworker housing, labor supply camps, and other employee housing. Earthquake Protection Law requirements are also administered through this element.

The Housing Standards element also has responsibility for administration and enforcement of the Mobilehome Parks Act and other regulations related to mobilehome parks. Uniform standards are necessary to permit the installation of mobilehomes and their accessory structures statewide. There are approximately 5,900 mobilehome parks in California, of which approximately 55 percent are under State jurisdiction. The State is the designated enforcement agency, except where a city or a county has assumed responsibility. In addition, the element provides assistance to local jurisdictions, mobilehome owners and park owners, monitors local enforcement activities to assure uniform interpretation and compliance with State law, and provides engineering, technical support and plan review services relative to Mobilehome Park and State Housing Law components.

20 COMMUNITY AFFAIRS PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The objectives of this program are to promote the development of local communities and to facilitate, and where appropriate, participate in the provision of an adequate supply of housing to meet the needs of low-income State residents as well as identified target populations. The Division of Community Affairs' 23 programs provide grants, loans and technical assistance to local government agencies, nonprofit corporations and for-profit corporations to support the legislative mandate of a decent home and suitable living environment for every Californian.

Budget Adjustments

For fiscal year 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- A total of $34 million will be expended to provide assistance to victims of the October 17, 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake.
- An increase of $87,000 and 1.5 personnel years to implement a program to provide energy conservation rehabilitation of housing for low income persons pursuant to Chapter 1429, Statutes of 1988.

For fiscal year 1990-91, the budget reflects the following adjustments:

- A total of $3,000,000 for the Farmworker Housing Grant Program ($1 million), the Emergency Shelter Program ($1.5 million) and the Office of Migrant Services ($500,000).
- $3,360,000 and 53.2 personnel years to administer the Earthquake Safety and Rehabilitation Bond Program.
- $80,000 from Petroleum Violation Escrow Account and 2.8 personnel years to administer energy conservation rehabilitation of housing for low income persons pursuant to Chapter 1429, Statutes of 1988.
- A total of $40,000,000 will be expended to provide assistance to victims of the October 17, 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake.
- $15,000,000 of proceeds from the sale of Agnews State Hospital surplus lands will be used to provide low-income housing.
- An increase of $984,000 as pro rated share of increases in the administration program.

20.11 Housing Construction Finance

Program Element Statement

The Housing Construction Finance element administers seven major housing finance programs which provide technical and financial assistance to sponsors of low- to moderate-income housing developments to facilitate the development of new housing and the rehabilitation of existing units.

The California Homeownership Assistance Program, through local government agencies and approved lenders, provides equity sharing mortgage loans to eligible first-time homebuyers whose mobilehome park spaces or apartments are being converted to condominium or stock cooperatives, and to eligible buyers of mobilehomes, factory-built housing units, and lots where such units are being placed on permanent foundations.

The California Self-Help Housing Program provides technical assistance grants, construction financing and mortgage subsidies to encourage and enable low- and moderate-income households to build and rehabilitate their own homes.

The Deferred Payment Rehabilitation Loan Program provides loan subsidies to rehabilitate substandard single family, apartment and residential hotel units occupied by low-income persons, and technical assistance and training for local rehabilitation programs.

The Mobilehome Park Assistance Program provides technical assistance and both short-term and long-term loans to enable low-income mobilehome park residents to purchase and convert their mobilehome parks to resident ownership and control.

The Predevelopment Loan Program provides technical assistance and loans to public agencies and nonprofit sponsors of low-income housing for a variety of predevelopment expenses, including site acquisition, site development, and architectural, engineering, legal and consulting fees.

The Rental Housing Construction Program provides deferred payment loans and operating subsidies to sponsors to facilitate the development and long-term operation of affordable rental housing, including group homes for disabled persons and rental housing in rural areas.

The Special User Housing Rehabilitation Loan Program provides loan subsidies for apartments for the elderly or disabled, group homes for the disabled, and residential hotels for any lower-income household.

The activities shown in this program element for 1989-90 are reflected in the new program display format, beginning with Program Element 20.12.

20.21 Community Development

Program Element Statement

The Community Development element consists of five programs that provide technical and funding assistance through various State and Federal programs directed primarily to rural communities, small jurisdictions and Indian tribes. The funds are used for land acquisition, water and sewer facility construction and improvement, housing rehabilitation, economic development and other community development purposes.

The California Indian Assistance Program provides technical assistance to serve the community development and housing needs of California Indian communities by leveraging various State and Federal grant programs.

The State Community Development Block Grant Program provides funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's Community Development Block Grant Program to cities under 50,000 population and counties under 200,000 population. Funds are used for housing development and rehabilitation, and public facilities projects. Thirty percent of the funds are set aside for economic development activities.

The Federal Emergency Shelter Grants Program, which receives funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, provides grants to local government agencies for activities relating to the provision of emergency shelter to homeless persons and families.

The Rural Community Facilities Technical Assistance Program assists rural low-income communities to resolve their domestic water or wastewater problems utilizing various local, State and Federal programs that are available for the development and construction of community facilities.

The Rural Development Assistance Program provides targeted, on-site technical assistance to rural communities in resolving locally identified problems. Assistance is provided in the areas of housing development and rehabilitation, public services, public facilities and economic development. The counties currently being assisted are Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino, Tehama, Glenn, Yuba, Butte, Trinity, Colusa, and Sutter.

The activities shown in this program element for 1989-90 are reflected in the new program display format, beginning with Program Element 20.12.

20.31 Housing Replacement Program

Program Element Statement

The Century Freeway Housing Program was established in compliance with provisions of the Federal Court Consent Decree (Keith v Volpe, U.S. District Court, Civil No. 72-355 H.P.) which mandated a housing program of approximately 3,500 housing units to counteract the effects of housing lost as a result of the construction of the I-105 Freeway in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles-based office is charged with the implementation of a housing program that will serve displaced residents and other low- and moderate-income households from this geographic region.

20.41 Special Housing Needs

Program Element Statement

The Special Housing Needs element provides grants, loans, supportive services, and technical assistance to private labor camp owners and operators, nonprofit organizations and local government agencies to meet California's special housing needs for the homeless, disabled, seniors, low-income households, and farmworkers.

Components of this element provide rental assistance and subsidies, funds for housing development (acquisition, predevelopment, rehabilitation and new construction), shared housing for senior citizens, and emergency shelter. Available resources at all levels of government (Federal, State and local) are leveraged and used in conjunction with these programs to meet the needs of targeted groups.

The Emergency Shelter Program provides direct grants to local government agencies and nonprofit corporations to support the provision of emergency shelter for the homeless.

The Office of Migrant Services provides safe, decent and affordable temporary housing and access to related services, such as child care and summer school, to migrant families during the peak harvest season.

The Farmworker Housing Grant Program provides grants to local governments and nonprofit agencies to assist in the development and rehabilitation of housing for farmworkers and their families.

The Senior Citizens Shared Housing Program provides grants to local government agencies and nonprofit corporations to assist seniors in finding others with whom they can share housing.

The Section 8 Housing Assistance Program provides housing assistance payments from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development through local agencies to developmentally, mentally and physically disabled adults, and to low-income households in rural areas.

The activities shown in this program element for 1989-90 are reflected in the new program display format, beginning with Program Element 20.12.

20.22 Grant Unit

Program Element Statement

The Grant element consists of nine programs that provide grants, supportive services and technical assistance to meet the needs of low-income persons throughout the State.

The State Community Development Block Grant Program provides funds for housing development and rehabilitation, public facilities projects, economic development activities and other community development purposes. Thirty percent of the funds are set aside for economic development activities; fifty-one percent of the funds are set aside for housing activities; and ten percent of the funds for planning/technical assistance from both the Economic Development Allocation and the General Allocation.

The Rural Development Assistance Program provides targeted, on-site technical assistance to rural communities in resolving locally-identified problems. Assistance is provided in the areas of housing development and rehabilitation, public services, public facilities and economic development. The counties currently being assisted are Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino, Tehama, Glenn, Yuba, Trinity, Colusa and Sutter.

The Rural Community Facilities Technical Assistance Program assists rural low-income communities to resolve their domestic water or wastewater problems utilizing various local, State and Federal programs that are available for the development and construction of community facilities.

The California Indian Assistance Program provides technical assistance to service the community development and housing needs of California Indian communities by leveraging various State and Federal grant programs.

The Rental Rehabilitation Program provides grant funds to local government agencies for the rehabilitation of rental properties to make the rehabilitation of privately-owned market rental properties feasible. The program targets units that are likely to remain affordable for a reasonable period of time, based on market conditions.

The Section 8 Housing Assistance Program provides housing assistance payments through local agencies to developmentally, mentally and physically disabled adults and to low-income households in rural areas.

The Federal Emergency Shelter Grants Program provides grants to local government agencies and nonprofit organizations for activities relating to the provision of emergency shelter to homeless persons and families.

The Senior Citizens Shared Housing Program provides grants to local government agencies and nonprofit corporations to assist seniors in finding others with whom they can share housing.

The Emergency Shelter Program provides direct grants to local government agencies and nonprofit corporations to provide emergency shelter for the homeless. Administered as a component of the Emergency Shelter Program, is the Transitional Housing Rental Deposit Guarantee Demonstration Program, which provides grants to emergency shelter operators to assist homeless families to obtain permanent housing by providing contractual guarantees to landlords in lieu of security deposits.

20.32 Rehabilitation Unit

Program Element Statement

The Rehabilitation element administers three programs that provide financing for the acquisition and rehabilitation of single-family homes, apartments, group homes, and single-room occupancy residential hotels, including loans for the seismic rehabilitation of unreinforced masonry multi-unit residential structures. This element receives funding from the California Earthquake Safety and Housing Rehabilitation Bond Act of 1988 ($150 million) and the Housing and Homeless Bond Act of 1988 ($25 million).

The California Housing Rehabilitation Program for rental properties provides loans to sponsors for the rehabilitation (including seismic rehabilitation) and/or acquisition of apartments, group homes, and residential hotels for lower-income households. This program is administered in conjunction with the Federal Permanent Housing for the Handicapped Homeless (PHH) Program when the Department receives PHH funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The California Housing Rehabilitation Program for owner-occupied properties provides loans to rehabilitate substandard single-family units occupied by lower-income households, and technical assistance and training for local rehabilitation programs.

The State Earthquake Rehabilitation Assistance Program, which was established as a result of the October 1987 Los Angeles-Whittier Narrows earthquake, provides loan funds for the rehabilitation of both rental and owner-occupied structures that sustained earthquake damage.

20.42 Rental Unit

Program Element Statement

The Rental element administers a $215 million program that includes $200 million from the Housing and Homeless Bond Act of 1988, which was passed by the voters in November of 1988.

The Rental Housing Construction Program provides deferred payment loans and operating subsidies to sponsors to facilitate the development and long-term operation of affordable rental housing, including group homes for disabled persons and rental housing in rural areas.

The Family Housing Demonstration Program Component, which is administered as part of the Rental Housing Construction Program, is designed to assist single parents and working parent families. In addition to shelter, developments under this component include job training programs, on-site day care facilities and local support services. All developments are located near employment centers and public transportation.

In addition, the Rental element administers construction projects for the Department's Office of Migrant Services, which builds housing units and ancillary structures for migrant farmworkers throughout the state.

20.52 Loan Management Unit

Program Element Statement

The Loan Management element is responsible for the management of loans and grants from the construction phase through the monitoring stage. This element monitors projects from the following loan and grant programs: Rental Housing Construction Program, Family Housing Demonstration Component, California Homeownership Assistance Program, California Self-Help Housing Program, Mobilehome Park Assistance Program, Farmworker Housing Grant Program, Farm Labor Housing Rehabilitation Loan Program, Deferred Payment Rehabilitation Loan Program, Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program and the State Earthquake Rehabilitation Assistance Program.

In addition, this element administers migrant centers located throughout the State that are operated by the Office of Migrant Services. This program provides safe, decent and affordable housing and access to related services, such as child care and summer school, to migrant families during the peak harvest season.

This element also contains the Construction and Closeout Subunit, which provides construction and inspection services to all rehabilitation and new construction programs, including the preparation of building specifications, review of cost estimates, architectural drawings and site plans and preparation of independent analyses of project costs, overall construction or rehabilitation feasibility. This subunit also manages the migrant center construction and replacement housing contracts.

20.62 Disaster Assistance Loan Programs

Program Element Statement

The Disaster Assistance Loan Programs were created by Chapters 4X and 6X Statutes of 1989. The legislation provides assistance to victims of the Loma Prieta earthquake of October 17, 1989, by establishing the Disaster Assistance Rehabilitation Fund and the Natural Disaster Community Assistance Account for the purpose of making monies available for a multitude of programs in the event of future disasters as declared by the Governor. These urgency statutes appropriated a total of $74,000,000 to new and existing programs within the Department as follows:

The California Disaster Assistance Program is a new program with a $64,000,000 appropriation for loans to rehabilitate or reconstruct rental housing damaged or destroyed as a result of the earthquake, loans for homeowners to rehabilitate their homes, and funds for temporary relocation assistance to those households displaced as a result of earthquake-induced repairs.

Another new program, the Natural Disaster Emergency Shelter Program was created with a $5,000,000 appropriation to provide emergency or temporary shelter and assistance in the form of first and last month rent and security deposits for housing rented by earthquake victims.

The legislation also appropriated funds to the following existing programs: $1,500,000 for the Farmworker Housing Grant Program; $1,000,000 for the Rural Predevelopment Loan Program; $1,000,000 for the Urban Predevelopment Loan Program; $500,000 for the Rental Deposit Guarantee Program; and $1,000,000 for the Office of Migrant Services.

30 HOUSING POLICY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of the Housing Policy Development Division is to formulate and evaluate housing policies that, when implemented, will create an environment conducive to meeting the housing needs of the state's population. These policies respond to issues and circumstances that may affect public or private involvement in the provision of affordable housing. Additional responsibilities include long-range planning for meeting California's housing needs, technical assistance to local governments in addressing their housing needs, analysis of local implementation of State policies and housing laws, legislative analysis, and completion of the biennial Statewide Housing Plan and other mandated reports.

50 ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

This program includes the Directorate, Legal Affairs Office and the Administration Division. The Directorate provides policy and management direction to the Department. The Legal Affairs Office provides the legal expertise and support needed to carry out programs. The Administration Division provides services in the areas of personnel, budgets, data processing, contract management, audits, accounting, business services, and training.

Budget Adjustments

For fiscal year 1990-91, the Department proposes the following changes:

- $150,000 and 1.9 personnel years to administer the Internal Audit Program.
- $834,000 and 14.7 personnel years to administer the Earthquake Safety and Rehabilitation Bond Program.

2260 CALIFORNIA HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY

The primary purpose of the California Housing Finance Agency is to meet the housing needs of persons and families of low and moderate income. The primary functions of the Agency are to sell tax-exempt bonds and use the proceeds to finance housing at below-market interest rates by: (1) making construction loans and mortgage loans to qualified borrowers to finance housing developments, or purchasing such loans from qualified mortgage lenders and (2) purchasing loans originated and serviced by qualified mortgage lenders.

In addition to increasing the supply of affordable housing, the Agency's financing activities provide a stimulus to the State's economy which results in additional employment opportunities and increased income to California residents.

The Agency may: (1) provide technical services in connection with the financing of housing developments; (2) act as a State representative in receiving and allocating federal housing subsidies; and (3) under certain circumstances make grants to housing sponsors, provided that grants are not made with the proceeds of the sale of bonds or notes.

The Agency is fiscally self-supporting, meeting its operating expenses by setting loan interest rates slightly above the interest cost on bonds and charging fees for specific services.

The Agency is administered by an 11-member Board of Directors representing various segments of the housing industry and State government officials. Ex-officio members include the State Treasurer, the Secretary of Business, Transportation, and Housing and the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development. The Board of Directors adopts an annual budget each year which is presented for review to the Secretary of the Business, Transportation, and Housing Agency, the Director of Finance, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

2265 CALIFORNIA HOUSING INSURANCE

The goal of the California Housing Insurance program is to encourage and facilitate the preservation of existing housing and improve housing opportunities for persons of low and moderate income.

In 1977, Chapter 610/77 established a program for bond and loan insurance. The program was initially funded with a $5 million appropriation and a $5 million loan. The loan has since been fully repaid. All money in the fund is continuously appropriated for the purposes of insuring loans and bonds pursuant to the program.

To fill the void created for mortgage insurance for the low and moderate income housing market, the fund currently insures California Housing Finance Agency's single family loans and has earned a claims-paying ability credit rating equivalent to that of a private mortgage insurance company.

The fund expects to insure $1.2 billion in mortgages during its first five years of market operation. It is self-supporting and depends upon neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California to operate. The Board has not yet adopted a final budget for 1990-91. The budget presented here reflects a continuation of the approved level for 1989-90, adjusted for normal increases in employee compensation.

2290 DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

The principal objective of the Department of Insurance is to protect insurance policyholders in the State. To accomplish this objective, the Department conducts examinations of insurance companies and producers to ensure that operations are consistent with the requirements of the Insurance Code. In addition to the current objectives of the Department, the passage of Proposition 103 in November 1988, places additional responsibility on the Department. This measure makes major reforms on business conducted in the State by the insurance industry and requires the Department of Insurance to implement and monitor these reforms.

Funding for these positions is included in the department's 1989-90 appropriation, subject to the reporting requirements of Provision 2 of Item 2290-001-217 of the 1989 Budget Act. These positions and associated funding are being shown here for display purposes.

10 REGULATION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES AND INSURANCE PRODUCERS

Program Objectives Statement

The objectives of this program are: (1) to prevent losses to policyholders, beneficiaries or the public due to the insolvency of insurers, (2) to prevent unlawful or unfair practices by insurers as defined by the Insurance Code, and (3) to protect the general public and policyholders from discriminatory, unlawful or fraudulent practices as well as incompetence relating to the sale of insurance. To accomplish the objectives of this program, the Department conducts field examinations, regulates rates, maintains solvency surveillance, regulates proxy solicitations, manages financially distressed companies, admits qualified companies, maintains surveillance of admitted companies, reviews policy forms, investigates consumer complaints, and assures that producers are properly qualified and licensed.

Budget Adjustments

For the 1989-90 fiscal year, 10.6 personnel years have been administratively established to enable the department to carry out workload associated with Proposition 103. The associated funding ($323,000) was included in the department's 1989-90 appropriation.

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

For 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $145,000 and 2.9 personnel years to accommodate workload increases in the Financial Analysis division.
- $478,000 and 8.5 personnel years (1.9 personnel years on a two-year limited term basis) for implementation of Chapter 708 of the Statutes of 1989.
- $70,000 and 0.9 personnel year for implementation of Chapter 1129 of the Statutes of 1989.
- $383,000 for the prorated share of increased rent expenses reflected in the Administration program.
- $647,000 and 21.0 personnel years for workload resulting from the implementation of Proposition 103.

10.10 Regulation of Insurance Companies

Program Element Statement

The main objective of this element is to prevent losses to policyholders. Examinations are conducted to assure that insurance companies are financially solvent and fair in administering their operations and are in compliance with the Insurance Code.

Under this element, the Department of Insurance disseminates information to the public, handles written complaints, general telephone inquiries, walk-in interviews and general correspondence. Additionally, the department conducts market conduct examinations to determine which companies' claims and underwriting practices are not in conformance with the Insurance Code. Further, the division conducts rate and field examinations to enforce the California Rating Law.

20 FRAUD CONTROL

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of this program is to control insurance fraud. A staff of investigators conduct investigations and prepare fraud cases for presentation. When the case file is completed, it is referred to the appropriate district attorney for the issuance of criminal complaints. This program also provides for local assistance to local district attorneys for investigation and prosecution of automobile fraud cases.

2320 DEPARTMENT OF REAL ESTATE

The primary objectives of the Department of Real Estate are: (1) to protect the public in offerings of subdivided property; (2) to guarantee that licensed individuals conducting real estate transactions are competent and qualified; (3) to prevent fraud, deceit and misrepresentation in the real estate marketplace by assisting the public through the investigation of complaints; and (4) to educate the public and professional communities regarding the laws and regulations governing the handling of real estate transactions.

10 LICENSING AND EDUCATION

Program Objectives Statement

The main objectives of the Licensing and Education Program are: (1) to ensure that only those persons who meet prescribed qualifications are licensed; (2) to renew licenses for individuals who maintain qualifications by updating their technical knowledge through required continuing education; and (3) to enforce standards of legal and ethical conduct established for such licensees. Dealing in real property is often a once-in-a-lifetime activity for a large segment of the public. The degree of sophistication associated with real estate transactions makes it mandatory that real estate agents are qualified to render services which fully meet the public's needs.

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

10.10 Licensing

Program Element Statement

The Licensing element is responsible for preparation of examination questions and the administration of examinations for prospective real estate licensees. License examinations serve as California's lawful basis for determining individual competency. All examinations are scored and notices of test results are sent to applicants. Successful applicants may apply for an original salesperson or broker license. Licenses may be renewed when ongoing educational requirements have been met.

10.20 Education

Program Element Statement

The main objectives of the Education element are: (1) to coordinate departmental research projects and (2) to process continuing education and broker course applications for approval. Course approval activities are directed toward maintaining uniformity of study programs in real estate subjects required by law. Research projects are directed toward all phases of real estate activity that benefit the general public and professional licensees.

20 REGULATORY AND RECOVERY

Program Objectives Statement

The Regulatory and Recovery Program is responsible for investigations of complaints filed by the public and possible infractions noted by the staff or other regulatory agencies. Investigations are done to determine violations of the Real Estate Law. Trust fund commingling and conversion complaint cases receive investigative audits. Mortgage loan brokers, property management companies and broker-escrows are routinely audited. If the Department's findings justify further action, disciplinary proceedings, including suspension or revocation of a license and/or criminal proceedings, may be initiated to protect the public. The goal of the program is to provide maximum protection for the purchasers of real property and those persons dealing with real estate licensees.

The Department's legal staff is responsible for administration of the Real Estate Recovery Account, which is a fund of last resort to members of the public who have been defrauded by real estate licensees in connection with acts requiring a real estate license. Whenever a person obtains a judgment based on licensee fraud and the licensee is unable to pay the judgment, the victim may file a claim against the Real Estate Recovery Account up to the maximum allowed by law. Recovery claims are investigated by Department staff, and claims are decided by a court of law. When claims are paid out of the fund, the license of the agent on whose account the payment was made is automatically suspended until the recovery account has been repaid with interest.

30 SUBDIVISIONS

Program Objectives Statement

The Subdivisions Program is directed toward protecting the public from fraud and misrepresentation in the sale or lease of subdivided land. No person may offer to sell or lease interests in a subdivision covered by the Subdivided Lands Law without first filing a notice of intention and obtaining from the Real Estate Commissioner a public report on the subdivision. The public report examines virtually all aspects of the project and requires compliance with specified statutory and regulatory standards. The public report serves two functions aimed at protecting buyers of subdivision interests: (1) the report requires disclosure of material facts and (2) it ensures adherence to applicable standards for creating, operating, financing and documenting the project.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, an additional $17,000 is proposed as the prorated share of increases in the administration program.

Program Objectives Statement

The Administration Program is responsible for the final review of subdivision regulatory and license transactions, issuance and renewal of licenses, and maintenance of the official files of the Department. Administrative support staff perform the major part of the financial management, personnel, electronic data processing, training, support services and business services activities for the Department.

The Administration program legal staff advises the Commissioner on legal matters and drafts proposed legislation and regulations for administration of the Real Estate Law and the Subdivided Lands Law. Legal staff also represents the Department at disciplinary hearings, and answers inquiries from the public, licensees, and members of the Legislature.

10 SUPERVISION AND REGULATION

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objective of this program is to protect the funds deposited in savings and share accounts held in State associations and to assure that the saving and borrowing public is properly and legally served. Supervision and regulation activities are directed at the prevention of conditions or practices which would threaten the safety and solvency of associations or which would be detrimental to public need and convenience. Currently, there is in excess of $96 billion in savings and share accounts in State associations. Associations convert these public funds into residential, consumer and commercial building development and construction loans.

10.10 Examination

Program Element Statement

The primary objectives of this element are to: (1) verify compliance with laws, regulations and directives; (2) evaluate the soundness of operating policies and procedures; and (3) ascertain the financial condition and solvency of each association. Information is obtained from the examination of assets and activities as reflected in books, records and securities of an association, its holding company, service corporations and other related entities.

Budget Adjustment

In 1990-91, the budget proposes to eliminate 14.8 personnel years and $729,000 due to anticipated reduction in workload.

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

10.20 Appraisal

Program Element Statement

This element provides real estate analysis support on examinations by performing appraisals and real estate transaction analysis. This analysis is necessary for transactions which require prior approval, exceed limitations, involve insiders or involve stock exchanged for real estate. This function is performed by physical inspection of the subject real estate and field verification of related information.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Eliminate 4.8 personnel years and $264,000 due to anticipated reduction in workload.
- Increase of $152,000 for relocation costs and increased rent.

2600 CALIFORNIA TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

The California Transportation Commission is primarily responsible for the following activities:

- (1) adopting the State Transportation Improvement Program, which includes an estimate of State & Federal funds expected to be available over a seven-year period for transportation projects and a set of projects prioritized in keeping with statewide interests;
- (2) allocating State funds for capital improvements to specific highway, toll bridge, public mass transportation and aeronautics projects upon readiness for construction, within the constraint of available financial resources;
- (3) recommending funding priorities to the Legislature among the various elements of the State's Mass Transportation program, including State Transit Assistance, Rail Passenger Service and Transit Capital Improvements;
- (4) providing policy guidance to the Administration and Legislature by identifying key issues in the areas of financing, operating and maintaining current and future transportation systems through the Annual Report to the Legislature;
- (5) developing statewide guidelines for mandatory minimum local and private sector financial participation in the funding of various elements of the State's transportation programs; and
- (6) submitting to the Legislature an evaluation of the proposed budget of the California Department of Transportation, its adequacy for contributing to a balanced transportation program and the adequacy of current State transportation revenues, including gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and vehicle weight fees.

The Commission advises and assists the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency and the Legislature in formulating and evaluating State policies and plans for California's transportation programs. The Commission is also an active participant in the initiation and development of State and Federal legislation that seeks to secure financial stability for the State's transportation needs.

The Commission consists of eight members appointed by the Governor, a ninth who represents the California Public Utilities Commission (selected by the Governor from among its members), all appointed to staggered four-year terms, and two non-voting ex officio members, one from the State Senate and one from the State Assembly.

2650 TRANSPORTATION SERVICES FOR SOCIAL SERVICE RECIPIENTS

The Social Service Transportation Improvement Act (Chapter 1120, Statutes of 1979) was enacted with the intent to improve transportation services for social service recipients by promoting the consolidation of social service transportation services so that the following benefits may accrue: combined purchasing of necessary equipment so that some cost savings due to larger unit purchases can be realized; adequate training of vehicle drivers to ensure the safe operation of vehicles; centralized dispatching of vehicles so that efficient vehicle use results; centralized maintenance of vehicles so that adequate and routine vehicle maintenance scheduling is possible; centralized administration of various social service transportation programs to eliminate duplicative and costly administrative activities; and identification and consolidation of all existing sources of funding for social service transportation services for a more effective and cost efficient use of scarce resource dollars.

The Act specified that the following were to be exempt from consolidation considerations:

- (1) vehicles owned and operated by school districts or employees of school districts;
- (2) individual transportation allowances and recipients of such allowances, as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. (Aid for children whose dependency is caused by: (a) death, incapacity, or incarceration of a parent, (b) divorce, separation, or desertion of a parent or parents, or (c) the unemployment of a parent or parents);
- (3) individual transportation allowances and recipients of such allowances, as defined in Article 3 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. (Relief and support of incompetent poor, indigent persons, and those incapacitated by age, disease, or accident when such persons are not supported and relieved by their relatives or friends, by their own means, or by State hospitals or other State or private institutions);

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

2650 TRANSPORTATION SERVICES FOR SOCIAL SERVICE RECIPIENTS—Continued

- (4) individual transportation allowances and recipients of such allowances, as defined in Article 3 (commencing with Section 12550) of Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. (Special circumstances which are not common to all aged, blind, and disabled recipients which arise out of a need for certain goods or services, and physical infirmities or other conditions peculiar on a nonrecurring basis to the individual's situation); and
- (5) individual transportation allowances and recipients of such allowances, as provided under Title XX of the Social Security Act. (Grants to states for achieving or maintaining economic self-support of individuals to prevent, reduce or eliminate dependency.)

The following display reflects, by activity, program transportation services currently provided by state departments and organizations to five major recipient groups. A single reference mark (†) indicates which groups are recipients of the programs listed. A double reference mark (††) indicates which groups, if any, are the primary recipients of the individual program.

To date, there is no central data collection system that is operational which can provide detailed expenditure or funding source information for each of these particular programs. In this display, an attempt has been made to identify estimated program expenditures through a cooperative effort with each department.

2660 DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

The Department of Transportation has four primary programs: Aeronautics, Highway Transportation, Mass Transportation and Transportation Planning.

The Aeronautics program is concerned with airport and heliport safety, better ground access to airports, funding for improvements to airports and noise control. The program also helps small and medium-sized communities acquire and maintain air service.

The Highway Transportation program's highest priorities are maintaining and rehabilitating roads and highways and building new projects as set forth in the five-year State Transportation Improvement Program (STIP). This budget commits major resources to finish the Interstate Highway System in California, close gaps in freeways and expressways, improve highway safety and ensure the efficient operation of the State highway system.

The Mass Transportation program assists local government in providing public transportation, and funds certain commuter and intercity rail services and local guideways.

The Transportation Planning Program plans for future development and integration of the elements of the State's transportation systems. This budget includes resources to analyze transportation issues and problems, and develop traffic forecasts and other planning data.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

Chapters 105–109 of the Statutes of 1989, effective July 10, 1989, represent a fundamental change in the way transportation projects are programmed and financed in California. Beginning with the 1989–90 fiscal year, the Department of Transportation's budget will reflect the new program structure outlined in Section 167 of the Streets and Highways Code. Under current law, the revenues projected for the State Highway Account (SHA) in 1990–91 are $720 million less than the amount which would be provided by passage of SCA 1. To properly balance the proposed budget, $533 million in budget adjustments will be necessary in addition to providing no additional SHA funding augmentations. The fund shifts and expenditure adjustments necessary to eliminate this forecasted deficit are described below.

In 1989–90, the following actions are planned:

- Existing staff have been redirected to repair damage caused by the October 17, 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake, begin restoration of facilities, and retrofit existing structures to better withstand future earthquakes. Expenditures funded from the State Highway Account (SHA) will be reduced by $15 million to the extent that these staff activities are reimbursed from federal or state emergency relief funds.
- SHA expenditures will be reduced by an additional $17 million through a reduction in engineering contracts. These current year savings will increase the level of funds available for 1990–91.

In 1990–91, the following actions are necessary:

- A net of about $350 million in STIP projects for which SHA funds are insufficient to use available federal funds will be deferred one year, which will save $65 million in matching SHA funding during 1990–91. In addition, approximately $102 million in construction projects funded with only State funding will be deferred beyond 1990–91. Minor Capital Outlay projects will be reduced by $18 million, which will limit Minor Capital Outlay funding to the amount necessary to match federal funds. The only major construction contracts awarded in the 1990–91 from the SHA will be for essential safety, earthquake restoration and seismic retrofit projects. The Department will continue to award contracts funded from Toll Bridge revenues and other non-SHA sources.
- Base SHA expenditures within the Highways and Administration programs will be reduced $162 million by eliminating state funded engineering contracts ($104 million); reducing other consulting funding for operations studies ($6 million); restricting expenditures for the hiring new employees (hiring freeze), temporary help, cash overtime costs, and non-expendable equipment, except in the areas of maintenance and toll collection ($52 million and 770 personnel years).

- The redirection of existing staff to restoration and retrofit work will continue in 1990–91. State disaster relief funds are expected to fund $17 million in staff costs that would otherwise be paid from the SHA.
- Similarly, the Department will redirect additional state-funded capital outlay support staff to work on activities which are funded from other sources. The Department will undertake 161.2 PYs and $9.9 million of work related to the design and construction of highway projects funded from the proceeds of Regional Measure 1, which raised tolls on all Bay Area toll bridges operated by the Department to $1. The Department will also actively pursue requests from the Local Tax Authorities to provide project delivery services on a reimbursement basis. These actions will save the SHA almost $19 million.
- In the areas of mass transportation and planning, $64 million for local Mass Transit Guideways projects and $40 million for State Transit Assistance will be eliminated. The transfer of State Highway Account funds to the Transportation Planning and Development Account to pay for planning activities will also be eliminated, saving the SHA account an additional $14.3 million.

In light of the above actions, the 1990–91 budget seeks to maximize the use of alternative funding sources to expand activities primarily funded from sources other than the SHA. These adjustments include the following:

- The restoration of $48.5 million in reductions made in 1989–90 to balance the State Highway Account, predominantly for activities related to Maintenance. Although the Maintenance program will not be impacted by the 1990–91 reductions, there will be no increase in resources to handle added inventory on the system or to reduce maintenance backlogs.
- An increase of $2 million in one-time federal funds for the California Program on Advanced Technology to continue development of new technologies which will improve the efficiency of highway facilities; 35 PYs and $3,827,000 to provide transportation facilities in accordance with Chapter 107, Statutes of 1989; 16.0 PYs and $645,000 for toll collection activities; $911,000 to automate the right-of-way rental system; an augmentation of 30 PYs and $3.79 million from the SHA to provide an increase in litter removal in selected urban areas on the State highway system; and a funding shift of $990,000 from federal funds to the SHA to accurately budget for the federal reimbursement of hazardous waste site investigations.
- Augmentations for the Mass Transportation program will continue the Peninsula Commute Service ($3,300,000); expand Amtrak services ($1,723,000); support Intercity Rail Service capital projects (6.2 PYs and $344,000); and expand Rideshare and other commute management options which improve highway efficiency and reduce congestion (14.2 PYs and $8 million). The budget also contains a reduction of 10.4 PYs and $694,000 to reflect elimination of activities which had been federally or locally reimbursed.
- Increases in the Department's administrative functions are proposed for toll cashing workload (11.8 PYs and $497,000); a special fund for energy cost avoidance projects ($16,000); a reimbursed labor relations workload pool (5 PYs and $237,000).

10 AERONAUTICS

Program Objectives Statement

The Aeronautics program supports California's aviation activities by promoting the optimum use of existing airports, with special emphasis on assuring adequate air service for small and medium-sized communities because of rapidly changing conditions caused by the Airline Deregulation Act. California aeronautical activity is among the highest in the United States. This high level of activity has created problems such as airborne traffic congestion, aircraft noise and airport terminal congestion, affecting pilots, passengers and the general public. These problems are complicated by the fact that in urban areas, where the problems are most acute, new airport construction often is not feasible.

10.40 Work for Others

Program Element Statement

The Work for Others element provides planning, development, design and construction assistance to other public agencies that have agreed to reimburse Caltrans fully when the provision of such assistance fulfills an essential public purpose which will be impaired without Caltrans' participation. Under contract, the department performs airport inspections related to safety and physical conditions on selected airports for the Federal Aviation Administration. ## 20 HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION

Program Objectives Statement

California's road network supports the vast majority of all travel in the State, including both personal and commercial transportation. Roads provide for the movement of people in private vehicles and on bicycles, and for the movement of freight in trucks. The State highway system, which comprises less than nine percent of the total roadway mileage in California, handles fifty-three percent of the miles traveled. The Highway Transportation Program is responsible for the planning, construction, improvement, operation, maintenance and rehabilitation of the State highway system. The program also includes projects on county roads and streets which qualify for funding.

Budget Adjustments

For 1989-90, the budget reflects the following adjustments:

- An increase of $25,711,000 and 54.8 personnel years to provide reimbursed support for the design and construction of highway bridge facilities associated with Regional Measure 1 in the San Francisco Bay Area.
- A special adjustment of —$11,900,000 comprised of: —$32,000,000 for the prorated share of the expenditure adjustments needed to equal a reduced SHA funding level and $20.1 million in emergency relief funds related to recovery from the October 17, 1989, Loma Prieta Earthquake (includes $7 million in federal funds).

For 1990-91, the budget proposes the following adjustments:

- A restoration of $48,450,000, including $38,250,000 for preventative maintenance activities and $10,200,000 for Capital Outlay project delivery activities reduced in 1989-90.
- An increase of $9,040,000 and a redirection of 133.2 personnel years to provide reimbursed support to perform work requested by local sales tax authorities on locally funded programs.
- An increase of $9,869,000 and a redirection of 161.2 personnel years to provide reimbursed support associated with Regional Measure 1.
- An increase of $3.79 million and 30 PYs for litter removal in selected urban areas on the State highway system.
- A one-time increase of $2,000,000 in Federal funds to expand the Department's New Technology Development Program, including the Program for Advanced Technology on the Highway (PATH).
- An increase of $602,000 and 14.9 personnel years in toll collection activities.
- A one-time increase of $911,000 to automate the right-of-way rental system.
- A shift of $990,000 from Federal funds to the State Highway Account to more accurately reflect Federal reimbursement percentages for hazardous waste site investigations.
- An increase of $3,827,000 and 35 personnel years to provide reimbursed engineering support in the construction of transportation facilities by private entities in accordance with Chapter 107, Statutes 1989.

- A reduction in base expenditures due to the shortfall in the State Highway Account as detailed in the Major Budget Adjustments.
- A special adjustment of —$582,966,000 comprised of: —$188,611,000 for the prorated share of the expenditure adjustments needed to equal a reduced SHA funding level; —$445,805,000 in reduced state and federal funding for capital construction; and $51,450,000 in emergency relief funds for the Loma Prieta Earthquake (includes $25 million in federal funds). Included in this Special Adjustment is a reduction of 973.2 personnel years which results from the planned departmental hiring freeze, reduction of temporary help staff, and the redirection of existing SHA funded staff to reimburse work related to local sales tax authorities and Regional Measure 1.

20.25 State-Local Transportation Partnership

Program Element Statement

The State-Local Transportation Partnership element provides a new state-local partnership for financing transportation improvement projects. This element provides resources and funds to match local funding for transportation improvements. These locally funded and constructed highway and public mass transit guideway projects provides economic and transportation benefits for the state. This element reflects the new element structure pursuant to the Transportation Summit legislation, Chapter 105, Statutes of 1989. Full implementation of this program and element structure is dependent upon the passage of the State Constitutional Amendment 1 which is scheduled for the June 1990 election.

20.30 Local Assistance

Program Element Statement

The Local Assistance element provides for the administration, coordination and control required by Federal and State law for implementing transportation projects and furnishing financial assistance to city and county transportation programs. The purpose is to ensure that the expenditure of all apportioned funds is consistent with Federal and State guidelines and is administered at the lowest departmental expense.

This element also provides assistance at the request of other public agencies that have agreed to reimburse the department for the full cost of the effort when the provisions of such assistance fulfill an essential public purpose which will be impaired without the department's participation.

Beginning in fiscal year 1989–90, this element reflects a new component structure pursuant to the Transportation Summit legislation, Chapter 105, Statutes of 1989.

20.40 Program Development

Program Element Statement

The Program Development element evaluates the need for highway transportation facilities and services and develops programs to respond to that need. This element consists of the Research, System Management and Programming components.

The Research component responds to the need for safe, efficient and environmentally compatible highway transportation service. Research activities include theoretical and applied research, development, testing and evaluation and demonstration projects. Also, it includes resource conservation research which seeks the most efficient utilization of nonrenewable resources.

The System Management component provides for the collection and analysis of factual data as a basis for recommendations and reports to top management, the California Transportation Commission and the Legislature. Specific activities include mapping and inventorying road systems and monitoring performance and construction progress.

The Programming component develops the State Transportation Improvement Program (STIP), which includes a list of capital outlay projects proposed for construction.

20.70 Operations

Program Element Statement

The Operations element provides for the management of traffic through a systemwide surveillance, analysis and control effort. Activities include the operation of traffic control and motorist information devices and services such as signals, signs, ridesharing, ramp controls and public media announcements.

Other activities include the operation of toll bridges including toll collection and other toll-related services. Encroachment and transportation permits are also reviewed and issued.

Real property services include property management, airspace leasing, sales of excess land, and travelers services.

In 1990–91, the Ridesharing component and all ridesharing activities were transferred to Program 30.80 Rideshare Operations pursuant to the Transportation Summit Legislation, Chapter 105, Statutes of 1989.

20.80 Maintenance

Program Element Statement

The purpose of the Maintenance element is to preserve and repair the highway system in a safe and usable condition. Maintenance and repair projects include the upkeep of road surfaces, shoulders, roadsides, drainage facilities, bridges, tunnels, ferries, landscape planting, signs, pavement markings, etc. In addition to physical maintenance, this element provides for operational activities such as operating lights and signals, snow and ice removal, and staffing of roadside rest areas.

20.90 Equipment Services

Program Element Statement

The Equipment Services element provides for the administration of the department's equipment fleet. It includes: (1) equipment purchase; (2) assembly of new equipment components into completed units; (3) management of the fleet; (4) repair and maintenance; (5) disposal of fleet equipment; (6) operation of the Motorized Equipment Training Academy; and (7) management of the department's telecommunications system.

30 MASS TRANSPORTATION

Program Objectives Statement

The Mass Transportation program addresses the public's concern for: (1) improved air quality; (2) environmental protection; (3) conservation of energy resources; (4) the transportation needs of low-mobility persons; (5) improved intercity and urban/rail services; (6) enhanced mobility in congested corridors; and (7) the need for safe, effective public transportation. The program supports the California Transportation Program by encouraging and implementing urban, rural and interregional public transportation to provide efficient, safe and cost-effective transit services, equipment and facilities.

2660 DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—*ContinuedBudget Adjustments

The 1989–90 revised budget includes:

- Reappropriation of $3.8 million in transit capital improvements funds for emergency transit operations ($2 million for emergency ferry services and $1.8 million for local emergency transit activities) in accordance with Chapter 18, First Extraordinary Session, Statutes of 1989.

For 1990–91, the budget proposes the following adjustments:

- An increase in $1,723,000 to continue Amtrak passenger train service in the San Joaquin Valley and the San Diego to Santa Barbara corridors.
- An increase of $7,822,000 and 10.7 personnel years, including a one-time adjustment of $200,000, to improve highway efficiency and reduce congestion by utilizing rideshare and other commute management options.
- An increase of $340,000 and 6 personnel years to continue support for the Intercity Rail Service Capital projects.
- An increase of $3,300,000 to support the continuation of the Peninsula Commute Rail Service.
- A decrease of $694,000 and 10.4 personnel years for various mass transportation activities which have been discontinued.
- A decrease of $64 million for local mass transit guideway projects as a measure to eliminate the State Highway Account deficit.
- A special adjustment of —$28,422,000 to reduce the level of available funding for Transit Capital Improvement projects.

The Full Mobility Transportation element provides improved transportation services and facilities necessary for transit-dependent people, including elderly, disabled and disadvantaged persons. Activities include planning, initiating, administering and coordinating programs to increase public transportation services for dependent persons and low-mobility groups now restricted by cost, availability of service, or design of facilities and equipment. These programs provide assistance to public and private organizations in order to make more effective and efficient use of resources and develop and improve specialized equipment used in public transit service for low-mobility people.

30.30 Interregional Public Transportation

Program Element Statement

Projects in the Interregional Public Transportation element focus on: (1) improvement in interregional public ground transportation throughout the State; (2) offering alternatives to the automobile; and (3) providing mobility for those who cannot afford, or are physically unable, to use the private automobile. These programs include identification and support of necessary interregional bus services and activities to improve rail passenger and freight service and facilities. Beginning in fiscal year 1989-90, this element reflects a new component structure pursuant to the Transportation Summit legislation, Chapter 105, Statutes of 1989.

Program Element Statement

The Transportation Demonstration Projects element conducts research, development and demonstration projects to advance the state-of-the-art of public transit equipment and services through improved or innovative equipment, facilities and operating methods. Program activities include selection, implementation and evaluation of research and demonstration projects to improve transit vehicles, facilities, and equipment; and participation in technical studies aimed at improving transit management and planning techniques.

30.70 Work for Others

Program Element Statement

The Work for Others element provides assistance at the request of other public agencies that have agreed to reimburse Caltrans for the full cost of the effort when such assistance fulfills an essential public purpose. In this capacity the department provides services related to Mass Transportation which are not the mandated responsibility of this program.

30.80 Rideshare Operations

Program Element Statement

The Rideshare Operations element responds to public needs for conservation of fuel, improved air quality, mitigation of traffic congestion, prolonged highway life, alleviation of parking problems, and reduced transportation costs by motivating people to travel in groups rather than driving alone. Program activities encourage the use of carpools, vanpools, buspools, and transit by providing ridesharing services and information.

Also, the program will: (1) review and approve grants and loans to provide capital assistance for the purchase or lease of vanpool vehicles; (2) provide start-up funds for the development of new Transportation Management Associations (TMA's); and (3) conduct a statewide public awareness and marketing campaign. Beginning in 1990-91, ridesharing activities are reflected in this element pursuant to the Transportation Summit legislation, Chapter 105, Statutes of 1989.

40 TRANSPORTATION PLANNING

Program Objectives Statement

The Transportation Planning program is designed to oversee implementation of statewide transportation policy through coordination and development of transportation plans and resulting projects. It provides overall development of long-range transportation system planning and transportation planning studies as input to the State Transportation Improvement Program (STIP). The program provides analyses and recommendations regarding current transportation issues.

In addition, technical assistance, traffic forecasts and other transportation data are provided to department districts and modal divisions, regional agencies and others. Departmental applications and funding from Federal, State and discretionary grant sources are integrated. Management of planning activities on modal transportation plans, air quality, transportation system management and energy conservation is provided. Through the areawide clearing house/environmental review process, an evaluation is made of the potential impact on the State transportation system of proposed local development projects. Further, the department is seeking to build partnerships with regional/local agencies and the private sector to coordinate transportation and local development.

The Transportation Planning program ensures that the requirements of new legislation and departmental policy are evaluated and changes integrated into the various modal and intermodal programs of the department.

50 ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

The Department of Transportation's activities require overall policy direction, coordination and administrative services to achieve departmental goals and objectives. This program includes the following activities: (1) leadership, coordination, and management consultation for departmental programs; and (2) administrative, business, legal and other services necessary for the efficient operation of the department's programs, including personnel, affirmative action, employee relations, training, legislative affairs, public information, budgeting, accounting, auditing, management and systems analysis, safety and program management.

Budget Adjustments

For 1990-91, the budget proposes the following adjustments:

- An increase of $497,000 and 11.8 personnel years to maintain new workload in toll cashing.
- An increase of $237,000 and 5 personnel years to establish a labor relations workload pool.
- An increase of $16,000 to establish a special fund account for energy-cost avoidance associated with the maintenance of the Department's facilities.
- An increase of $225,000 and 4.8 personnel years to accommodate the administrative workload associated with increased program levels for Rideshare activities ($178,000), toll collection workload ($43,000), and Intercity Rail services ($4,000).
- A special adjustment of -$9,563,000 and -90.4 personnel years for the prorated share of the expenditure adjustments needed to equal a reduced SHA funding level.

<sup>2</sup> This fund contains tax proceeds subject to the State Appropriations Limit, Article XIIIB of the Constitution. In addition to the amounts reflected as expenditures in this statement, appropriations subject to the limit are adjusted for increases or decreases in the fund's Reserve for Economic Uncertainties and do not include any amounts expended for debt service, subventions to local government, compliance with federal or court mandates and from appropriations made in previous years (carryovers). Additional information on the State Appropriations Limit is provided in the Governor's Budget Summary.

2700 OFFICE OF TRAFFIC SAFETY

The Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) was established in 1967 for the purpose of administering the California Traffic Safety Program. Under the provisions of State law, the OTS carries out a wide range of activities designed to reduce deaths, injuries and property damage that result from traffic accidents. The activities include: (1) developing the California Highway Safety Plan which identifies major traffic safety problems, appropriate countermeasure programs and available State and Federal funds; (2) administering funds to State and local governmental entities in the form of project grant agreements; and (3) coordinating statewide traffic safety programs and activities.

The major areas of traffic safety activity are alcohol and drugs, police traffic services, occupant protection, traffic records, traffic engineering and emergency medical services. The OTS provides staff support to the Governor's 14-member Intergovernmental Advisory Council on Alcohol, Drugs and Traffic Safety. The Council members represent a cross section of the many sectors involved in traffic safety.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

For 1990-91, 1.0 personnel year and $17,000 in Federal Trust Funds are proposed to provide adequate internal accounting control.

Program Element Statement

This element ensures that the 83,900 miles of county roads and 14,250 miles of State highways under CHP jurisdiction are provided patrol services. Allocation of personnel is based upon: twenty-four hour coverage on all Interstate highways, US Route 101, and State Route 99; sufficient staffing to ensure at least minimum coverage on county roads to respond to essential calls for service; analysis of motor vehicle traffic collision data and the motoring public's need for accident investigation services; enforcement contacts, including arrests, and verbal and written warnings; and services provided to motorists. In order to provide these services, the CHP maintains at least one facility or residence post in each of the 58 counties in California.

10.20 Flight Operations

Program Element Statement

The purpose of this element is to extend patrol coverage by deploying aircraft on major and auxiliary highways which carry moderate traffic flows but receive minimal or no ground unit coverage. In addition, aircraft are provided to allied agencies to support statewide law enforcement.

The CHP deploys six state-funded airplanes: Redding (1), Fresno (1), Barstow (1), Paso Robles (1), Sacramento (1), and El Centro (1). The Department also operates seven airplanes funded by the Federal government for the Focused Aerial Speed Enforcement Project.

Five helicopters are deployed statewide: Redding (1), Sacramento (1), Napa (1), Fresno (1), and Barstow (1) as patrol units capable of handling assigned or detected calls/incidents to completion without ground officer assistance. Aircraft services include traffic management, crime control, search and rescue, emergency medical services, and fire detection.

20 REGULATION AND INSPECTION

Program Objectives Statement

The major objectives of this program are: to reduce the incidence of truck and bus accidents attributable to defective vehicle equipment, improper maintenance, loading or securement of cargo, or disqualified drivers; to protect the public from spills of hazardous materials or specially regulated loads and from the improper operation of specified vehicles such as ambulances and armored cars; to protect farm workers transported in farm labor vehicles and children transported in school buses; to ensure that proper registration fees are paid; and to protect highways from excessive weights. Goals are to inspect as many vehicles, loads, hazardous materials shipping facilities, and vehicle maintenance facilities as can be accomplished with the resources available.

Budget Adjustments

The Department is proposing the following budget adjustments in this program for the 1990-91 Fiscal Year:

- 22.8 personnel years and $1,215,000 for enhanced regulation and inspection of commercial carriers;
- 5.7 personnel years and $232,000 for support staffing for the Biennial Inspection of Terminals (BIT) Program;
- —$4,000 for the prorated share of replacement and additional vehicle purchases;
- 2.5 personnel years and $596,000 for the prorated share of telecommunications services and equipment;
- 0.6 personnel years and $21,000 for the prorated share of field support staffing.
- $73,000 for the prorated share of funding for semi-automatic pistols.

20.05 School Pupil Transportation Safety

Program Element Statement

The objectives of this element are to minimize to the greatest extent possible school bus accidents caused by mechanical defects or caused by the school bus driver.

School buses are inspected and certified annually and school bus maintenance facilities are inspected periodically to ensure that the vehicles are properly maintained. Other activities of this element include testing and certification of school bus drivers, periodic monitoring of school bus drivers to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and investigation of all school bus accidents.

20.10 Regulated Special Purpose Vehicles

Program Element Statement

The objective of this element is to protect the public from improper operation of emergency ambulances, armored cars and certain other authorized emergency vehicles. This objective is accomplished by adopting and enforcing regulations regarding the operation, equipment, and certification of drivers of emergency ambulances, by licensing the operation of armored cars and privately owned emergency ambulances, and by issuing permits for certain specified vehicles to be equipped and operated as authorized emergency vehicles.

20.15 Transportation of Hazardous Materials

Program Element Statement

The primary objective of this element is to protect the public from the unsafe transportation of hazardous materials. Program staff inspect terminals, vehicles, equipment, loading, shipment preparation (including identification on containers, vehicles, and shipping documents) and other items to reduce the likelihood or severity of an accident involving these materials.

20.20 Farm Labor Transportation Safety

Program Element Statement

The primary objective of this element is to reduce the incidence of accidents involving vehicles transporting farm laborers. Program staff function in a two-part effort to: (1) ensure that farm labor transportation vehicles are in proper mechanical order and (2) determine that farm labor vehicle drivers are qualified to properly operate a farm labor transportation vehicle.

20.25 Commercial Vehicle Inspection and Enforcement

Program Element Statement

The primary objectives of this element are to protect the public from potential hazards of trucks and truck-trailer combinations which are unsafe due to an unqualified driver, hazardous loads or faulty equipment; to protect the public highway investment by mitigating or eliminating truck overload; and to ensure that proper registration fees are paid to provide funds for highway maintenance and construction.

Program staff operate a combination of truck scales, truck inspection facilities, and portable inspection and scale units, in addition to routine road patrol units. These officers and inspection specialists are responsible for inspecting commercial vehicles for mechanical defects and failure to comply with weight, load, size, tie-down, registration and driver qualification requirements. Imminently hazardous vehicles are placed out of service, weight excesses are removed or adjusted and citations issued for violations. Spot checks of trucks are also performed as part of weighing operations for other possible violations and environmental protection purposes.

20.45 Motor Carrier Safety Operations

Program Element Statement

The objective of this element is to protect the public from personal injury, loss of life, and loss of property resulting from "mechanical defect caused" and "driver fatigue caused" heavy duty commercial vehicle accidents.

Program staff routinely visit motor carrier terminals (truck/bus) to inspect drivers' records for violations of driving time, and to inspect vehicle maintenance records for compliance and the vehicles for mechanical defects. Vehicles included in this program are buses, trucks with three or more axles, and construction vehicles. See Vehicle Code Section 34500 for a complete list.

30 VEHICLE OWNERSHIP SECURITY

Program Objective Statement

The objective of this program is to protect the public from economic losses as a result of vehicle theft. This objective is accomplished by: (1) investigation and prosecution of the professional vehicle thief; (2) assistance and training of CHP and allied agency personnel; and (3) prevention of vehicle theft through public awareness and coordination with industry. The objective also includes a program to ensure that vehicles registered in California have an appropriate vehicle identification number attached.

Budget Adjustments

The Department is proposing the following budget adjustments in this program for the 1990-91 Fiscal Year:

- 1.1 personnel years and $240,000 for the prorated share of telecommunications services and equipment;
- 0.2 personnel years and $7,000 for the prorated share of field support staffing;
- —$1,000 for the prorated share of replacement and additional vehicle purchases.
- $30,000 for the prorated share of funding for semi-automatic pistols.

30.10 Vehicle Theft Control

Program Element Statement

The objective of this element is to address the State's vehicle theft problem to the greatest extent possible through: (1) investigation and prosecution of the professional vehicle thief, (2) assistance and training of CHP and allied agency personnel and (3) prevention of vehicle theft through public awareness and coordination with industry.

Under this program, the department has officers assigned full time to investigate vehicle theft and theft rings.

Officers attack the vehicle theft problem through statewide coordination of investigations with other agencies; development, analysis and dissemination of vehicle theft information; selective inspection of vehicles and business establishments; titling and licensing improvements; and training education programs.

40 ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of this program is to provide executive and administrative staff services to assure the overall success of the various departmental programs. This program includes departmental management, fiscal management, planning and analysis, training, and administrative services functions and activities.

Budget Adjustments

The Department is proposing the following budget adjustments in this program for the 1990-91 Fiscal Year:

- 3.1 personnel years and $737,000 for the prorated share of telecommunications services and equipment;
- 0.8 personnel years and $24,000 for the prorated share of field support staffing;

11 VEHICLE/VESSEL IDENTIFICATION AND COMPLIANCE

Program Objectives Statement

The principal objectives of this program are to establish identification and ownership of vehicles and vessels of California residents, assure compliance with various related laws, collect revenue for various state and local government programs, and provide information from vehicle and vessel records. Consistent with these objectives, the department participates in the International Registration Plan which provides for the proration of commercial vehicle fees to the member states and provinces of Canada.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Increase of 245.7 personnel years and $9,498,000 for workload increases.
- Decrease of 37.6 personnel years and $1,579,000 for continuation of EDP automation projects.
- Increase of 70.2 personnel years and $2,729,000 for implementation of recently enacted legislation.

22 DRIVER LICENSING AND PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION

Program Objectives Statement

The principal objective of this program is to issue identifying documentation to individuals who are eligible drivers and personal identification to other individuals. Activities in this program include application review, photography, fees collection and response to information requests. The program also promotes the financial responsibility of vehicle owners and operators.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Increase of 118.9 personnel years and $6,315,000 for workload increases.
- Decrease of 2.5 personnel years and $1,687,000 for continuation of EDP automation projects.
- Decrease of 0.8 personnel years and increase of $152,000 for implementation of recently enacted legislation.

25 DRIVER SAFETY

Program Objectives Statement

The principal objectives of this program are promotion of highway safety by screening driver license applicants for driving competency, and regulation, control and improvement of drivers who become safety risks. Driver license applicants are required to demonstrate: (1) knowledge and understanding of safe driving principles and the laws governing the operation of vehicles on the highways, (2) the skill to drive within reasonably safe standards and (3) adequate and/or compensating vision efficiency for the safe operation of vehicles. Driver control programs are maintained at hearing points throughout the state and include both those in which driver control actions are mandated by statute and in which action is determined administratively.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, an increase of 14.6 personnel years and $883,000 is reflected for developing and evaluating traffic safety countermeasures involving high risk drivers and the implementation of Chapter 1460/89 relating to drivers license revocation.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Increase of 40.8 personnel years and $1,265,000 for workload increases.
- Decrease of 0.4 personnel years and $9,000 for continuation of EDP automation projects.
- Increase of 138.1 personnel years and $4,803,000 for implementation of recently enacted legislation.

35 NEW MOTOR VEHICLE BOARD

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objective of this program is to prohibit manufacturers from adding, withdrawing or relocating, automobile dealerships in market areas of existing franchisees, where such effect would be injurious to the existing franchisees and to the public interest, and to protect members of the public from the activities of dishonest or unqualified motor vehicle licensees.

The New Motor Vehicle Board is a quasi-judicial tribunal that adjudicates disputes which arise between new motor vehicle franchisees and their respective franchisors concerning rights or obligations afforded by statute as well as by virtue of the franchise relationship between the parties. The Board hears and considers protests filed by new motor vehicle dealers against the proposed termination or modification of, or refusal to continue, the franchise; the proposed establishment or relocation of dealerships; disputes concerning dealer delivery preparation obligations and the compensation thereof; and disputes which arise as a result of the warranty relationship which exists between the dealers and their respective franchisors. Also, the Board hears and considers virtually every other type of dispute which arises between a dealer and manufacturer or distributor and which concerns the franchise relationship. Further, the Board hears appeals on final decisions of the Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles. Finally, the Board mediates disputes which arise between consumers of new motor vehicles and the dealers and/or manufacturers or distributors from which the vehicles are acquired.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- Increase of 0.9 personnel years and $38,000 for increased workload and major equipment needs.

Program Objectives Statement

The principal objectives of this program are to provide policy guidance, long-range planning, automation development and support for the overall management of the department. Included are programs of communication, security operations, equal employment opportunity, information, quality improvement and planning, internal auditing, labor relations, legal services, management analysis, multilingual services, program and policy development, and research and development. Also included are administrative support programs: personnel management, financial management, environmental safety management, business and facilities management and electronic data processing.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- Increase of 29.1 personnel years and $1,177,000 for workload increases.
- Decrease of 0.1 personnel years and increase of $10,000 for continuation of EDP automation projects.
- Increase of $10,000 for implementation of recently enacted legislation.

In addition, the 1990-91 Governor's Budget projects additional Motor Vehicle Account revenues of $12 million in 1989-90 and $79.7 million in 1990-91. These revenue increases are comprised of the following:

- $12 million in 1989-90 and $40 million in 1990-91 from increasing the administrative fee for processing electronic requests for data to $2 per record, beginning February 1, 1990.
- $13 million in 1990-91 from continuing the $1 surcharge on motor vehicle registration fees that is due to sunset on January 1, 1991.
- $15 million in 1990-91 from the elimination of the retroactive applications for Certificates of Non-Operation (begins July 1, 1990).
- $9.3 million in 1990-91 from the reissue fees charged for drivers' licenses which have been administratively suspended in accordance with Chapter 1460, Statutes of 1989 (SB 1623), beginning July 1, 1990.
- $1.8 million in 1990-91 from the administrative fees assessed owners of destroyed or stolen vehicles who seek license fee refunds or credit in accordance with Chapter 718, Statutes of 1989 (SB 839), beginning July 1, 1990.
- $0.4 million in 1990-91 from increasing renewal fees for vehicle dealers to $85 per year (begins July 1, 1990).
- $0.2 million in 1990-91 from increasing the annual renewal fees for vehicle salespersons to $50 beginning July 1, 1990.

<sup>1</sup> This fund contains tax proceeds subject to the State Appropriations Limit, Article XIIIB of the Constitution. In addition to the amounts reflected as expenditures in this statement, appropriations subject to the limit are adjusted for increases or decreases in the fund's Reserve for Economic Uncertainties and do not include any amounts expended for debt service, subventions to local government, compliance with federal or court mandates and from appropriations made in previous years (carryovers). Additional information on the State Appropriations Limit is provided in the Governor's Budget Summary.

2780 STEPHEN P. TEALE DATA CENTER

The Stephen P. Teale Data Center is the State's general purpose computing service bureau, assisting state agencies in achieving program objectives through the application of advanced information systems technology. This will be accomplished by: (1) being uncompromising in providing the highest quality service possible; (2) helping clients implement new and existing technologies; (3) leading the State in implementation of new and existing technologies; (4) providing the means for ensuring the security and confidentiality of data; and (5) maintaining the redundancy of processing capabilities for critical state programs. At Teale, we strategically plan our advancements to coincide with the next proven generation of technology, where that technology has demonstrated advantages for its application to State needs. In that regard, we are continually working with technical experts from a variety of computer firms to explore and select those technological developments which will improve or enhance State operations. Our aim is to ensure that Teale's clients have the means to evolve their use of information processing technology in step with future developments.

Teale's budget is based on client departments' requests and the known costs of operation. This allows Teale management to establish charging rates based on the costs of providing a specific service level as requested by the client departments at the time of budget submission. Since the Teale Data Center's establishment in 1972, the Center has continually experienced a growth in the overall demand for information processing services and an increase in the number of client departments that Teale now serves. The number of clients that receive Data Center services has increased from the original group of 34 to a current total of 166 clients.

10 SERVICE BUREAU OPERATIONS

Program Objective Statement

The goal of this program is the operation and support of a service bureau operation in a manner which will: (1) ensure efficient utilization of Teale Data Center resources based on current and proposed client workload; (2) economically and effectively process the data and applications necessary to provide effective information technology support to client organizations and (3) improve the level of service so that Teale Data Center services and products are more accessible to the managers and non-technical staff of client departments.

Specific functions of this program are:

(1) Operations—This function ensures that work is accomplished in a timely and efficient manner. The average number of monthly batch jobs processed at the Center in 1986, 1987 and 1988 was 177,795, 193,968 and 235,227 respectively. In the current year, the Center is processing an average of 256,668 batch jobs per month. As an indication of the Center's growth, the projections for increased TSO, CICS and Timesharing service are 25%, 20% and 30%, respectively. Operations also ensures that the equipment is operated to meet the client's schedules. Normal operations are 24-hours per day, 7-days per week.

(2) Technical Services—This function is primarily concerned with maintaining the software operating system for the computers, maintaining the telecommunications systems, maintaining the on-line inquiry systems and installing and implementing vendor-supplied proprietary software packages. In addition, it compiles and analyzes workload and resource utilization data as well as providing consultation and advice to current and new clients on the use of the data center's services.

Budget Adjustments

The following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $98,000 and 1.9 personnel years in FY 89-90 and $244,000 and 4.7 personnel years in FY 90-91 to meet ongoing and new client workload.
- An increase of $876,000 in FY 89-90 and $584,000 in FY 90-91 for the continuation of the Geographic Information System project.
- An increase of $2,238,000 in FY 90-91 for additional data storage capacity equipment to meet ongoing and new client workload.
- A reduction of $1,149,000 in FY 90-91 due to termination and/or completion of Installment Payment Agreements (IPA).
- An increase of $300,000 in FY 90-91 to acquire supercomputer capabilities for the Air Resources Board.

For the list of standard (lettered) footnotes, see the end of the Governor's Budget.

20 EXECUTIVE AND ADMINISTRATIVE OPERATIONS

Program Objective Statement

The objective of this program is to provide executive and administrative support to the Service Bureau Operation of the Teale Data Center.

Specific functions of this program are:

(1) Client Relations—This function is responsible for keeping the Center's clientele informed of the changing technology of the EDP industry within the Data Center's environment. Client Relations staff function as the point of contact for clients in coordinating requests for services, resolving problems and promoting the various services and applications available through Teale. Additionally, this function monitors clients' programming missions and EDP requirements to ensure the flow of information between clients and Teale's management.

(2) Advanced & Emerging Technology—This function is responsible for evaluating and exploring new hardware and software technology being introduced into the data processing environment to determine its impact and viability in the government sector.

(3) Administration—This function provides staff support to ensure the smooth and efficient operation of the line functions. Services include: procurement, contract administration, budget and billing, training, personnel, fiscal services, and general administrative and management services.

Budget Adjustments

The following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $53,000 and 0.9 personnel year in FY 90-91 to meet ongoing and new client workload.
- An increase of $194,000 and 3.8 personnel years in FY 89-90 and $337,000 and 4.7 personnel years in FY 90-91 for the continuation of the Geographic Information System project.

10 TAHOE REGIONAL PLANNING AGENCY

Program Objectives Statement

The Tahoe Regional Planning Agency (TRPA) was established by an interstate compact between California and Nevada and approved by Congress. The purpose of the agency is to provide coordinated planning and enforceable regulations designed to preserve and enhance the environment and resources of the Lake Tahoe Basin. The compact was amended in 1980 requiring, among other things, the adoption of a new regional plan and ordinances. The new regional plan was adopted in April, 1984. Funding for this bi-state agency, according to the compact, is shared between the State of Nevada (one-third) and the State of California (two-thirds).

Budget Adjustments

- In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed from the California Environmental License Plate Fund:
- $40,000 for the local community planning process consistent with the Tahoe Regional Plan litigation settlement.
  - $280,000 for the expanded monitoring program for surface water, shoreline algae, atmospheric conditions and visibility.
  - $50,000 to complete the water quality monitoring requirement of the Individual Parcel Evaluation System (IPES).
  - $68,000 to continue the development of the Tahoe Environmental Geographic Information System (TEGIS).
  - $67,000 to evaluate progress towards meeting the environmental threshold carrying capacities and standards required by the Tahoe Regional Plan.
  - $60,000 for the mapping of stream environment zones and floodplains in the Tahoe region.
  - A $60,000 increase in General Fund to continue funding for staff to review permit applications and to monitor compliance with permits granted.

30 SEA GRANT PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

This program provides state assistance to California institutions of higher education in order to provide the necessary matching funds for selected projects under the Federal Sea Grant Program. Chapter 1617, Statutes of 1988, extended this program through the 1993-94 fiscal year, and established the annual allocation from the General Fund at $525,000. The Sea Grant Program in California, administered by the University of California and University of Southern California, is intended to encourage research and education in the fields of marine resources and technology.

Budget Adjustment

For 1990-91, the budget reflects an augmentation of $100,000 from the California Environmental License Plate Fund to assist the University of California Sea Grant advisory program in the development and transfer of research information necessary to improve fishery and wildlife resources and wisely manage and protect other coastal resources.

Authority

3125 CALIFORNIA TAHOE CONSERVANCY

Program Objectives Statement

The California Tahoe Conservancy was established by Chapter 1239, Statutes of 1984 within the Resources Agency with the objective to develop and implement programs to maintain an equilibrium between the natural endowment and the man-made environment of the Lake Tahoe region. This involves a program of acquisition and management of land for the purposes of protecting the natural environment, provision of public access and recreational facilities and preservation of wildlife habitat areas. The California Tahoe Conservancy is designated as the principal agency for implementation of the Lake Tahoe Acquisitions Bond Act.

More specifically, the California Tahoe Conservancy is empowered to:

- (a) acquire land or interests in land for the purposes of its programs;
- (b) provide for the proper management of acquired lands;
- (c) undertake land restoration and improvement projects needed to achieve the purposes of its programs; and
- (d) award grants to other public agencies and nonprofit organizations for the purposes of its programs.

Major Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $1,000,000 from the California Environmental License Plate Fund to continue the Conservancy's soil erosion control voluntary applications grants program.
- $133,000 and 1 position (1 Personnel year) ($111,000 from the Tahoe Conservancy Fund and $22,000 Reimbursements) to address increased property management workload ($105,000) and to fund a transfer to Placer County for soil erosion control projects ($28,000).
- 1 position (1.0 personnel year) and $43,000 ($34,000 from the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, Section 8(g) Revenue Fund and $9,000 in lease revenues from the Tahoe Conservancy Fund) for support needed to implement the soil erosion control grants program and to fund a transfer to Placer County ($2,000) for erosion control.

3180 GEOTHERMAL RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 3 of the Public Resources Code, created the Geothermal Resources Development Account in the General Fund in 1980 and requires all moneys received by the State for geothermal leases on federal lands be deposited in the account. In addition, subsequent legislation provides that 50 percent of all revenues received by the State Lands Commission from the lease of State indemnity lands for geothermal development shall be deposited in this account. Funds in the account are allocated as follows:

- Forty percent of the revenues deposited in the account from rents and royalties is disbursed to all counties of lease origin in proportion to the amounts of revenues derived from existing leases within each county of origin.

3180 GEOTHERMAL RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM—Continued

- Thirty percent of the revenues received and deposited in the account is available for expenditure by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission as grants or loans to local jurisdictions having geothermal resources. Five percent of this amount, not to exceed $100,000, may be used to provide direct technical assistance to local jurisdictions eligible for grants.
- Thirty percent of the revenues received and deposited in the account is transferred to the Renewable Resources Investment Fund where, upon appropriation by the Legislature, it shall be available for the purposes of Section 34000 of the Public Resources Code.
- Specific expenditure information will be found in the budgets for those departments or programs with expenditures reflected in the following Geothermal Resources Development Account fund condition statement.

In addition to the amounts reflected as expenditures in this statement, appropriations subject to the limit are adjusted for increases or decreases in the fund's Reserve for Economic Uncertainties and do not include any amounts expended for debt service, subventions to local government, compliance with federal or court mandates and from appropriations made in previous years (carryovers). Additional information on the State Appropriations Limit is provided in the Governor's Budget Summary.

3210 ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION PROGRAM

The Marks-Badham Environmental Protection and Research Act of 1970 established the California Environmental Protection Program. The source of revenue for this program is the sale of personalized motor vehicle license plates by the Department of Motor Vehicles. Revenues are deposited in the California Environmental License Plate Fund. By authority of Chapter 1105, Statutes of 1979, the program is administered by the Secretary for Resources. Funds expended pursuant to Division 13.5 of the Public Resources Code shall have one or more of the following purposes:

- The control and abatement of air pollution, including all phases of research into the sources, dynamics and effects of environmental pollutants.
- The acquisition, preservation, restoration, or any combination thereof, of natural areas or ecological reserves.
- Environmental education, including formal school programs and informal public education programs.
- Protection of nongame species and threatened and endangered plants and animals.
- Protection, enhancement, and restoration of fish and wildlife habitat and related water quality, including review of the potential impact of development activities and land use changes on that habitat.
- The purchase, on an opportunity basis, of real property consisting of sensitive natural areas for the state park system and for local and regional parks.
- Reduction or minimization of the effects of soil erosion and the discharge of sediment into the waters of the Lake Tahoe region, including the restoration of disturbed wetlands and stream environment zones.

The appropriations and expenditures for programs and projects funded from the California Environmental License Plate Fund are contained in the budgets of the various State boards, commissions and departments identified in the narrative provided below.

In 1990-91, funding is proposed for expanding the Motor Vehicle Alternative Fuels Program. This program's objective is to regulate motor vehicle alternative fuels and to determine the impact of alternative fuels on the public.

• Motor Vehicle Alternative Fuels Program .....	(-)	(-)	($887) <sup>1</sup>
• Pro Rata .....	($50)	($39)	($217)

3460 COLORADO RIVER BOARD

• Salinity Control Forum .....	($7)	($8)	($8)
--------------------------------	-------	-------	-------

For 1990-91, $8,000 is proposed to continue funding for the State's share for the Colorado River Basin Salinity Control Forum.

• Pro Rata .....	($3)	($3)	(-)

3540 DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY AND FIRE PROTECTION

• Forest Practice Act Corrective Actions .....	($50)	($50)	($51)
--	--------	--------	--------

These funds are used to support activities needed to correct environmental damage caused by violations of the Forest Practice Act.

• Vegetation Management .....	($3,066)	($3,473)	($3,540)
-------------------------------	-----------	-----------	-----------

In 1990-91, funding is proposed to continue the department's vegetation management program. Through techniques such as prescribed burning, losses to the State's valuable forest and watershed resources because of wildland fires can be minimized and habitat enhancement for wildlife can be realized.

• Natural Resources and Rangeland Research .....	($459)	($450)	($468)
--	---------	---------	---------

The proposed funding is to continue support for the integrated hardwood range land program.

• Timber Products Museum .....	(-)	($175)	(-)
--------------------------------	-----	---------	-----

The Carter House Natural Science Museum and National Logging and Timber Products Museum in Redding will construct outdoor environmental education exhibits of native plants and a demonstration forest stressing the origin and importance of timber products.

• Project Learning Tree .....	(-)	($90)	($92)
-------------------------------	-----	--------	--------

This K-12 educational program is designed to develop knowledge and awareness of the forest environment and to foster conservation skills and habits by clarifying issues surrounding the uses of our natural resources.

• Pro Rata .....	($3)	($123)	($138)

3560 STATE LANDS COMMISSION

• Bolsa Chica Ocean Entrance Feasibility Study .....	($250)	(-)	(-)

3600 DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND GAME

• Environmental Review and Evaluation .....	($3,683)	($3,261)	($3,330)
---	-----------	-----------	-----------

The Environmental Review and Evaluation Program is designed to prevent adverse impacts on fish and wildlife from projects affecting the land, water, and water quality of California. Federal and State laws require review by the department of projects proposed or permitted by federal, State, or local agencies.

• Natural Areas Office .....	($1,437)	($895)	($913)

3210 ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION PROGRAM—Continued

The Natural Areas Office assists in the preservation of the natural diversity found throughout the State in areas such as critical habitats for rare and endangered species, habitats of vulnerable and threatened plants and animals, unique geologic and pedologic features, ecosystems of high species diversity, and representative examples of California's plant and animal communities. This is accomplished through a statewide identification and inventory program of the significant natural areas in California.

	1988-89*	1989-90*	1990-91*
• Nongame Species Improvement and Preservation .....	($268)	(-)	(-) <sup>3</sup>
An estimated 89 species of wildlife and 124 plant species which exist in California or its coastal waters are classified either rare, endangered, or threatened. Twenty-three of these species, including the California bighorn sheep, San Joaquin kit fox, California brown pelican, Coachella sand lizard, desert pupfish, El Segundo blue butterfly, and California freshwater shrimp, are subject to an increased risk of extinction. Activities of this program include habitat improvement and preservation, management plans, and disease investigations.
• Endangered/Rare Wildlife .....	(-)	($24)	($24) <sup>3</sup>
This program provides staffing to carry out activities related to the conservation and recovery of over 30 species of birds and mammals, including the California Condor, Bald Eagle, Peregrine Falcon, San Joaquin Kit Fox, Least Tern, Least Bell's Vireo, Light-footed Clapper Rail.
• Endangered and Rare Fish.....	(-)	($124)	($126) <sup>3</sup>
The Endangered and Threatened Fish Project was developed to carry out the Department's program for the recovery and management of Endangered and Threatened invertebrates, fishes, amphibians, and reptiles. This program is mandated by the California Endangered Species Act/Federal Endangered Species Act through a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.
• Funding Shift from General Fund to ELPF .....	(-)	(-)	($4,694) <sup>1</sup>
Funding is proposed in support of the Department's programs as an offset to reductions in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund ($994,000) and General Fund ($3.7 million) Support.
• Natural Diversity Data Base.....	(-)	(-)	($321) <sup>1</sup>
These funds provide continued support for the Natural Diversity Data Base which is an information collection and distribution program within the Natural Heritage Division which uses state-of-the-art computer technologies to record and map the location of rare, endangered, and threatened animals, plants, and natural habitats throughout the State.
• Monitoring Program Coordinator .....	(-)	(-)	($566) <sup>1</sup>
This proposed funding would enable the Department to perform California Environmental Quality Act reviews and prepare fish and wildlife monitoring programs that respond to local agencies mitigation efforts.
• Marine Water Quality Investigation—Granite Canyon.....	(-)	(-)	($47) <sup>2</sup>
These funds would allow the Department to staff the Granite Canyon Pollution Control Laboratory with one full-time Water Quality Biologist responsible for conducting various studies on water pollution and the impact on marine life.
• New Personnel Programs Needs.....	(-)	(-)	($16) <sup>2</sup>
These funds will support in-part, four additional personnel staff needed to enhance the personnel management services provided to Departmental staff and various State control agencies.
• Workload Increase—Accounting Office.....	(-)	(-)	($15) <sup>2</sup>
The proposed funding represents the ELPF's share of departmental costs associated with providing additional accounting staff needed to respond to increased workloads and accounting demands.
• Additional Rent—New Headquarters .....	(-)	(-)	($28) <sup>1</sup>
This funding represents ELPF's share of the departmental costs associated with the Department's proposed relocation.
• Program Planning, Review and Evaluation Unit.....	(-)	(-)	($36) <sup>1</sup>
This new unit was developed to evaluate and review ongoing programs and assist management with the development of sound baseline budgets and Budget Change Proposals.
• Salmon and Steelhead Habitat Restoration .....	($690)	($1,020)	($1,000)
For 1990-91, the budget proposes $1,000,000 to continue support for salmon and steelhead stream clearance projects. The Salmon Habitat Restoration project funds a contract with the California Conservation Corps (CCC) to provide a special crew for stream restoration and rehabilitation on California's north coast.
• Wildlife Habitat Improvement on Federal Lands.....	($591)	($612)	($300)
These funds provide for the continued support to expand and carry out fish and wildlife habitat improvement projects for game and nongame species on the State's 20 million acres of National Forest lands and 16 million acres of Bureau of Land Management lands. Benefits of this program include increased fish and wildlife resources on Federal lands through direct habitat improvement and intensified resource protection and management activities; improved and sustained ecological diversity; and enhanced economic and recreation values from the resources.
• Bighorn Sheep Management .....	($270)	($277)	($282)
These funds support the management of the bighorn sheep. Activities of this program include helicopter surveys of bighorn sheep herds, transplanting sheep, diagnosing disease occurrence, lamb mortality studies and studying competing land use as it relates to the sheep.
• Condor Recovery Program.....	($586)	($277)	($283)
The Condor Recovery Program is designed to accelerate the potential recovery of the severely diminished California condor population. Condor chicks were hatched and reared in captivity at the Los Angeles and San Diego Zoos and will be returned to the wild. Funding provides radiotelemetry tracking of released condors; maintenance and modification of condor holding facilities; surveillance of condors in key habitats; and other research activities necessary to ensure a successful release program.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

	1988-89*	1989-90*	1990-91*
● Suisun Resource Conservation District .....	($34)	($38)	($39)
These funds provide for the support for the Suisun Resource Conservation District to assist the district in implementing the provisions set forth in the Suisun Marsh Preservation Act of 1977 (Chapter 1155/77).
● Ongoing Maintenance of Preserves .....	($864)	($1,023)	($1,044)
These funds provide support for the department's ongoing operations and maintenance of State-owned lands, such as ecological reserves, wildlife areas, and wildlife conservation easements, to preserve and restore threatened habitats for nongame species.
● Stream Flow Assessments .....	($510)	($511)	($522) <sup>4</sup>
This program's objectives are to minimize the impacts of water development projects on fish and wildlife by conducting and establishing developing stream flow needs and biological review of fish habitats. Stream flow assessments focuses basin-wide studies for the establishment of planning of stream flow standards beneficial uses to assist the State Water Resources Control Board in their duties.
● Redistribution of Funding Sources for Departmental Administration .....	($784)	($1,280)	($1,305)
The proposed funding represents the ELPF's proportional share of departmental administration.
● Instream Flow Studies .....	($188)	($209)	($213) <sup>4</sup>
The Instream Flow Evaluation Program is established pursuant to Chapter 1259/85 to determine the requirements for preserving, maintaining, and enhancing fish and wildlife resources and habitats in specific streams. The focus is on evaluation methodologies and assistance to the Regions on current individual studies.
● Project Wild .....	(-)	($85)	($87)
The objective of this educational project is to provide grade school students in K-12 with a greater appreciation and understanding of wildlife and wildlife habitat preservation.
● Coyote Point Museum Wildlife Center .....	(-)	($175)	(-)
Funding will support construction of an ecologically sound facility which will house small native animals and communicate a caring attitude for wildlife and preservation of their habitats.
● Chula Vista Nature Center Salt Marsh Restoration .....	(-)	($50)	(-)
The nature center will construct a greenhouse to propagate native plants for restoration and enhancement of the Sweetwater Marsh and develop instructional materials to integrate restoration ecology into the primary and secondary science curriculum.
● Salmon, Steelhead Trout, and Anadromous (Chapter 1545/88) .....	($125)	($75)	($68)

3300 STATE ASSISTANCE FUND FOR ENERGY, CALIFORNIA BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Program Objectives Statement

The State Assistance Fund for Energy, California Business and Industrial Development Corporation (SAFE-BIDCO) was created in 1980 for the purpose of providing financial assistance to small businesses in the alternative energy industry.

The board of directors of the corporation consisted of seven members: the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency; a member of the Energy Commission; and five public members. The Board was responsible for setting financial and administrative policy.

The fundamental objective of SAFE-BIDCO was to stimulate the creation of jobs and new economic activity by investment in innovative small businesses whose products, technologies and services reduced the use of conventional energy sources in the state. In pursuing this objective, the corporation received loan applications from small businesses throughout the State and made loans only to those who, because they were new or dealing with unfamiliar technologies, could not obtain financing from private sources. Though its clientele was limited, the corporation was nevertheless obliged to do business only with those companies which were credit worthy and capable of repaying their loans. When unable to make financing available to applicants, the corporation attempted to refer small businesses to other suitable sources of financing. The corporation was licensed and regulated by the Department of Banking and was certified as a lender under the Small Business Administration 7-a Loan Guarantee program. The enabling legislation allowed the corporation to supplement its lending capital through the sale of loans to private investors. Such sales were facilitated by the use of U.S. Small Business Administration and other government loan guarantees.

Beginning in the 1984-85 fiscal year, the Corporation converted the loan repayment schedule to the State Energy Loan Fund from a quarterly to an annual basis. Annual repayments were made on June 30 of each year. Therefore, revenue in the form of loan repayments was not available in the year of receipt but becomes available only in the following fiscal year. The appropriation allowed SAFE-BIDCO to reborrow its payment to use for new loans.

Chapter 1040, Statutes of 1989, renamed this corporation the State Assistance Fund for Enterprise, Business and Industrial Development Corporation and renamed the State Energy Loan Fund the State Enterprise Loan Fund effective January 1, 1990. The 1990-91 fiscal year is displayed under the new name, organizational code 2222.

3340 CALIFORNIA CONSERVATION CORPS

The California Conservation Corps (CCC) is a disciplined work force that assists federal, State, local agencies, and nonprofit entities in conserving and improving California's natural resources while providing employment, training, and educational opportunities for the young men and women of the State.

Since the inception of the CCC in 1976, the corpsmember population has reached an annualized strength of approximately 1,950 corpsmembers who provide nearly three million hours of conservation work each year. In addition to tree planting, stream clearance, trail building, park development, landscaping, home weatherization, and wildlife habitat restoration, the CCC responds to emergencies such as fires, floods, earthquakes, and other natural disasters.

Among the accomplishments of the Corps are the planting of more than 16 million trees and the enhancement of over 752 miles of salmon and steelhead streams. Needed trail rehabilitation is accomplished each year on portions of California's 20,000 plus miles of trails, providing increased public access to wilderness areas. The Corps also restores historic buildings, including early California missions and local landmarks.

The CCC's native plant nursery grows thousands of seedlings each year for the revegetation and stabilization of sand dunes, and the enhancement of other natural areas throughout California. One center concentrates on energy conservation efforts through the production and installation of solar panels, and the retrofitting of State and other public facilities to reduce energy consumption.

The essence of the CCC is young people performing physically demanding work to conserve and improve California's natural resources. The CCC acts as a ready and available labor pool for other State agencies, assisting with flood prevention for the Department of Water Resources, landscape improvements for the Department of Transportation, reforestation and firefighting for the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, salmon habitat restoration for the Department of Fish and Game, and park development and maintenance for the Department of Parks and Recreation. Corpsmembers contribute to the trail maintenance program of the National Park Service, and to the park maintenance and development efforts of many local governments.

In addition to physical work, the CCC provides programs to enhance corpsmembers' employability and increase access to educational opportunities. Major areas of concentration are literacy, education at the high school and community college level, conservation awareness, and career development. Generally corpsmembers participate in these programs after the work day.

The CCC provides substantial benefits not only to natural and human resources but to the economy as well. Every dollar invested in the CCC returns $1.77 in overall benefits to the State of California. The North Coast stream habitat improvement projects for the Department of Fish and Game, for instance, are estimated to return over approximately $3.5 million to the commercial and recreational fishing industries.

10 TRAINING AND WORK PROGRAM

Program Objective and Description

Corpsmembers:

The CCC hires 18 to 23 year old California residents who reflect the diversity of the State's population, including disabled youth. At entry, corpsmembers are paid minimum wage, from which the partial cost of room, board, and insurance benefits are deducted. After achieving specified competencies, corpsmembers can earn a Merit Salary Adjustment after four months in the CCC. In addition, corpsmembers can take advantage of the CCC's scholarship/bonus program upon successful completion of one year.

Benefits to Corpsmembers:

The CCC fosters an appreciation for the value of disciplined work habits and conservation of California's natural resources. Particular emphasis is placed on projects that offer job training and skill development for corpsmembers.

Opportunities exist outside the normal workday which enhance the employability of corpsmembers. Classes are mandatory for all corpsmembers; those without high school diplomas must study for equivalency diplomas (GEDs), take remedial education classes or classes in English as a Second Language (ESL), and high school graduates must participate in other education programs, such as community college or technical skills courses. Corpsmembers are required to practice writing skills every day. Workshops, speakers, and activities are provided to acquaint corpsmembers with the basic principles of conservation and career opportunities. All centers are working in conjunction with the California Community Colleges and/or other educational entities to provide educational opportunities. Classes and services concentrate on the following categories: GED preparation, ESL, remediation and basic skills improvement, conservation awareness, career development, vocational skills, development, academic assessment, financial aid, and general education. Each center will have a learning lab which may result in an acceleration in the learning rate.

Corpsmembers are encouraged to develop good citizenship through volunteer activities, donating blood, and by registering to vote.

Each center has second-year "supergrade" positions which allow corpsmembers to gain additional experience. Those corpsmembers with leadership potential may be promoted to crewleaders. Corpsmember "specialists" receive specific training in areas ranging from food service to vehicle maintenance to energy conservation. Opportunities to participate in national and international exchange programs, wilderness backcountry work, and Helitack firefighting are also available to corpsmembers meeting specified criteria.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 12.0 positions (11.5 personnel years) and $3.7 million ($1,933,000 General Fund and $1,748,000 Reimbursements) and $275,000 in redirected funds to increase the corpsmember population by 175 corpsmembers. Included in the proposal is $208,00 for local corps programs.
- 1.0 position (0.9 personnel years) and $400,000 in reimbursements to provide for one crew dedicated to performing enhancement and restoration of anadromous fisheries habitat in northern and central California.
- 2.0 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $100,000 ($61,000 General Fund and $39,000 Reimbursements) to provide for funding one Conservation Administrator II and redirected funds for one Business Services Officer I to complete the staffing complement at the Humboldt Center.
- $200,000 in reimbursements to recover costs incurred for specialized materials and equipment to complete various conservation projects.

10.10 Training Academy

Program Element Statement

CCC Academy:

The Training Academy in San Luis Obispo introduces new corpsmembers to the expectations of the CCC during two weeks of rigorous training and orientation. These two-week training sessions are usually conducted twice a month. A strong emphasis is placed on physical conditioning. Along with physical readiness, entering corpsmembers are also assessed in terms of academic skills and vocational interests.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

3340 CALIFORNIA CONSERVATION CORPS—Continued

Corpsmembers are trained in tool use and safety, first aid, fire fighting, flood control and water safety. In addition to corpsmember training, technical and certification training for entry level staff and crewleader candidates is conducted throughout the year at the Academy.

Corpsmembers who complete the two-week training are assigned to one of the CCC centers located throughout the State.

The Academy is currently located on a temporary site at Camp San Luis Obispo.

The construction of the permanent training facility at San Luis Obispo has begun and the estimated completion date has been revised to May 1991.

10.20 Base Centers

Program Element Statement

Currently, there are 18 residential base centers and 30 satellite locations.

Residential Centers:

Residential centers have 24-hour emergency response capability. Temporary base locations and "spike camps" are established when the travel to a project is beyond reasonable commuting distance.

The Salmon Restoration Project is operated through an interagency agreement with the Department of Fish and Game in conjunction with the CCC's Del Norte and Humboldt Centers. Corpsmembers clear North Coast streams and revegetate stream banks in an effort to increase the spawning habitat of anadromous fish, particularly salmon and steelhead.

Non-Residential Satellites:

Non-residential satellites, where corpsmembers live at home and commute to work each morning, allow the CCC to expand its service area, and provide Corps experience to young people who are not able to participate in the residential program.

10.30 Energy Program

Program Element Statement

Energy Conservation Program:

The CCC operates an energy program with specially selected corpsmembers who receive three months of classroom and on-the-job training, and learn to conduct energy audits, install energy conservation devices, weatherize low-income homes, and retrofit public facilities for State and local agencies. Corpsmembers in the energy program acquire a variety of skills and receive a vocational certificate from a community college, which makes them highly competitive for employment in the building trades, solar industry, and other energy related fields.

Program Element Statement

Non-Residential Local Conservation Corps Program:

In 1984, the CCC expanded its nonresidential program to provide the CCC's work ethic, youth employment and educational opportunities to young people in primarily urban areas. The Corps contracts with local private, non-profit conservation corps to expand urban services.

20 ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

Support Services:

Administration provides support services for the program functions of the Corps. These services include management, policy and program direction, corpsmember development, public information, legislative review and coordination, project planning and evaluation, and fiscal, personnel and business services.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 1.0 position (0.9 personnel year) and $97,000 Reimbursements to perform certification of local community conservation corps and grant review work related to the California Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction Act pursuant to an interagency agreement with the Department of Conservation.
- 1.0 position (0.9 personnel year) and $50,000 to perform new reimbursement project development work related to the corpsmember program expansion.

3360 ENERGY RESOURCES CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

The Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission is working to ensure the continuance of a reliable supply of energy at a level consistent with California's needs, while complying with environmental, safety and land use goals. The Commission's programs are aimed at processing applications for siting new power facilities, encouraging measures to reduce wasteful and inefficient use of energy and monitoring alternative ways to conserve, generate and supply energy.

10 REGULATORY AND PLANNING PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objectives of the Regulatory and Planning Program are: (1) to ensure the maintenance of adequate statewide energy supplies through the development of accurate long range forecasts of future energy supply and demand; (2) to maintain a current knowledge of the statewide electrical generation and fossil fuels supply and demand situation; (3) to assess the need for and certify new energy facilities in conformance with state energy policies as required by statute; (4) to develop an informed state energy policy through the Biennial Report process on issues derived from the economic, financial, security and environmental implications of supply, demand and price forecasts; (5) to disseminate information from the Biennial Report regarding the State's energy future, price projections and related issues.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 4.5 positions (4.3 personnel years), and $412,000 from the Energy Resources Program Account, including contract funding of $148,000, for improved forecasting of clean transportation fuels and to assist with proposed market incentives to improve air quality.
- 3.0 positions (2.9 personnel years), limited term to June 30, 1992, and $356,000 from the Energy Resources Program Account, including one-time contract funding of $185,000, to analyze the effects of proposed air quality attainment plans.
- 2.0 positions (1.9 personnel years), limited-term to June 30, 1992, and $116,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account to meet the growing workload of monitoring sited powerplants to ensure that they are complying with health, safety, air/water quality and other environmental conditions.
- 1.0 position (1.0 personnel years), funded by the redirection of $45,000 in contract funds, to perform cartographic data analysis.

10.10 Power Plant Siting and Certification

Program Element Statement

The power plant siting process and local permitting procedures protect California ratepayers by assuring that proposed electricity generating facilities are needed and technically sound. At the same time environmental impacts are reviewed to ensure that adverse effects are minimized or eliminated. Approved power plants are monitored for compliance with the Commission's conditions of certification.

10.15 Siting and Permit Assistance

Program Element Statement

Thermal power plants below 50 megawatts and non-thermal generating facilities are not subject to CEC siting authority. Grant funds and technical assistance are provided to local and state agencies to identify and resolve constraints to siting energy facilities not subject to the CEC siting process.

10.30 Demand Forecasting

Program Element Statement

Demand Forecasting prepares 20-year forecasts of demand for all forms of energy including electricity, natural gas and gasoline. The impacts of energy conservation activities in California are forecasted; energy consumption statistics are collected and published and energy consumption in all economic sectors (residential, commercial, industrial and agricultural) are monitored and evaluated. Products include California Energy Demand, Forecasts and Energy Watch.

10.40 Fossil Fuels Planning

Program Element Statement

Fossil fuels supply almost 90 percent of all energy consumed in California. The Fossil Fuels Planning Element develops 20-year forecasts of crude oil, natural gas and coal prices and supplies; closely monitors California natural gas petroleum industry operations; and analyzes existing and proposed fossil fuels policies. Information and analyses are published in the Quarterly Oil Report and the Biennial Fuels Report.

20 ENERGY RESOURCES CONSERVATION PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

Under the Energy Resources Conservation Program, the Commission's primary objectives are to: (1) develop a set of policies and activities to improve efficiency of fuel and electrical energy use, with emphasis placed upon those sectors of the economy which exhibit the highest levels of consumption, the greatest potential for cost-effective conservation and the most direct opportunities for efficiency and usage to be influenced; (2) coordinate and monitor utilities' implementation of mandated conservation programs; (3) implement statewide conservation programs that create employment opportunities within the State and stimulate investment within the State by reducing the need for imported fuel supplies; and (4) fully implement mandated Petroleum Violation Escrow Account programs.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- a reduction of 2.0 positions (–1.0 personnel year) and –$4,773,000 from the State Energy Conservation and Assistance Account to reflect the sunset of the State Energy Assistance Program and Account effective January 1, 1991, pursuant to Public Resources Code Sections 25410 et seq.; 2.0 positions (1.0 personnel year) and $25,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account to match Federal Funds to continue to provide energy projects evaluation and assistance.
- $285,000 reimbursements from schools and hospitals to provide technical assistance for the Schools and Hospitals program.
- 3.0 positions (2.8 personnel years), and $276,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account, including contract funding of $100,000, to enhance conservation quantification and evaluation efforts and to provide a capability to assess air quality management district (e.g. SCAQMD) air quality management plans.
- 1 position (1.0 personnel years), limited term to June 30, 1992, and $60,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account, to evaluate the opportunities and implement a program to reduce energy use in existing buildings.

20.10 Buildings

Program Element Statement

The goal of the building program is to reduce energy costs by improving energy use in new and existing buildings. The program seeks to accomplish this by developing and implementing: 1) minimum building energy use through efficiency standards, 2) technical assistance and training in understanding and complying with the standards, and 3) periodic revisions of existing residential and non-residential efficiency standards to simplify compliance.

20.20 Appliances and Equipment

Program Element Statement

The primary goal of the appliance program is to reduce customer energy bills and reduce the growth of energy demand through policies and programs which stimulate sales of energy efficient appliances. Programs are designed to develop and implement: 1) minimum cost effective appliance efficiency standards, 2) information and incentive programs to encourage sales of the most efficient appliances and, 3) research and demonstration of more efficient appliances.

20.30 Energy Projects Evaluation and Assistance

Program Element Statement

The goal of the Energy Projects Evaluation and Assistance program is to ensure that cost effective energy options are implemented to the maximum extent possible in end-use sectors. These sectors include schools, hospitals, local governments, agriculture and multi-family housing. This element provides for administration of technical assistance, grant and loan programs which serve these sectors and implements the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account programs.

20.40 Demand Side Program Evaluation

Program Element Statement

The primary goal of Demand Side Program Evaluation is to carry out objective, quantitative evaluations of conservation programs administered by utilities and public organizations through the development of the Standard Practice Manual; analysis of uncommitted conservation used in the evaluation of power plants in the Electricity Report; verification of existing conservation program savings and quantification of program savings, impacts and costs; and determination of how much conservation could substitute for electricity generation technologies.

30 DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The principal objectives of the Energy Technology Development Program are to conduct research, development and demonstration on new and existing energy technologies to ensure that future energy supplies are cost-effective, more secure and reliable, enhance environmental quality and promote state and local economic development. These goals are pursued through programs that provide technical assistance, financial assistance, direct technology research and demonstration, technology forecasting, technology analysis and evaluation and information transfer.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 2.0 positions (1.9 personnel years), limited term to September 30, 1992, and $1.111 million ($111,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account, and $1 million in Federal funds) to increase trade opportunities under the Export Trade Development Program.
- $390,000 from the Federal Trust Fund to establish additional host sites for alternative fuel vehicle demonstrations.
- 2.0 positions (1.9 personnel years), limited term to June 30, 1992, and $123,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account to meet workload increases in the Energy Technologies Advancement Program.
- 1.0 position (0.9 personnel years) and $105,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account, including one-time contract funding of $50,000, to implement Chapter 1291, Statutes of 1989, which provides for solar tax credits.
- 1.0 position (1.0 personnel year) and $62,000 from the Energy Resources Programs Account to provide technical assistance and support for the development of clean diesel fuels, per Chapter 940, Statutes of 1989.

Program Element Statement

Transportation Technology and Fuels conducts demonstrations of near-term alternatives to petroleum-based fuels and technologies for transportation. These demonstrations test the cost-effectiveness, technical viability and emissions of these alternatives in light and heavy-duty vehicle applications. The current demonstrations include methanol, compressed natural gas, clean diesel and electric vehicle technologies

30.30 Research and Development

Program Element Statement

Research and Development provides co-funded financial assistance to the private sector and local governments to make new and existing energy technologies more efficient and cost-effective and analyzes the commercial readiness of energy technologies. The Energy Technologies Advancement Program provides loans and contract research funding for a broad range of energy technologies. The Geothermal Resources Development Program provides loans and grants to local governments to accelerate the use of this technology. The Small Business Technical Assistance and Loan Program provides technical assistance and loans to small business to accelerate the demonstration of innovative energy technologies and mitigate specific energy problems. This element also compiles comprehensive technical, economic, environmental and performance data on over 280 energy technologies, which is updated and published regularly. This data is used by private industry and government to focus research and development efforts on the major problems affecting the use of promising technologies.

30.40 Technology Evaluation

Program Element Statement

Technology Evaluation assesses future technical and economic potential of generation, efficiency, and automotive technologies, and alternative fuels. The benefits and costs of these technologies are evaluated against all energy options, to identify the mix of energy resources and technologies which will have the greatest benefit to California citizens. This element also provides assistance to California's energy industries to help them market their advanced technology products and services abroad. This element also leads interagency evaluations of how to mitigate the effects of global warming on California.

40 POLICY, MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objective of the Policy, Management and Administration Program is to provide management and administrative support to the line programs by: (1) setting policies and priorities which meet the changing energy needs and demands of California; (2) ensuring the full and adequate participation by all interested groups and the public at large in Commission activities; (3) providing liaison between local, federal and state government organizations; (4) maintaining and disseminating information to the public about mandated Commission functions; and (5) providing centralized support and management services which include fiscal management, personnel management, training, business and central office services, data processing, library and publication services.

Budget Adjustment

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is reflected:

- 1.0 position (0.7 personnel year), administratively established to March 31, 1990, for a special classification task force project.

Authority

Public Resources Code, Division 15, commencing with Section 25500.

99 LOAN REPAYMENT PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The Loan Repayment Program consists of repayments of loans made in the Conservation and Development programs. The money collected is made available for loans to local governmental entities and to private industry for energy conservation and residue conversion, respectively. The funds result from the repayment of previously approved loans, which are deposited in either (1) the State Energy Conservation Assistance Account to provide loans to schools, hospitals and local governments for energy conservation measures, or (2) the Agricultural and Forestry Residue Utilization Account to promote the involvement of private industry in the development and implementation of technologies directed toward the use of agricultural, forest and urban residue for energy generation purposes. Pursuant to Public Resources Code Sections 25410 et. seq., the State Energy Assistance Program Account will sunset effective January 1, 1991. Effective that date, all loan repayments will be deposited in the General Fund.

Chapter 1104, Statutes of 1979, established the Renewable Resources Investment Program and created the Renewable Resources Investment Fund. The bill initially transferred $10 million from the General Fund to the Renewable Resources Investment Fund.

This program also receives annual funding from 30 percent of the royalties deposited in the Geothermal Resources Development Account (General Fund) from monies received by the State from the Federal Government for geothermal leases. Renewable Resources Investment Funds shall be expended only for the following purposes:

- For salmon and steelhead hatchery expansion and fish habitat improvement.
- For forest resource improvement projects pursuant to the California Forest Improvement Act of 1978.
- For urban forestry projects pursuant to the California Urban Forestry Act of 1978.
- For agricultural soil drainage programs.
- For support of technical assistance programs which will prevent soil erosion.
- For agricultural, industrial and urban water conservation programs.
- For wildland fire protection programs pursuant to the Wildland Fire Protection and Resources Management Act of 1978.
- For coastal resource enhancement projects.

Specific project and program expenditures for the Renewable Resources Investment Program are included in the budgets for the Department of Fish and Game, the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, the Department of Water Resources and the California Water Resources Control Board. ## 3380 CALIFORNIA INTEGRATED WASTE MANAGEMENT BOARD

Chapter 1095, Statutes of 1989 (AB 939) revised the membership of the California Waste Management Board and renamed it the California Integrated Waste Management Board.

As authorized by AB 939, the major purpose of the Board is to promote the following waste management practices in order of priority:

- 1) Source reduction.
  - 2) Recycling and composting.
  - 3) Environmentally safe transformation or land disposal.
- Another major aim of the Board is to protect public health and safety through improved regulation of existing solid waste landfills, ensuring that new solid waste landfills are environmentally sound, and streamlining permitting procedures for solid waste management facilities.

This will be accomplished through the following activities: enforcement of State standards at waste facilities by Board designated local agencies; technical assistance to local governments and private entities; review and approval of county integrated waste management plans; coordinated development of city/county source reduction and recycling plans; studies and investigations of new or improved methods of solid waste handling, disposal, or reclamation; public awareness and education programs; studies of litter control and reduction methods; development and implementation of a statewide information and retrieval system; and promotion of alternatives to landfill disposal.

Beginning in 1990-91, the Board will also implement the California Tire Recycling Act, as authorized by Chapter 974, Statutes of 1989. The goal of the Act is a 25% reduction in disposed/stockpiled used tires.

A new revenue source for the integrated waste management activities of the Board, a tipping fee on disposal of solid wastes, was authorized by Chapter 1095, Statutes of 1989. The 1990-91 Governor's Budget details both current year and budget year proposed activities which are required by AB 939. However, an appropriation for current year activities was not provided in the initial legislation. A current year appropriation is planned to be proposed through separate financial legislation.

10 PLANNING AND ENFORCEMENT

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of the Planning and Enforcement Program is to ensure that all non-hazardous solid wastes are stored, collected, processed and disposed of in a sanitary, safe and environmentally sound manner. This is accomplished through a program for the enforcement of environmental and health standards at solid waste facilities, and the development and maintenance of local solid waste management plans.

County and city governments are responsible for local planning under State guidelines. Local enforcement agencies (LEAs) are responsible for issuing permits to new facilities and enforcing compliance with permit conditions and State standards. LEA's are required to meet specific Board certification requirements and to work closely with Board staff in maintaining minimum standards for facility operations. For each enforcement jurisdiction, the Board is responsible for designating an appropriate local agency (e.g., county environmental health department) as the LEA. In addition, the Board provides technical assistance and training in planning, enforcement and facility operations; monitors and evaluates LEAs; acts as the LEA when no local agency has been designated; conducts research to improve disposal operations and reviews relevant plans and environmental documents; inspects all solid waste facilities on a fixed schedule; and maintains an inventory of solid waste facilities that violate State standards. The Board also investigates illegal, abandoned or closed disposal sites.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is reflected:

- An increase of $1,741,000 and 55 positions (46.8 personnel years) for the coordination and oversight responsibilities of the Board and additional administrative costs, as authorized by AB 939.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of $15,244,000 and 121 positions (110.1 personnel years) for the continuation of coordination, oversight and administrative responsibilities of the Board as authorized by AB 939.

15 DISPOSAL SITE CLEAN-UP AND MAINTENANCE

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of the Disposal Site Clean-up and Maintenance Program is to ensure that today's solid waste facilities do not become tomorrow's problems. Current efforts of the Board are focused on developing and adopting regulations for closure/postclosure plans, loan guarantees to solid waste facilities, grants designed to reduce the amount of household hazardous waste disposed of at solid waste facilities, contracts for corrective actions and grants to local enforcement agencies. Annual fees from solid waste facility operators, to be collected beginning in 1989-90, support these activities.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $11,767,000 and eight positions (7.6 personnel years) for State Operations and $5.5 million in Local Assistance grants for program allocations as specified in Chapter 1095, Statutes of 1989.
- A reduction of two administrative positions (-1.9 personnel years) to satisfy the five percent limit for administrative costs established in law by Chapter 1319, Statutes of 1987.

20 WASTE REDUCTION AND RESOURCE RECOVERY

Program Objectives Statement

The objectives of the Waste Reduction and Resource Recovery Program are to reduce the amount of waste generated, to promote the recovery and re-use of recyclable materials from the wastestream and to promote the integration of source reduction, recycling and composting into local integrated waste management systems. Activities of this program include: Waste Reduction, Market Development, Recycled Product Procurement and Recovery and Transformation. In addition to these actions, the Waste Reduction and Resource Recovery Program is embarked on a statewide public education effort to promote integrated waste management and recycling programs.

Authority

Public Resources Code Section 40000 et seq. and Health and Safety Code Section 4500.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is reflected:

- An increase of $1,264,000 and 30 positions (25.5 personnel years) for various recycling and waste reduction activities plus administrative costs as authorized by Ch. 1095/89 (AB 939).

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of $10,537,000 and 66 positions (60.7 personnel years) for the continuation and expansion of AB 939 related activities into the budget year.

25 TIRE RECYCLING

Program Objectives Statement

The purposes of the Tire Recycling Program are to reduce landfill disposal and stockpiling of used whole tires by 25% within 4 years of full program implementation, to recycle and reclaim used tires and used tire components to the greatest extent possible in order to recover valuable natural resources and to eliminate illegal dumping and unnecessary stockpiling of used tires.

Authority

Program Objectives Statement

The Executive Office provides management, policy and program direction. Staff evaluates both external and program management issues and maintains the Board's data management system on a Local Area Network. Other administration activities include: personnel, training, labor relations and affirmative action; budgeting, contract coordination and management services; plus business services functions such as duplication, procurement, central supply, mail and property control. Accounting functions are performed under contract by the Department of General Services.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are reflected:

- An increase of $380,000 and 20 positions (17.0 personnel years) for the new full-time Board members, plus additional executive and Board advisory staff required to implement the Board revisions authorized by Ch. 1095/89 (AB 939).
- An increase of $630,000 and 15 positions (12.7 personnel years) for administrative services required for implementation of the integrated waste management programs authorized by Ch. 1095/89 (AB 939).

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of $3,465,000 for the continuation and expansion of Board member positions, plus executive, Board advisory and administrative staff required for implementation of the integrated waste management programs authorized by Ch. 1095/89 (AB 939) (39 positions/36.8 personnel years).

3400 AIR RESOURCES BOARD

The Air Resources Board has primary responsibility for protecting air quality in California. This responsibility includes establishment of ambient air quality standards for specific pollutants, administration of air pollution research studies, evaluation of standards adopted by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and development and implementation of the State Implementation Plan for the attainment and the maintenance of these standards. The plan includes emission limitations for vehicular and industrial sources established by the Board and local air pollution control districts.

10 AIR POLLUTION CONTROL PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

Air pollution impacts the health of California's citizens, impairs productivity, damages crops and reduces their yields and lessens our enjoyment of our surroundings. Control of air pollution, while ensuring that growth and needed development may occur, is the objective of the Air Resources Board. In order to meet that objective, the Board develops and implements a variety of control strategies.

The Technical Support element provides the Board, local air pollution control districts and general purpose local government agencies with technical information on emissions, air quality trends, the interaction of air pollutants in the air, the relationship of emissions to air quality and the effectiveness of control strategies.

The Stationary Source element focuses on developing and evaluating procedures and strategies to monitor and control emissions from new and existing nonvehicular air pollution sources, and works with local air pollution control districts to promote the adoption and implementation of effective control measures.

The Mobile Source element develops, implements and enforces laws and regulations controlling emissions from new and in-use vehicles.

The Compliance element investigates complaints against polluters, assists local districts in enforcing emission requirements against major sources of pollution and prepares documentation on chronic and flagrant violations for referral to local or State prosecutors.

The Research element conducts and sponsors research on the composition, the chemical process and the distribution trends of pollution in the atmosphere; the effects of air pollution on human health, vegetation and the economy of the State; and measures for the control of such pollution.

The Monitoring and Laboratory element collects and analyzes air quality data which are needed to develop and evaluate air pollution control strategies, make daily agricultural burn decisions and predict severe air pollution episodes. In addition, it provides sampling and analysis to other elements of the Air Pollution Control Program.

The General Support element provides executive leadership, policy guidance and administrative services.

10.10 Technical Support

Program Element Statement

This element provides the Board, air pollution control districts and other local government agencies with technical information on emissions and air quality trends, the interaction of air pollutants in the air, the relationships of emissions to air quality, the effectiveness of control strategies and daily suitability of atmospheric conditions for agricultural burning. It uses computer-based techniques and provides data processing services to all Board elements.

Under this element the Board supports air pollution control programs throughout the State. The functions performed include the following:

1. Compile and maintain an up-to-date inventory of the kinds, amounts and distribution of emissions from air pollution sources in California;
2. Analyze emission, air quality, meteorological and demographic data to assess air pollution control progress and needs for additional control strategy development;
3. Compile, verify and publish ambient air quality data for criteria and toxic pollutants and for special monitoring activities statewide;
4. Conduct advanced air quality modeling to assess the impacts of state implementation plan control strategies for the Board and local agencies; perform modeling studies to support the Board's air toxic programs; update and improve air quality models to enhance prediction reliability;
5. Issue daily agricultural burning control notices based on evaluation of real-time aerometric data and establish meteorological criteria for 11 California air basins;
6. Define interbasin pollutant transport routes and make daily predictions of air quality in specific air basins during seasons when potentially severe air pollution episodes may occur; and
7. Develop, plan, maintain, operate and support computer-based information services and systems for the Board and coordinate with local, state and federal agencies to produce compatible systems.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- A net increase of 3 positions (2.8 personnel years) and $494,000 to continue implementation of the California Clean Air Act. (Chapter 1568, Statutes of 1988).

10.20 Stationary Source

Program Element Statement

Under this element the Board works with air pollution control districts and the business and scientific communities to ensure that measures for reducing emissions from stationary sources are implemented to the extent necessary to comply with State and federal laws. The functions performed include the following:

1. Develop measures for reducing emissions from motor vehicle fuels, stationary sources and other sources as required by the California Clean Air Act, and work with air pollution control districts to implement measures as needed to achieve and maintain State and federal ambient air quality standards;
2. Identify substances as toxic air contaminants;
3. Develop measures for the control of emissions of toxic air contaminants as required by State law;
4. Provide guidance on control technology for stationary sources;
5. Review and comment on environmental impact reports relating to general projects, as required by the Public Resources Code, and the National Environmental Policy Act, and provide technical assistance to local and regional agencies;
6. Assist industries wishing to locate or expand in California and provide comments to lead agencies and districts on applications for permits to construct or modify major sources of air pollution;

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

3400 AIR RESOURCES BOARD—Continued

7. Develop and implement, in conjunction with districts, a new source siting program for California that meets Federal Clean Air Act and State requirements; and
8. Provide technical assistance to districts on source specific toxic (or potentially toxic) air contaminant exposure assessment.
- The State allocates local assistance funding to local air pollution control districts engaged in the reduction of air contaminants pursuant to basinwide air pollution control plans and related implementation programs. This funding is allocated by the Board to local districts according to a statutory formula.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $147,000 to implement the provisions of the California Clean Air Act (Chapter 1568, Statutes of 1988).
- An increase of $781,000 to support 8.0 positions through an interagency agreement with the Department of Health Services related to the Air Toxics "Hot Spots" Act (Chapter 1252, Statutes of 1987).
- An increase of 1.0 position (1.0 personnel year) and $74,000 to expand the Motor Vehicle Alternative Fuels Program.

10.30 Mobile Source

Program Element Statement

Motor vehicles and the many other uses of the internal combustion engine are the major sources of carbon monoxide emissions as well as very significant sources of photochemically reactive pollutants. These pollutants, primarily oxides of nitrogen and hydrocarbons, react together in sunlight to produce the air pollution commonly referred to as smog. Violations of the air quality standards for mobile-source related pollutants occur throughout California. The worst example continues to be the South Coast Air Basin (generally, the Los Angeles Metropolitan area but including the San Bernardino-Riverside areas as well) where the worst photochemically-generated air pollution in the United States exists. This element is directed at controlling emissions from internal combustion engines. Activities of this element include the following items:

1. Develop, implement and enforce laws and regulations limiting emissions from new and in-use vehicles. Surveillance of both new and in-use vehicles is performed to assess the effectiveness of established procedures. In addition, the effects of replacement parts, retrofitted emission control devices and fuel additives on emissions are also studied.
2. Develop test and evaluation procedures for vehicles, engines, emission control components, fuel additives and test equipment to assure emission standards are met for the useful life of required emissions control components.
3. Coordinate with federal, State and local agencies and the regulated industries in the control of emissions from internal combustion engines.
4. Conduct information and training seminars for vehicle dealers, mechanics and members of the public on vehicle emissions and the resulting air pollution.
5. Develop inspection standards, perform effectiveness evaluations and provide analytical capabilities for unplanned projects and for California's motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program.
6. Develop regulations for presently unregulated modes of internal combustion engine use, as well as other mobile sources.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of $944,000 to replace equipment that has exceeded its life expectancy for the inspection and maintenance program.
- An increase of 26 positions (25.1 personnel years) and $3,301,000 to evaluate the Smog Check Program.
- A net increase of 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $634,000 to implement provisions of the California Clean Air Act (Chapter 1568, Statutes of 1988).

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

New Vehicles

As a result of the Board's regulations governing new motor vehicles and engines, the California motoring public operates the least polluting vehicles in America. The Board's efforts in this area include new vehicle engine certification for exhaust and evaporative emissions, monitoring of manufacturing quality control, inspection of dealerships for proper sale and service of new vehicles and emission control system warranty regulations.

In-Use Vehicles

Once correctly certified and prepared vehicles have been sold, they must be maintained properly if they are to continue to meet standards. In-use vehicles are inspected for tampering of Emission Control Systems and for proper maintenance to ensure compliance with law. Replacement as well as original parts must be durable and compatible if emissions control is to be maintained at a reasonable cost. Surveillance of in-use vehicles allows the evaluation of long-term control program effectiveness and also provides information for emissions inventory compilation and future control strategy planning. The Motor Vehicle Inspection and Maintenance Program will increase demands upon manufacturers and dealers to honor their emissions control warranty obligations, and the warranty regulations will increase the benefits from the Motor Vehicle Inspection and Maintenance Program.

Vehicle Testing

This service is essential to the support of the vehicle emissions regularity program as described above. Exhaust and evaporative emissions testing is performed on a large number and variety of motor vehicles at the Haagen-Smit Laboratory vehicle testing facility. The data obtained is used to predict future emission rates from the motor vehicle fleet, support analyses for the in-use compliance program, evaluate other existing control programs and develop new control measures.

10.40 Compliance

Program Element Statement

- The objectives of this element are:
1. Review local district programs for conformity to State and federal requirements;
  2. Assure efficient and effective enforcement of laws and regulations controlling health related emissions from stationary sources, agricultural burning, gasoline vapor recovery and major existing and new point sources;
  3. Identify, document and refer stationary source and fuels regulation violations for prosecution;
  4. Assure adequate training for State and local air pollution enforcement personnel; and,
  5. Assist industry and air pollution control districts by providing rule-specific inspection manuals and industry self-audit guidelines. The staff also compiles quarterly and annual reports for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's national compliance data system, conducts complaint investigations and reviews variances for conformance with state law.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $277,000 to meet the increasing demands of the vapor recovery certification program.
- An increase of 3 positions (2.9 personnel years) and $228,000 to implement provisions of the California Clean Air Act (Chapter 1568, Statutes of 1988).

10.50 Monitoring and Laboratory

Program Element Statement

A cost-effective air pollution program requires timely and accurate ambient and source level measurements to define the nature, extent and trend of the air pollution problem. This element supports the State Board by collecting and documenting air measurements of ambient and source level pollutant data for use in developing and evaluating air pollution control strategies. This element operates the Board's statewide ambient and source air monitoring program, quality assurance program, the Northern Laboratory in Sacramento, the Southern Laboratory in El Monte and continuously supports the Air Pollution Control program through the following activities:

1. Continuously monitor ambient air pollutant concentrations in various parts of the state; coordinate statewide air pollution monitoring efforts through the Board's Air Monitoring Technical Advisory Committee;
2. Conduct a statewide quality assurance program to assure the accuracy and precision of air quality data;
3. Cooperate with local agencies to improve the accuracy of air quality data by oversight of the statewide monitoring network to ensure the stated objectives are being met and the exposure of the stations meet given criteria;
4. Conduct special ambient/source level and interlaboratory analysis studies;
5. Provide laboratory analyses of particulate pollutant material, acid deposition samples and toxic substances; provide air monitoring instrument calibration, method evaluation and gas standards certification to other Board elements and local air pollution control districts;
6. Provide another of the Board's elements with real-time ambient air data in order to issue daily agricultural burning control notices for eleven California air basins;
7. Provide guidance on control technology for stationary sources;
8. Test, evaluate and where required by law, certify new stationary source continuous monitoring equipment;
9. Conduct source testing of stationary sources to assure a valid technical basis for the development of emission control measures.
10. Develop and test analytical procedures for emission evaluation of stationary sources;
11. Provide technical assistance, such as source testing, source specific toxic (or potentially toxic) air contaminant exposure assessments, review test protocols, and provide engineering support to districts and other government agencies that request such assistance; and
12. Provide technical support in the form of laboratory and special field sampling tests and services for regulatory activities undertaken by elements of the Board.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- An increase of 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $371,000 to establish a statewide instrumentation procurement and maintenance system.
- An increase of 3 positions (2.9 personnel years) and $321,000 to implement provisions of the California Clean Air Act (Chapter 1568, Statutes of 1988).
- An increase of 2.0 positions (1.8 personnel years) and $584,000 to expand the Motor Vehicle Alternative Fuels Program.

10.60 Research

Program Element Statement

As a basis for its regulatory and standards-setting decisions, the Air Resources Board requires the fullest and most accurate scientific and technical information on air pollution and its control. Access to the knowledge and skills of a broad range of disciplines is required to assemble this information. The Research element provides the Board with the scientific and technical information necessary to formulate regulations and standards by maintaining the following activities:

1. Sponsor extramural research in various aspects of air pollution, including its effects and its control;
2. Monitor air pollution research conducted by federal agencies and other organizations;
3. Establish appropriate air quality standards for California and coordinate the review of federal and State ambient air quality standards;
4. Document total pollution exposures and assess their health impacts;
5. Evaluate the socioeconomic impacts of air pollution and of control measures designed to reduce those impacts;
6. Develop and operate the Board's reference library, which provides reference services and disseminates technical information to the Board staff and others.

Budget Adjustment

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- An increase of 1 position (1.0 personnel year) and $229,000 to expand the Motor Vehicle Alternative Fuels Program.

20 ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS PROGRAM

Program Objectives Statement

The State's environmental programs are administered by the Office of Environmental Affairs. The Secretary of Environmental Affairs, a member of the Governor's Cabinet, advises the Governor on major policy and program matters and oversees the operations of the three environmental boards: Air Resources Board, State Water Resources Control Board and California Waste Management Board. In addition, the Secretary is responsible for supervision and coordination of all offshore leasing, exploration and development.

Authority

Health and Safety Code, Section 39511.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- A net increase of 2 positions (2 personnel years) and $88,000 to provide funding for the Environmental Assessor program.
- An increase of $100,000 to implement AB 854, Statutes of 1989, relative to hazardous materials reporting requirements.
- A net increase of 1 position (1 personnel year) and a net reduction of $100,000 (from $1.95 million to $1.85 million) for combined administration and program operations to mitigate the cumulative impacts on the commercial fishing industry from offshore oil and gas development.

3460 COLORADO RIVER BOARD OF CALIFORNIA

The principal objective of the Colorado River Board is to protect California's rights and interests in the water and power resources of the Colorado River system. This is accomplished through investigations and through working with the other Colorado River Basin states, federal agencies, the Congress, and the courts. Activities include analyses of the engineering, legal and economic matters concerning the Colorado River resources of the seven Basin states (Arizona, California, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming) and all factors involved in the 1944 U.S.-Mexico Water Treaty obligation to deliver Colorado River water to Mexico. The Board develops a single position among the California agencies having the major established water and power rights in the Colorado River. The Board also collaborates with other California agencies, primarily the Department of Water Resources, State Water Resources Control Board, and Department of Fish and Game, and works closely with the Attorney General, the Board's counsel.

By statute, the Board consists of ten members that are appointed by the Governor: one from each of the six major public agencies having rights to the use of water or power from the Colorado River, two from the general public, and the Directors of the Departments of Water Resources and Fish and Game. The six public agencies are: Palo Verde Irrigation District, Imperial Irrigation District, Coachella Valley Water District, the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, San Diego County Water Authority, and the Department of Water and Power of the City of Los Angeles. These agencies provide two-thirds of the Board's funding, with the remaining one-third derived from State funds.

10 PROTECTION OF CALIFORNIA'S
COLORADO RIVER RIGHTS AND INTEREST

Program Objectives Statement

California's rights and interests in the Colorado River Basin must be preserved in order to continue the successful irrigation of about 650,000 acres in the Imperial, Coachella, Palo Verde, and Yuma Valleys of California, and to furnish municipal, industrial, and agricultural water supplies and hydroelectric energy to seven counties in southern California. The area served with Colorado River water and power has a population of approximately fifteen million—more than half the State's population—and represents more than half the State's assessed valuation. The public agencies having the rights to use Colorado River water and power have invested about $800 million in facilities for diversion and beneficial use of nearly five million acre-feet of water per year and for the generation and transmission of three and one-half billion kilowatt-hours of hydroelectric energy annually.

Protection of California's Colorado River rights, including water quantity, water quality, and hydroelectric power, requires a continuous effort because plans for use of water by the seven Basin states plus deliveries to Mexico exceed the available supply. California's present uses of Colorado River water amount to approximately 65 percent of the water used in southern California. As the other states increasingly use their apportionments of Colorado River water, the river's problems will become more severe.

A significant change in the procedures used to determine deliveries to California occurred with the commencement of Central Arizona Project deliveries in 1985. California can no longer divert, on a dependable basis, all the water it can beneficially use. Its dependable river supply is now limited to its basic apportionment of 4.4 million acre-feet per year. It is essential to the well-being of California's Colorado River water users and the State's overall water supply situation that continuous efforts be undertaken to maximize its river's resources.

Fulfillment of the Board's functions and obligations is a continuing program, requiring analysis and action on dynamically changing factors affecting Colorado River water and power supplies.

The major objectives of the program are as follows:

1. Maintain or increase the quantity of California's Colorado River water resources by (a) obtaining credit for all surface and subsurface return flows to the river, (b) assuring that the Federal Government's operating rules and plans for Colorado River reservoirs optimize the projects' purposes and maximize California's resources, (c) working with California's Colorado River contractors to implement water conservation measures, system improvements and other means that allow for increased beneficial use of California's river resources, (d) identifying and implementing an affordable water supply for municipal, industrial and recreational users in California along the Colorado River with insufficient or no water rights, (e) achieving an amicable settlement of basic disagreements between the Colorado River Basin states over interpretation of the Colorado River Compact and other water rights issues, (f) establishing and maintaining, in cooperation with other governmental agencies, an effective floodway in the lower Colorado River to protect public safety, natural resources, and water conservation, (g) fostering federal studies of weather modification and vegetation management in the Colorado River Basin that would augment the river's flow, and (h) developing and implementing a plan for storing (banking) water in Lake Mead through the coordinated use of Colorado River and State Water Project waters.

2. Maintain Colorado River salinity at or below the Basin states' adopted standards through continual review, improvement, and implementation of the basin-wide federal-state salinity control program, cooperatively developed by the interstate Colorado River Basin Salinity Control Forum and federal agencies. The Forum's major objective is to expedite the state adopted and federally approved basin-wide Colorado River salinity control program. California's funding share of the Forum is funded through the Board's budget, one-third from the California Environmental License Plate Fund and two-thirds from reimbursements.

3. Maintain California's Colorado River resources that are impacted by the U.S.-Mexico Water Treaty through cooperative efforts with the U.S. International Boundary and Water Commission and other states.

3480 DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

The Department of Conservation is responsible for promoting the development and wise management of the State's land, energy, and mineral resources. The Department provides services and disseminates information in the following areas: geology and seismology, mineral resources, geothermal and petroleum resources, agricultural and open space land, and container recycling and litter reduction.

These services and information are critical to the public and private sectors for land use decisions, siting of facilities, regulation and conservation of petroleum resources, protection of agricultural and open space land, optimum utilization of mineral resources consistent with sound conservation practices, and conservation of soil resources.

10 GEOLOGIC HAZARDS AND MINERAL RESOURCES CONSERVATION<sup>2</sup>

Program Objectives Statement

The goals of the Geologic Hazards and Mineral Resource Conservation program are to prevent or minimize injury, death, and property damage resulting from geologic hazards and to encourage the development and utilization of California's mineral resources consistent with sound conservation practices. Through the efforts of five subsidiary programs, the Division of Mines and Geology develops and disseminates information and advice concerning the geologic, engineering geologic, seismologic, volcanologic, earthquake engineering, and mineral resource issues of California. This information and advice is used by government agencies, private enterprises, and the general public who are involved in making land-use decisions which relate to the development of mineral resources, effective reclamation of mined lands, and the safety of persons and property from geologic hazards. The Division manages and maintains the State's repository on California's geology, seismology, and mining activity.

<sup>2</sup> To improve management efficiency and accountability, the Division of Mines and Geology has been restructured; therefore, the structure of the Geologic Hazards and Mineral Resources Conservation Program has been revised accordingly. For this transition budget, the display includes information in two versions—one reflecting the old structure and one reflecting the new structure. The old program structure included four major Program Elements: 10.15—Basic Investigations; 10.25—Hazards Reduction; 10.35—Mineral Resources Conservation; and 10.45—Information and Review. The new program structure includes five major Program Elements: 10.16—Mineral Resources Development (comprised of all projects in element 10.35, except Mined Land Reclamation); 10.26—Environmental Review and Reclamation (comprised of all projects in element 10.45, except Publications, Information and Library Services, and Mined Land Reclamation); 10.36—Geohazards Assessment (comprised of all projects in element 10.25); 10.46—Earthquake Engineering (formerly in element 10.15); and, 10.56—Geologic Information and Support (comprised of part of former elements 10.15 and 10.45.)

Program Element Statement

This element establishes and makes available a baseline source of technical geologic, seismologic, geophysical and earthquake engineering information for a wide range of land-use applications and users. These users include staff of the other elements in Program 10, other State, Federal, and local governmental agencies, universities and the private sector. The information is released in a variety of forms including: regional geologic maps, supportive data for the State Regional Geologic Map series, the State Bouguer Gravity Map, the State Aeromagnetic Map, detailed fault maps, geophysical maps, and special maps and reports. These maps, reports, and other products are used by public agencies and the private sector in zoning decisions, facility site selection, and permitting and licensing processes. The Strong-Motion Instrumentation Program maintains a network of 450 sites that are instrumented to monitor earthquake strong-ground motions. Data from this network provides critical background information necessary for design and construction decisions.

<sup>3</sup> Effective 1989-90, various components of this element are reflected in the Earthquake Engineering element (10.46) and Geologic Information/Support element (10.56).

10.16 Mineral Resources Development<sup>4</sup>

The Mineral Resources Development Program, which is comprised of the Urban Mineral Land Classification Project, the Nonurban Mineral Land Classification Project, and the Mineral Resource Analysis Project, provides government decision makers, industry, and the general public with up-to-date information regarding mineral potential and mining activity in California. Emphasis is placed on providing information which can be used to make prudent land-use decisions with regard to responsible development of the State's finite mineral resources. Program geologists work directly with staff of local, state, and federal agencies and are accessible to the general public to provide technical assistance.

10.25 Hazards Reduction <sup>5</sup>

Program Element Statement

The objective of this element is to reduce the State's geologic and seismic hazards by assessing the hazards, estimating their likelihood of occurrence and providing accurate, timely, technical information and interpretive judgments to be incorporated into land-use decisions. In this effort, the division cooperates with local government, Federal and State agencies, universities, and the private sector. In addition to outputs described under performance measures, this effort includes monitoring of volcanic activity in the Mammoth Lakes area; the development, jointly with the U.S. Geological Survey, of a prototype earthquake-prediction system in Parkfield and advising the Office of Emergency Services and Seismic Safety Commission about the status of the experiment and the validity of any specific predictions or alerts as they are made; and a cost-benefit study for an Earthquake Early Warning System for California; and a study of the feasibility of a program to map urban seismic hazards.

10.35 Mineral Resources Conservation <sup>7</sup>

Program Element Statement

Activities in this element include the inventory and study of known mineral deposits; compilation of resource data as to type, grade, and extent; assistance to local governments in planning for surface mining and reclamation of mined lands; classification of urbanizing lands according to their mineral content; and encouragement of sound conservation practices in the development and recovery of the State's mineral resources. The significance of the lands classified as containing mineral deposits will be documented in written reports that are made available to other governmental agencies and the public. In addition to the outputs described under performance measures, activities include compiling a list of mining operations subject to the Surface Mining and Reclamation Act, providing technical information and advice to local governments to assist them in reclamation plan review and approval, and, when requested by the lead agency, reviewing reclamation plans. Publications are planned to assist governmental agencies develop effective reclamation practices. Reclamation practice guidelines will be developed for use by local agencies in judging the adequacy of reclamation plans.

The Geohazards Assessment Program includes the Alquist-Priolo Fault Evaluation and Zoning Project, the Landslide Hazard Assessment Project, the Earthquake Shaking Assessment Project, the Earthquake Damage and History Project, the Earthquake Prediction and Early Warning Project, and the Tectonic Investigation Project. These projects evaluate what geologic or seismic hazards are likely to occur in an area, estimate their likelihood of occurring, and work with local, state, and federal agencies, university researchers, and the private sector to implement procedures to reduce or mitigate the identified hazards. The projects produce maps and reports for distribution and provide site-specific investigations of hazardous areas during emergencies.

Program Element Statement

The objectives of this element are to prepare division maps and manuscripts for publication and to disseminate technical information about California's geology, seismology, mineral resources, and mineral industry to government, universities, the private sector and the public; to provide expert advice to State and local agencies about engineering geology issues addressed in geotechnical reports and environmental documents; to review any submitted geotechnical reports on critical facilities (such as nuclear power plants and the super-conducting super collider); to manage and maintain the division's technical library; and to prepare division reports and maps for publication and distribution. Review activities partly are funded by the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, Office of the State Architect, and other Federal, State, and local agencies. The primary purpose of the division library is to provide technical references for projects of the division and other state agencies and, secondarily, as delegated to the division's library by the State library, to serve as the State's repository for publications on California's geology, seismology, and mineral resources. The State mineral exhibit currently is located in Mariposa, Mariposa County, under a loan agreement with the county.

20 OIL, GAS, AND GEOTHERMAL PROTECTION*Program Objectives Statement

The Division of Oil and Gas regulates the oil, gas, and geothermal resources operations within the State. This program is concerned with administration of State laws for the conservation of oil, gas, and geothermal resources to prevent damage to life, health, property and natural resources. Compliance activities include review of applications and issuance of well operation permits, and on-site surveillance and monitoring of: (1) drilling and abandonment operations, both onshore and offshore; (2) enhanced oil recovery, gas storage, and wastewater disposal projects; and (3) operations for the abatement of subsidence of lands overlying oil and geothermal fields. The State is fully reimbursed for these activities by annual assessments and fees from the respective industries.

3480 DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION—Continued

The program's main objectives are to prevent damage to the hydrocarbon or geothermal reservoirs, to the environment, and to other natural resources; to prevent contamination of freshwater deposits; to prevent conditions that may be hazardous to life or health; and to encourage the wise development of oil, gas, and geothermal resources.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 1 position (0.9 personnel year) and $50,000 General Fund to extend the Kern County California Environmental Quality Act project through June 30, 1991.
- 3 positions (2.8 personnel years) and $129,000 General Fund to implement the above ground petroleum storage tank monitoring program per Chapter 1383, Statutes of 1989.

20.10 Regulation of Oil and Gas Operations

Program Element Statement

The purpose of this element is to prevent loss of oil and gas reservoir energy; prevent damage to underground and surface waters; prevent other surface environmental damage, including subsidence; prevent conditions that may be hazardous to life or health; encourage the wise development of oil and gas resources through good conservation and engineering practices; protect correlative rights so that landowners, royalty owners, producers, and the general public realize and enjoy the greatest possible benefits from these vital resources; and prevent damage to and waste of underground oil and gas deposits. In March 1983, the Division of Oil and Gas was granted primacy by the federal Environmental Protection Agency (E.P.A.) in the regulation of Class II underground injection wells under the federal Safe Drinking Water Act. The division is partially reimbursed by the E.P.A. for this program.

20.20 Regulation of Geothermal Operations

Program Element Statement

Geothermal energy is indigenous to California and has the potential to lessen—when developed—California's dependence on imported fuels. It can be developed within acceptable environmental standards when due consideration is given to proper mitigating measures.

The purpose of this element is to prevent loss of geothermal reservoir energy; prevent damage to underground and surface waters suitable for irrigation or domestic use; prevent other surface environmental damage, including subsidence; prevent conditions that may be hazardous to life or health; encourage the wise development of geothermal resources through good conservation and engineering practices; protect correlative rights so that landowners, royalty owners, producers, and the general public realize and enjoy the greatest possible benefits from this important resource; and prevent damage to and waste of underground geothermal deposits. Chapter 1271/78 assigned lead agency responsibility to the department under the California Environmental Quality Act for all exploratory geothermal well projects.

30 LAND RESOURCE PROTECTION

Program Objective Statement

California soil is one of the State's most valuable and threatened resources.

There is a need to provide information on the conversion of agricultural land in California, and to provide incentives to farmers and ranchers to conserve soil productivity and to retain agricultural and open space lands. These goals are accomplished through a subvention program to local government which encourages the long-term protection of productive agricultural land and open space, by providing current land use information to government, and the development and implementation of a State soil conservation plan. Elements which address these concerns on an ongoing basis are Open-Space Subvention Administration, Farmland Mapping and Monitoring, and Soil Resource Protection.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 0.3 position (0.3 personnel year) and $9,000 General Fund to provide for monthly advance subvention payments to counties per Chapter 422, Statutes of 1989.
- 0.5 position (0.5 personnel year) and $22,000 General Fund to report on Williamson Act contract terminations per Chapter 943, Statutes of 1989.

30.10 Open-Space Subvention Administration

Program Element Statement

Agricultural land and open space land of statewide significance must be conserved for the continued economic and social well being of the people of California. Local government is encouraged to conserve this land by the Open-Space Subvention Program which is administered by the Department of Conservation for the Secretary for Resources. Under this program cities and counties are reimbursed, in part, for tax revenue losses resulting from reduced assessments of land restricted to agricultural and open space uses under the provisions of the Williamson Act. This land is then assessed on the basis of income produced rather than market value.

Performance Measures

Outputs include review of open-space plans; advisory services to landowners and local governments; evaluation of requests for cancellation of Williamson Act contracts when waiver of the penalties is included; processing applications and apportionment of the subvention funds; and review and comment on environmental documents.

30.20 Farmland Mapping and Monitoring

Program Element Statement

This element focuses on quantitative mapping, monitoring and reporting on crop and grazing land vital to sustaining California's $15.6 billion per year agricultural industry. The objective of this element is to provide accurate up-to-date land use data to local, state and federal governments; to assist them in making informed decisions for the best utilization of our remaining agricultural land. Base year for reporting purposes is 1984. Project coverage is expanding and 45 counties are currently being monitored.

Performance Measures

Program outputs include biennial updates of maps and acreage data on 38 counties and completion of one-time interim mapping for five additional counties. The data base consists of approximately 1,745 1:24,000 scale field sheets and 80 1:100,000 scale county base maps to be biennially updated, recompiled and made available for distribution; in addition to computer processing of the mapped information to generate updated maps and acreage data. A 1986-88 conversion report will be released July 31, 1990.

30.40 Soil Resource Protection

Program Element Statement

This element focuses on the conservation and enhancement of the State's nonrenewable soil resource. Work activities within this element focus on ensuring the long term productivity of the State's soil resources through the continued implementation of the State Soil Conservation Plan. With the advice of the interim soil conservation Committee, staff will gather data on soil conservation problems; evaluate the need for changing current law affecting the structure and organization of the Department's soil conservation activities and also those of the local resource conservation districts; study the effect of agricultural land conversion on soil conservation problems; promote the completion and utilization of soil surveys; and, provide basic advisory services on soil conservation to the Department.

Performance Measures

By December 1, 1989, an interim report on the ability of Resource Conservation Districts to implement the Soil Conservation Plan will be submitted to the Legislature. The Soil Conservation Committee will meet as needed, to advise the Department on the preparation of a final report, particularly with respect to the revision of pertinent law and the need to strengthen Resource Conservation Districts.

Through an agreement with the federal government, over 200,000 acres per year will be mapped through FY 92-93, under the Program's soil survey activities. During this fiscal year, progress will be made towards the completion of six surveys in five counties.

A contract will be let to develop a detailed proposal for conducting a cooperative statewide, soil resource problem inventory. The inventory will be initiated in fiscal year 1990-91 and repeated on a yet-to-be-determined, but regular basis.

A contract has been initiated to conduct a detailed study of the impacts of prime farmland conversion on the subsequent agricultural use and conservation of marginal soils. The study will be completed in FY 1989-90.

The Program will continue to serve as an advisor, coordinator and advocate—consistent with the objectives of the Soil Conservation Plan—by meeting approximately 25 times per year with the State's 118 resource conservation districts; serving on related interagency committees and task forces; and reviewing and commenting on agency programs and policies, and on legislation and CEQA documents. The Program will continue to provide technical assistance as needed to the Department, other agencies and the general public.

40 ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of this program is to provide executive leadership, policy direction, and the administrative services required to meet the Department's program objectives. Activities include the provision of uniform departmentwide staff services, policy coordination, environmental impact review, and program negotiation with other State, Federal, and local government agencies, and specialized staff services to management.

Administrative activities are performed at several organizational levels within the department. Departmental headquarters provides leadership from the directorate and central services in accounting, budgeting, management analysis, personnel, office services, training, safety and EDP services.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 2 positions (1.9 personnel years, 0.9 of which is limited-term through June 30, 1992) and $87,000 from various funds for increased technical assistance workload.
- 1 position (0.9 personnel years) and $33,000 from various funds for increased contract services workload.
- $42,000 ($17,000 from the General Fund and $25,000 from various funding sources) for increased overtime.

50 BEVERAGE CONTAINER RECYCLING AND LITTER REDUCTION

Program Objectives Statement

The objective of the Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction program is to administer the California Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction Act. This program promotes the recycling of beverage containers in the State, provides a convenient method of recycling for consumers, and decreases the amount of litter in the State, as well as the amount of waste going to landfills. The Division's goal is to achieve an 80 percent recycling rate for beverage containers sold in California. Major activities for the 1990-91 Fiscal Year include contract management for recycling information, education, and promotion; grant management for litter abatement, recycling, and related activities; enforcement of regulations and auditing/accounting activities to protect the integrity of the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund; issuance of determinations relating to redemption and recycling rates; analysis of markets for recyclable materials; preparation of the Program's annual report to the Governor and the Legislature; analysis and a report to the Legislature on the impact of the Program on industry.

Chapter 1339, Statutes of 1988, amends the California Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction Act to increase the refund value of beverage containers redeemed by consumers from one cent to five cents for every two containers redeemed, effective January 1, 1990. Also, effective November 1, 1989, the redemption value paid by distributors increased from one cent to two cents for each container sold or offered for sale in the State. It is anticipated that the increase in the refund value will provide an economic incentive to consumers to encourage recycling of beverage containers thereby reducing the amount of containers entering the waste stream for landfill disposal. In 1988-89, revenues were $130 million. The Department pays a processor of recycled beverage containers the redemption value of each container. In turn, the processor reimburses the recycling center which paid the consumer. Monies not paid for redemption values are expended for administration, litter reduction, education, and convenience incentive payments.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are reflected:

- 0.5 position (0.5 personnel year limited-term) and $229,000 California Beverage Container Recycling Fund to monitor consultant contracts for a certification mobile buyback study per Chapter 812, Statutes of 1989.
- 24 positions (11.8 personnel years) and $558,000 one-time redirection for implementing the following legislation: Chapter 776, Statutes of 1989, regarding curbside programs; Chapter 865, Statutes of 1989, regarding minimum redemption values; Chapter 1339, Statutes of 1989, regarding increase in beverage container redemption payment and refund value and establishing a recycling financial analysis and policy development unit; and Chapter 1342, Statutes of 1989, regarding new enforcement, processing fees, and convenience incentive payment activities.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed from the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund:

- 11.5 positions (10.9 personnel years) and $864,000 for workload increases in Education and Motivation Branch, Certification Branch, and the Beverage Container Recycling Advisory Committee. $50,000 is one-time for the certification mapping program.
- 1 position (0.9 personnel year) and $40,000 for the curbside recycling program annual survey per Chapter 776, Statutes of 1989.
- 1 position (0.9 personnel year) and $85,000 for increased audit and enforcement per Chapter 865, Statutes of 1989.
- 14 positions (13.3 personnel years of which 1.9 are limited-term through June 30, 1992) and $1,136,000 for workload increases in economic analysis and enforcement per Chapter 1342, Statutes of 1989.
- 8 positions (7.6 personnel years of which 2.8 are limited-term through June 30, 1992) and $645,000 for workload increases in enforcement and administration per Chapter 1339, Statutes of 1989.
- 1 position (0.9 personnel year limited-term through June 30, 1991) to monitor a consultant contract for the certification mobile buyback study per Chapter 812, Statutes of 1989.

50.10 Enforcement

Program Element Statement

This element provides the enforcement of the rules and regulations governing the California Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction Act (Act) to ensure compliance with the goals and objectives of the program. It includes the financial and compliance examinations of all entities coming under the purview of the Act. Examinations are required to ensure the integrity of the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund. Entities to be examined include container manufacturers, beverage manufacturers, beverage distributors, processors, and recyclers. The management of the Payment and Report Processing System which receives and disburses monies from the Beverage Container Recycling Fund is also part of this element.

50.20 Education and Motivation

Program Element Statement

The Education and Motivation Element is responsible for the implementation of the Division of Recycling's marketing campaigns, components of which include public education, the distribution of information, promotional and media relations activities. The emphasis of this element is to inform and motivate Californians to recycle beverage containers. The majority of these marketing, information and public education projects are performed under contracts with marketing/advertising firms, certified recyclers, non-profit organizations, and private industry. The products of this element include television, radio and print advertisements; public service messages and program participation; promotional activities aimed at identified target groups; legislative information and participation programs; information distribution through the media; and the design and production of a wide array of information, education and motivational materials (brochures, signs, kits, reports, flyers, etc.)

This element is also responsible for planning and coordinating public events and news conferences; publishing an industry newsletter; designing and staffing informational exhibits and displays at trade shows, workshops and conferences; responding to inquiries from the media, individuals, groups and organizations; and, distributing information and providing referrals to inquiries regarding recycling and recycling center locations via two toll free services—one to provide program information for industry, special interest, and nonprofit organizations and the second as a referral service for consumers.

50.30 Economic Analyses

Program Element Statement

The Economic Analyses Element functions include calculation of processing fees and economic analyses of the beverage container and recycling industries, as well as container labeling requirements and recycling program reports. The calculation of processing fees and program reporting are two of the most sensitive areas included in the California Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction Act and require substantial amounts of investigation, analysis, and contact with industry. This element also awards funds to provide financial assistance to certified recycling centers through the Convenience Incentive Payment Program.

50.40 Certification

Program Element Statement

This element assures that recyclers, processors, and beverage dealers meet the legal and regulatory certification requirements for participation in the State's various certified recycling programs. In this cooperative effort, the Division works with full-line supermarkets and other beverage dealers, recycling programs, processors, local governments, and environmental groups. This element certifies new recycling centers, programs processors and performs program reviews of applicant and certified recycling programs; maintains a data base of program participants, facilities, convenience zones, exemptions of convenience zones and alternative means of convenience. Also included is convenience zone map production, and surveys to identify and verify supermarket, beverage dealer, and certified recycling center locations.

This element also awards funds for recycling and litter abatement activities in the form of grants to community conservation corps and local conservation organizations. Grants are also awarded to statewide nonprofit organizations for recycling information, education and promotion programs. This element also provides technical assistance to recyclers, processors, industry and environmental groups and communities to establish curbside and various other recycling collection programs.

3540 DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY AND FIRE PROTECTION

The Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, under the policy direction of the State Board of Forestry, is responsible for providing fire protection and watershed management services for private and State-owned watershed lands.

The primary objectives of the department are to:

1) Maintain a fire prevention program that minimizes fire losses due to human causes.
2) Provide an efficient fire control system that holds damages from wildfire to a level that will not seriously impair the use or benefits received from department-protected lands.

3) Maintain and improve the quality of land and vegetative resources in order to maximize the economic and social benefits that are derived from these resources now and in future generations.

In addition, the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection provides fire protection services for some local governments on a cost reimbursement basis. Departmental employees and equipment are also used for other emergencies such as floods and earthquakes.

Authority

Constitution, Public Resources Code (principally), Health and Safety Code, Penal Code, Welfare and Institutions Code, Military and Veterans Code, Governor's executive orders, administrative orders, Board of Forestry policy, Administrative Code, federal law, contracts and agreements.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

For the current year, the budget reflects $28,500,000 for emergency fire suppression activities for the 1989-90 fall and spring fire seasons. Of this amount, $10,000,000 has been allocated to the Department pursuant to Section 12.30(c) of the Budget Act of 1989. The Department's Federal Trust Fund emergency fire expenditure authority increased by $4,000,000 for emergency fire suppression activities on Federal responsibility area lands. Because of weather, fuel, and fire conditions during the 1989 fall fire season, a $4,953,000 augmentation was provided to the Department to supplement its initial attack fire protection services. In addition, $2.8 million from the General Fund is included to assist Butte County, which is experiencing financial difficulties. The County is able to pay only $400,000 of its $3.2 million contract for fire protection services. The State has agreed to defer payment of the $2.8 million balance, which the Department is unable to absorb within its budget. $1,297,000 from the General Fund is included for increased unemployment insurance costs resulting from hiring additional seasonal firefighters required during the severe fire seasons of the last two years, and from increased benefit payments.

The current lease agreement with the federal government for UH-1H helicopters expires January 1, 1991. The Administration is currently working with the federal government to extend this lease as these helicopters are vital for initial attack fire suppression.

The 1990-91 budget for the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection proposes total expenditures of $349,758,000 and 4,353.7 personnel years. Significant proposed budget changes are outlined in the chart below:

3540 DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY AND FIRE PROTECTION—Continued

11 FIRE PROTECTION

Program Objectives Statement

California's forest, brush, and grass covered wildlands provide a rich but limited abundance of natural resources which require protection from potential damages resulting from uncontrolled fire. The fire protection program is managed by the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection for the purposes of providing the required protection on private and State-owned lands of statewide interest and of enhancing the quality and usefulness of the resources.

The department maintains an integrated and balanced fire protection program designed to provide "basic fire protection" to those wildlands and wildland areas which the department protects under contract with other agencies, and to hold fire damage below the level at which it would seriously impair them from the flow of economic and social benefits. As designed, fire protection recognizes that uncontrolled fire must be abated as a public nuisance by a combination of fire prevention, fire control, cooperative fire protection, and conservation camps.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following adjustments are reflected:

- 112.3 personnel years and $4,953,000 General Fund to augment firefighting staffing and related operating expenses for the 1989 fall fire season.
- $4,000,000 Federal Trust Fund augmentation for emergency fire suppression activities on Federal responsibility area lands.
- $28,500,000 General Fund augmentation for emergency fire suppression activities.
- $1,297,000 General Fund augmentation for increased unemployment insurance costs.
- $2,800,000 General Fund augmentation for firefighting services provided to Butte County.
- 0.5 position (0.5 personnel year) and $40,000 Reimbursements to provide sand dune fencing maintenance for the Department of Parks and Recreation.
- 1.0 position (0.6 personnel year) and $35,000 Reimbursements to provide fire prevention and training for the Veteran Home in Yountville.
- 13 positions (1.5 personnel years) and $505,000 reimbursements for expansion of the conservation camps program.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $10,500,000 Public Buildings Construction Fund to begin replacement of the Department's air attack air tanker fleet.
- $5,400,000 Public Buildings Construction Fund for deferred replacement of telecommunications equipment and extended network coverage.
- $3,987,000 General Fund for contract county agreements.
- 39 positions (34.8 personnel years) and $3,745,000 Reimbursements for expansion of the conservation camp program.
- 2.0 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $1,016,000 General Fund and $1,101,000 Special Account for Capital Outlay to meet critical telecommunications program needs.
- $1,699,000 General Fund for increased unemployment insurance costs related to additional seasonal firefighters over the last two years.
- $132,000 shift from the Special Account for Capital Outlay to the General Fund for aviation program staff and operating costs.
- $234,000 Reimbursements for increased workers compensation costs.
- $56,000 General Fund for compliance with the Hazardous Materials Business Plans Program.
- 1.0 position (0.9 personnel year) and $53,000 Reimbursements to provide fire prevention and training services for the Veterans Home in Yountville.
- 0.5 position (0.5 personnel year) and $40,000 Reimbursements to provide sand dune fencing maintenance for the Department of Parks and Recreation.

11.10 Fire Prevention

Program Element Statement

The Legislature has defined fire prevention as "the employment of the most effective methods, material, and procedures in the dissemination of information, to remove or mitigate physical risk and hazards, and the enforcement of pertinent laws for the reduction of fire incidence". The term "fire prevention" shall connote an action program designed to reduce the occurrence of human-caused fires.

Fire cause investigations show that 75 percent of California's human-caused wildfires are preventable. This element provides fire prevention personnel to educate the public in the safe use of fire and to regulate the use of fire or potential ignition sources in such a way that "uncontrolled fires", as defined in Section 4104 Public Resources Code, are restricted to an acceptable level.

11.30 Fire Control

Program Element Statement

The objective of this element is to detect, respond to, and suppress each wildland fire occurring in or threatening State responsibility area within a time and size which will hold net damages to natural resources and exposed life and property within reasonable economic and social limits. Fire control is accomplished through a balanced and integrated system of detection, dispatch and communications, ground attack, air attack, and mutual and outside aid.

The fire control element includes 223 forest fire stations, 64 lookouts, 9 helitack units, 13 primary air attack bases, and fire crews located at 52 Departments of Corrections and Youth Authority and county conservation camps, including Training Centers, and one California Conservation Corps fire center. This system is designed to meet the objective of holding the average number and acres burned by large damaging fires within the State zone to no more than the current 15-year average. The emphasis of fire control is the protection of high-value areas; i.e., commercial timberlands, critical watershed, high-value recreation areas, areas with a high density of exposed life and property, and areas with unique wildland value. Also included is participation in non-fire emergency situations.

11.40 Cooperative Fire Protection

Program Element Statement

The Department of Forestry and Fire Protection provides life and property protection under cooperative agreement with local governments within and adjacent to state responsibility areas. This program is commonly referred to as the Schedule A program.

In addition, the department contracts with six counties for the protection of lands classified as State responsibility. Performance measures are included in 11.30 Fire Control.

Based upon established protection boundaries between the department and the U.S. Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management, the department protects certain federal lands, and in turn, receives federal protection on certain state responsibility lands. The department also protects other scattered and intermingled federal lands under jurisdiction of the Bureau of Reclamation and others.

11.60 Conservation Camps

Program Element Statement

The Department of Forestry and Fire Protection operates 34 adult conservation camps and three adult training centers in cooperation with the Department of Corrections, nine youth conservation camps and two youth training centers in cooperation with the Department of the Youth Authority, two camps in cooperation with San Diego County and one camp in cooperation with Shasta County. Additionally, the department operates one fire center in cooperation with the California Conservation Corps.

This element provides the primary fire crew labor force for firefighting and other emergency assignments. When not engaged in firefighting, other emergency assignments and training, camp inmates and wards, under the department's supervision, work on in-camp projects and fire defense improvements for the department and conservation projects for State, federal, and local government agencies.

12 RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Program Objectives Statement

The purpose of this program is to protect California's State and private forest, brush range and watershed lands from pests, deterioration and human misuse, and to enhance the management and use of these lands.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is reflected:

- $29,000 Professional Foresters Registration Fund for forester licensing complaints.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 9 positions (8.5 personnel years) and $783,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund to ensure full compliance with mandates of the Forest Practice Act and the California Environmental Quality Act relating to timber harvest plans.
- 7 positions (6.6 personnel years) and $664,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund to assess the effects of forestland management on wildlife habitat.
- 4 positions (3.8 personnel years) and $443,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund to rehabilitate recreational facilities in the Demonstration State Forests.
- 3.5 positions (3.3 personnel years) and $200,000 Forest Resources Improvement Fund for management and operation of the Sequel Demonstration State Forests.
- $184,000 Forest Resource Improvement Fund to review the impact of the California Forest Improvement Program on rare and endangered species.

12.10 Resources Protection and Improvement

The objective of this element is to improve forest lands. Activities include: the detection, evaluation, and control of forest pests; growing and sale of tree seedlings from three State nurseries for reforestation and soil erosion control; genetic tree improvement; advice and assistance to nonindustrial owners of forest lands on management of forests and improved harvesting practices; management of demonstration State forests; implementation of the California Forest Improvement Act of 1978, and demonstration of the use of wood waste and forest growth for increased use of forest products.

The objective of vegetation management is to assist public and private landowners to achieve land use objectives by reducing damage from wildland fires, increasing wildlife habitat, increasing productivity of forest and rangelands, improving water yields and air quality and maintaining desirable ecosystems. The Department of Forestry and Fire Protection works with federal, State and local agencies and private property owners to develop and achieve land use objectives. Activities include the removal, rearrangement, conversion or improvement of vegetation using various treatment measures such as prescribed fire and mechanical, manual, biological and chemical methods.

The goal of this element is to achieve the maximum sustained production of high-quality timber while protecting soil, water, wildlife, recreation, and other values associated with forest land. Activities include regulating timber harvesting operations on non-federal timberlands, carrying out studies of causes and effects of soil erosion, issuing licenses to timber operators and assisting taxing agencies in their administration of taxes on timber and timberland.

The goal of professional foresters registration is the protection of forest resources and the public through the licensing of competent professional foresters. Working through the Board of Forestry, activities include: development of rules, regulations and policies to effectuate the professional foresters law (PF law); reviewing, examining and licensing of applicants; receiving and investigating malpractice complaints; taking disciplinary actions for censure, suspension and/or revocation of licenses; filing of criminal complaints for violation of the PF law; and recommending legislative action related to licensing.

The objective of this program is to provide executive leadership, policy direction, and administrative services required for the successful completion of the department's objectives. Administrative activities are performed at several organizational levels within the department.

Department headquarters provides leadership through the executive office and through central services in accounting, budgeting, business services, personnel and technical services. Department field units provide localized general support services throughout a variety of locations in the State. The training academy is also included within management services.

3540 DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY AND FIRE PROTECTION—*ContinuedBudget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustment is reflected:

- 4 positions (4 personnel years) administratively established through June 30, 1990 to provide technical electronic data processing support in regional offices.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $100,000 General Fund to contract for mediators to resolve environmental lawsuits outside of court, and to implement a water quality monitoring program in the State Board of Forestry.
- $56,000 ($38,000 General Fund/$18,000 reimbursements) for medical exams for employees who operate heavy or combination vehicles.
- 8 positions (7.7 personnel years) funded by redirections of savings resulting from increased efficiencies to provide technical electronic data processing support in regional offices.
- 0.8 position (0.8 personnel year) funded by redirection of savings in litigation costs to handle increased workload in the Legal office.

3560 STATE LANDS COMMISSION

The State Lands Commission administers policies established by the Legislature and the State Lands Commission in the management and supervision of all statutory lands which the State has received from the federal government. Statutory lands include the beds of all naturally navigable waterways such as major rivers, streams and lakes; tide and submerged lands in the Pacific Ocean which extend from the mean high tide line seaward to the three-mile limit; swamp and overflow lands; vacant state school lands; and granted lands.

California's growing population continues to make increasing demands upon the State's land resources. The State Lands Commission is responsible for comprehensive land management activities involving more than 4,000,000 acres of State-owned lands. The State Lands Commission authorizes the use of land subject to reasonable rules and regulations and the determination of fair and adequate compensation. Their decisions are reached at public hearings and are based upon environmental, health and safety, and public benefit considerations.

The primary objectives established by the Legislature and implemented by the State Lands Commission are to:

a. Develop comprehensive land use planning which encourages compatible multiuse development of State lands and the conservation, preservation and protection of irreplaceable resources.

b. Locate the precise boundaries of tide, submerged and other land areas to assure protection of the State's interest.

c. The efficient development of oil, gas, geothermal and other mineral resources through the administration of policies and active management of programs designed to assure protection of the environment, optimize yield of the limited resources and facilitate the generation of vitally needed revenues.

d. Provide surveillance necessary for effective management and title protection of these lands, and if necessary, litigation in the courts, to protect the State's sovereign interests.

e. Maintain records on the acquisition and disposition of the lands and on uses of the lands, and maintenance of an environmental inventory of the lands.

The State Lands Commission land management program is accomplished through the efforts of two basic programs: Extractive Development, and Land Management and Conservation. The Administration program provides executive, legal, planning, administrative and technical support services.

10 EXTRACTIVE DEVELOPMENT

Program Objectives Statement

The State Lands Commission oversees the extractive development of mineral resources located on State lands. The Commission also controls the development and operation of the Long Beach tidelands oil operations. The objectives of the Extractive Development Program are to manage the orderly extraction of oil, gas, geothermal resources and other minerals; to maximize the revenue generated from extractive activities consistent with the best interests of the State; and to ensure the efficient development of these resources consistent with public safety considerations and environmental protection.

10.10 Extractive Development—State Leases

Program Element Statement

This program involves the administration and management of over 150 leases, agreements, permits and entitlements for the exploration and production of geothermal, oil and gas, mineral resources and the supervision and control of operational activities and State's royalty share from existing leases. Future leasing programs for State lands are evaluated, planned, coordinated and directed by staff. Existing lease management includes maximization of revenue by sales of the State's royalty share of production and planning and permitting of enhanced resource recovery procedures. Evaluation of State resource lands are conducted to enhance land management policy decisions. Active participation is practiced by Executive staff in environmental reviews, joint agency panels, technical boards and permitting studies. Protection of the coastal tidelands and inland waters from oil-related mishaps is provided by close regulation, review and inspection of petroleum drilling and production facilities to insure that design is adequate, that operations are conducted safely, that safety systems and devices are functioning properly, that drilling, well-work and operating personnel are trained in well-control and oil spill prevention, and that oil spill cleanup equipment, procedures and training are maintained.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $21,000 in reimbursement expenditure authority and 0.4 personnel year to comply with the requirements of Chapter 1232, Statutes of 1988 (AB 3180).
- $150,000 from the General Fund to prepare Environmental Impact Reports for leasing school lands parcels in the Geysers Geothermal Field.
- $210,000 from the General Fund to expand the scope of the geothermal reservoir and other studies in the Geysers Geothermal Field.
- Redirect funding to provide one-half personnel year to perform programming support to the 8(g) and geothermal projects.
- $389,000 from the General Fund to install engineering and reservoir simulation computer system.

10.20 Extractive Development—Long Beach Operations

Program Element Statement

The tidelands along the Long Beach shoreline are granted in trust to the City of Long Beach. Chapter 29, Statutes of 1956 (1st E.S.), originally defined the role of the State in the development of oil and gas from these tidelands. The passage of Chapter 138, Statutes of 1964 (1st E.S.), gave the State a more active and prominent role in such development and increased the State's revenue. Under Chapter 138, the State was given control over the plan and budget of the field contractor who develops and operates the tidelands oilfield.

Workload Information

The Long Beach Operations staff maintains economic control over the Long Beach Unit Plan of Operations and Development. The staff also reviews and evaluates production programs and water injection operations for other adjacent tideland oil and gas leases. Average daily production in these tideland developments is approximately 53,000 barrels per day.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- $203,000 from the General Fund to install engineering and reservoir simulation computer system.

Performance Measures

The Long Beach Operations staff performs economic analysis of the development and operation activities of the Long Beach tidelands. Output includes control of expenditures through the plan and budget of the Long Beach Unit. This control is exercised by itemizing and monitoring the use of budget funds and through approvals for new wells and redrills, budget-fund transfers and augmentations. The plan and budget is prepared jointly by the City of Long Beach and the staff of the State Lands Commission and is subject to the approval of the State Lands Commission.

Another important activity is the determination of equity (area assignments) for the Long Beach Unit. Area assignments determine the actual allocation of oil and gas production and of expenditures among the participants. Equity determinations have a direct impact on the State's share of the net profits. Long Beach Operations staff also monitors seismic activity and surface elevations to detect any evidence of subsidence.

20 LAND MANAGEMENT AND CONSERVATION

Program Objectives Statement

The State Lands Commission provides:

1. Management of all state sovereign lands to ensure use of the lands consistent with the public trust and prudent land use practices.
2. Management of all state school lands to ensure the maximum return to the State Teachers' Retirement System (STRS).

Program objectives are to:

- plan for and control use of both sovereign and school lands in order to protect the State's interests;
- maintain a program of land use to meet orderly land planning requirements;
- assure appropriate compensation for use of State lands;
- minimize commercial and recreational trespass on State lands;
- perfect title to the lands the State owns; and
- review activities on lands granted to local entities.

20.10 Ownership Determination

Program Element Statement

Effective management of State-owned tide and submerged lands requires that real property boundaries be identified and located. Ownership determination usually involves extensive engineering, title and legal research studies. In general, boundary claim lines are identified and located by surveying and mapping, and ultimately finalized by land exchange, boundary line agreement, litigation, or title settlements as defined below:

1. Exchange. An exchange of property interests between parties requires an identification of the title conditions of both the parcel currently owned by the State and the parcel to be received in the exchange. An appraisal of both parcels is required to determine that the value to be received is as great or greater than the value relinquished.

2. Boundary Line Agreement. When the location of the common boundary between the State and a private owner cannot be determined, the State, acting by and through the State Lands Commission, is empowered to enter into a negotiated settlement of the boundary.

3. Litigation. Case preparations includes the search for, identification of, and analyses of facts for the consideration of and presentation into evidence by the Attorney General. Court appearances by Commission staff members to present testimony are occasionally required.

Other property related activities include:

1. School Land Disposals/Acquisition pursuant to School Land Bank Act. Sale revenues from school lands now go into this fund for reinvestment in other lands effectively halting erosion of school land asset.

2. Property Acquisition pursuant to Kapiloff Land Bank Act. In lieu of accepting real property in exchange for clearing state titles, the state may accept monetary payments into the Kapiloff Land Bank. The Commission must determine if the state has any interest in the property to be acquired and deduct the economic value of that interest from the economic value of the acquisition.

3. Title Settlements in Lieu of Litigation. Where the nature and extent of the State's sovereign ownership in real property resulting from its tidelands or submerged lands character is in dispute by other parties claiming title, the titles may be established by title settlement agreements in lieu of the costs, uncertainties, and delays of proceeding to final judgment by the courts.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $116,000 in reimbursement expenditure authority and two positions (1.9 personnel years) to comply with provisions within Proposition 70, the Wildlife, Coastal and Parkland Conservation Act.
- $80,000 in reimbursement expenditure authority to rent a global positioning system which will assist Commission staff in addressing a growing backlog of survey projects.

20.20 Land Management

Program Element Statement

Land management activities include:

1. Appraisal. Appraisals are essential in settlements of litigation of title and boundary agreements in which exchanges are involved. Lands being received must be at least of equal value to the interest being given up. Sales and leases also require appraisal to determine the consideration to be received.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

- 2. Leases. State lands are leased for commercial, industrial, recreational and environmental purposes and rights-of-way to accommodate public utility and various types of pipelines which utilize tide and submerged lands and state school lands.
  - 3. Indemnity Selections. The State is indemnified for loss to the school land grant by selection of desirable federal land.
  - 4. Inventory, Classifications and Management Plan. The Commission has directed its staff to inventory, classify and plan prudent management for the 600,000 acres of school land. The Legislature has also required an inventory of all lands under commission jurisdiction and an identification of those lands having significant environmental values of statewide interest.
  - 5. Land Title Information. This component provides all information required by law to be kept by the Commission, as well as the working data necessary to properly administer, manage and protect the lands under its jurisdiction.
  - 6. Reforestation and Timber Management. The objective of this component is to optimize timber stand improvement, erosion control and harvest of merchantable timber on lands under the Commission's jurisdiction.
  - 7. Sales. A land sale requires an identification of the title conditions and an appraisal of the land authorized to be sold. Whether a parcel of land is susceptible to sale depends upon the policies adopted as a result of a completed environmental inventory. Only those lands unsuitable for public retention are considered for potential sale.
- All Commission costs for administering school lands are deducted from revenues received from these lands and deposited in the General Fund. All net school lands revenues will be deposited in the Teachers Retirement Fund pursuant to Chapter 1213, Statutes of 1983.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:
- $81,000 in reimbursement expenditure authority and 1.6 positions (1.5 personnel years) to comply with the requirements of Chapter 1232, Statutes of 1988 (AB 3180).
  - $150,000 from the General Fund to obtain the services of an independent fee appraiser to determine a procedure for valuation of marine terminal leases.

30 EXECUTIVE AND ADMINISTRATION

Program Objectives Statement

The primary objective of the Executive and Administrative Program is to provide management, policy direction and administrative support to the line programs of the Commission. The executive staff includes the executive, legal, legislative, and comprehensive planning and research. The administrative and a technical services staff is comprised of six components, four of which (budgeting, personnel and training, accounting and business services, and data processing and records), provide direct staff support to the line programs; and two (auditing and program analysis), emphasize improving the State's fiscal position and assuring effective and efficient operation of all Commission programs.

Budget Adjustments

- In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:
- $46,000 in reimbursement expenditure authority and one-half personnel year to procure and install an automated file tracking system.
  - $93,000 in reimbursement expenditure authority to replace and upgrade existing unreliable copiers.

3580 SEISMIC SAFETY COMMISSION

Program Objectives Statement

The purpose of the Seismic Safety Commission is to improve earthquake safety in California. To accomplish this, the Commission works with federal, state and local agencies, as well as the private sector, on a variety of activities including issuing policy studies, sponsoring legislation, and coordinating seismic safety activities through oversight and leadership. The Commission is also responsible for: (1) annually revising the California Earthquake Hazards Reduction Program; (2) implementing Chapter 250, Statutes of 1986, which requires local governments to inventory hazardous buildings, develop a mitigation plan, and report to the Commission; (3) reviewing the state's progress in preparing for the inevitable earthquakes; (4) pursuing programs to strengthen state-owned buildings that lack seismic resistance; and (5) studying the effects of the Loma Prieta (Bay Area) earthquake to assist in the preparation for earthquakes of an equal or greater magnitude.

3600 DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND GAME

The program objectives of the Department of Fish and Game are to insure that fish and wildlife are preserved to be used and enjoyed by the people in the State, now and in the future.

The specific objectives of the department are:

1. To maintain all species of fish and wildlife for their natural and ecological values as well as for their direct benefits to the public. The objective, "to maintain," is a basic necessity if any species is to be used in the future, and this includes the principle that fish and wildlife should be preserved as a human environmental necessity.

2. To provide for varied recreational use of fish and wildlife. The objective, "recreational use," embraces all the ways that people may enjoy fish and wildlife. This variety of recreational opportunity will enable each individual to select the types of recreation which are found to be most rewarding. This objective is to maintain fish and wildlife populations at levels that will insure the survival of all species for the benefit of the general public and provide a harvestable surplus of game species so that hunting and fishing will continue to be enjoyed as two of California's traditional forms of recreation.

3. To provide for an economic contribution of fish and wildlife in the best interests of the people of the State. The third objective, "economic contribution," covers several distinct interests concerned with the use of fish and wildlife resources. These include the commercial harvesters of these resources, and the people who provide goods and services to all. The objective is to provide the maximum economic benefits to the people of the State within the limits of the resources and other objectives.

4. To provide for scientific and educational use of fish and wildlife. The fourth objective, "scientific and educational use," proposes to insure the availability of fish and wildlife for study and research by both scientists and students.

All of the programs of the department are directed towards the accomplishment of these objectives through the protection, conservation, enhancement, and restoration of fish and wildlife resources and habitats and the regulation of resources used.

MAJOR BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS

The 1990-91 Governor's Budget proposes a total expenditure level of $140.4 million, representing a $10.1 million (7.8%) increase over the 1989-90 operating budget. This level of support will allow the Department to continue maintenance, restoration and enhancement of the State's fish and wildlife resources and habitats for the use and enjoyment of the people of California. The budget also reflects a $3.3 million reduction in General Fund support because of the limited availability of General Fund resources. However, to offset this reduction, an additional $3.3 million has been provided from the California Environmental License Plate Fund. In addition, the Department has contracted with a new marketing consultant to promote the public's awareness and support for the California Wildlands Program. Pending the success of the new marketing strategy, this program will be re-evaluated during the May Revision of the Governor's Budget. The following table identifies significant budgetary changes included in the 1990-91 Governor's Budget for the Department of Fish and Game.

10 ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Program Objectives Statement

The two primary objectives of this program are to insure that the provisions and regulations pursuant to the Fish and Game Code are enforced, and to insure that the State's fish and wildlife resources are managed for optimum sustained yield, utilization and benefit to the public. These provisions and regulations are enforced primarily by means of an extensive network of wardens. Activities in this program include the protecting of habitat, as well as game and nongame species, from willful or negligent destruction; monitoring public and commercial fishing and hunting practices; issuing licenses to consumptive users; conducting a hunter safety program; and regulating the importation, transportation and possession of exotic animals in the State.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- $1,331,000 reduction in General Fund support and a corresponding increase in California Environmental License Plate Fund support to offset the reduction.
- 1 position (0.9 personnel year) and $60,000 from the Fish and Wildlife Cleanup and Abatement Account to preserve, protect, and enhance the state fish and wildlife resources and their habitat from oil spill incidents.
- $353,000 fund shift from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the California Environmental License Plate Fund to fund various program activities.

10.10 Protection and Use Regulation of Game Fish and Wildlife

Program Element Statement

Enforcement is used to protect the game species of fish and wildlife and regulate their use for maximum public benefit. A staff of wardens patrol to prevent infractions of game laws, wildlife bag limits, seasons, closed areas, and license requirements by individual hunters and fishermen as well as the commercial fishing industry. Administration of hunting club programs is a warden function. Additional protection of wildlife and habitat is accomplished by the issuance of permits for special purposes such as scientific collections, research, suction dredges, and the related follow-up inspection to assure compliance of permit terms. Preventive enforcement is accomplished through personal appearances before hunting and fishing organizations and field contacts.

10.50 General Enforcement Activities

Program Element Statement

This element provides various activities which are not classified as either "game" or "nongame", or include characteristics of both. Such activities include: support (indirect cost activities); maintenance and care of DFG vehicles, boats, radio equipment, etc.; control of raptors and exotic/prohibited species, including airport terminal and pet shop inspections; water pollution, streambed and/or lakebed alterations, and detection and/or investigation of actual or impending damage to fish and wildlife from the spillage of oil and other hazardous or toxic materials; response to the needs of other law enforcement agencies for assistance, e.g., search and rescue, traffic control, etc.; and emergency services such as public assistance during civil defense and natural disasters.

15 LICENSE AND REVENUE

Program Objective Statement

This program establishes and markets the licenses for the consumptive and non-consumptive use of the State's fish and wildlife resources. Those who wish to take advantage of the recreational, educational, and economical benefits provided by California's fish and wildlife resources are required to contribute to the conservation and management of these resources through the purchase of various types of fish and game licenses. The license fees provide the major support of California's fish and wildlife conservation programs. The program also provides special big game permits and reservations at State-operated wildlife areas.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustment is proposed:

- $753,000 Fish and Game Preservation Fund to redesign the sportfishing and hunting license applications.

20 WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT

Program Objectives Statement

The program objectives are to maintain all species of wildlife and associated habitat in the State, and to provide wildlife-oriented recreational and educational opportunities to the public. Projects include surveys and inventories aimed at gathering management data for big game, upland game, waterfowl, and nongame wildlife; disease research; wetlands enhancement; and habitat development and management on 76 designated State-owned wildlife areas and other public lands.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90 the following budget adjustments are reflected:

- $472,000 reduction from the State Duck Stamp Dedicated Account, Fish and Game Preservation Fund, to more accurately reflect historical expenditure levels.
- $600,000 redirection of California Environmental License Plate Funds from habitat improvements on Federal lands to the California Wildlands program.

• In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 38 positions (36.4 personnel years) and $2,838,000 ($1,000,000 Federal Trust Fund and $1,838,000 from the Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) to establish fish and wildlife habitat improvement crews.
- 5.4 positions (5.1 personnel years) and $297,000 ($58,000 Fish and Game Preservation Fund, $223,000 Federal Trust Fund, and $16,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) for Black Bear Management, the Forensic Laboratory project and the Hardwood Program.
- 2.5 positions (2.4 personnel years) and $154,000 Reimbursements to review Delta Levee Subvention Plans in compliance with the mandates of Chapter 28, Statutes of 1988.
- $1,090,000 ($90,000 from the Waterfowl Habitat Preservation Account and $1,000,000 from the Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) for the Waterfowl Habitat Preservation program.
- A transfer of $1,000,000 from the Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, to the Waterfowl Habitat Preservation Account. The interest from this account will provide additional revenues for waterfowl habitat projects.
- 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) from a redirection of $135,000 from contract monies within the Augmented Deer Tag Account to assess the effects of population increase and concomitant habitat conversion on deer populations.
- $745,000 reduction in General Fund support and a corresponding increase in California Environmental License Plate Fund support to offset the reduction.
- $724,000 fund shift from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the California Environmental License Plate Fund to fund various activities.
- A $1,048,000 reduction from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, State Duck Stamp Dedicated Account and the Augmented Deer Tags Dedicated Account to more accurately reflect historical expenditure levels.

25 NATURAL HERITAGE

Program Objectives Statement

The program objectives are to conserve native nongame species of wildlife and plants and their habitats at levels sufficient to assure their survival in perpetuity for their intrinsic ecological value and for their aesthetic, educational, and other beneficial uses. Subprograms include maintenance of a statewide inventory of the occurrence of rare and threatened native nongame species and natural communities; identification and protection of endangered and threatened species and significant natural areas; acquisition and management of land; and interpretation of natural diversity for the citizens of the State.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are reflected:

- $976,000 net reduction to the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Dedicated Account, Fish and Game Preservation Fund (reduction of $2,037,000 from the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Dedicated Account, $800,000 redirection of California Environmental License Plate Fund, and an augmentation of $260,000 Federal Trust Fund), and a reduction of 0.6 temporary help positions to address the revenue shortfall in the California Wildlands Program.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 15 positions (14.2 personnel years) and $1,171,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, to increase the level of protection and recovery activities for endangered and threatened species.
- 15 positions (14.2 personnel years) and $321,000 California Environmental License Plate Fund to convert contract staff to permanent staff in the Natural Diversity Database Program.
- $196,000 reduction in General Fund support and a corresponding increase in California Environmental License Plate Fund support to offset the reduction.
- $274,000 California Environmental License Plate Fund to study the demography of the Spotted Owl.
- $500,000 California Environmental License Plate Fund to acquire properties adjacent to the Mott preserve and expand the habitat for the Stephen's Kangaroo Rat.
- $4,000 fund shift from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the California Environmental License Plate Fund to fund various work activities.
- $2,826,000 reduction from the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Dedicated Account, the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, and a reduction of 21.3 positions (20.9 personnel years) to address the revenue shortfall in the California Wildlands program.

3600 DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND GAME—Continued

30 INLAND FISHERIES

Program Objectives and Description

This program provides diversified fishing opportunities for anglers, while ensuring the perpetuation of the State's native fish fauna. The department operates seventeen fish hatcheries for the purpose of producing trout and other game fish species. The fish produced are distributed and planted in various lakes, rivers, reservoirs and streams. Other important program activities are directed toward the management and research of game fish and nongame species (including rare, threatened or endangered fish, amphibians, reptiles and invertebrates), and for the management and protection of their respective environments. Management activities include fish population and habitat inventories, habitat acquisition and improvement, fish population manipulation to increase yield, fish salvage, disease control, development of private aquaculture, and development of angling regulations for resident and migratory fish.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989–90, the following budget adjustments are reflected:

- 4 positions (1 personnel year) and $160,000 ($120,000 Federal Trust Fund and $40,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) to implement Chapter 1400, Statutes of 1989, to assess the restoration potential of degraded Eastern Sierra Trout Streams and to survey the major roadside and trailside trout streams for potential restoration.
- $733,000 reduction from the Striped Bass Stamp Dedicated Account, Fish and Game Preservation Fund, to more accurately reflect historical expenditure levels.

In 1990–91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 5 temporary help positions (4.5 personnel years) and $469,000 ($202,000 Federal Trust Fund and $267,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) to restore and improve the quality of fishing in California's lakes and reservoirs.
- 9 positions (8.8 personnel years) and $466,000 ($349,000 Federal Trust Fund and $117,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) for the restoration of Eastern Sierra Trout Streams.
- $229,000 ($172,000 Federal Trust Fund and $57,000 Reimbursements) to contract with the University of California at Davis to study three fish disease problems and their effects on the commercial and recreational fishing in California.
- $55,000 ($41,000 Federal Trust Fund and $14,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) to assess the restoration potential of three degraded Eastern Sierra trout streams.
- $25,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, to fund the activities of the California Advisory Committee on Salmon and Steelhead Trout pursuant to Chapter 1400, Statutes of 1989.
- $197,000 General Fund reduction and a reduction of 5 positions (4.7 personnel years) due to the completion of the Kaweah Reservoir white bass control program.
- A $562,000 Fish and Game Preservation Fund reduction in the Striped Bass Stamp Dedicated Account to more accurately reflect historical expenditure levels.
- $641,000 reduction in General Fund support and a corresponding increase in the California Environmental License Plate Fund support to offset the reduction.

30.50 Game Species Management, Research, Production and Distribution

Program Element Statement

This element is to insure the perpetuation of California game fisheries in inland waters. Management includes planning, conducting, and reporting on lake and stream surveys, creel censuses and use counts for trout and other game fish. This element provides for the production of fish to meet the demand of California anglers with respect to inland species of game fish. Research includes determining life histories, population dynamics, fish disease transmission, migration and distribution of resident species, etc. Through its network of fish hatcheries, the department propagates and stocks catchable-sized fish (trout, black bass, catfish, etc.), subcatchables and fingerlings in suitable lakes and streams. Production covers rearing, trapping and spawning, compiling hatchery records and preparing cost and production reports. Distribution includes loading, planting and keeping and compiling planting records and preparing planting reports. Also included in this element are planning and evaluating habitat improvements; stream rehabilitation, erosion and weed control; advice to owners of private fishing waters and hatcheries; and monitoring of commercial catches.

40 ANADROMOUS FISHERIES

Program Objectives Statement

The primary purpose of this program is to maintain, restore and improve anadromous fish populations (principally salmon, steelhead, striped bass, shad and sturgeon); provide for their optimum recreational and, where appropriate, commercial harvest; and provide for their educational and scientific use. Where habitat has been lost by water development, hatcheries are operated to replace natural reproduction. The population sizes of key anadromous species are monitored to detect changes in abundance and related causative factors. The Sacramento-San Joaquin Estuary is being studied to determine the optimum way to protect it (and the anadromous fishes that use it) from the effects of water development.

Anadromous fish resources support an estimated 3 million angler days of recreational fishing annually in marine and inland waters, and the salmon resource provides a commercial catch averaging 8 million pounds annually with a current net worth between $40 to $60 million. The contribution of these resources to the economy of the State and the enjoyment of its citizens justifies research and management programs to maintain and improve existing anadromous populations.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 41 positions (39.3 personnel years) and $3,040,000 ($760,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, and $2,280,000 Federal Trust Fund) to implement the Salmon, Steelhead Trout, and Anadromous Fisheries Restoration and Enhancement Program pursuant to Chapter 1545, Statutes of 1988.
- $3,000,000 California Wildlife, Coastal and Park Land Conservation Fund of 1988 for the expansion of the fish hatchery and propagation program.
- $2,000,000 Fish and Game Preservation Fund to increase the natural production of salmon and steelhead trout and increase naturally spawning salmon and steelhead trout resources pursuant to Chapter 1545, Statutes of 1988.

* Dollars in thousands, excluding salary range.

3600 DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND GAME—Continued

- 3 positions (2.8 personnel years) and $181,000 ($9,000 Fish and Game Preservation Fund, $27,000 Federal Trust Fund, and $145,000 Reimbursements) to determine the effects of the Federal and State water projects on the Bay/Delta ecological system.
- $196,000 fund shift from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the California Environmental License Plate Fund to fund various work activities.
- $19,000 reduction in General Fund support and a corresponding increase in California Environmental License Plate Fund support to offset the reduction.

40.40 Game and Commercial Species Management, Research, Production and Distribution

Program Element Statement

Element activities are aimed at maintaining and doubling existing populations of anadromous fish. Management includes planning and monitoring the population sizes, the magnitude and locations of sport and commercial catches; sampling landings of species, size and age information; and protection, maintenance, and improvement of the quality and quantity of spawning habitat. Research includes studying the behavior, life history and populations dynamics of anadromous fish species. The department operates 7 anadromous hatcheries constructed for mitigation purposes by federal, State and private entities to maintain those population segments of anadromous species whose habitat has been impacted by water development and one anadromous, state-operated hatchery for enhancement purposes. These hatcheries produce approximately 21 million salmon and 3.5 million steelhead.

Habitat maintenance and improvement activities include major efforts to replace spawning and nursery habitat, restore access to some 500 miles of existing habitat through barrier removal and installation of fish passage facilities, and screen major and significant water diversions.

50 MARINE RESOURCES

Program Objectives Statement

The objectives of this program are to maintain and enhance marine fish, plant and animal resources and to provide for the optimum harvest of these resources by sport and commercial fishers. Studies monitor the population sizes and fluctuations of marine fish, shellfish, and plants and examine the effects of the environment and human activities on these resources. Techniques are developed to assist private industry in culturing some shellfish species. Management recommendations are developed to protect marine resources and to provide for their wise use and enjoyment.

Budget Adjustments

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 3 positions (2.8 personnel years) and $1,092,000 ($789,000 Federal Trust Fund and $303,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) to implement the Logbook Analysis project, Bay Estuary and Nearshore Ecosystem Study, Artificial Reef project, and the Kelp Forest Restoration project.
- $200,000 ($100,000 Fish and Game Preservation Fund and $100,000 Sea Urchin Account) to continue a legislatively mandated study and to enhance the sea urchin fishery industry.
- $56,000 reduction in General Fund support and a corresponding increase in California Environmental License Plate Fund support to offset the reduction.

50.10 Management and Research for Game Species

Program Element Statement

Management and research activities are conducted to specifically maintain and enhance the various species of marine game fish and plants and to provide for the optimum harvest of these resources by sport and commercial fishers. Management activities include monitoring sport and commercial catches; analyzing data to determine fishing effort and localities; and developing management plans administering mariculture, oyster, and kelp leases on State lands.

60 ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

Program Objectives Statement

The purpose of the Environmental Services program is to avoid or minimize the adverse impacts on fish and wildlife and their habitats from projects affecting the land, waters, and water quality of California. This program evaluates project alternatives and measures to offset or compensate for adverse impacts. Federal and State laws require review by the Department of projects proposed or permitted by Federal, State and local agencies. The review of all these projects and the protection of water quality and quantity mandated by the Fish and Game Code is accomplished in this program. The review work is usually divided between staff of the Environmental Services Division and staff in the other relevant program areas.

Budget Adjustments

In 1989-90, the following budget adjustments are reflected:

- 4 positions (2 personnel years) and $100,000 California Environmental License Plate Fund, to implement Chapter 1241, Statutes of 1989, to conduct water quality monitoring related to stream and lake pollution from timber harvest operations.
- 1 limited-term position (0.5 personnel year) and $750,000 California Environmental License Plate Fund to conduct investigations on Mono Basin streams pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 1241, Statutes of 1989.

In 1990-91, the following budget adjustments are proposed:

- 14 positions (13.3 personnel years) and $926,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, to implement Chapter 1241, Statutes of 1989, to conduct water quality monitoring related to stream and lake pollution from timber harvest operations.
- 9.5 limited-term positions (9 personnel years) and $566,000 California Environmental License Plate Fund to perform reviews mandated by the California Environmental Quality Act.
- 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $199,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, to develop a central coordination effort for water rights review, hydroelectric project reviews, water development and management reviews, and negotiation of water transfers.
- 1.9 positions (1.8 personnel years) and $351,000 ($47,000 California Environmental License Plate Fund and $304,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund) to staff the Granite Canyon Pollution Control Laboratory previously funded from reimbursements and operated by temporary help.
- 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $209,000 Cleanup and Abatement Account, Fish and Game Preservation Fund, to direct and coordinate the investigation of small oil spills and hazardous materials.
- 2 positions (1.9 personnel years) and $92,000 Reimbursements to perform water quality sampling and reviews to satisfy State Water Resources Control Board requirements.
- $100,000 Cleanup and Abatement Account, Fish and Game Preservation Fund, to develop an economic model depicting the monetary value of fish and wildlife resources that can be used in a court of law to obtain remuneration for natural resources damaged or destroyed by oil spills.
- 1.8 limited-term positions (1.7 personnel years) and $61,000 Cleanup and Abatement Account to collect and computerize specific information on marine resources which can be used in the event of an oil spill.
- $312,000 reduction in General Fund support and a corresponding increase in California Environmental License Plate Fund support to offset the reduction.
- $28,000 Cleanup and Abatement Account, Fish and Game Preservation Fund, to provide funds for utilities and service of the gas chromatograph mass spectrometer.
- $233,000 Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, and a reduction of $221,000 from reimbursements for the review of timber harvest plans.
- 1 limited-term position (0.9 personnel year) to conduct Mono Lake Basin stream investigations pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 1241, Statutes of 1989.
- $117,000 fund shift from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the California Environmental License Plate Fund to fund various activities.

60.40 General Environmental Services Activities

Program Element Statement

This element strives to maintain environmental quality at levels suitable for fish and wildlife populations and public use of fish and wildlife. The element includes work performed by staff from all departmental program areas in assisting the review of Federal, State and local governmental projects or activities. This element also provides various activities which are not classified as either "game" or "nongame" or include characteristics of both. Such activities include: support (indirect cost activities); contract services for water projects and water quality; water quality investigation and evaluation; detection and investigation of materials containment and removal of pollutant substances; and studies to determine longterm effects of these circumstances.
